Philadelphia, Dec. 19, 1838.

Sir:—Being on a visit to Philadelphia, from my native village of Germantown, I joyfully avail myself of the opportunity of adding a few words of recommendation to your celebrated Pills, to the abundant testimony already, given in their favor. About four years ago, I was attacked with Dyspepsia, and for several years suffered from that complaint in its worst stages. Notwithstanding I tried every thing that came before the public, I obtained no relief, till I accidentally saw your advertisement. From the cidentally saw your advertisement. From the numerous and respectable testimonials which accompanied it, I had some faint hopes that your medicine might not prove altogether use-less in my own case. I tried it, and it is scarcely necessary to add was shortly cured. Indeed the In Virginia for carrying on the business on an extensive scale, as there is abundant room and the materials are ample. UACKS & THEIR DESTRUCmony of physicians throughout the United States has fully, proved the fact that Peters' Vegetable Pills are the only true Vegetable Pills which will stand the test of analyzation; hence the proprie or would most earnestly urge them to the notice of those wine have been in the about of using, as catharties or aperients, the destructive and irritating quack pills so generally advertised, and which are at best but slow consumers of the vital functions, and amunderous agents, even to the most hale. It is true, most of them produce a purgative effect, and sometimes transient relief, but in most cases they injure the digestive or-gans, and an habitual resort to them must terdebility.

The efficacy of these Pills is so well known, and their use so general, that further comment is considered unnecessary.

For using Dr. Peters' Celebrated Kegetable

5 Because they are recommended as standard medicine by the regular faculty.
6 Because they exping the system in a natural state of action, they cure almost every disease which is incidental to the human frame.
7 Because they are cheaptand portable, and will retain all their virtues in full vigor, in any climate; and for any length of time:
8 Because, notwithstanding their simplicity and mildness, they are one of the speediest purgative medicines which has yet been discovered.
9 Because they are an unfailing remedy for procuring a good appetite.
10 Because in cases of spleen or despondency, by their healthy influence on the excited state of the body, they have a most happy effect, in calming, and invigorating the mind.
11 Because they effect their cures without

12 Because as well as being an unrivalled purifier of the general system, they are a sovereign remedy for sick head-ache.

13 Because they differ from the majority of medicines, in the fact that the more they are known the more they are approved.

14 Because as their application creates no debility in the system, they may be taken without producing any hindrance to business or the usual pursuits of every day life.

15 Because when once introduced into a family, or a village, they almost immediately take they precedence of all other medicines in general complaints.

In speaking thus Dr. Peters arrogates nothing popularity, no person has ever ventured to raise against them the breath of censure, which would populariny, no person has ever ventured to raise against them the breath of censure, which would not have been the case, if envy could have discovered in them a single flaw to cavil at.

23 Because—(and this fact is of the utmost importance)—ladies in a certain situation may take them, (not more than two or three at a time however!) without in the slightest degree incurring the hazard of abortion. Were the virtues of Peters' inestimable pills, confined to this desirable end along—it—would give them a decided advantage over the me dicines of all condecided advantage over the medicines of all con-petitors, as in no cases is there more danger to be apprehended, or for which so few have been discovered, as the one referred to, 23 Because while they are so t flicient in their operations with adults they may at the same tin e operations with audition and even to infants, in small quantities, half a pill for instance, without the slightest danger.

24 Because their virtues are agknowledged to stand pre-eminent, for their southing is fluence upon young ladies while suffering from the usual changes of life, as directed by the laws of Naure.
