The Blood has hitherto been considered by The Blood has bitherto been considered by Empirics and others, as the great regulator of the human/system, and such is the devoted of the adherents to that erroneous doctrine, that they content themselves with the simple possession of this fallacious opinion, without enquiring into the primary sources from whence Life, Health, and Vigor emanate, and, vice versal pain, sickness, disease and death. Not so with Dr. Hunt, whose extensive research and practical experience so eminently qualify him for the profession of which he has been one of the most useful members. He contends—and a moment's useful members. He contends—and a moment's reflection will convince any reasoning mind of the correctness of his views—that the stomach, livr, and the associated organs are the primary-nd great regulators of health, and that the blood and great regulators on leastly, and that the blood in very many instances is dependent on these organs, and that unless medicine reaches THE ROOT OF THE DISEASE, the superficial anodynes usually prescribed, serve but as folly to cover the ravages of deep-rooted maladies.—Under these convictions, at the expense of ye is of close application, the doctor has discovered a medicine whose surphire towards are intention. medicine whose searching powers are irresisti-ble, and in prescribing, it is with a knowledge of its being a radical cure in the various diseases already enumerated, even if applied in the most critical cases, but he does not pretend to ascribe

Cureil. Mr. Win. Tucker, having lately been restored to a sound state of health, through the efficacy of Dr. Hunt's Botanic Pills, thinks it an indispensible duty to state certain facts relative to the disease under which he had so long suffered. The symptoms were a painful obstruction, with a constant rejection of food, head-ache palpitation of the heart, lowness of spirits, a troubletion of the heart, towness or spinis, a trought some dry cough, dizziness, tightness at the chest and difficulty of breathing, almost constant pain in the side, loins, and shoulders, accompanied with much languor and debility. These afflictions, together with an unusual degree of flatulence, brought on such a state of extreme weakness, as to prevent him from attending to his business, and his health appeared lost beyond recovery. His friends and relatives became alsemed at the melancholy prospect, and strongly recommended Hunt's Botanic Pills—they were administered, and in a few days produced astonishing relief, and finally realized a perfect restoration to sound health.

DR. WM. EVANS SOOTHING SYRUP, FOR CHILDREN TEETHING.

To Mothers and Nurses.

The passage of the teeth through the gur produces troublesome and dangerous symptoms. It is known by mothers that there is great irritation in the mouth and gums during this process. The gums swell, the secretion of the saliva is increased, the child is seized with frequent and sudden fits of crying, watching, starting in its sleep, and spasms of peculiar parts; the child shricks with extreme violence, and thursts its the dissolution of the infant. If mothers who have their little babes afflicted with these distressing symptoms would apply the celebrated American Soothing Syrup, which has preserved hundreds of infants when thought past recovery. From being suddenly attacked with that fatal relative symptoms. nalady convulsions.

This infallible remedy has preserved hundreds Daniel Shelly, when thought past recovery, from convulsions.
As soon as the Syrup is rubbed on the gums, the child will recover. This preparation is so innocent, so efficacious, and so pleasant, that no child little and the control of the child little and the control of the child little and the c cent, so encacious, and so pleasant, that no child will refuse to let its gums be rubbed with it.—
When infants are at the age of four months, though there is no appearance of teeth, one bot tle of the syrup should be used on the gums to open the pores. Parents should never be without the syrup in the nursery where there are young children, for if a child wakes in the night with pain in the gums.

Another very severe case of Inflammatory Rheumatism cared by Dr. Evans' Medicine.

Mr. John A. Carroll, of the county of Westchester, town of North Castle, New York, had been severely afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism for fourteen months with violent pains in his limbs, great heat, excessive thirst, dryness of skin, limbs much swollen, was not able without assistance to sturn in bed for six weeks. Had tried various remedies to no effect. Was advised by a friend of his to procure some of Dr. W. Evans' medicines of 100 Chatham street, N. Y., which he immediately sent for, and after taking the fifst dose found great relief, and in continuation. the first dose found great relief, and in continu-ing its use according to the directions for ten days, was perfectly cured. Allows me to refer any person to him for the truth of the above statement.

Algiers .- The Paris papers contain letters from Algiers of the 18th. The arrival of the Duke of Orleans had caused great joy among the troops, and the campaign was immediately to be commenced. Operations are to be begun on an extended scale, as the commander in chief is determined to put down Abdel Kader, who was at Medah with his regular forces. He had fortified some of the mountain passes, and was busy in exciting he insurrection even among the most distant. He has offered temptations of money and land to such French soldiers as may desert. His irregular troops carry their boldness to a great length, and notwithstanding the presence of thirty thousand French troops in the immediate vicinity of Algiers, extensive rob-
