TO BRIDGE BUILDERS. FRANCIS GOOD'S IMPROVEMENT IN BRIDGES. FRANCIS GOOD, of the township of New London, in the county of Chester, and state of Pennsylvania, obtained Letters patent for an improved plan of erecting bridges over streams of water.

The plan combines strength and permanency with economy, so much so as not to require the expense of more than one half of the cost of erecting a Bridge on this plan, and which would not be liable to be injured by a freshet, or rise in the stream; the Bridge being constructed and secured in such a manner, that if the water should rise so high as to run over the top of it, the Bridge would remain firm and secure.

Francis Good has been honored by a number of scientific men, who all pronounce it a great improvement. One on this plan has been erected over a branch of Whiteley creek, in the township of Londongrove, which received the approbation of a Jury appointed by the court to view the same.

The subscriber having purchased the right of the above plan, and is desirous to erect a Bridge on this plan, and which would not be liable to be injured by a freshet, or rise in the stream; the Bridge being constructed and secured in such a manner, that if the water should rise so high as to run over the top of it, the Bridge would remain firm and secure.

PETERS' PILLS. THE TRUE RICHES OF LIFE IS HEALTH. We know that health, and the ability to labor is the wealth of the great mass of the people in this as in most other countries.

THE unparalleled reputation which Peters' Pills have acquired as a Medical Restorative, is the most unquestionable proof that can be given of their immense importance to the afflicted, in almost every class of disease.

It is well known that from the disarrangement of the stomach and bowels, arise nine tenths of all the maladies of adult and declining life; that this is the fountain of Febricity, Spasmodic Pains, Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, &c., and that these in their turn give birth to Dropsy, Liver Complaint, Consumption, and habitual lowness of spirits; therefore Peters' Pills being the very best medicine which has ever been discovered for the incipient diseases of the system, and necessarily the source of the cure of the most dangerous, and also general disorders, which embitter mature life; and drag so many millions to untimely graves.

In speaking thus Dr. Peters arrogates nothing to himself that has not been conceded by the public. He comes before the world as his own herald and witness, and is placed in a responsible situation by the patronage which he has enjoyed for years; and which is increasing to an extent unprecedented in the annals of medicine, that makes him careful to arrest nothing which is not borne out by the most infallible proofs; and hence he does not fear to put to the test in any thing which he has promised respecting his Pills.

Dr. Peters is most happy to be able to state, on the authority of a great number of regular physicians, that wherever his Vegetable Pills have been introduced, they have almost superceded the adoption of mercurial experiments; and necessarily the source of the cure of the most dangerous, and also general disorders, which embitter mature life; and drag so many millions to untimely graves.

Because they are not a quack medicine, but the scientific compound of a regular physician, who has made his profession the study of his life. Because they are not unpleasant to take, not distressing to retain, while they are most effective to operate.

Because they are recommended as standard medicine by the regular faculty. Because by keeping the system in a natural state of action, they cure almost every disease which is incident to the human frame.

Because they are cheap and portable, and will retain all their virtues in full vigor, in any climate; and for any length of time.

Because, notwithstanding their simplicity and mildness, they are one of the speediest purgative medicines which has yet been discovered.

Because they are an unfailing remedy for procuring a good appetite.

Because in cases of spleen or despondency, by their healthy influence on the excited state of the body, they have a most happy effect, in calming, and invigorating the mind.

Because they effect their cures without the usual attendants of other pills, sickness and gripings.

Because as well as being an unrivaled purifier of the general system, they are a sovereign remedy for sick head-ache.

Because they differ from the majority of medicines in the fact that more they are known the more they are approved.

Because their application creates no debility in the system, they may be taken without producing any hindrance to business or the usual pursuits of every day life.

Because when once introduced into a family, or a village, they almost immediately take the precedence of all other medicines in general complaints.

Because a number of the wonderful cures they have effected, can be substantiated without any undue means being resorted to, to procure invalid testimony.

Because their composition is such, that they are equally applicable to the usual diseases of warm, cold, or temperate climates.

Because two or three, are in general sufficient for a dose—so that, as is the case with the generality of patent medicines—the patient is not compelled to make a trial of them.

Because each individual pill is put up under the immediate superintendence of the proprietor; so that no mistake in the composition or quantity can possibly occur through the carelessness of a less interested agent.

Because they purify the frame without debilitating the system.

Because, notwithstanding their immense popularity, no person has ever ventured to raise against them the breath of censure, which would not have been the case, if any could have discovered in them a single flaw to cavil at.

Because—and this fact is of the utmost importance—ladies in a certain situation may take them, (not more than two or three at a time however) without in the slightest degree incurring the hazard of abortion. We are the virtues of Peters' inestimable pills, confined to this desirable end alone, it would give them a decided advantage over the medicines of all competitors, as in no cases is it necessary to be apprehended, or for which so few have been discovered, as the one referred to.

Because while they are so efficient in their operations with adults they may at the same time be administered to children and even to infants, in small quantities, half a pill for instance, without the slightest danger.

Because their virtues are acknowledged to stand pre-eminently for their soothing influence upon young ladies while suffering from the usual changes of life, as directed by the laws of Nature. Dec. 6.
