PENN'A. LEGISLATURE.

HARRISBURG, May 15, 1839. In the House, Mr. Flenniken presented a re-monstrance, signed by citizens of Berks county, against the extension of the Philadelphia and ading Railroad.

Mr. Brittain, from Select Committee, report-ed a bill in relation to the fisheries in the river Delaware. The resolution passed by the House Bustamente arrived at San Luis Potosi on Delaware. The resolution passed by the House at the former part of the session, authorising the Governor to subscribe $300,000 the styck of the Union Canal Company, and amended by the Senate, was considered and the amendments non-concurred in. The resolution now stands as passed by the House, which provides only for an appropriation to the Union Canal Company. The joint resolution efferted by Mr. Rypany. The joint resolution offered by Mr. Ry-an a few days since, providing for the election of United States Senator, was taken up in Commit-tee of the Whole, at the suggestion of the Speaker. The committee rose, and was refused leave to sit again. The whole subject being by this course before the House on second reading, Mr. Ryan moved that the further consideration be postponed, which was agreed to.

The joint resolution, giving authority to the Commissioners of the Northern Liberties, Spring for having fled from the army at Tuspan, Garden and Kensington, to subscribe to the erecion of the proposed bridge over the river Schuylkill at Fairmount, was taken up and passed.— The bill in relation to certain officers was again taken up, and Mr. Morton's amendment being that the government troops are encamped under consideration, the remainder of the morning session was consumed in debate upon it by the members who discussed it on vesterday.

ing session was consumed in debate upon it by the members who discussed it on yesterday.

The Speaker suggested that if the friends of this amendment would agree to a provision, that the question be submitted to the people next election for their decision, whether the Canal Commissioners shall be thus elected, he would vote—but for the present, recommended that some member move for adjournment, which was done and agreed to—so the House adjourned again without taking the question upon the amendment.

The nomination of Mr. Van Amringe, as Recorder of Pittsburg, was confirmed—yeas 27, pays none.

The bill to pay the troops came up in order.
The amendment of Mr. Fraley, (city) to give the troops three months pay, was under consideration—Mr. Fraley spoke in favor of his amendment, and stated as a reason why they should be paid for that time, that many of their troops from the peculiar circumstances of their situafrom the peculiar circumstances of their situa-tion while here, having left their homes too at but a few hours notice, they had suffered great loss in the despoiling of their uniforms and e-quipments, &c., and that many of them were now in all health househear har. now in ill health, brought on by exposure on that occasion, besides the loss of business, &c. The committee in the case of Mr. Stevens has made no progress as yet. Mr. Spackman was cited to appear as a witness, but thus far has disregarded the summons.

Harrisburg, May 16, 1839. Mr. Pray, a memorial praying for the incorporation of Penn in Penntownship. Mr. Sheriff presented the memorial of Eliza B. Runnels, asking to be admitted to a seat in the House; to represent the county of Adams, in the place of Mr. Stevens. On motion of Mr. G. R. Smith, the memorial was referred to the committee in the case of Mr. Stevens—subsequently on the motion of Hegins, the committee were discharged from the consideration of this farcical subject.

Mr. Reynolds offered a resolution, that the louse meet at 8 o'clock A. M. which was disa."

Mr. Reynolds offered a resolution, that the House meet at 8 o'clock A. M. which was disagreed to by a large vote.

Mr. Morton's amendment to the bill, relating to 'certain officers, whose election or appointment is not provided for in the amended constitution, was negatived—yeas 36, pays 53.

Mr. Spackman then offered an amendment, providing that the mode of choosing Canal Commissioners, should be decided by a vote of the people, on the last Tuesday of July next—Col. McElwee moved the previous question, which being sustained, the first and only section of the bill passed. Upon the question, on the adoption of the preamble, Mr. Crabb moved a similar amendment, when Mr. Smith of Franklin moved the previous question, which was also sustained—and the whole bill as reported, was passed through second reading—Mr. Hill of Westmore land, voted for Mr. Morton's amendment.

Senate.—The nomination of Thomas S. Bell, Esq. as President Judge, was confirmed. All the members of the Senate voted in favor except Mr. Barchaylarior.

Mr. Barclay, who declined to vote on the question.—Pennsylvanian.

Execution,—From the N. Orleans Times we learn that Stokes, alias Johnson, & Meers, two of the men who attacked Recorder Baldwin on the shell road last year, with intent to kill, were to be executed on Wednesday week. Carver, the other individual engaged in the robbery and attempt to murder, has been reprieved until the next session of the legislature.
