CARLISLE!

THURSDAY, AUGUST 6, 1840.

FOR PRESIDENT,
MARTIN VAN BUREN;
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
RICHARD M. JOHNSON.

The Democratic Republican STANDING COMMITTEE of Cumberland county are requested to meet at the public house of Simon Wunderlich, Esq. in Carlisle, on Monday the 10th of August, at 1 o'clock, P. M. to appoint the time for holding the Delegate elections, &c. A general attendance is desirable. The following gentlemen compose the committee, viz:

Jacob Baughman, Jason W. Eby, Wm. Gould, Jacob Dorschmeier, Michael Kost, John Stough, Lewis Hyer, Hugh Craig, Wm. B. Cummings, Robert Gilpin, Abraham Bretz, David Wherry, John Waggoner, John Stuart, Solomon P. Gorgas, Michael Mashler, Hugh Kyle, Isaac Christlieb, John Snyder, son, J. B. Duncan, N. J. Ramsey Woods.

"Cuzum" is unavoidably crowded out this week.

The Report of the School Visitors of this Borough, will be given in our next paper.

If any of our friends can spare us a little money during the approaching Courts, in payment of Subscription, &c., it will be thankfully received. Our expenses are necessarily very heavy, and as we have no other resource to apply to in order to keep the establishment in operation, (having at the dissolution of partnership transferred all the books and accounts of the firm to Mr. Comman as a quid pro pro for his share,) we are obliged to throw ourselves upon the kind liberality of our patrons.

DEMOCRATS TO THE RESCUE!—We once more urge upon our democratic friends the necessity of turning out in their strength at the County Meeting on next Monday evening. We hope the farmers, mechanics, and working men generally—the "home and sine" of the county—every man who can leave home—will be present. It is no time now for "laying upon our oars." The enemy are in the field marshaling their forces for the encounter, and it becomes us to be active and vigilant lest they "steal a march upon us." Now is the time for action, Democrats! Begin the war with vigor. Strike your first blow on Monday evening—and then continue to ply the enemy's line with hot shot until the election. Charge home upon the great humping party, and let them feel that the Democracy of old Cumberland are unconquered and unconquerable.

The Democrats of Allen township lately raising another Liberty Pole at Shepherdstown, on Saturday next, in place of the one the Federalists cut down a few nights ago. They invite their friends in Carlisle and elsewhere, to attend and give them a lift.

The great Democratic Convention at Lancaster, was held yesterday. Judging from the preliminary arrangements in the different counties, we have not a doubt that it was the largest assemblage of Freemen ever congregated in Pennsylvania.

GREAT VOLUNTEER ENCAMPMENT.—We understand that it is in contemplation to hold a volunteer encampment at the celebrated Paoli Battle ground in Chester county, on the 20th of September next. It will doubtless be the largest encampment of the kind ever held in Pennsylvania, as we understand a general invitation has been given to all volunteers East of the mountains, as well as those in the adjoining States of New Jersey, Delaware, and New York.

The Adjutant General of Pennsylvania will take the command, assisted by Maj. Gen. Hartman and others. His Excellency, Gov. Porter, as Commander in Chief, will be invited to review the troops during the encampment.

Arrangements have been made to transport the troops from the eastward, and as far west as Harrisburg, free of expense, on the rail road.

The Independent Treasury Bill will be found on our first page, to which we invite public attention.

If the law in question be so objectionable as the Federalists say it is, why do they not publish it? Why not let the people be convinced for themselves? The truth is, the Federalists know; when they assert what they do about it, that they lie from the bottom of their hearts—knowingly and willfully lie—and hence they dare not give it publicity through their newspapers.

We again invite all to read it—and we defy any one, even the most bigoted Federalist, to lay his finger upon a single section or paragraph of the whole Bill, which is not strictly in accordance with the constitution, and which is not truly republican in its features. The whole Bill is intended to bring back the Government to what the framers of the constitution wisely intended it to be—a government simple in its administration, purely republican, and entirely disconnected from the withering influence of monied corporations.

The Federalists are now bellowing out "Harrison and Reform," as loudly as they did "Ritner and Reform" during the gubernatorial campaign of 1835. They seem to have forgotten however, that the people grow tired of the Ritner reform and elected him from office; but not until after he had involved the State in some eight or ten millions additional debt. The people remember all this, and the history of the misdeeds of the Ritner Federal dynasty, is too fresh in their minds to again deceive them in the same manner. We advise the Federalists to try their hand at some thing else.

It is exceedingly mortifying to the Federalists, that with all their facilities of Railroad conveyance, &c., the Democrats should have outnumbered them so far at Shippensburg last week. They had no idea of witnessing the hurdy yeomanry of the country leaving their farms and their workshops, and turning out by hundreds, in carriages and wagons, on horseback and on foot. Such a state of things never occurred to the proud and haughty nabobs of a corporation aristocracy. They console themselves, however, by saying that although they were beaten at Shippensburg, they will take care that such shall not be the case at Newville—and they are already boasting that every Federalist in Carlisle will be at their Harvest Home on Saturday next.

We advise you to keep cool, gentle sirs! Don't let your Hard Cider excitement get too high during the dog-days! We beat you at Shippensburg, and we intend to beat you at Newville—and we'll do it too, without the aid of railroads, burthen cars, &c. Mark our prediction.

The Herald says: "We were fully authorized last week to say that Mr. Jacob Comman of North Middleton, never saw the publication bearing his name until he saw it in the Volunteer, and that he never signed it." Well, neighbors, why did you not publish the denial last week? Why did you let the thing hang over a week, if you were authorized to contradict it? From the course you have pursued in relation to the matter we exceedingly doubt the truth of your statement. We do not believe that ever Mr. Comman told you so. At all events we know that he did see the publication alluded to in manuscript—that he did sign it—and that we have the letter still in our possession with his own proper signature affixed to it.

A proud Day for old Cumberland! Overwhelming Meeting of the People.

On Saturday last, the 1st inst. the Democrats of Cumberland and Franklin counties held their Harvest Home at Shippensburg, in accordance with previous notice. A very numerous assemblage was expected on the occasion, but the crowds of honest yeomanry that flocked in from all quarters almost defied computation. Never before have we beheld a meeting so large and respectable, composed as it was of the substantial farmers, mechanics and working-men of the vicinity—sit seated indeed from the numerous carriages, horses and wagons that filled the town, as if the whole population had by one sudden impulse abandoned their accustomed pursuits, and hastened to express their determined hostility to Federal Aristocracy, Cider Barrels, and British Whiggery.

Large delegations from Chambersburg, Southampton, Green, Fannet, Lurgan, Letterkenny, Gilford, Metal and other townships of Franklin county, appeared on the ground in the early part of the day, accompanied with a band of music, with their banners bearing appropriate mottoes and devices in favor of MARTIN VAN BUREN & RICHARD M. JOHNSON. These were followed by the hardy sons of old Mother Cumberland from Hopewell, Millin, Newton, Southampton, West Pennboro' Dickinson, Frankford, North Middleton, South Middleton, Newville, Stoughstown, Leesburg & Carlisle, with flags flying and music playing. In front a splendid banner with the inscription of "THE DEMOCRACY OF OLD CUMBERLAND, UNCONQUERED AND UNCONQUERABLE" was displayed—another with the motto of "VAN BUREN, JOHNSON, PORTER, AND DEMOCRACY"—another bearing all the names of "BUCHANAN AND RAISEW"—another with a striking representation of "COL. JOHNSON KILLING FEDERALISTS"—and numerous other banners which we are unable to give a description of at present.

The procession being formed under the direction of Gen. Willis Foulk, Chief Marshal of the Day, and his assistant Marshals, was found to extend at least a mile in length, and to number about one thousand voters! The spectacle was truly imposing, and gladdened the hearts of all who witnessed it save the advocates of our cider, who looked as if a double portion of their favorite beverage had been administered to them. It so far out-numbered the Federal and Anti-masonic assemblage held at the same place on a preceding day, as to render a comparison almost entirely out of the question. After marching through the town, the procession proceeded to a shady grove in the vicinity, where they were joined by several hundreds more, and where refreshments had been provided for the company under the direction of the Managers, David Nevin, Esq. Capt. Adams Nimmon, Capt. J. O. Heik, John Wunderlich, Esq. Wm. B. Cummings, John Butts, Samuel Pague, and John Reichert.

The meeting was then organized by the appointment of the following officers: PRESIDENT, ROBERT McCUNE, of Cumberland; VICE PRESIDENTS, From Cumberland, David Sterrett, Esq. J. Weaver, Enoch Withrow, John Kelly, Christian Nozner, Jas. Kelo, John Donovan, William Cowan, John Duncas, Esq. Jacob Kitzmiller, M. Helleman, J. Vance, John McCalloch, Davis Skiles, Dr. George D. Fisher, John Comman, Esq. Wm. Mitchell, Michael Morrett, Col. James Woodburn, Gen. T. C. Miller, Robert C. Sterrett, Esq. Jos. McKee, Esq.

Franklin County, John Cox, Esq. Wendel Martin, Robt. Gilmore, Joseph McFarland, Samuel Gilmore, Solomon Shively, George Brinda, J. Hutcheson, P. Nutterhouse, John Johnston, Samuel Holliday, J. J. Thuesday, George Vance, D. Washbaugh, Wm. Slider, Michael Tool, Wm. Smith, Gen. Samuel Dunn, James Kyle, Peter Glossebreuer.

SECRETARIES, John Noel, Benjamin Duke, A. J. North, Wm. Orr, William M. Mater, Esq. John Stough, Esq. William Wherry, John Reichert, Thos. H. Britton, Esq. Samuel Wherry, Esq. John Irwin, Esq. David Oriswell, H. Atherton, William Barr, Esq. John Orr, Joseph P. Nevin.

After which Mr. Samuel R. Hamill, on behalf of the Committee, reported a series of resolutions which were unanimously adopted. Mr. Hamill then addressed the meeting in an appropriate manner, which elicited frequent bursts of applause. It having been ascertained that the Hon. WILLIAM S. RAMSEY, our representative in Congress, was on the ground, he was loudly called for and responded to the call in a bold and fearless vindication of the measures and policy of the National Administration. He was listened to with marked attention, and on retiring was saluted with the loud approbatory cheers of the multitude. J. N. L.

Esq. a representative in the State Legislature from Franklin county, next addressed the meeting in an eloquent manner, and was followed by J. ELIAS BONHAM, Esq. of Carlisle, who also acquitted himself most creditably and to the entire satisfaction of the audience.

The procession again formed in regular order, and returned to town with the music playing lively airs and the numerous banners floating gaily in the breeze. They then dispersed in good order with three cheers for Van Buren & Johnson. No accident or unpleasant occurrence took place during the day. All seemed to be actuated by a noble enthusiasm that promoted the utmost cordiality and good feeling, and the first day of August, 1840, will long be remembered in the annals of Cumberland county, as affording an instance of the most signal rebuke of Federalism and British Whiggery ever recorded in her political history.

The number of persons on the ground have been variously estimated at from 1200 to 2000—we heard—no one, federalist or democrat, calculate them at less than the former number. And all agreed that the number was nearly double what they had at the Federal Harvest Home on the Wednesday previous.

The following are the resolutions unanimously adopted by the meeting:

Resolved, That we approve of the nomination made by the National Democratic Convention, of Martin Van Buren for re-election to the Presidency, and that we hereby pledge ourselves to make every honorable exertion to secure his election. By so doing we sustain an Administration conducted upon purely Jeffersonian principles, which has met with the unqualified approbation of the Democratic party throughout the Union.

Resolved, That we approve of the nomination by the Harrisburg Democratic Convention of Richard M. Johnson for re-election to the Vice Presidency—that we repose entire confidence in the integrity and firmness of him whose wounded body bears testimony to his bravery in the field of battle, and whose long and arduous services in the councils of the nation, prove his devotion to the public good and challenge the gratitude of his countrymen.

Resolved, That we congratulate the democratic party of the Union, upon the passage of the Independent Treasury Bill by Congress, being the only constitutional, the most economical, and only safe plan that could possibly be devised for the safety of the public money, and that its adoption, in despite of the diversified and contradictory objections, fabricated by knaves and made current among fools, serves but to furnish additional confirmation of the truth that the "second sober thought" invariably triumphs over error, falsehood and corruption.

Resolved, That the admission of the Democratic members of New Jersey to their seats in Congress, was a signal triumph of popular rights over official fraud, and that high handed, lawless attempt to "treat the election as though it had never occurred," thus to disfranchise a state of her sovereignty to defeat the direct constitutional expression of the popular will, as expressed through the ballot box, was one of the many base, unhalting attempts to reduce to practice the odious principles of Federalism.

Resolved, That the base misrepresentations and falsehoods, concocted and circulated by the opposition against the National Administration, afford conclusive evidence of the weakness of their cause and their despair as to the ultimate result.

Resolved, That the farmers, mechanics, and laboring men, want no particular sympathy nor consideration, they ask but for justice & equal rights with their fellow citizens; they want no National Bank with its aristocratic tendencies, with its branch banks—with its lost of Presidents, Clerks, Cashiers, brokers, shavers and other leeches, to fatten upon the reward of their labor, to derange their business through its extravagant expansions and sudden contractions, with its connections with British interest and British policy to retard and paralyze their free government.

Resolved, That we approve of the course of conduct pursued by the Hon. J. Buchanan and the Hon. D. Sturgeon, our Senators in Congress; that they have been true to their principles, have stood by the Constitution and honor of the country with a firmness and devotion that wins for them the applause of freemen.

Resolved, That the Hon. Wm. S. Ramsey our Representative in Congress, receives our most cordial thanks for the firm faithful and unflinching support which he has given to the principles upon which he was elected & the measures of the Democratic Administration of the country.

Resolved, That the opposition should they be victorious in the present political campaign, would conduct the Government upon the old Federal principles, even though as a party they are mute, and their candidate "as a dumb idol before a nation of freemen."

Resolved, That it is a matter of little consequence whether W. H. Harrison is a little General or a great one, whether he actually fought the battle of the Thames, or committed the conducting of that battle to officers of an inferior rank, or being out of danger now strives to steal the laurels due to braver men—whether he lives in a Log Cabin or a Marble Palace—whether he drinks hard cider or sparkling Champagne—whether he possesses or not any of those astounding qualities which cannot fit him for the high station to which he aspires; but sustained by his present party and entertaining the principles which he is supposed to entertain, he is no more worthy of the support of the American people, than a serf or a slave of Cuba.

Resolved, That our trust in the patriotism and sound Democratic principles of the Honorable and justly esteemed Gov. D. R. Porter remains unshaken, and that his course of conduct and line of policy in the administration of the affairs of the State, to preserve her credit unimpaired, to sustain judicious public improvements, to meet her wants in every trying emergency, and to promote her true interests, entitle him to the united and undivided support of every freeman of Pennsylvania.

Resolved, That we have confidence in the ability and integrity of Gen. T. C. Miller, A. Smith, McKimsey, and John Zimmerman, our representatives in the State Legislature, and that their conduct meets with the approbation of the Democracy of old Mother Cumberland.

Resolved, That the abuse of the Banking privilege, which pervades the land, the conversion of Banks into monopolies, for almost the sole accommodation of speculators, their conversion into mere paper corporations without a solid capital, have rendered them in the estimation of the great mass of the people, sources of private mischief and public injury, and that it is only by Legislative reform that they can regain the public confidence.

Resolved, That whilst we disapprove of the present unjust and oppressive system of Banking, we approve of an honest, judicious system, over which the people through their Representatives in the State Legislatures could exercise a supervisory control, subjecting them to such modifications and substitutions as the interests of the people may from time to time require. Such a system the people ask for, and its only negative is the voice of an unprincipled, reckless mercenary faction.

Resolved, That we view with pity and contempt, the attempt of the opposition to impress the public mind that it is the intention of the Democratic party to destroy the credit system—to destroy all Banks, and to introduce an exclusive metallic currency. Such intentions as a party we disclaim, and as a political party recognize no principle to interfere with the prosperity and enterprise of the people, the rights of property or the public faith.

Resolved, That the present universal and apparently concerted suspension of specie payments by the nine hundred Banks of this country, adds another to the many evidences of the necessity of Bank reform, and fully demonstrates the absurdity and the folly of attempting again to prop up the present rotten system, merely that it may again fall and overwhelm us in its ruins.

Resolved, That the evils of a disordered and depreciated paper currency are not to be remedied by the fresh emission of a paper currency, because paper already depreciated is necessarily subjected to a greater depreciation by the additional increase of paper money. The establishment of a U. S. State Bank by the General Government, would not and could not remedy the present distress or prevent a future similar recurrence, but it must be effected by the State Governments through the instrumentality of Bank Reform.

Resolved, That we view the opposition as composed of the flag ends of all parties, of "black spirits and white, of blue spirits and grey," made up of conflicting factions, united only by a common hatred of Democratic truth, bound by no bond but a "common feeling of hatred to every man of purer principles than themselves," and that their ascendancy would prove detrimental to the great cause of Republican liberty, and the permanent welfare of the people.

Resolved, That in the present political contest, we do not distrust either the integrity of the mass of the people, or their firm and unwavering determination to protect the institutions and liberties of the country—that we believe they only want light and truth to act understandingly, and that under these influences, they will be found as prompt to protect the true principles of Democracy from the encroachments of federal whiggery, as their homes and firesides from a foreign foe.

Resolved, That the Hon. W. S. Ramsey, S. R. Hamill, J. Hill, and J. E. Bonham, Esqrs., receive the thanks of this meeting for their interesting and instructive addresses.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the respective officers and published in the "American Volunteer," the "Keystone" and the "State Capitol Gazette."

(Signed by the officers.)

Frankford in the Field.

On Saturday last, the 1st inst., a number of the Democratic citizens of Frankford and the adjoining townships, met at the house of Wm. F. Swiger, Esq., for the purpose of erecting a Liberty Pole. After the pole was erected, the meeting was organized by appointing the following officers, viz:

President, ABRAHAM WAGGONER, Esq. Vice Presidents, MAJ. HENRY HACKETT, MAJ. WM. WALLACE, JOHN SNYDER, SEN. GEORGE KEHL, GEO. SHAMBAUGH, JOHN UBERGER, JOSEPH C. McDOWELL.

Secretaries, John Moutz, Christian Kinard, James Graham, Maj. Joseph Trégo, John Myers.

The following resolutions were then unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we highly approve of the present Administration, & go against "white slavery" in every shape and form.

Resolved, That we highly approve of the Independent Treasury Bill passed by Congress and approved by the President.

Resolved, That we will not vote for Wm. H. Harrison, because he voted to sell white men for slaves.

Resolved, That we have full and entire confidence in our member of Congress, the Hon. Wm. S. Ramsey.

Resolved, That our country ought to be ruled by a majority of the people, and no administration should be influenced by any bloated and unsound banking institutions.

Resolved, That this meeting has full confidence in Governor D. R. Porter, and approve of the faithful manner in which he has caused the laws of the State to be respected.

Resolved, That the enemies of Martin Van Buren slander him in vain, while the history of his life bears witness to the uprightness of his conduct as a statesman, and his integrity as a citizen.

Shippensburg, Pa. Mr. SANDERSON.—According to arrangement a gathering of the clans of Blue Light Federal Whiggery and Hartford Convention Tories took place on yesterday, in this borough. They came from the east, west, north and south, in burdened carts, log-pens, in carriages and on horseback, with whiskey barrels and cider barrels, ocon skins and gourds, and all the disgusting paraphernalia which are so common at their Bacchanal carousals. But then they did not come in such numbers, as their leaders here had anticipated. Their whole procession, when counted, did not quite reach 600; and of these a goodly number were youths who should have paraded at Jethro until their beards were grown.

Well, they all marched to a woods adjacent to town, and there made speeches, drank sour cider and hard whiskey, starved their music, and done divers other matters and things which are not worthy of record. After enjoying themselves to their heart's content in this way for several hours, they marched back again to town, and dispersed much to the gratification of some of the more respectable of their own party, who were heartily ashamed of such disgusting tomfoolery. In the evening, a number of them convened in a Warehouse, where they listened to a very warlike and daring speech from the redoubtable ex-speaker of the Senate, who made his escape from the back window of the Senate during the memorable Buckshot War. Thus ended this renowned Hard Cider pageant, for which the Federalists had been making arrangement for a month previous.

On Saturday we shall have our Harvest Home, and we confidently expect to beat our opponents "all hollow." We hope to see a goodly number of Democrats from Carlisle. The upper townships will turn out in their strength, and we have no doubt that if the weather proves favorable, we shall outnumber the other party by several hundreds. Yours, &c.

LATE AND IMPORTANT FROM FLORIDA.

We have received the following letter, with the Tallahassee post mark of July 7th. N. Y. Morning Herald.

CAMP RAIDS, (one mile from battle ground on Suwanne River), Middle Florida, July 4, 1840.

Dear Sir—I hasten to lay before you the particulars of our late fight on the Suwanne. At about 11 o'clock on the morning of the 3d, (yesterday) the columns composed of the first and second Infantry commanded by Major Dearborn, when within a few miles of Fort Fanning, were fired upon from ambush by a party of Indians, supposed to number three hundred warriors. The first fire, with the usual yell of the savages, as you may suppose, caused great confusion in the ranks for a short time.

As singular as it may appear, but fifteen men of our command fell dead; a number, however, were wounded dangerously. A majority of the men being recruits, and their first taste of gunpowder, showed signs of fear and began to break. By the active exertions of their brave and gallant officers, they were however, immediately rallied. The column was formed, and a deadly fire poured into the hammock among the Indians, who showed themselves boldly and in great numbers. They returned into the hammock, and stood their ground, fighting bravely. At this crisis Maj. Dearborn, with his usual foresight, detached a body of one hundred men, under the command of Captain Gagnier, with orders to take the Indians in the rear.

This maneuver was performed promptly and with great success. A simultaneous charge was made into the hammock, on all sides. The Indians were completely routed. The majority of them being surrounded without the slightest possibility of escape, so far, forty-one dead Indians have been found, and we have no doubt but as many more will be found during the day. The prisoners amount to fifty-three. Among these we have the celebrated chief Wild Cat, who is slightly wounded; several officers have been wounded, four only are considered in danger. I am happy to say that none are killed.

Notwithstanding the victory our camp wears a gloomy appearance. Detachments arriving hourly with the dead and wounded, that could not be brought in until the surgeon had his place made more comfortable. The wounded are receiving every attention.

As the express is about starting for Tallahassee, I must now close. No official report having as yet been made by the commanding officers to the department of war, of this glorious victory—for such we all consider it—for the present I must withhold my name.

Yours, in haste, A CORRESPONDENT.

Harvest Home Celebration, AT NEWVILLE.

The undersigned, a co-resident of New-Kingbrook, Democratic friends in this and the adjoining districts, send greeting: That, whereas it has seemed right and proper to our said Association, at this important crisis,
