We know that health, and the ability to labor is the wealth of the great mass of the headle in this as in most other countries. To preserve, therefore, that health by MATURAL means, is a grand moral and political scheme, to july which requires our utmost attention. THE upparalleled roputation which Peters' is the most unquestionable proof that can be given of their immense importance to the afflicted, in almost every class of diseases. The number plaints which they have cured are almost as va- ried as they are numerous.
