

"ALL'S WELL!"

The Sober Second Thought of the People!

KENTUCKY ELECTION.

The Louisville Advertiser of the 7th inst. says: By the following statement it will be perceived that this Congressional District promises to vindicate its moral character.

Table showing election results for Jefferson, Nuttall's majority 639, and Trimble and Henry 496.

Nuttall's majority 47

Throughout the several counties Mr. Nuttall is evidently gaining. Let his friends move in the city and his election will be sure.

The Cincinnati papers state that the returns from several of the precincts of Campbell and Boone counties, for the first day, show no falling off in Mr. Southgate's (whig) vote from what it was two years ago.

TENNESSEE.

Nashville, 3d Aug. 1839. Mr. PENN—All is well in this State. Mr. Clay and the gag bill have brought the people to the sober second thought.

Table showing poll counts for Bedford, Sumner, Rutherford, Manry, Dickson, Warren, Lincoln, Franklin, Hickman, Gibbs, and Washington.

Polk's majority in seventeen counties, 6,089.

In 1837 these gave Col. Clinch a majority of 4,793 votes over Armstrong. Administration gain 10,882.

Letter to the editor of the Baltimore Republican, dated 1st August 6, 1839. The third Congressional District is safe.

Messrs. Editors—Casting my eye, on last evening, over the Herald I observed an editorial article that struck me as being peculiarly indicative of the character of that "whiskered pander," who enjoys the delectable position of a hired sander to that aristocratic print.

During the absence of the Committee, the meeting was ably and eloquently addressed by the Hon. W. S. Ramsey.

it, I should be inclined to believe the article thine. But these characteristics (for they are indeed peculiar) plainly point it out as the production of that renowned Senator who was held up to the scorn and detestation of honest men—and who was almost flayed alive by that able exposé of his doings—"Millin." Long has he hoarded up his vengeance, and now in the absence of his intended victim, he makes you the pitiful conduit pipe through which he voids his malignant hate.

GREAT DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

In pursuance of public notice, a very large and highly respectable meeting of the Democratic Republicans of Cumberland county was held at the Court House, on Monday evening last, the 12th inst.

Resolved, That we approve of the administration of Martin Van Buren; that we believe it to be in accordance with the principles of former democratic administrations—that we believe the interest of our party and welfare of the nation require his re-election to the Presidency.

Resolved, That we approve of the administration of David R. Porter; that we see in him a zeal to promote the best interest of the State and to carry out the public will.

Resolved, That we approve of the independent treasury scheme as the best calculated to regulate and control an army of banks, and as the safest depository of the public funds.

Resolved, That we condemn the administration of Joseph Ritner—that it has disgraced the character of our State by its illegal and unconstitutional acts—by its practising fraud and corruption—by its shameless encouragement of slander and defamation—by its wicked attempt to prevent members and senators from obtaining their seats according to the constitution and laws, and to prevent the inauguration of David R. Porter who was elected governor by a majority of votes of more than ten thousand.

Resolved, That we approve of the conduct of the democratic senators and representatives at Harrisburg in December last, in firmly resisting the illegal, unconstitutional, and revolutionary acts of an expiring and disgraced administration.

Resolved, That we approve of the conduct of the people at the seat of government and throughout the State during the buckshot war, in their manly and bold resolves and denunciations of the leaders of that disgraced and disgraceful administration whilst attempting to subvert the constitution & laws under the protection of the bayonet and cannon.

Resolved, That the democracy of Pennsylvania is under lasting obligations to President Van Buren for his refusal to furnish our late imbecile executive and his wicked and corrupt advisers, with a hired soldiery to butcher our peaceful citizens and destroy our government.

Resolved, That as democrats and citizens of Pennsylvania we are proud of our distinguished representative—the Hon. James Buchanan. His long experience in public affairs, his eminent talents and devotion to the cause of the people have already pointed him out to the democracy of the Keystone State, as a fit and suitable successor to President Van Buren in 1844.

Resolved, That we have full faith and confidence in the capacity & integrity of William S. Ramsey, Esq. our representative in Congress—that he will represent us honestly and with ability.

Resolved, That we condemn and reprobate the unfounded and slanderous insinuations against his character which lately appeared in the Herald and Expositor of this place.

Resolved, That we earnestly protest against the suicidal policy pursued by the national administration, in retaining in office political enemies who use the influence their official stations confer to defame and prostrate their benefactors.

Resolved, That the whig, antiaustrian proscription lately exercised in Pennsylvania, which extended even to the humble laborers on our public works, demands of every friend of the national administration, in Pennsylvania, to ask that so far as Pennsylvania is concerned the grievance of which we complain be redressed.

Resolved, That we earnestly remind our democratic fellow citizens of Cumberland county, of the importance of the coming election, and of attending the primary meetings for the election of delegates to form a County Ticket; and also of the necessity of union and concert of action in the support of the ticket formed by the convention, as the only means to secure success and the triumph and perpetuity of republican principles against the treasonable plots of a reckless minority who have recently attempted to usurp and retain power, against the fiat of the ballot box, the constitution, and the laws.

The meeting was then addressed by Dr. Ira Day, in a few pertinent remarks—when, on motion of Col. McClure, the following resolution was added to the report of the Committee:

Resolved, That these proceedings be signed by the officers of the meeting and published.

(Signed by the officers.)

It terminated in an attempt at revolution and bloodshed—in a series of unconstitutional acts—in cowardice and disgrace. PENNSYLVANIA INCORPORATIONS. From a report made to the house of Representatives, at its last session, by the secretary of the commonwealth, we learn that the amount of banking capital authorized in the state, is $67,450,000, of which $35,000,000, or more than ONE HALF, is held by the United States Bank—Whilst the members of the legislature of Pennsylvania abided by the old German rule of restraining corporations, we citizens west of Market street, Philadelphia, do not alt the fluctuations in the currency, so frequent for the last few years.

THE YANKEES BEAT!

THE undersigned challenges the U. States to produce the equal of his PORTABLE HORSE POWER, for beauty, stability, lightness and economy are combined to a greater extent than in any other hitherto invented.

The motion is regulated to the natural walk of the horses, and will give the machine its proper motion with a pulley on the cylinder about eight inches in diameter, which is of vast importance to prevent the band from slipping, and is a good guide for a farmer to tell how much motion a power has.

Among numerous other advantages which the above machine possess over all others now in use are the fixtures for greasing every part subject to friction, every pivot having a cup sufficiently large to contain half a gill of oil, with a light cover to keep the contents perfectly clean, which furnishes each pivot with an ample supply of oil at all times, so that after the machine has been used a day or two eight hundred or a thousand sheaves may be thrashed without stopping or injuring any part of the machine.

The undersigned has frequently seen more metal worn off in thrashing two hundred sheaves for want of oil than would have thrashed several large crops with proper care and attention.

During the past year upwards of fifty of the above machines have been sold in this and Union county, several of which have been thrashing almost constantly during the thrashing season and as a test for their superior claims to durability, the cost for repairs on the whole number has not exceeded fifty cents.

Notwithstanding there have been, comparatively speaking, no repairs needed, yet so far from being any disadvantage, the customary rule of taking less care to have them well built when once introduced, has made several important additions calculated to add materially to the strength and durability of the same, but that none may be under the necessity of plunging implicit confidence in the above statement without further evidence, the undersigned would refer them to the following persons who have bought machines of him, viz: R. H. D. Woods, Esq., Capt. S. Woods, David R. Glenn, Wm. Kerr, John Paul, Nathan Woods, John Stuart, John McGehee, A. W. Sterrett, E. Sterrett, S. Woods, Jr., S. Sowers & H. Smith.

Any persons wishing to purchase or see the above machines are invited to call at the shop of the undersigned in West Pomfret street, Carlisle.
