Rev. W. A. Clippinger and wife spent a day or two in our town this week.

The mercury has been dancing among the nineties in the shade for a time past.

Some of the branches of the shade trees are too low for the comfort of pedestrians.

Our people sighed for leafy groves and babbling brooks, on Sunday and Monday.

Altoona boys have a penchant for robbing the tills of the business houses of that city.

The census enumerator of Mapleton reports Michael Sechrist to be one hundred years old.

The Fourth is "over and gone," and the celebrators had a long one—only three days.

After a great deal of bunkum a Hancock and English campaign club has been organized in this town.

The dog poisoner can find plenty of work to do if he puts in an appearance on Church street after ten P. M.

Street Commissioner Miller has given notice to property owners to clean up their gutters and premises.

The compositors of the Juniata Valley have got down to hard work again. Their week's vacation done them good.

Our hotels look bright and captivating, and just the kind to make summer visitors feel comfortable and at home.

Our boys speak highly of the treatment they received from the Vigilant boys, whilst in Altoona on the 5th inst.

The visiting firemen, with one exception, speak in the highest praise of their treatment by the Altoona fire laddies.

The annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State Dental Association will be held in Bellefonte on the 27th, 28th and 29th inst.

And now they talk of building cisterns in different parts of town, to hold sufficient water to outen any conflagration that may visit us.

Coup showed his "devil fish" in Tyrone, Tuesday. He was afraid to show it to the Huntingdon devil, consequently gives us the go-by.

Hadn't Hancock's friends better save a part of their hurrah for the latter part of the campaign, as it has not fairly opened? He will surely need it.

Quite a large portion of our population spent the 5th in Altoona, and notwithstanding the rain, took in all that was to be seen in the Mountain city.

Through the day on the 5th the only observance of the Fourth to be seen on the streets was an unusually large number of drunken men and boys.

The Hollidaysburg authorities permit hog wallows filled with green and slimy mass of filth to be on their thoroughfares. The stench is enough to drive all visitors away.

Our Reformed friends cleared $100.55 over all expenses, at their festival, held a few evenings ago, notwithstanding the very inclement weather they had to contend with.

We have in our sanctum a picture of Gen. Garfield, which shows him as a youth, a soldier and a statesman. After the 4th of March next, we will have a full-size picture of him in the White House.

An effort is being made in this town to have the stores close at 8 o'clock, P. M. This is right. Storekeepers, as well as their clerks, need time for recreation, and we hope the effort will prove successful.

It is stated that a gentleman named Shaffer, residing near Mount Union, this county, while on his way from his home to that town in company with his wife, was seized with a hemorrhage and instantly died.

During the peregrinations of the census enumerator of the Second Ward, this borough, he found 47 persons between the ages of 60 and 70 years; 52 between 70 and 80 years, and 7 between 80 and 90 years.

Mr. John Crawford, the engineer who was killed in the late wreck at Petersburg, was a native of this county, having been born and raised in Shirley township. His father, Adam Crawford, at present resides in Cromwell township.

The editor of the Altoona Sun became Furey-ous, and attempted to knock down one of the bloated stockholders of the concern, the other day. For a time there were lots of fun for the hands and hangers-on of the establishment.

The poetry of Babyhood is turned into the blankest kind of prose when one has to walk the floor all night to the ceaseless music of a colic suffering baby. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup prevents all such scenes and troubles by its unfailing influence.

Some of our patrons are squaring up their newspaper bills, and others would do well to pay their subscription about this time. Other people may, but the printers can't live on wind and promises all the time. Send the ducats and make his heart glad.

Martin A. Schriver and John B. Crawford, the men killed by the Petersburg wreck, a short time ago, were both members of the Employes' Mutual Aid Society of the Middle Division, and their families will receive each the sum of $468, which represent the number of members of the Society.

Rev. Hinkle, of this place, preached a dedication sermon at the Methodist church in Hopewell, Bedford county, Pa., on the 4th inst. After the sermon $800 were raised, $700 of which went to the liquidation of the debt on the parsonage, and the other $100 paying the balance of the church building debt.

Hollidaysburg houses need re roofing badly. Our only wonder is how the town escaped a terrible conflagration in May last, when we know the terrible condition the roofs of the houses of the town are in. Perhaps the Kind Providence takes the same care of worn out and dilapidated towns, as he does of drunken men and little children.

Rev. P. M. Doyle, a former citizen of our town, but now a resident of Mt. Joy, Lancaster county, and pastor of the United Brethren congregation of that town, has been visiting here for several days. Mr. Doyle represented this county in the Legislature during the last session of that body. We understand the Reverend gentleman is well pleased with his new home.

Five members of the Executive Committee of the Juniata Valley Printers' Association, met at Ebensburg on Saturday last, and among the business transacted the Newport Cornet band was selected to discourse the music on the day of the picnic. The Secretary was instructed to prepare, and send out as soon as practical, the necessary blanks, circulars, &c., similar in import to those of last year, to the different printing offices of the valley. The next meeting will be held at Altoona, at the call of the Secretary.

Two weeks ago Mrs. W. S. Robeson, of Pittsburg, whilst en route from this place to the former city, stopped off at Petersburg to visit friends, and her kin missing her, great fears were entertained for her safety. Mrs. R. has been suffering mentally, but in a measure has recovered. Over this condition of his wife, Mr. Robeson has endured great worriment of mind, producing illness and finally mental aberration, and was removed a few days ago to the West Penn hospital, Pittsburg, where he died Friday last. At the time of his death he was foreman of the Keystone Bridge Works, and had accumulated considerable wealth.

The Huntingdon Car Works, of this place, which have been idle for several years past, will soon be in running order, as the amount asked for by Messrs. Blaine Bros., of Columbus, Ohio from our people—$35,000—has been subscribed. A meeting was held Saturday evening, for the election of a Trustee to act for the stockholders, which resulted in the selection of K. Allen Lovell, esq. The money subscribed will be paid in installments. Messrs. Blaine Bros. will erect a foundry adjoining the car works, giving employment to 150 men, their part of the agreement. In a short time the buzz of activity at these works will be felt in our community.

On Friday evening a week ago, a youngman calling himself the "snake man," spread his goods and himself in the Diamond. His swallowing of the reptile drew a crowd, but the crowd didn't pan out the ducats to replete the purse of the s. m. On another corner, a silver-tongued quack doctor, coached by a banjoist with a badly cracked voice, tried hard to induce the crowd he had to purchase his preparations made to cure all manner of pains and aches. He was partially successful, and we opine his dupes wish they had their money back. As the snake man said, "one fool at a time" and he was quiet while the doctor had his say, and the doctor treated the s. m. in the same gentlemanly manner. As it was, it was the beginning of the small urchin's Fourth.

Owing to the wet day the firemen's parade at Altoona was not such a success as the managers would like to have had it. Under the circumstances, it was quite an imposing affair, and one long to be remembered by those who took part in it. Beautiful arches were sprung in different parts of the city, and the bunting of nearly all nations was flung to the breeze in grand profusion. The Vigilants and Good Will boys had beautiful fountains erected in front of their respective engine houses, and it was hard with the general public to decide which deserved the most merit, as both were beautiful beyond cavil. The route of procession was faithfully carried out to the very letter, notwithstanding the bottoms of the streets had fallen out. Ten bands were in line, but very little music, because the musicians had just enough to do to keep themselves from slipping down. The citizens of the Mountain City are highly elated over the affair, notwithstanding the drawback in the weather, and are anxious to try it over again, quite a number having expressed themselves willing to duplicate their subscriptions if the project is again started.

PERSONAL MENTION.—

Ex-Sheriff Henderson has an attack of the "Juniata jigs."

Hon. Harry J. McAteer, of Alexandria was visible hereaways on Monday.

Dr. H. W. Buchanan, of St. Paul, Minn., is spending the heated term with his parents in this place.

Col. Bob Allen was housed for several days in consequence of a sprained ankle, the result of the Tyrone fire.

Master William Steele, son of Hon. J. Irvin Steele, of the Ashland Advocate, is visiting friends in our town.

Our young friend, Geo. W. Zeigler, of York, Pa., was spending last week with friends and acquaintances in this place.

Prof. A. L. Guss spent Saturday and Sunday with his family in this place. He returned to Washington on Monday.

R. A. Orbison, esq., of this place, has received the appointment of assistant to the Assistant Attorney General, at Washington.

Jim Boring says that he would not take Tyrone city, in its entirety, and travel there again at the same rate of speed that he did the morning of the fire.

Geo. W. Price, of the firm of Rohland & Price, has been on the sick list for the past two weeks, suffering from a severe attack of what is known as painter's colic.

We understand that our townsman, Hon. H. G. Fisher, was elected President of the Alumni Association of LaFayette College, at the late commencement of that institution.

Master Robert Pollock, a son of our friend and former fellow citizen, Jno. A. Pollock, esq., who is a student in the Jersey City High School, enjoyed the vacation, in company with a fellow student, by a sail up the North River to Troy. They sailed in a miniature yacht, 9 feet long, and expect to consume three weeks in making the trip.

Mr. Asahel H. Brown, formerly of the "Lick Ridges," who left for the West thirty-six years ago, is now visiting friends here. He is accompanied by his son and daughter, the former of whom is Secretary and Professor of the Chicago Bureau of Phonography, a school for the instruction of short-hand writing. The Professor was just two years old when his parents turned their faces towards sundown. The old gentleman, who is now in his 86th year, is well preserved, and moves along as briskly as many men not half his age. He loves to talk of days lang syne. We wish him and his children a pleasant visit, and a safe return to their Western home.

EYE SURGERY.—For several weeks, Dr. W. F. Fundenberg, of Cumberland, has spent two days in each week operating upon and treating diseased eyes of suffers in this and adjacent counties. Among those afflicted with weak eyes resulting from inflammation and soreness who have been treated, were Uncle Jacob Vanmeter, of Old Fields, Hardy county, Mr. W. J. Babb, of Grant county, and a little son of Capt. J. J. McGinnis, of Piedmont. The first two had both eyes treated, the boy but one. These subjects all underwent the same operation performed upon Mr. F. Lewis, of Grant county, an account of which appeared in the Tribune at the time. Weakness and soreness, itching and a perpetual water flow from the ball, which clogs in the corners, because the natural avenue for its escape has been obstructed. To relieve this accumulation which irritates and inflames the member, Dr. Fundenberg inserts a delicate silver tube in the corner, which extends into the nose's cavity at its base. This affords a drain to the eye and escape for matter collecting in the corners, and a complete artificial substitute for nature's glands.

The delicate operation in each instance was successfully performed.—Keyser (W. Va.) Tribune.

ANNOUNCEMENT.—LIFE OF GENERAL JAMES A. GARFIELD.—The well known publishing house of Hubbard Bros., Philadelphia, have in preparation, and will soon issue, the life of General James A. Garfield, written by his comrade in arms and personal friend, General J. S. Brisbin, of the regular army.—The career of our distinguished candidate has rarely been equaled in points of romantic interest, and the more closely it is studied the more wonderful and inspiring it appears. It furnishes material for a volume of deep and permanent interest and value. We are glad that its preparation has been placed in hands so competent. The brilliant qualities of General Brisbin, both as a soldier and an author, are well known, and his personal relations to General Garfield are such as will give to his narrative the utmost fullness and authority of statement. It will be a book of more than passing interest, and in this respect widely different from ordinary campaign literature. It will be sold only by subscription, and must meet with a very large sale.

THE Preparatory Department of the Pennsylvania State College offers free instruction to all. It is thoroughly organized, and embraces a wide range of studies such as will prepare its students either for successful work in the Collegiate Department or for the duties of intelligent citizens and competent business men in all vocations of life. For full information, address the President, State College, Centre Co., Pa, [july2-1m.

TYRONE FIRE STRICKEN.—A Big Hole Made in the Town—Loss, $125,000; Insurance, $105,000.—About four o'clock last Thurday morning our people pitched out of bed very unceremoniously, the cause being the tolling of the fire alarm for a fire abroad, a telegram having been received from Tyrone stating that the town was on fire in a thickly settled portion of it, and that help was wanted immediately. The Huntingdon steamer with a number of the firemen were sent to the scene at once.

The fire broke out after three o'clock in a livery stable on the City Hotel premises, and in a short time was a mass of ruins. All the contents of the stable, including ten horses, carriages and buggies, were all burned. The third-story of the City Hotel was burned, and the balance of the building, together with the furniture were badly damaged by fire and water. The building is owned by Mrs. Weston, and she states her loss at $6000, with full insurance. Mr. Wooden, who operates the hotel, places his loss at $4000, with $1000 insurance.

Rev. John D. Stewart's frame building adjoining the hotel, on Juniata street, was next licked up by the flames. It was occupied by the Blair County Banking Company, Meminger & Stewart, clothiers, and Dr. Gemmill, as an office. The effects of the Bank, excepting those locked up in the vault, were destroyed. With assistance, Meminger & Stewart were enabled to save the bulk of their stock, and their loss is light and is insured. Dr. Gemmill lost everything in his office, and his loss is $800 with no insurance. The building was valued at $6,000 on which $4,000 insurance had been effected.

The next building burned was a two story one, owned by Jas. T. Owens, and occupied by W. B. Stewart as a dwelling house and shoe store, and Mrs. Black as a notion store. This lady saved most of her goods by removal; no insurance. Stewart's loss is covered by insurance. The building was insured at $1,000.

The next structure to go was a two-story one; owned by Crawford & Brother, and occupied by John W. Thomas as a dwelling, and Smith & Gray, grocers. The latter lost their entire stock, which was lightly insured, while Mr. Thomas lost the most of his effects; he had no insurance. This building stood on the corner of an alley and was a valuable one to its owners. $3,700 insurance had been effected on it.

It was hoped that when the flames reached the alley, that they would be stayed, but not being satisfied with what had been done, they leaped across the alley and soon devoured the large building owned by the heirs of the Wesley Nowlin estate. The building was occupied by Templeton, Crawford & Co. as a dry goods store and their stock was badly damaged by water. In the rear of this structure were several large outbuildings, owned by the same estate, and occupied by the firm as warehouses, which were burned. These buildings with the goods were heavily insured.

In this direction two more houses were destroyed. They belonged respectively to W. Fisk Conrad and Mrs. Rebecca Walker, and were burned to the ground. Conrad's loss is $400, and was insured, while Mrs. Walker loses all.

Going back to the starting-point of the fire, corner of Main and Juniata streets, adjoining the City Hotel, was the three-story brick building recently erected by our editorial friend, Capt. Jones, and known to the world as the Herald building. It was badly demolished by fire and water, and its glory is of the past. Our friend managed to save a portion of some new material, but his types, cases and presses became food for the flames. His loss is astimated at $7,500, with $5,000 insurance in a reliable company. We understand that the destroying of his material will not necessitate the suspension of the Herald for the time being, but that it will herald the news regularly as if never scorched by fire, the which we are glad to note. The first floor was in the occupancy of D. Barket Wilson, formerly of our town, as a book store. By removal, he saved a portion of his stock, and his loss is amply covered by insurance.

After the Herald building was destroyed, the flames caught the two story brick owned by Pat Flynn. It was occupied by the Tyrone Bank, D. Caldwell, insurance agent, and Mr. Mathias. Covered by insurance. The frame building adjoining the above, and owned by the same gentleman, was destroyed. Rooms in this building were occupied by the Postoffice; P. Sneeringer & Sons, tobacconists; G. H. Garner, druggist; the City Hall, and the Tyrone Democrat, Major Stroop, editor. Caldwell and Mathias lost all their office paraphernalia, and had no insurance. Editor Stroop saved nothing from his establishment. His loss is estimated at $2,000 with only $750 insurance. From what we can understand, the Democrat will not again sound the tocsin of war for the Democracy. Garner's loss is put down at $4,000, insurance, $2,000; Sneeringer's loss, $2,000; insurance, $1,000.

After these buildings were burned, the flames licked up three more, one of which was a brick. They were occupied by Van Valzah & Wilson, dry goods; John Scullin, merchant tailor, and I. P. Walton, jeweller. Van Valzah & Wilson places their loss at $8,000, with $5,600 insurance. The building occupied by them was owned by P. Sneeringer, who says his loss will reach $12,000. The burning of this edifice and the loss of his tobacco establishment, makes Mr. P. the heaviest loser by the fire.—$12,000 is Mr. Scullin's loss, with $9 000 insurance, and Mr. Walton's loss—$1,500—is fully insured.

The origin of the fire is a mystery, yet it is believed to have been caused by the incendiary's torch. The larger portion of the buildings being frame, the fire spread rapidly and burat fiercely, and it did not take the citizens long to realize that they were having a terrible conflagration. The fire department of the town was promptly on hand, worked hard, but could not master it, consequently help was dispatched for to this place and Altoona, and after the arrival of the Huntingdon fire department the flames were gotten under control. On the arrival of the Huntingdon steamer, it was at once pulled to the banks of the Bald Eagle Creek, and in forty minutes after the train left the station at Huntingdon, was throwing two heavy streams on the flames.—For the energetic, heroic and the successful fighting of the flames by our firemen, the people of Tyrone are loud in their praises, and many freely admit that a large portion of the town would have been flame-swept had they not promptly responded to the call for help sent them. They were also highly complimented for their true gentlemanly deportment.—Thanks were tendered our boys, by Burgess Jones, on behalf of the citizens, and at the next sitting of Council a formal vote of thanks will be tendered them.

The Vigilant Fire Company and Empire Hook and Ladder Company of Altoona, were at the scene of the fire.

Breakfast was given our firemen on their arrival, and during the progress of the burning, coffee and sandwiches were served out to them. The drinking saloons, by order of the Burgess, were kept closed.

Work has already been commenced on the burnt district, and in a short time new buildings will rise from the ashes of the old ones.

The whole loss is stated at $125,000; total insurance, $105,000.

IMPORTANT SURGICAL OPERATION.—On Saturday, Dr. W. F. Fundenberg, our oculist, operated upon Mrs. Josiah Tewell, of Centerville, Bedford county, Pennsylvania, for the removal of her right eye, the sight of which has been entirely lost since three years from what cause is not known. For the past year or so the eye has been giving her very much pain, and recently has been much worse, endangering the sight of the sound one to such an extent as to justify the removal of the blind one, which operation was successfully performed, the patient being under the influence of chloroform. She returned home to-day fully recovered from the effects of the operation and will come back in a few weeks to have an artificial one inserted.—Cumberland Times.

HAPPILY DISAPPOINTED.—Disappointments are frequently grievous to bear, but having received letters almost daily from parties who have been "happily disappointed" we relate their experience which will be profitable for every one to remember. Thousands have written to the proprietors of Kendall's Spavin Cure, stating that they began using it without any faith that it would cure spavins, but had been happily disappointed as it had completely cured the spavin and removed the bunch without blistering, and after using it for various purposes, all state freely that they find it the very best liniment ever used for any lameness on beast or man. Please read the advertisement for Kendall's Spavin Cure.

This preparation is made from the roses of the Valley of Cashmere, and is entirely free from Sulphur, Lead, and other poisonous and irritating substances. It is richly perfumed, and renders the use of powders, hair oils, &c., unnecessary. It preserves, softens and beautifies the hair and gives it a rich lustre. Ask your grocer for Aschenbach & Miller's celebrated powdered made from the finest grade chocolate bean that grows, and possessing the following advantages: No scraping required; no waste as in the case of tea, coffee, and chocolate in cakes, is not nauseating, but on the contrary agreeable to the weakest stomach; can be used in warm weather as it contains no heating properties; the most economical as it requires less for a drink than any other; well adapted to dyspeptics as the oil is extracted, which fact also enables it to dissolve and impart its strength immediately upon being placed in scalding water without the usual process of boiling up first.
