

We were mistaken last week in as- serting that the Knight of the back window was selected as one of the Harrison electors.

Thaddeus says "the people of Adams county have more intelligence than the people of any other county in the State!"

Thaddeus calls the democratic members of the Legislature "tyrants" yet he wants badly to take his seat among them and play tyrant too!

The Democrats of Adams have placed in nomination JAMES M'DRIRT, Esq. as a candidate for the Legislature in opposition to Thaddeus Stevens.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes IMPROVEMENT BILL, Columbia Rail-road, Reservoirs eastern & western sides, Locomotive Engine and Ropes, Damages, Repairs on the Eastern, Susquehanna, Juniata, Western, Northern, Delaware and Lackawana branches, etc.

New Hampshire.—This sterling democratic Commonwealth is sound to the core. At the election recently held, the following is the vote for members of Congress: (the highest vote on each ticket is given.)

ABOLITIONISM.

It is too common with mankind, after a great excitement on any subject to let it drop entirely. So has it been with the opponents of those vile fanatics of the North, who would sow the seeds of discord among our Southern brethren.

We warn our friends North and South not to be deceived by the apparent calm in this abolition sea. Though the waves rise not, and the winds are hushed, yet, like the still waters, let us be cautioned by the dark clouds that are seen floating in the still atmosphere, loaded with pestilence, leath, and destruction.

Thaddeus is going to try the course once more. He has proclaimed himself a candidate for the special election, and calls upon the faithful to 'vote the mark' in good earnest.

Thaddeus says, that both his inclination [we don't believe it,] and his interest require him to retire from public life—he ought to have added, and the public interest IMPERIOUSLY DEMANDS IT.

We give place to the following, as being the sentiments of a large and highly respectable body of our citizens, although we think the language made use of rather strong—particularly in the third resolution, which (if we construe it rightly) goes to denounce the representatives from this county for not doing what we believe they would be impossible to do, viz: securing as much pay for the Cumberland troops as was appropriated to the Philadelphia Volunteers.

MILITARY MEETING.

Pursuant to public notice given, the members and officers attached to the 1st Battalion of Cumberland Volunteers, 11th Division P. M. who marched to Harrisburg in December last, by order of the Governor, met at the house of Maj. Rehner on Saturday evening 1st June, and was organized by appointing Capt. SAMUEL CROP, President; Lieut. GEORGE MURRAY and Sergt. JACOB SHILLING, Vice Presidents, and Sergt. James W. Kelly Secretary.

The object of the meeting having been stated by Lieut. Alfred Creigh, and the bill for the pay of the troops read—on motion Capt W. Moody, Lieut. R. McCartney, Lieut. A. Creigh, Lieut. J. Hamilton, Sergt. A. S. Lyne, C. Crop and L. Keller were appointed a Committee to report resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting.

Resolved, That the members of the detachment of Volunteers of the 11th Division, who marched to Harrisburg under the orders of the Governor in December last were actuated alone by a sense of duty and without a thought on the subject of pay, yet as the question of pay has become the subject of legislation, and a distinction has been made, without cause of reason, between us and the detachment from the first division, we are bound by a proper sense of self respect to express the feelings which we cannot but entertain on the subject.

Resolved, That although the Volunteers of Cumberland county have always been prompt to perform any duty required of them and that from any other than selfish motives, yet we cannot doubt, that the unjust distinction made by our Legislature between the rich men, the merchants and professional men of the city and the humble farmer and young mechanics of the country, must and will damp the ardour and paralyze the efforts of the country volunteers, who cannot but feel as we do, deeply, the invidious and insulting distinction.

Resolved, That the inequality of this legislation is the more glaring, when it is remembered that by law we were allowed, at all events, to at least as much as the Legislature have granted us. We owe them no thanks.

Resolved, That while we fearlessly express our feelings of detestation and disgust at the conduct of the Legislature, as a body, in this matter, we ought more especially to declare our contemptuous reprehension of the craven and treacherous spirit of those whose especial duty it was to defend our honor, but who gave their sanction to the odious distinction.

Resolved, That altho' as citizens we act and vote with different parties and divisions of parties, yet in these sentiments we are as one man, repudiating all politics and freely declaring our opinion and feelings of the conduct of friends and foes, regardless of their past distinctions.

Interesting Cure PERFORMED by Dr. H. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Rufus Virginius, or Wild Cherry.—Having made use of this invaluable Syrup in my family, which entirely cured my child. The symptoms were Wheezing and Choking of Phlegm, difficulty of breathing, attended with constant cough, spasms, convulsions, &c. of which I had given up all hopes of its recovery, until I was advised to make a trial of this invaluable medicine. After seeing the wonderful effects it had upon my child, I concluded to make the same trial upon myself, which entirely relieved me of a cough that I was afflicted with for many years. Any person wishing to cure a cough at my house in Beach street, above the Market, Kensington, JOHN WILLCOX. Philadelphia, Dec 7, 1838.

The above medicine is for sale by J. J. MYERS & Co., Carlisle.

DYSPEPSIA! DYSPEPSIA!!

MORE testimonials of the efficacy of Dr. Wm. Evans' Camomile Pills. Philadelphia, Dec. 19, 1838. Sir.—Being on a visit, to Philadelphia, from my native village of Germantown, I joyfully avail myself of the opportunity of adding a few words of recommendation to your celebrated Pills, to the abundant testimony already given in their favor. About four years ago, I was attacked with Dyspepsia, and for several years suffered from that complaint in its worst stages. Notwithstanding I tried every thing that came before the public, I obtained no relief, till I accidentally saw your advertisement. From the numerous and respectable testimonials which accompanied it, I had some faint hopes that your medicine might not prove altogether useless in my own case. I tried it, and it is scarcely necessary to add was shortly cured. Indeed the success was greater than I could possibly have anticipated from even the warmest recommendation. As a full return for the benefit you have bestowed, I send you this acknowledgment of my thanks and the deep sense of obligation under which I feel myself toward you. Having implicit confidence in the efficacy of your Camomile Pills, and feeling it due to my fellow sufferers, I would warmly entreat all who may be afflicted with their complaint, to try the influence of that scourge of the human family, Dyspepsia, to lay aside their early prejudices against such remedies, and apply to you, that they may receive a speedy and permanent restoration. I still reside in Germantown, though I frequently visit the city, and will willingly give any further information that may be desired. Recr. gratefully yours, T. B. WILLIAMS.
