Successful.—The following horrible intelligence is from the New York Commercial Advertiser of the 29th ult.—“The Sub-Treasury.—We have authentic advices from Washington of high moment for the people.

Missouri and Iowa.—The threatened collision between Missouri and Iowa is at an end. The “sober second thought of the people,” on both sides of the disputed territory, has effected an amicable arrangement of the difficulties which at one time assumed rather a serious and alarming aspect.

State Legislature. Letter to the Editors, dated Harrisburg Jan. 7, 1840. “The House of Representatives met at half past 11 o'clock—Seventy-nine members in attendance.

“The Speaker elect was conducted to the chair by Messrs. McElwee and Zeillich—when he delivered a neat and appropriate address. After which the oath of office was administered to the Speaker by Mr. Zeillich—who in turn administered the necessary oaths to all the members present.

“The House then adjourned to meet at 10 o'clock to-morrow. “The Senate met at 3 o'clock. Upon calling the roll 37 members answered to their names—all the democratic members present but one, Mr. Hays—5 federal members absent.

“After calling the Roll the Senate proceeded to the election of a Speaker. The following is the result: Gen. W. T. Rogers had 16 votes, C. B. Parsons “ 9, Scattering “ 2.

“The House was conducted to the Chair by Judge Myers and C. B. Parsons—the latter somewhat resembling “Patience on a Monument smiling at grief”—after which he delivered a short and pithy address, highly suitable to the occasion.

“Several resolutions were then offered—amongst the rest, Mr. Parsons read and offered a long memorial of a preamble and resolutions instructing our Senators in Congress and requesting our Representatives to vote for a new tariff, &c. &c.

“The other officers of the Senate will be elected to-morrow—the Governor's Message will be read in both houses at 12 o'clock. “So you perceive that the two houses are both organized peaceably—having dismissed the back-slash patriot. To-morrow his man Friday—alias Dan Koles—will get leave of absence. “The mail closes.
