Get your Deeds Recorded .- Lately, in an impor tant case before the District Court of Philadelphia, it was decided that if a purchaser does not record his deed and a judgment should be entered up against the former owner of the land, it will be good against the land and will cut out the deed, and further that a sale under such judgment will be effectual; therefore, persons having deeds not recorded would do well to have it done as, by s doing much troub to may be prevented.

State Legislature. Letter to the Editors, dated

"HARRISBURG, February 22, 1840. On Monday, a communication was laid before both houses, from a committee of the Philadelphia banks, setting forth that after a careful examination into the affairs of the banks, with a view to ascertain at what period they would be ready to resume specie payments, the delegates from fifteen of those institutions had come to the conclusion that the first of February 1841, was the earliest day! The communication was referred, in each house, to the Committee on Banks. This movement on the Philadelphia banks. strengthens Mr. Jefferson's declaration that great cities are great sores in the body politic. In that

In the House, on Wodnesday, a resolution was the man of the people. submitted by Mr. Park, for the appointment of a committee by the Legislature, to invite ex-President Jackson to visit Pennsylvania. The resolution under the rule lies on the table.

The Bank bill then came up, and the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth sections were passed in committee of the whole, and Abraham S. M'Kinney, have proved Mr. Hopkins (Speaker) then moved to amend the ninth section, so as to provide that the banks should resume specie payments for their notes on the 25th of March, and for their deposites on the 1st July. After an animated discussion, in which Messrs. Hopkins, Snowden, Flenniken, Brodhead, Penniman and Burden participated, the amendment was adopted by a vote of 14 to 18.
