IMPORTANT DECISION .- The Supreme last July term, involving the constitutionality of the General Banking Law. The Judges expressed opinions to the effect following—first, that associations formed under the General Banking Law are corporations; second that the association to two thirds tions; second, that the assent of two-thirds of all the members elected to each branch of pared to concur; but on the other questions all the Judges were agreed in opinion.

Law was not passed by a two-third vote, did has that call been complied with? not arise on the demurrer to the plaintiff's declaration, and whether on a plea the court could look beyond the statute book for the purpose of reaching that question was not decided .- Allany Argus.
