CARLISLE:

THÚRSDAY, JÚLY 30, 1840.

FOR PRESIDENT,

MARTIN VAN BUREN. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, RICHARD M. JOHNSON.

The Democratic Republican STANDING COMMITTEE of Cumberland county are reques ed to meet at the public house of Simon Wunderlich, Esq. in Carlisle, on Monday the 10th of August, at 1 o'clock, P. M. to appoint the time for holding the Delegate elections, &c. A general attendance is desirable. The following gentleme compose the committee, viz: compose the committee, viz:

Jacob Banghman, Jason W. Eby, Wm. Gould,
Jacob Dorsheimer, Michael Kost, John Stough,
Lewis Hyer, Hugh Craig, Wm. B. Cummins,
Robert Giffin, Abraham Bretz, David Whory,
John Waggoner, John Start, Solomon P. Gorgas,
Michael Mishler, Hugh Kyle, Isaac Christlieb,
John Snyder, sen., J. B. Duncan, N. J. Ramsey

Temperance movement on the Cold Water Princip/c .- Upwards of two hundred persons within the last few days have joined the cold water society in this borough. The Rev. Mr. SLICER will again gaddress the people on the subject of Temperance, at the Public Square, next Sabbath afternoon at 41 o'clock. The friends and foes of the cause are re specifully invited to attend.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE PRESIDENT. By and with the advice and consent of the Senate. RECEIVERS GENERAL.

STEPHEN ALLEN, at the city of New York, in the State of New York. '

IMAAC HILL, at the city of Boston, in the State of Massachusetts.

Joseph Johnson, at the city of Charleston, in the State of South Carolina. GEORGE PENN, at the city of St. Louis, in the Stag of Missouri. We have received a communication in reply to the fanfaronade of the last week's Herald about taxes, &c., but, in consequence of several new advertisements coming in at a late hour, we are compelled to postpone its publication until next

A number of communications on different sub jects have been received, but are necessarily crowded out this week. They shall all appear in our next.

The Democrats of Frankford township in tend raising a Liberty Pole, at the house of WM. F. Swigger, Esq. on Saturday next. It is expected that the democrats of the adjoining townships, and of this borough, as many as can con veniently, will lend a hand on the occasion.

Lancaster Convention .- We are requested by sev eral delegates to the State Convention at Lancas ter, on Wednesday next, (5th August) to state that a number of the delegates from the Borough will leave this place on Tuesday next, at 3 o'clock in the morning in carriages and other private conveytaking breakfast at the latter place. Delegates from other districts who can make it convenien are requested to unite in going.

We are also requested to mention, that the dele gates from "Old Cumberland," after their arrival at Lancaster, are requested to meet at Scholfields sign of the Benjamin Franklin, in North Queen Street, at 8 o'clock in the evening of Tuesday, to organize for the Convention next day.

HARVEST HOME. - By reference to another column it will be perceived that our democratic friends of Shippensburg contemplate holding a Harvest Home on Saturday next, for which they have made extensive preparations. The Federalists had one there on yesterday, and, in order to make a demonstration of strength, had made prodigious exertions to have a large turn out of their Hard Cider friends. The Democrats want to beat them if possible, and to this end they confidently expect the co-operation of their friends throughout the county. We trust they may not be disappointed and we hope that every man who can conveniently attend, will be present on the occasion.

ATTENTION DEMOCRATS !- Remember that next Monday week, at early candle light, is the time appointed, according to custom, for Itolding the County Meeting at Carlisle. We hope there will be a general attendance from every section of the county. It is important that every man who can possibly leave home, should endeavor to be present. What say you, farmers and mechanics-can't you spare one day for the good of your country? We know you are willing then turn out in your strength and show the common enemy what they Regiments of Infantry 7,496. have to expect from the true-hearted democracy of "old Mother Cumberland.".

The Federalists are bellowing victory at the top of their voices, because they were not worse beaten than they are at the recent election in Louisiana. The Democrats walked out of the contest leaving their Sour Cider opponents flat on their backs, and yet the sweet fellows, like the Frenchman in the story, claim the victory because they kept the ground! They are forced to acknowledge that the Democrats carried one of the three Congressmen, whereas two years ago the Federalists elected the whole three; but then, say they, we have carried the city by a larger majority than usual, therefore it is a great victory in the whole State! To such miserable shifts do the Federalists resort for the purpose of bolstering up their rotten and rapidly sinking cause.

"STAND FROM UNDER."-U. S. Bank stock is down to 66 in Philadelphia.

State Convention at Lancaster .- The democratic elegates nominated to attend the convention at neaster, on Wednesday next, (5th August,) and all other democratic citizens desirous of attending, are requested to meet at Allen's Union, Hotel on o-morrow, (Friday evening,) at early candle light.

Punctual attendance is requested, as arrangenents preparatory to going are to be made.

"Murder will out." The orators and editors of the Federal party sometimes by accident let out the TRUTH to the people. Our neighbor of the Herald wished to prove that Gen'l. Harrison had never voted to sell white men for fines, and by accident he discovered that a Mr. Mason, a federal prator in Congress from Ohio, had made a speech on the subject. This our neighbor thought was 'much better than any thing he could prepare," and thereupon concluded that Mr. Mason should furnish the leading article for the Herald of last

But for this accident, and it was purely accident-, the readers of the Herald would not have been favored with the true and precious confession of Mr. M. with regard to the prosperous, virtuous and casy times enjoyed in Ohio under the regn of that Panacea for all the disorders of the country, a United States Bank—for it was in 1821, just of principle, of truth and the country. Much of five years after the Bank went into operation.—
Here is the truth which neighbor Crabb has let Mr. Mason tell the people by permitting this fed-Mr. Mason tell the people by permitting this federal orator to perpetrate an editorial for him. Let the honest of that party:look on the picture drawn by one of their own limners-here it is-

"Sir, (says Mr. Mason,) I wish now to call your attention to the vote of Gen'l. Harrison, and the circumstances ander which it was given. The attention of the Legislature of Ohio, during its session of 1820-21, was anxiously directed to the consideration of some plan for the relief of the peo-ple, then suffering under a degree of distress and embarrassment unexampled in the history of the State. With a currency DEPRECIATED and DERANGED, the financial resources of the State crippled, and a Treasury exhausted, the people loudly complained of the almost intelerable burden of taxation. In this posture of public affairs, with a gradually increasing expenditure for the prosecution and pun-ishment of offenders, and a Penitentiary crowded with convicts, &c., the Logislature assembled, and undertook to provide a remedy for the grievances complained of, by instituting a revision of the enire criminal code of the State.

The above is Mr. Mason's account of the state nower, regulated men and things in Ohio. Thus, by accident, (for Mr. M. was thinking of clearing r that a part of "the remedy" which Gen. H. was favorable to in order to relieve the country of taxes for the support, not of horse-thieves, house-breakers, &c. as some of the federal papers have stated, for they crowded the State Penitentiary, but of perons confined in the county Jails for fines and costs, was to sell them for their fines or costs by the Sheriff, "to any person (black or white) within the State; of which sale the Sheriff was to "give public notice at least ten days." We refer our eaders, for the correctness of this construction, to he section of the Bill as given by Mr. M. himself. We hope after this to hear no more from the Cederalists, about this White Slavery matter being Van Buren forgery and slander. We have now, we believe, satisfactorily fastened the odious statute upon the skirts of the great "available," and proven from the mouth of their own witness, that he provisions of the objectionable law were only designed for petty offenders, and not as a punishment for the offence, but because the person implicated might happen to be too poor to pay the fine nflicted by the court, or the costs of the suit.

THE SPIRIT OF THE BLACK COCKADE ADMINIS-TRATION REVIVED .- We copy the following from the Extra Globe. It shows the fell spirit that acuates the leading Federalists of the present day, and makes it apparent that, if they had the power, they would now pursue the same course towards the Democrats that their fathers did in '98 and '99.

Will not such villainous threats open the eyes of the people to the dangerous consequences that would result from the elevation of Gen. Harrison to the Presidency? If the Federalists show the cloven the Presidency? If the Federalists show the cloven foot now, previous to the election, what would they are not his individual sentiments alone. The same doctrines are held by all the wealthy aristonic to the Presidency? If the Federal party—foot now, previous to the election, what would they are not his individual sentiments alone. "A. Now this is to inform you, that the gentleman you have published is a friend of mine; I know, but we have you have said shout him is a superscript of the property of the said shout him is a superscript. him well, and what you have said about him is a damned lie: and it you do not publish the card-vindicating him, from the National Intelligence, in your Extra, I will be in Washington, and take your damned life, if I am hung for it the next day. But I do not believe any person ought to suffer for taking the life of such a damned infernal villain and thieving rascal as you are. I will put you out of the way before the 1st of September, and stop your damned rascally lies. You must think, when you lay down at hight you are the most dis-gusting being living in this country. Just think of yourself, and what all intelligent men must say about you. I am sorry for your children, but you must look out, I tell you, if you do not insert the article I allude to. No better evidence is needed to prove the sound less of the arguments made use of by the Hon. WILLIAM S. RAMSEY, in his speech on the subject of an Independent Treasury, than the prosy, pointless attempt of the Herald at criticism. A speech must have something in it, when it merits a review of four or five columns in length.

As the Federalists are busy in misrepreenting the provisions of the Independent Treasury Bill, which has recently become a law, we shall endeavor to lay the bill in extenso before our readers next week. It is the best plan to meet the false-our renders.

WHICH IS MOST WORTHY OF CREDIT? "It may be proper to mention that the Robert N. Wickliffe, who is figuring so conspicuously in the locofoco papers as an apostate from the Whig cause, is not the ominent lawyer and friend of Henry Clay, Robert Wickliffe. R. N. Wickliffe is a fellow who has been hanging about the skirts of the state of the same work of the skirts. of both parties for many years, and is totally destitute of influence. He is known in Kentucky under the different appellations of "Lazy Bob," "Greasy Bob," and "Nasty Bob."

So says the Carlisle Herald of June 24th. Now look at what the Lexington (Ky.) Observer, the special organ of Mr. Clay, says about Mr. Wick-

"It would be affectation in us to appear indifferwould be altectation in us to appear indifferent to, or to pass by in silence, the letter of R. N. Wickliffe, which appeared in the Gazette of Thursday, and which produced among his personal and political friends a sentiment of profound mortification and surprise. Since our connexion with the Press, no event of a political nature has come up-on us like this. We must ask the indulgence of our readers in a very few remarks. We have read the letter and have heard the writer talk in a similar strain, but we did not deem it possible that it is still but little coming in, and the stock in mar-would come to this. Had our counsels or the counsels of those with whom he is most intimate-price at $5. ly connected, prevailed, we should not now have to lament the departure of one so closely connected with us from what we believe to be the cause

Correspondence of the Volunteer.

Mr. Editor. Having disposed of the Bi-Col. nd his toast, I shall now turn the attention of the ublic to another distinguished character in the ederal party, who, although not properly recog ised as a leader, like old Honestas, yet chance has of things, and from it the honest portion of the fed-eral party may see how the "great regulator," in 1821, when in the hey-day of its prosperity and erable itching for office, and he so far beguiled the Democratic party at one time, as to induce them, by accutent, (107.4)r. At. was unitaring of cleaning the Banks,) has Gen. Harrison, not of vindicating the Banks,) has some truth-leaked out.

Whoever will be at the pains to read Mr. Mason's speech, as given in the Herald, will discover that a part of "the remedy" which Gen. H. was more, however, to satiate his ravenous appetite drank and slept, as well as the other members—and that is the sum total of his legislative history. In the mean time the democracy began to look round for some other more suitable candidate, and as soon as this addle-headed non-entity saw that his total lack of stamina and qualifications would consign him to the "shelf," he at once turned a summerse into the federal party, and (as all apostates do) im-mediately began bellowing loudly against the Democratic party and its principles—and has continued his hostility down to the present time.—Such is a succinct history of this miserable imbecile. who is now pushed forward to preside at a Federal

It is to be presumed -nay, it is a legitimate in erence—that the presiding officer of a political meeting holds the same principles as the party to which he is attached, and if he be not an exponent of their sentiments, it is solely on account of his imbecility and incompetency to do so—and such is the case with the individual in question. But *ig*noramuses can sometimes spout grandiloquently i private circle, when, in public, their lips are necessity hermetically sealed—and sentiments uttered at home, at a man's own fireside, or in a choic company of his political friends, are universall considered the true sentiments of his mind. Well considered the true sentiments of his mind. Well, then, to the point.

This man—this presiding efficer of a Federal meeting—has been heard lately to express himself in substance as follows: "If ever there is a change in politics, I will vote for a MONARCHY with all my might; for I believe man is incapable of self-government, and I prefer a monarchy to our present condition" [or "government."] But, it may be said, these are his individual sentiments, and the party with whom, he is associated remulaint, the crats and would be nabobs of the Federal party—nor Porter, the from James Buchanan, and other foot now, previous to the election, what would they and to prove it I will refer you to the reply made distinguished gontlomen are expected to be present to the above doctrines, at the time they were. utered, by another individual of high standing in the elder Adams, answer the question.

This J. WUNDERLICH, JACOB HECK, ADMS NIMMONS personage observed, in substance, that "he did not know whether he would prefer a MONARCHY or not; but, he believed, IT was the way which God not; but, he believed, IT was the way which God intended men should be governed, and, if rightly administered, it would be very good and vistly preferable-to our present ruined government."

Here, then, are two examples of men of high standing in the Federal party, giving utterance to these hateful and aboutinable twy declrines—and is it not fair to conclude, that these are the sentiments entertained by all the leading and prominent men of the party—nay, is it not known that these same dectrines are held by many in this Borough. And these are the men, too, who, if Harrison should unfortunately be elected President, would be the leading and influential partisans of his administra-tion—and would doubtless endeavor to carry their professions into practice.

But I must draw this communication to a close nying-already-extended-it-to-a-greater-length-than I intended at the commencement. I merely intended this for an introduction, and shall resume the subject horeafter. Before I have done I expect to be able to prove to the satisfaction of every unprejudiced mind, that the above sentiments are prejudeed mind, that the above sentiments are not confined to a single individual or a pair of individuals, but that they are held, and have always been held, by all the leaders of the Federal party—and that if they once had the power, they would lose no time in overturning our republican institutions and converting the government into their fa-vorite "monarchy."
