FOURTH OF JULY!

As the anniversary of independence is rapidly approaching, we trust cur demogratic friends throughout the county will arrange their business so as to be present and participate in the celebrabration with the democrats of this berough. In addition to joining in the festivities of the day, i will afford them a favorable opportunity of appointing delegates to represent Cumberland c unty in the contemplated State Convention, at Lancaster, on the 5th of August-and we do hope that every member of the party, who can leave home, will give the 4th of July, 1840, to liberty and his coun-

Meeting at Courch's .- The proceedings of the demo ratic meeting held in East Pennsboro' township on the 13th inst. on the occasion of raising a Liberty Pole, to rether with an influx of new advertises. ments, have crowded out much other matter intended for this paper-amongst other things the "Tax Bill." Although the proceedings of the meeting are lengthy beyond measure, we hope no one will be deterred on that account from giving them a careful perusal. They contain sentiments which must be responded to by the democratic party every where, and we are highly gratified to find t at such a commendable spirit exists among our friends in the extreme "lower end."

The Governon's Vero .- On the opposite page our readers will find the Veto Message of Gov. Porter, in reference to the bill for the incorporation of the Lancaster Loan Company, to which we invite public attention. The Governor, as it strikes our mind, has taken the true ground, and, whatever difference of opinion there may have been in the Legislature, or amongst individuals out of that body, on the propriety of the charter, all must admit that the opinions set forth is the Manual Propriety of the Charter, all must admit that the opinions set forth is the Manual Propriety of the charter, all must admit that the opinions set forth is the Manual Propriety of the charter, all must admit that the opinions set forth is the Manual Propriety of the charter, all must admit that the opinions set forth is the Manual Propriety of the charter, all must admit that the opinions set forth is the Manual Propriety of the Ma mit that the opinions set forth in the Message are sound and convincing—strongly embodying public sentiment on the subject of an increase of banking shall show hereafter. capital in the commonwealth and are moreover in strict accordance with the democratic creed in

The editor, to gratify his spleen, has pounced upon a gentleman residing near the York turnpike—a "Squire that was," as he says. Now, for the information of the sapient wiseacre, I will tell him that the 'Squire alluded to knows no more about that article than he (the editor) knows about shame.

But there is something else more grating to the feelings of this editor than the innocent article to which he took execution. which he took exception. SIAMUEL ENSMINGER. S ESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public in general, that he has purchased the Patent Right of Robert Wilson, for Camberland county, for construbting a new and improved Spring Scat Saddle. and that he is now prepared to receive orders for the same. The improvements claimed are appli-cable to any of the addles now in use, and consist of springs of a peculiar construction in the sea, warranted to be good, durable and superior to any ever yet invented.

This improvement in spring saddles has several great advantages over other spring saddles, which will be shown: 1st, the spring is situated ir a place which, in all ordinary saddles, is vacant; consequently the common form of a good saddle need not be altered in making of it. 2nd. In case the springs should accidentally break, from a flaw, too high a tamer or the contract which we have the springs should accidentally break, from a flaw, too springs should accidentally break, from a flaw, too high a temper, or rust, owing to dampness arising from the horse, it can be easily replaced by removing the padding without in the least injuring the saddle, and at no expense. 3d.
