

MARRIED:

On Thursday last, by the Rev. Henry A. Rand, Mr. John Modder, of North Middleton township to Miss Mary Shambach, of Frankford township.

COMMUNICATED.

DIED.—In Silver Spring township, on the 23d instant, after a short but painful illness, Mrs. Margaret Stouffer, in the 39th year of her age, leaving an affectionate husband and a large family of children, and an extensive connection of friends and relatives to mourn this sudden and unexpected bereavement. The deceased filled up the measure of her suffering in this vale of tears with a great degree of fortitude and christian resignation. To those who attended her during her illness, she expressed a full, sincere and entire confidence in the merits of a crucified Redeemer, and the hope of a blissful immortality beyond the grave, beseeching those who were weeping over her, to weep not for her for she was going where there was rich provisions made for her, and where there was no trouble, sorrow, sickness or death, that this world afforded her no more pleasure; her affections were weaned from it and her whole desire was to depart and be with Christ, which is far better. Thus she calmly sunk to rest without a struggle or a sigh, to rise no more until the heavens shall pass away and the earth be no longer.

And we have parted! thou art gone! Thy young spirit breaths in sleep— So peacefully it seemed a sin to weep. In those fond watchers, who around the stood, And felt even then, that God was greatly good. Like stars that struggle through the shades of night. Thine eyes one moment caught a glorious light, As if to thee in that dread hour 'twas given To know on earth what faith believes in heaven: Then like tried breezes did'st thou sink to rest, Nor one, one mused the awful change confessed. Death stole in softness o'er thy lovely face, And touch'd each feature with a new-born grace; All—all, in good time, who placed us here, To live; to love, to die—to disappear. Shall come and make their quiet bed with thee, Beneath the shadow of that spreading tree; With thee to sleep through Death's long dream- less night. With thee to rise up, and bless the morning light.
