R. SWAYNE: Respected Friend:—From the very beneficial effects which I have received from the use of thy Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry Bark, I am fully willing to testify to the astonishing effect. My attack was that of a common cold, which began to threaten something of a more serious nature. Being recommended to use the above Syrup, I finally cave it a trial and am happy to say it gave me gave it a trial, and am happy to say it gave me almost instant relief. I have used it frequently, ard always with the same beneficial effects. If others would use this medicine at the commence mert of their colds and coughs, they would pre-vent a disease which would be more alarming t its character, and much more obstinate in the Cure. L. umors having been circulated through a portion of the country relative to a transaction between Christian Klepfer and mysell, which, if true, would justly bring upon me the indignation of my friends, I deem it a duty which I owe myself thus publicly to make known to the community the truth of the matter, that they may not be misted by the tales of those who are prone to repeat, with embellishments, every idle story as undoubted truth. What motive could have actuated Mr. Klepfer to a row that the note, which I held upon him was fraudulently obtained and without consideration, is not for me to enquire or declare. It is quite enough for the purpose of removing from me every suspicion of fraud, that the subject has undergone a judicial investigation before the Court of Common Pleas of this country, where the validity of the note in question was established. Court of Common Pleas of this county, where the validity of the note in question was established by a weight of evidence which ought to mantle with the blush of shame the check of Christian Klepfer, who by affidavit denied that it had been procured from him honestly. SHORT FACTS.

TO THE AFFLICTED.

It is sometimes urged that the Rheumatism cannot be cured by external applications.

This may be true sometimes; but it is also certainly true that this dirtressing complaint cannot be cured by internal remedies, except by their long and constantuse, by which perhaps, at the same time the system becomes generally deranged, debilitated and destroyed. Even were not this the case how shall the great distress of the sufferer be alteviated while such slow and doubtful remedies have their effect?
