Virginia .- The General Assembly of this State assembled at Richmond on Monday. Mr. Nash was chosen Speaker of the Senate, and Thomas W. Gilmer, Esq. Speaker o the House. The Governor transmitted his message on Tuesday, and on the same day leave was granted to bring in a bill for the temporary relief of the banks of that State. The banks of our country must be in a bad way when they are so continually in want of

The Message of Governor Campbell is a document of great interest to the people of the State, but too long for us to make room for at present. We regret to find a conspicuous feature in it to relate to a controversy which it appears has grown up between the Executive of Virginia and the Executive o New York, in consequence of the refusal of the latter to deliver up three persons demanded by the former as fugitives from justice upon the acquisation of having "felonious stolen and carried away from the State of Virginia a negro slave, the property of a to 5,87—Wheat $1,12 to 1,15—Corn old citizen of the borough of Norfolk." The white 54 to 55 cts, do. yellow 54 a 55 cts, language of the Governor discloses an exhaustic supplies us nor the control of the citement of feeling which surprises us, perhaps because we were not before at all aware of the state of the controversy. The following concluding observation of the Governor upon this subject will show the direction of his strictures:

"It is much to be deplored that, when the excitement of the public mind in the South, justly caused by the unwarrantable assaults upon our institutions and our rights by orupon our institutions and our rights by organized societies in the States having no slaves, was beginning to subside, the Exective of so powerful and influential a State as New York should have adopted a control of the state o struction of the Constitution which has induced him to disregred one of its imperative requisitions, upon grounds so well calculated to inspire the infuriated abolitionists with new hopes and fresh zeal in their unholy crusade against our property and our peace and at the same time to assure them of im munity and protection from responsibility for the violation of our laws."-National Intelligencer, Dec. 5.

THE ST. LOUIS EXCITEMENT. The excitement which has been raised by those who call themselves the business meg of St. Louis, is a singular affair. It is quite a new thing under the sun for, men to find fault with others for determining to comply with their engagements; yet this is the whole cause of the extraordinary excitement which has prevailed in that city. The Bank o Missouri resolved to be honest, and to pay its notes in specie; and because it was determined to be honest the business men became greatly exasperated against it. If they were disposed to be dishonest themselves, they certainly had no shadow of reason to expect that others should follow their example from choice, or by being driven into it, contrary to their inclination. And yet it seems that such was the object of the business men of St. Louis in relation to the Bank of Missouri; and we noticed, in a late number of the National Intelligencer, a statement that riot would be the consequence of the deter-mination of the Bank to fulfillits promises to pay specie on demand for its notes. These are the men who talk so loudly of their observance of order, and their respect for the laws. Because among the many faithless institutions, one is found that acts in conformity to law, attempts are made to force in into a violation of law, by the threat of vio lence. This is an observance of order, and respect for the law with a vengeance. Baltimore Republican.

Indian Murder .- It is stated that on the 25th ult., Capt. Searle, Quartermaster U.S. Army, when about six miles from St. Augus tine, in a public carriage, was fired upon by Indians, and wounded so dangerously that his life is despaired of. A tailor following the carriage on horseback, was also shot, taken into the carriage after riding some distance, and afterwards died. He lived at Black Creek, but his name is not given .-- Sun. few rod

Attempt to Rob and Murder .- Daniel Goode, deputy sheriff of Chesterfield county, Va., who had been to Richmond to deposite the county taxes, near $7,000, when near Manchester, on his return, was attacked by two white men, armed with guns, who seized his horse and led him from the road, while doing which, Mr. G. leaped from his sulkey, ran off and was pursued by one of the men, but escaped. Having procured assistance, he returned, found his sulkey in the road, his saddle bags in the woods, and his papers scattered about. Two young men have been arrested on suspicion.—Balt. Sun.

Common Carriers .- At the District Court of Penn'a. in Philadelphia, E. McIlvain & Co. iron masters, of Franklin county, ob tained a verdict of $1,038 80 damages, and costs of suit, against Geo. W. Layng, in his capacity of a common carrier, for a quantity of bloom iron, lost in transportation. The iron was sent to defendant, and delivered at the termination of the Cumberland Valley Railroad, on the western shore of the Susquehanna, that being the usual place of deposite before the completion of the railroad bridge, and taken thence by his servants to North Middleton township, Cumberland county, his principal place of business in Harrisburg. Defendant contended that such delivery was no delivery to him, but the jury thought otherwise, and rendered a verdict as stated. Baltimore Sun.

Fatal Jealousy.—A widow, named Norton of Monson, Mass., has been committed for trial, on a charge of poisoning a young man named James Stanton, who was about to be married to a young lady in the neighborhood The cause is said to have been jealousy-Sun.

A meeting of political abolitionists was held at Warsaw, Genesee county, N. Y. on the 13th of Nov., at which James G. Birney Cairns was not lo be found in his balliwick of New York, and Francis J. Lemoyne of Now to wit, 10th December, 1839, the said Pennsylvania, were nominated as suitable Court ordered and decreed that publication candidates for President and Vice President of the United States.
