MOUNT HOLLY LANDS.

Will be offered for sale, by public auction, on Tuesday the 26th of November next, at 10 o'clock, A. M. at the Mountain House, on the Carlisle and Hanover Turnpike Road, six miles south-east of Carlisle, in lots of from ten to about one hundred acres each, about one thousand acres of the Mount Holly Estate, lying chiefly in the valley to the north of the South Mountain, adjacent to said road. Part of these lands is covered with thriving young chestnut timber; the remainder is well suited for agriculture, being of a good quality, and situated in a healthy and thickly settled neighborhood, affording an opportunity rarely occurring in the eastern counties of Pennsylvania, for persons with a small capital, to purchase farms. Terms of payment: One sixth in cash on the day of sale, another sixth part on the seventh day of January next, the remainder in two equal yearly payments with interest. For further particulars enquire of WILLIAM CRIMSHAW, Harrisburg, or WM. WEAKLEY, Paperport, near the lands, October 31, 1839.

HOTEL

WEST HIGH STREET CARLISLE.

The subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public generally that he has taken that well known tavern stand at the West end of High street, in Carlisle, formerly kept by Mr. Henry Rhoads, and that he is now prepared to accommodate Drainers, Travellers, and all others who may favor him with a call, in the very best manner. His Table will be constantly furnished with the best the country can produce. His Bar is supplied with the choicest liquors, and his Stable which is large and convenient will be in charge of a careful and attentive ostler. He flatters himself that from his experience as an Innkeeper, he will be able to render general satisfaction. GEORGE SHAFER, Carlisle, May 2, 1839.

Bring, or send the Remnants.

All persons indebted to WM. B. UNDERWOOD will oblige him by liquidating their accounts before the cold weather sets in. He hopes this notice will answer as well as Paddy's hint, if not, it must soon follow. October 24, 1839.
