

AMERICAN VOLUNTEER.

CARLISLE: THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1839.

OUR FLAG. "Now our flag is flung to the wild wind free. Let it float o'er our fatherland."

FOR PRESIDENT IN 1840, MARTIN VAN BUREN, AND AN INDEPENDENT TREASURY.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

Assembly, ABRAHAM SMITH M'KINNEY, of Hopewell, JOHN ZIMMERMAN, of Monroe.

Commissioner, ALEXANDER M. KERR, of Frankford. Director of the Poor, SAMUEL ECKLES, of Allen.

Auditor, THOMAS H. BRITTON, of Southampton. Prothonotary, GEORGE SANDERSON, of Carlisle.

Register, ISAAC ANGNEY, of Carlisle. Recorder and Clerk of the Courts, WILLIS FOULK, of South Middleton.

The presentation of the mis-called Grand Jury of Dauphin county and the replication of the Attorney General will be found in another part of this paper, to which we invite the attention of all our readers.

Our readers will have to excuse the lack of variety in the Volunteer from now until the election. The campaign promises to be an unusually exciting one, and we shall spare no pains to meet the enemy man to man at every point they may have the temerity to assail.

Gentle reader! have you perused the last number of the organ of "all the decency" of Old Mother Cumberland? If you have not we beg you to provide yourselves with a pair of tongs and a smelling bottle, and thus armed, examine at such a distance as your nostrils will permit, this most villainously vile nuisance, which seems to have become the spillover of the loafing vagabonds who surround the "talented Senator," and expectorate upon its surface the morbid humors of festering corruption.

Look again, and you may observe crouching beneath his footstool, the servile slave of want and starvation, who, bankrupt himself in name and fame, catches with a greedy ear the hissing accents of impotent wrath, hoping to earn his two pence per line for every character murdered and every reputation blackened.

Look again, and you may observe crouching beneath his footstool, the servile slave of want and starvation, who, bankrupt himself in name and fame, catches with a greedy ear the hissing accents of impotent wrath, hoping to earn his two pence per line for every character murdered and every reputation blackened.

Look again, and you may observe crouching beneath his footstool, the servile slave of want and starvation, who, bankrupt himself in name and fame, catches with a greedy ear the hissing accents of impotent wrath, hoping to earn his two pence per line for every character murdered and every reputation blackened.

Look again, and you may observe crouching beneath his footstool, the servile slave of want and starvation, who, bankrupt himself in name and fame, catches with a greedy ear the hissing accents of impotent wrath, hoping to earn his two pence per line for every character murdered and every reputation blackened.

Look again, and you may observe crouching beneath his footstool, the servile slave of want and starvation, who, bankrupt himself in name and fame, catches with a greedy ear the hissing accents of impotent wrath, hoping to earn his two pence per line for every character murdered and every reputation blackened.

must, sooner or later, be sealed by the insulted laws of the land, which in the mountains and valleys cry aloud for vengeance upon false-hearted conspirators and traitors.

The hired slanderer of the Herald expresses wonderful anxiety for what he is pleased to call "the county democrats." He wishes to make a division in our ranks by creating local prejudices.

The hired slanderer of the Herald expresses wonderful anxiety for what he is pleased to call "the county democrats." He wishes to make a division in our ranks by creating local prejudices.

Now who has the unstrung traitor directed to offer in opposition to the democratic nominees? Whence come the briefless pettifogger, and the heartless dolt, whose modest aspirations reach only to the public service? Whence also comes the whiskey-making candidate for Director of the Poor?

The liberality of democratic feeling and thought, differs essentially from the narrow minded course of the Buckshotonian party. Among democrats the consciousness of republican spirit and action, worth and fitness, make up the qualities which command a ready and willing support in the elector.

THE FIVE FOOLISH VIRGINS.

The imbecility patched together by the Antimasonic-whig convention, meets with a cold greeting from the people. Many of that party are disgusted with the shabby materials of which their ticket is composed and will not extend to it their support.

Piper has been an unsuccessful office-seeker for many years; he opposed twice, as a volunteer the democratic nominations; and deserted the party because unwilling to elect him right or wrong.

camp in the Buckshot War. He is one of those individuals who, with more zeal than discretion, appeared at Harrisburg to wrest from the people their rights, and who, is now, rewarded for his conduct, by a nomination for an office which he will never fill.

As to Williams little need be said farther than that he is a sprig of an old federal branch, identified with our foes and willing to serve the sovereign people if they elect him, which they are not going to do.

These are the men, whom the Antimasonic whigs ask to be elected. These are the five foolish virgins, who have taken lamps without oil, and whose flickering light will cease to shine on the second Tuesday of next October.

The Borough cabal of the Buckshotonians have determined to fasten on the whig-antimasons of the county two, and perhaps, three of their mean-spirited cut-throats, as candidates for the county offices.

Porter the man of modest pretensions, who lays in a proposal for Prothonotary, is the more instrument—flexible as the seamstress' thread—in the hands of the vain Senator.

Watching the movements of this political shuttle-cock, he quickly adapts himself to a similar motion, and thus is not his own man, but the man of a man.

Halbert, who has long had an "itching palm," with more modesty would be satisfied with the office of Register. He could stake his thirst for office and political distinction, for three years, upon this little public bonum—a prelude to something better—as a seat in Congress or in the Senate of the U. States.

Seriously, now, upon what does this man base his claims? Like his compeer Porter, he has the merit of political inconsistency. He has, moreover, the claim of a total incompetency. He is likewise a mason sailing under antimasonic colors.

Why, it has been inquired, does Mr. Halbert seek office? Why should he abandon his trade, one of the best in being, for the cares and anxieties of official responsibility? We can only answer by saying, it has been whispered that this gentleman is awfully harassed by a most pestiferous disease, which is vulgarly called laziness.

The Buckshotonians have been in great travail since the formation of their ticket, about candidates to run for the county offices.

The croaking buzzards and buzzing drones, doing the bidding of their keepers, were intent to estrange the affections of these gentlemen from their long cherished principles; to thrust them into the political field; and then abandon them to the few friends which personal popularity might secure.

Parliamentary business to be prorogued Aug. 27th. The crops are favorable from all parts, and the harvest is good. The proposition of Mr. Spring Rice, to fund $4,000,000 had not succeeded.

security, at the simplicity of those who aided them to their success. But the sheep-biters were driven back, with the rebuke that men never cut their throats to gratify gaping fools and grinning asses.

The locofocos are circulating a report injurious to one of our candidates," says the Herald. "The report in circulation needs no help from the democrats to give it more extended publicity.

Whilst upon this subject, the sober Mr. Crab might as well turn his attention to eradicate the root of the evil. After he is done with the poor imbecile, he should devote another lecture to the manufacturer of liquid poison, another of those immaculate whigs who holds a conspicuous place upon the Buckshotonian ticket.

We merely throw out the above hints to Mr. Crab, as he has recently become a kind of censor morum in this county. He will doubtless appreciate our kindness, and profit by our recommendations. More anon.

The Antimasons were treated somewhat cavalierly by the late Buckshotonian county convention. The federalists and apostates (formerly "y-clept State Rights men") run away with the anticipated leaves and fishes, honors, and every thing else, and did not leave so much as a crumb for poor despised antimasonry.

If the genuine antimasons in this borough and county can stand this prescriptive policy of the present leaders of the opposition, then are we mistaken in their character. A little time, however, will suffice to disclose whether they will like seeing jump into the traces and pull lustily for their hand and unfeeling task-masters, or whether they will, like men, resent the gross insult upon their former character and standing.

"Who is a certain locofoco Congressman, but the son of a bankrupt, himself living in affluence by the sweat of his brow?"—Herald & Expositor.

And who did the Peg Beattyites oppose to this gentleman last fall for a seat in the Congress of the United States, but—"the son of a bankrupt" whose estate divided seventeen and one-third cents in the dollar—his himself living in affluence, whilst his father's creditors are shaking hands with long-fingered poverty? "Tit for tat, Monsieur Tonson. Come again, and we will point out amongst the felons emblazoned on the Newgate calendar, the identical gallows looking culprit who stands god-father to a hopeful "son" and heir in bankruptcy and vice, whose avocation to gain a livelihood consists in slandering his betters, and pandering to the depraved appetite of the bankrupt son of Judas Iscariot who sold himself for thirty pieces of silver.

Price of Treachery.—The federal party appear to be fond of rewarding renegades. If an individual wants favor in the eyes of that party, just let him renounce his democratic principles and his fortune is at once made. Look at it. In Philadelphia, the federalists have nominated for office the notorious JESSE R. BURDEN and SAMUEL F. REED—and in Cumberland county, SAMUEL PIPER and WILLIAM M. PORTER—all notorious for their apostasy from, and treachery to the democratic party.

STATE DEBT.—The loan of $2,054,000, for the purpose of carrying on the public improvements of the State, has at length been taken by the United States Bank. The rate of interest is 5 per cent.

YELLOW FEVER.—This scourge is still progressing in the South. The total number of deaths in Mobile, during the month of August, was 140.—At New Orleans, on the 24th inst., there were 15 deaths at the Charity Hospital, and 15 new cases not admitted. On the same day there were 15 interments, exclusive of the deaths at the Hospital, of persons who died with the fever. The "Bee" estimates the deaths, for the week ending on the 15th inst., at about 32 per day. In Charleston, (S. C.) the disease is also progressing.

Election News.—The election in Maine has resulted in favor of the democrats by an increased majority. Gov. FAIRFIELD is re-elected by a large majority, and the Legislature is decidedly democratic.

In Vermont, where the federalists have heretofore had from 6 to 10,000 majority, they have now elected their Governor by only about 1000—and in the State Legislature, the democrats have carried a majority in the House of Representatives, and run close upon their heels in the Senate. So we go.

NEWS FROM EUROPE.

24 DAYS LATER.—THE NEWS IS FAVORABLE. The steamship Great Western, Capt. Hosken, R. N. arrived at New York on Tuesday from Bristol, which place she left on the 24th August, having beat the British Queen out twenty-four hours. Business of all kinds was decidedly improving. The intelligence altogether wears a favorable aspect.

Parliamentary business to be prorogued Aug. 27th. The crops are favorable from all parts, and the harvest is good. The proposition of Mr. Spring Rice, to fund $4,000,000 had not succeeded.

son of the reigning Duke of Saxe Coburg, is to be the happy man. She has had some "happy men" picked out for her, that there is no believing until we hear of her wedding.

United States Bank Agency.—The agency of Mr. Jaudon has ceased in London, and hereafter the bank will draw on Baring, Brothers & Co. Mr. Jaudon will spend a few months on the continent, and return to the United States in the spring.

The French opposition journals loudly condemn the Treaty with Mexico. The wheat harvests in the north of France were most abundant, and the price of bread in Paris had fallen.

A fire in the forest of Mondrioux (France) has destroyed £20,000 worth of timber. The French King was to proceed with his family, Aug. 21st, to his Chateau at Eu, near Dieppe, to pass some time. The Duke of Orleans and wife had visited Bordeaux and met with a cold reception, such is the commercial distress in that city from the odious duty on colonial sugar.

A report prevailed that the Pasha of Janina had raised the standard of revolt. The reported occupation of Bassora by Kuesbhid Pacha is said to have been confirmed. Prince Milosch had, since the death of his son Milan, forwarded to the Porte a new claim to be reinstated in his Government.

Mehemet Ali is reported to have declared to the European Consuls, that he did not mean to detain the Turkish fleet, and that it was at perfect liberty to return to Constantinople.

FEDERAL BUCKSHOTONIAN.

Assembly.—SAMUEL PIPER, JACOB SHELLEY, Commissioner.—JOHN CLIPPINGER, Director of the Poor.—WM. M. HENDERSON, Auditor.—LEWIS H. WILLIAMS, Prothonotary.—WILLIAM M. PORTER, Register.—JOHN HALBERT, Recorder and Clerk.—JAMES NOBLE.

MARRIED.

On the 23th July, 1838, at Salem, N. J. by the Rev. Jefferson Lewis, Mr. Paul B. Carter, of Carlerville, Delaware Co. Pa. to Miss Catharine Elizabeth, eldest daughter of C. Bell, Esq. of Carlisle.

On the 29th ult. by the Rev. Henry Aurd and Mr. J. Lepard, of North Middleton township, to Miss Catharine Losh, of Carlisle.

On Thursday last by the same Mr. Benjamin Pepper, to Miss Ann Fickes, all of Dickinson township.

On Thursday the 5th inst. by the Rev. Mr. Thornton Mr. Rowland to Miss Sabina Shaw, all of Cumberland county.

By the same, on Tuesday 17th inst. Mr. F. C. Gibson, to Miss Priscilla E. Keeney, all of this place.

In Shippensburg, on the 10th inst. by the Rev. Mr. Reily, Mr. Jacob Fridley, of this place, to Miss Ann Margaret Alick, of the former place.

On the 29th ult. by the Rev. J. Ulrich, Mr. David Cromleigh of Mechanicsburg, to Miss Susan Emminger of Silver spring township.

On the 5th inst. by the same, Mr. Isaac Miller of Monroe township to Miss Mary Lohach of Allen township.

On the same day by the same, Mr. Thos. Lochlin of Frankford township, to Miss Elizabeth Schambach of West Pennsboro' township.

On the same day by the same, Mr. Jacob Clay to Miss Rachel Finkbiner, all of Frankford Township.

On the 26th ult. by the Rev. W. T. Sprole, Col. Joseph A. Wierman of Woodstock, Va. to Miss Catharine Ann Cox of Adams co.

DIED.

At Charleston, S. C. Rev. Abraham Cauffman, formerly of this vicinity.

In North Middleton township, on Monday the 2nd inst. Mr. Jacob H. Sibley, aged about 70 years. The deceased was sitting in his chair after eating, enjoying the pleasures of his pipe, when he suddenly expired.

On the 29th ult. in Shippensburg, of a lingering disease, Mr. Charles Anderson, aged about 45 years.

Piano Fortes for Sale.

Mrs. HOFFMAN, on Chesnut street, near Front, has for sale four splendid Piano's which she will dispose of on very reasonable terms, as she is about removing from Harrisburg.

Also, several excellent Guitars, single and patent screws, and a variety of choice music. Sept. 19, 1839. St.

Estate of William M. Reynolds.

Notice is hereby given that letters of administration with the will annexed, in due form of law, have been granted to the subscriber on the estate of William M. Reynolds, late of Shippensburg, Cumberland County, deceased,—therefore all persons knowing themselves indebted to the said estate, are requested to make immediate payment, and those having any just claims to present them without delay.

GEORGE M'GINNESS, Adm'r. with the will annexed. Shippensburg, Sept. 19, 1839. 6t

FOR SALE.

A first-rate Piano Forte. Enquire of the Editors of the Volunteer. July 19, 1839.

timony was given before them, to suffer whose presence would have been equally a violation of their oaths, or what is more probable, judging from the appearance of the hand writing, that it is the work of a certain broken-down politician, one of the prosecutors of the alleged rioters, from a neighboring county, who is now in the enjoyment of the last office the people will ever confer upon him.

In either case, how dare the members of this acting grand jury look their fellow citizens in the face, after the solemn oaths they took to perform their duty, and "the commonwealth's counsel, their fellows and their own to keep secret, and to present no one for envy, hatred, malice, or ill will?"

One of the conspicuous performances of this acting grand jury, was to return a bill of indictment sent to them, under all due forms of law, against a certain Theophilus Fenn, for a wanton and atrocious libel upon an unoffending private citizen, in no way connected with politics, charging him with all species of knavery, fraud and swindling, and with conspiracy with others to cheat, defraud and swindle, not a true bill, and directing that for his having the audacity to ask redress against Fenn, of a jury of this county, he should pay the costs!

The presentation of the mis-called Grand Jury of Dauphin county and the replication of the Attorney General will be found in another part of this paper, to which we invite the attention of all our readers.

In the said presentment made against me the idea is sought to be inculcated, that I refused to send up the bills against the persons charged with these offences at all. The facts I have already referred to, and the records of the court will show that this imputation is shamefully false. I refused to sign and send to the grand jury none but manifestly illegal bills of indictment, and I offered to sign and send to the grand jury any and all bills, the moment they were drawn in conformity with the imperative requisitions of the law.

Look again, and you may observe crouching beneath his footstool, the servile slave of want and starvation, who, bankrupt himself in name and fame, catches with a greedy ear the hissing accents of impotent wrath, hoping to earn his two pence per line for every character murdered and every reputation blackened.

Look again, and you may observe crouching beneath his footstool, the servile slave of want and starvation, who, bankrupt himself in name and fame, catches with a greedy ear the hissing accents of impotent wrath, hoping to earn his two pence per line for every character murdered and every reputation blackened.

Look again, and you may observe crouching beneath his footstool, the servile slave of want and starvation, who, bankrupt himself in name and fame, catches with a greedy ear the hissing accents of impotent wrath, hoping to earn his two pence per line for every character murdered and every reputation blackened.

Look again, and you may observe crouching beneath his footstool, the servile slave of want and starvation, who, bankrupt himself in name and fame, catches with a greedy ear the hissing accents of impotent wrath, hoping to earn his two pence per line for every character murdered and every reputation blackened.