

AMERICAN VOLUNTEER.

BY GEO. SANDERSON.

Now our flag is flung to the wild wind free, Let it float o'er our father land...

CARLISLE:

THURSDAY, JULY 16, 1840.

FOR PRESIDENT,

MARTIN VAN BUREN.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

RICHARD M. JOHNSON.

NOTICE.

The books and accounts of the late firm of "Sanderson & Cornman," are in Mr. Cornman's possession...

GEO. SANDERSON.

KINDERHOOKERS ATTEND!

A meeting of the Kinderhook Association of the B.rough, will be held at ROBERT'S Tavern, on Saturday evening next...

Carlisle, July 16, 1840.

The Rev. Mr. Stacey will deliver another "Cold Water Discourse," in the Market House, on next Sabbath evening, at 4 o'clock.

We have some capital articles on file amongst the rest of the copy of Geo. Porter to the Philadelphia committee...

U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.—We observe with pleasure that our representative, the Hon. WILLIAM S. RAMSEY, has been placed on the Committee of Foreign Affairs...

LADIES' COMPANION.—This excellent periodical for the current month is on our table, and is not a whit behind any of its predecessors in style or execution.

We have been charged, more than once, by the Herald, with speaking disparagingly of mechanics. We do not see why we should be so charged.

We have, it is true, spoken of the great Western Bear of Federal Whiggery, and held him up as an itinerant vagabond, who, if he be a mechanic, which we very much doubt...

But how have the ever sneered at honest industry? Verily, we would not exchange our honest mechanic for a dozen wine-absorbing, lazy, daintily eating, soft-snoring gluttons.

Do you doubt? Cast your minds across the length and breadth of our country, and say who compose the two parties? Turn your thoughts along the front streets of our own town, and enquire who are the Democrats and who not.

The Bankrupts Bill, which passed the U. S. Senate some three weeks ago, was laid on the table of the House on Tuesday week, by a vote of 101 to 69.

bodes of the working men—and here whom do you find? Institute an examination for yourselves, one and all—you are all competent to the task...

The Herald alleges that the Democrats had riders out through the county, and circulated hundreds of private invitations, for the purpose of getting up a large celebration.

The federalists are wonderfully in the dumps since last Saturday week. The vast array of sturdy democrats in town on that day struck them with surprise and astonishment.

That the leaders of federalism will all lie, no man can gainsay or doubt, and that their whole system of electioneering is carried on by means of falsehoods and rascality, is equally clear.

Another Federal Fraud.—We learn by the Hagerstown Mail, that the Deputy Clerk of the Court in that county, who is a red hot Federalist by the way, has been, for some time past, in the habit of issuing fraudulent certificates of naturalization, in some cases to individuals who had been but a few weeks in the country.

We verily believe that many of the leading Federalists are dishonest and unprincipled enough to be guilty of any act, no matter how base and vile it may be, to accomplish their ends.

Col. Johnson.—The Democrats of Harrisburg, had a great time of it on Monday week. "Old Teutimseh" was there, and the way he was toasted was a caution to young folks.

Happy Coincidence.—Gen. Jackson vetoed the charter of the United States Bank on the 4th of July, 1832—and Mr. Van Buren affixed his signature to the law which severs the connection between the Government and the Bank on the 4th of July, 1840—just eight years afterwards!

A serious accident occurred at Harrisburg on Monday week—the following account of which we clip from the Reporter.

No better evidences could be adduced to prove the paucity of numbers at the late Harrison celebration, federal lying to the contrary notwithstanding, than the meagre and spiritless array of volunteer toasts which appear in the last Herald.

We have received the names of delegates appointed to the Lancaster Convention to be held the 6th of August, from several of the townships—but shall hold them over till next week, by which time we expect to be enabled to publish the whole list appointed in the county.

We have occupied about six columns of our paper this week with the volunteer toasts and letters, and intend serving up to our readers in the next number, "These short speeches" of our friends the way the federalists will quail under them.

Federalists and the Sixth Census.—The Deputy Marshals are now busily engaged, according to law, in taking the sixth census of the inhabitants of the U. States, and ascertaining the wealth and resources of the country.

Nothing is so mean for the Tory federalists to be guilty of—and no species of electioneering is considered disreputable by them, if so be that they can gull and deceive the unwary and unsuspecting.

We hope our democratic friends throughout the county will keep a watchful vigilant eye on these hired itinerant vagabonds, who, like wolves in sheep's clothing, are prowling about in every neighborhood seeking who they can inveigle into the deadly clutches of Harrison Blue Light Federalism.

We learn from the Baltimore Republican, that Jefferson Griffith, charged with the murder of Laughlin, who it is alleged was killed during the Harrison convention in that city, was tried on Wednesday week and acquitted, the jury giving a verdict of not guilty without leaving the box.

General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.—From the statistical tables of this body, distinguished as the Old School Presbyterians, it appears there are under its care 39,599 candidates for the Ministry—also 1672 Churches, and 126,582 Communicants.

ANTI-MINE.—A friend from Pottsville states that the smelting of iron with Anthracite coal continues in successful operation at Hoarings Creek, in that vicinity. He also informs us that some of the pigs were carried to a forge and there manufactured into bars, which were afterwards converted into horse shoes; shoe nails, &c., by which experiment it was ascertained to be equal to the best Russia iron.

A serious accident occurred at Harrisburg on Monday week—the following account of which we clip from the Reporter.

arm and his hand-shattered so as to be compelled to suffer amputation. N. NEWMAN was wounded but not seriously. The Vice President and Governor visited the sufferers in the course of the evening.

We clip the following from the Allegheny Democrat, published at Pittsburg, and one of the ablest conducted papers in the West, to show the opinion entertained of our distinguished representative at a distance:

HON. W. M. S. RAMSEY. We have perused with much pleasure the very instructive speech of this gentleman on the Independent Treasury Bill delivered in the House of Representatives on the 6th inst.

It is the most concise, and at the same time the most lucid and logical address we have seen on that great measure. It is emphatically what it purports to be, an argumentative discourse in favor of the Sub-Treasury, and not, as is too often the case now-a-days, a verbose treatise on subjects which have no relevancy to the question under discussion.

We regret that our limits, concise as the speech is, will not allow us to lay it before our readers. If they did, we know, we could not place before them a document abounding in sounder views or more rational political truth.

Mr. Editor.—It is always a source of infinite satisfaction to me to throw in my feeble aid in assisting to bring forward unobtrusive merit—and secured by a friendly and generous eye which hides the master springs of the mind from the vulgar gaze of the vulgar herd.

The first gratuity, that to whom you are invited to be introduced, is the learned and highly honored ex-Governor of Pennsylvania, who, weary of the cares of State, which were forced upon him by the people contrary to his will, has retired, like another Cincinnatus, to the plough and the sword, and his days in peace and quiet.

The next patriot I shall introduce is Col. J. M. M., sometimes styled the Knight of the "M." But here language fails and is entirely inadequate to the task of doing justice to the character of so amiable, so virtuous, so talented, and so respected a man.

The third worthy on our list is Capt. G. E. E., whose whole life has been a pattern of honesty, sobriety, morality and religion, and who has, on account of his many virtues, been placed at the head of the band of noble patriots who hail from South Middleton, and who are looked upon as the very salt of the earth which preserves that modern Sodom from richly deserved destruction.

The fourth personage I shall introduce to your acquaintance, is my very worthy friend & neighbor, Mr. M. M. M. This gentleman is a true hearted whig, and a real, simple, plain-tailored man, in his way of thinking, resembling somewhat the dimensions of the woodsman, is however much in his way at times, and upon occasions of rejoicing he is said to require a hoop to keep him from bursting.

The fifth, and the last I shall speak of at this time, is the venerable and accomplished Mr. M. M. M. This gentleman commanded a troop of horse at the commencement of the late war, and like the veteran Harrison, he resigned in the midst of it for the benefit of his country!

truth in the same time than any man of his party, the veritable Bi-Colonel only excepted! The above comprise the prominent men of the Whig party—the leaders of the delectable band who celebrated the Fourth down the temple.

Mr. Editor.—Will you enquire what has become of the toast which was drunk to the disparagement of the Rev. Mr. Stacey, at the Harrison celebration? I do not see it amongst those published in the Herald. It is due to that Rev. gentleman and to the community of which he is an ornament, to know something about it.

SIX CENTS AND A GRAIN OF PEPPER TO ANY PERSON who will find the "LOST PECK OF TOASTS" mentioned in the Herald—but should that be impracticable, we will pay the same reward for the discovery of that one lost toast by D. M. M. and read by C. B. E.

Look here—To Hard Cider Federalists! "A CUP OF COLD COMFORT FOR YE."

We were no little astonished to see the name of Mr. Jacob Cornman of North Middleton township, paraded in the Herald as one of the officers at the Federal celebration, knowing that he had always been a consistent democrat—and we supposed at once that if he was there, he must have been deceived by some of the cunning, unprincipled Federal leaders.

Mr. Editor.—I am sorry to appear before the public, but on account of my political principles, and the manner in which I was induced to join the party which celebrated the 4th inst. at Henderson's island, I am constrained to do so.

Mr. Editor.—It is always a source of infinite satisfaction to me to throw in my feeble aid in assisting to bring forward unobtrusive merit—and secured by a friendly and generous eye which hides the master springs of the mind from the vulgar gaze of the vulgar herd.

and particularly of that which aims at establishment by Congress of a fiscal agency for the Government without the use or aid of banks, time and the fullest opportunity for reflection have left not a doubt on my mind.

In respect to the statements which have been made in several newspapers of the day that I disagree with many of my political friends in the estimate they have formed of Gen. Harrison's military merits, I am not aware of having said anything to justify them.

I am respectfully, Your obedient servant, ANDREW JACKSON.
