CARLISLE:

THURSDAY, AUGUST 20, 1840.

FOR PRESIDENT,

MARSH VAN BUREN.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

RICHARD M. JOHNSON.

The Democrats of the Borough are requested to meet at ALLEN'S HOTEL on to-morrow (FRIDAY) evening, at early candle light, for the purpose of placing in nomination two persons to be run as Delegates at the election on Saturday. It is to be hoped that a general attendance will be given.

ATTENTION THE WHOLE! The Democrats of South Middleton intend raising a LIBRARY POLE at the house of Mr. George Eisenhart, on Saturday next, the 22d inst. at 3 o'clock, P. M. They earnestly invite their Democratic friends in Carlisle and the adjoining townships, to lend them a helping hand on the occasion August 20th 1840.

THE KINDERHOOK ASSOCIATION Of North Middleton township will meet at the house of David Colman, Esq. on Friday (to-morrow) evening next, at early candle light. By order. M. WISE, Pres't.

Several interesting items of Foreign news will be found on the first page—also the proceedings of the democratic meeting at Shepherdstown, and the meeting of the North Middleton Kinderhook Association.

The Delegate Elections take place on Saturday next. We hope our Democratic friends in the different boroughs and townships of the county will turn out upon the occasion, and elect "good men and true" to represent them in the Convention. The County Convention, which is to assemble on Tuesday next, will be, in several respects, the most important body of the kind which has assembled for many years, and we trust that such a delegation will be sent as will vindicate and fairly carry out the will of their constituents. Let the people in the different districts select their best and most experienced men, and such a ticket will be formed as will rally to its hearty support every democrat in the county.

We invite attention to an article on our first page, drawing a comparison of the plans of Gen. Harrison and Mr. Poinssett for a militia organization. The Federalists have been abusing the latter for daring to recommend a new organization of the militia, and have denounced it as an attempt to raise a "Standing Army" of 200,000 men! It is a vast expense to the nation, for the purpose of establishing a "military despotism," &c. &c. Now, although these lying scribbles do not believe a word of what they write themselves, they expect to make some political capital out of the measure, by attempting to alarm the fears of the timid, and fasten the odium (for they try to tender it odious) of the measure upon President Van Buren, who never saw the Report until after it was published. The truth is, the Report was extracted from the Secretary of War by a resolution of Congress, (the Secretary is bound in such cases by Congress) in respect to the will of the President, was prepared accordingly, submitted, and all in obedience to the requirements of law. They know this, and yet they would endeavor to create an impression among the people that the plan originated with Mr. Van Buren, was written in obedience to his direction, and for him, and alone, is responsible.

But we return to where we started. Our object was merely to call the attention of the people to a comparison drawn between the report of Mr. Poinssett and a bill drawn up by Gen'l. Harrison when in Congress a number of years ago. The General says he adheres to all his former views principles, consequently, if he should happen to be elected President, we may reasonably infer that his plan of organizing a military force, which is tenfold more objectionable than Mr. Poinssett's, would speedily be carried into execution.

Let all our readers examine the comparison for themselves, and then say with what degree of consistency the Harrison party can bluster on the subject as loudly and vehemently as they do.

Amongst the most abusive of the Federal prints against Mr. Poinssett's plan for the re-organization of the militia, is the Baltimore Patriot. The "Standing Army" is the burden of its song day in and day out, and if one were to believe the frightful picture it draws of this bugbear, there is no knowing what would be the consequence. It would frighten to death half the old women and children in Christendom. How sincere the Patriot is in its denunciation, may be gathered from the subjoined editorial which appeared in that paper at the time the Report was published, and before the Federal leaders had determined to make political capital out of it.

From the Baltimore Patriot of Dec. 31st, 1839. "WAR REPORT."—We publish to-day in extenso the report of the Secretary of War. It is quite an interesting document, and while it imparts much information, throws out several suggestions, among which are the re-organization of the militia into departments, and to have 200,000 under arms ready for any emergency. This is something of the French system; and what in that country are called the "National Guards." In style and matter, the report is decidedly good—and in all respects superior to the message of the President, and the report of Mr. Woodbury. Better than all, there is not a particle of low-fact demagoguery in it, and if the reader were to form a knowledge of the writer, he would infer that it was the production of some liberal and enlightened Whig, and that that glorious party were already in possession of the LANCASTER CONVENTION.—We had intended copying at length the proceedings of this body, but find that our limits will not permit. It is sufficient to observe, that the Convention was large beyond the most sanguine expectation, numbering, according to the Lancaster Intelligencer, at least 25,000 delegates. Of this number our own county sent over 2000, with music and a large display of banners. WILLIAM B. OWENS, Esq. of Shippenburg, was the Chief Marshal of the Cumberland delegation. The Hon. FALIX BUCHANAN, was President of the Convention. One delegate from each county was selected to draft an Address; and Maj. J. DONSHIRE, represented Cumberland. One from each county to report resolutions, and J. W. EBY, was appointed. Among the Vice Presidents, we find the name of JACOB LONONCKER, Esq. of East Pennsborough township, and among the Secretaries the name of JOHN MOORE, of Dickinson. The whole number of Vice Presidents was forty-one, and of Secretaries thirty-one. An Address and sundry Resolutions, in which are embodied the sound and fixed principles of the Democratic party, were adopted, from which we will make some extracts hereafter. The utmost harmony and good feeling prevailed, and not a single accident occurred to mar the pleasures of the occasion.

The Horall enquires.—What became of the toasts in favor of a Tullit drank at the Van Buren celebration on the 4th of July? We answer that no toasts of the kind were drank there, to our knowledge, nor do we believe they could have been without us knowing something about it. Certainly no toasts of the kind came into our possession, and we are inclined to the opinion that all the toasts drank or given upon the occasion, were handed over for publication by the committee. The only toast suppressed by us, was one which was libellous in its nature, and which we did not feel disposed to publish for that reason alone—but that one had no allusion whatever to a Tullit. Is our neighbor satisfied?

While upon this subject, our neighbor will pardon us for making another enquiry about the toast drank at the Federal celebration, intended as a hit at the Rev. Mr. Stucken. This toast was handed in by D—y M—s, read by C. B. P—y, and was no doubt sanctioned by the company present. Will Mr. Crabb be good enough to inform us the why and wherefore it was suppressed? Come neighbor! we have answered your enquiry candidly—answer ours in the same way.

1500 FREEMEN—Coming to the Rescue! GREAT MEETING OF THE PEOPLE!

On Saturday last our friends in the upper end of the county, held their Harvest Home at Newville. Never before have we beheld within the borders of Old Cumberland such a gathering of her honest farmers and mechanics. Large and overwhelming as the meeting was at Shippenburg two weeks before, it was far outnumbered by this great assemblage.

In the early part of the day the people commenced flocking in from the surrounding townships by hundreds, on horseback, on foot, in carriages, and in wagons, and before the hour of eleven arrived the town was literally jammed with the immense throng. Then came the delegations from Shippenburg, Leesburg and Stagsborough, marching in a solid phalanx with their colors flying and music playing—on their banners were inscribed VAN BUREN, JOHNSON, PORTER and BUCHANAN, with appropriate mottoes. Next came the honest and hardy denizens from Frankfort, Hopewell and Millin, bearing aloft "The Independent Treasury." Then, amidst a cloud of dust, could be detected the lengthened lines of the approaching delegations from Dickinson, South Middleton, West Pennsboro', North Middleton, Silver Spring, Mechanicsburg, Carlisle, Monroe, Allen and East Pennsboro', all hastening to the place of meeting. It was truly a glorious and joyous spectacle to thus behold the honest yeomanry of the country turning out to the rescue of the Republic from the rapacious and grasping hands of the old Black Cockade Hartford Conventionists, and the advocates of the Alien and Sedition laws.

The people were there in their might, to bid defiance to their old enemies now disguised in the garb of Whiggery. Amongst the numerous delegations we observed with pleasure a strong turnout of the Cordwainers from the borough of Carlisle, with their banner marked "The Sons of St. Crispin for the Independent Treasury," showing evidently that the working men have not been deceived by the croaking of the federalists and bank men about low wages and pecuniary distress.

About one o'clock the different delegations assembled under the direction of the following named gentlemen, viz: Gen. Willis Foulk, Gen. Thomas C. Miller, Gen. Edward Armor, Maj. William Wallace, Maj. Samuel Truitt, Maj. Samuel Cook, Maj. Robert Lambertson, David Sterrett, Esq. A. Smith McKinney, Esq. William Gracey, Jr., and Mr. Joseph P. Novin, who acted as Marshals upon the occasion. The procession then marched to a grove in the vicinity of the town, when the meeting was organized by the appointment of the following officers:

- President, JOSEPH MCKER, Esq. of Springfield. Vice Presidents, NICHOLAS HOWARD, of Newville. JOHN MOORE, Esq. do. JOSEPH WAGONER, Esq. of Newlort. JOHN RUTH, do. H. D. DALHOUSER, Esq. of Millin. MARTIN MILLER, sen. do. JAMES WALLACE, Esq. of Frankfort. JOHN SPYDEN, sen. do. JACOB MYERS, of West Pennsborough. JACOB BETHMAN, do. do. WILLIAM SHIVER, of Dickinson. COL. JAMES WOODBURN, do. DANIEL MCCOY, sen. Hopewell. JOSEPH M. MEANS, Esq. do. HON. JOHN STUART, South Middleton. R. C. STRECKER, Esq. do. do. ABRAHAM WAGONER, Esq. North Middleton. JACOB CORNSMAN, do. do. FRANCIS ECKELS, Esq. Silver Spring. JOHN CLENDENIN, Esq. do. do. MAJ. JACOB DORSHEIMER, Mechanicsburg. DR. INA DAVY, Esq. of Shippenburg. CAPT. JACOB BEECH, James Kelso, Southampton. JAMES WILKS, Esq. do. ROBERT SPOONER, Esq. Carlisle. GEN. JAMES LAMBERTSON, do. ALEXANDER WHITS, Esq. L. Pennsborough. Secretaries, W. R. MELBY, Esq. Newville. Thomas McDullough, Esq. Newlort. Capt. Samuel Megaw, Millin. John McCrea, Frankfort. Robert McKeehan, West Pennsborough. John King, Dickinson. David Wherry, Hopewell. John Lehr, Esq. North Middleton.

George Smith, Esq. South Middleton. Jacob Kopp, Silver Spring. Snyder Ruppky, Mechanicsburg. W. B. GORMAN, Shippenburg. Thomas H. Britton, Esq. Southampton. Jason W. Eby, Esq. Carlisle. A number of Resolutions were read by Mr. Sculler, and unanimously adopted.

The assemblage was then addressed by the Hon. William S. Ramsey, Gen. Thomas C. Miller, Col. Charles McClure, J. Ellis Doham, Esq. and Mr. William A. Porter, son of his Excellency the Governor of the State—after which the procession was again formed, and preceded by music, marched back to town and quietly dispersed. The number of persons composing the meeting has been variously estimated from fifteen hundred to two thousand, and we are satisfied that there were, beyond all doubt, fifteen hundred volantes on the ground—the whole mass of these too, with two or three exceptions, were exclusively from the green fields and thriving towns of Old Cumberland, which usually polls about five thousand votes.—This presents a brilliant prospect for the democracy of our ancient county to contemplate, and is an earnest of what they can do when the election day arrives.

The resolutions will appear in our next, not having been received in time for this paper.

All the Decey.—On the return of the Delegates on Saturday evening, from the Harvest Home at Newville, we had a specimen of the brutal degradation of the hard core guffling backhandians. They collected around their mud cabin a number of half grown boys, who were directed by grown men in the interior and in the immediate neighborhood, to insult and menace the procession as it passed in a quiet and orderly manner. This log cabin of the Aristocracy and British bank men was illuminated for the occasion, and every effort was made by the band of blackguards that surrounded it to frighten the horses of our friends, but happily without effect. Had the horses been frightened and unmanageable, there is no knowing what destruction of life and property might have ensued.

We show give these gentry ample notice to be in our guard when the elections of life are again thus violated. We had enough of the hardy demerits of the county in the procession to have chastised personally the whole posse of young and old federalists, and to have scattered the logs of the famous log cabin to the winds. We say look out!—forbearance was a virtue on Saturday night—retaliation may be necessary on the next occasion, and that too when there may be no back windows to jump out of.

It was gratifying to the friends of good order and democracy, to observe the manner in which the procession returned from Newville on Saturday evening. Although the line of carriages, horses, and wagons, filled with hundreds of our citizens, extended nearly from one end of the town to the other, and all were animated by the events of the day, yet no disorder or confusion marked the procession. Every thing was managed in a quiet manner.—Not so with the guffling backhandians and tapers of the preceding Saturday night. They, reeling under the influence of hard cider or something harder, came through the town yelling like incarnate demons, filling our peaceful borough with uproar and confusion. Yet these are the Solons who are opposed to Fanny Wright and agrarianism! Oh shame! where is thy blush!

A Standing Army.—The old Federalists have ever been the advocates, since the days of Alexander Hamilton, of a standing army, and, in the time of old John Adams, actually organized a force of 40,000 regulars to maintain the alien and sedition laws—yet the country is now filled with their lamentations over the shadow of an army of freemen to be raised by Mr. Poinssett. Now how does the matter stand?

Since the time of Gen. Washington, almost every Secretary of War has in his annual report recommended a reorganization of the militia. It is a fact notorious that the system is defective, and Mr. Poinssett at the commencement submitted a plan to Congress upon the principle of classification approved of by Washington, Madison, Monroe and Jackson. It was the simple proposition of the Secretary, and met with no favor in either House of Congress. The committees of the Senate and House of Representatives both reported against it—and it sleeps with the reports of Knox, Calhoun and other Secretaries of War. It never will become a law, and yet the oppositionists attempt to gull the people with this tissue of a standing army, which they have arrayed alongside of their cider barrels and con skins for the purpose of deception. We shall recur to this subject again.

WHO ARE THE MOBILES!—Our old enemies the Hartford Convention federalists have always stigmatized us as agrarians, levellers and mobites—they have always claimed for themselves all the "good society," and social virtues connected therewith. In the midst of these professions what do we see? An open and barefaced attempt to subvert the constitution and laws by riot, burlesque, and violence, and to drive the honest yeomanry and farmers of our country into the arms of the Federalists. How many widowed mothers—how many deserted wives will have to mourn over the degraded condition of their children and husbands, brought about by these backhandian revels, kept up nightly under the auspices of those who profess (God save the mark) religion and morality! How deep an injury will be inflicted upon the social condition of our people by the tumultuous and disorderly revels in which even children are permitted to mingle—in which dram drinking is incited as one of the many virtues! Let our opponents answer if they can!

THE ELECTIONS. Now that authentic returns are coming in from the South and West, we are enabled to clear away the smoke raised by the Federal guns at the off-goings, and give our readers something upon which they can rely. By this it will be perceived that the Hard Ciderists, as is their invariable custom, "hallooed before they were out of the woods"—and now, when the truth of the matter is known, they have been in a general way about as completely used up as the most sanguine Democrat could possibly have anticipated.

In Missouri, the brilliant and rising star of the West, the Federalists have been so effectually whipped that there is scarcely a "grease spot" of them left. They have been beaten in several of their strongest holds, and in others their majorities are reduced one-half. We have carried our Governor, Members of Congress, and State Legislatures, by a largely increased and overwhelming majority.

In Illinois, the Democrats have swept every thing before them like an avalanche. A letter published in the Missouri Argus since the election, says:—"Gen. Harrison's prospects of getting the vote of Illinois, are about as good as his chance of getting to heaven without repentance." And again—"Fashionable faces in this city, since the election in Missouri and Illinois, are about eighteen inches long."

In Alabama, although we have lost a few members of the Legislature in closely balanced counties, yet the popular vote in our favor is largely increased over former years. This State, it is now admitted by the Federalists, will give a large majority for Mr. Van Buren.

In North Carolina, where the Federalists confidently anticipated a triumph, as they had elected their Governor two years ago by seventeen thousand majority, the Democratic candidate for Governor, Mr. Saunders, is ahead so far as authentic returns have been received, and if he is not elected, he will run close on the heels of his opponent.—This State is also safe for Mr. Van Buren.

Add to the above a gain of one member of Congress and eight or nine members of the Legislature in Louisiana, and we think the Democratic party have abundant reason to be satisfied with the auspicious commencement of the campaign. To balance the above, and what the Federalists crow so loudly about, the opposition have carried the election in Kentucky and Indiana by their usual majority. These States have been (with a single exception) largely in the opposition for years, and both cast their electoral vote for Harrison in 1836. So that our readers can easily perceive that the rejoicing of the Federalists about their "great gains," is "all cry and little wool."

So soon as full returns of the elections in the above mentioned States are received, we shall lay them before our readers.

DUFF GREEN'S OPINION OF GEN. HARRISON IN 1829—AND MR. CLAY'S OPINION IN 1825.

We clip the following from the Baltimore Republican, to show the estimation in which Gen'l. Harrison was held years ago by two individuals, who are now loud in his praise. Verily, "Wonders will never cease."

CHANGE DREDD!—For the benefit of those who read Duff Green's "Pilot," we publish the following extract from the United States Telegraph of 16th April, 1829. The Telegraph was then edited by Duff Green, the present editor of the Pilot.

General Harrison.—The Richmond Whig assails the President with great force, for the repeal of General Harrison's ordinance over the objection of the Union to Columbia, in a manner that justifies a belief, that Mr. Pleasant considers the salaries attached to offices of more importance to the Government than the faithful discharge of public duties.

It is useless for the Whig to speak of General Harrison and his services. We believe we have truly, when we say, that he has cost the nation more blood and treasure than any other individual living. We refer to the transactions on the North West frontier. All who know General Harrison intimately, must be fully sensible that he is unfit to be the representative of this Government under any administration; and those who know the commanding influence exercised over him by Mr. Clay, must admit that he is not such a man as this Administration ought to select, for the delicate negotiations with which our Minister to Columbia is charged. The true question, therefore, is not what sum has the mission to Columbia cost us, but if General Harrison, the person selected by the Administration, is a proper representative of the President's administration? If this proposition be answered in the negative, it will appear that the $18,000, of which the Whig and other coalition prices so loudly complain, are properly chargeable to the late administration, (Mr. Adams').

And who is it that opposed the appointment of General Harrison, as Commander of the army, when Gen. Macdonell was appointed? Mr. Clay and we learn from a letter of a distinguished gentleman which we have just seen, upon the ground of inferior qualification. And yet, not fifteen years after, he is thought fit to wield the highest Executive office in the country! Wonders will never cease. The antics of the party, when assisted by the aspirations of the bill of the day, will produce the most extraordinary acts of inconsistency and folly.

THEY'RE GIVING IT UP!

The New York Herald, (a whig paper,) gives the following doleful account of Gen. Harrison's prospects not only in that city, but in the state.—"We recommend the article to those, who are still in doubt as to the issue of the struggle in N. York. Coming from an avowed federal press, it is fully positive, that the Harrisonites are themselves fully conscious of DEFEAT."

"One important fact is certain, that the Tippecanoe party is at present BROKEN UP and divided into inefficient squads in this city, by the miserable tricks and schemes of the Wall street men; and if the same influence have been at work in the interior, that have operated so brightly here, the aspirations of the bill of the day will be in vain, and the Federalists will be reduced to a state of insolvency and bankruptcy throughout the state, that has broken up the power of the party here, Mr. VAN BUREN WILL GET THE STATE BY A VERY LARGE MAJORITY."

As the position of affairs stand at present in this city, the vote for the Presidential question will be taken to-morrow, amongst us there would no doubt be a majority of from 3,000 to 5,000 against GENERAL HARRISON, so great is the revolution occasioned by the withering influence exercised by the clique that control Wall street."

EXTRAVAGANCE!!

This is the party catch-word of the honest and unsuspecting yeomanry of our country into a support of the superannuated old gentleman, whom the whigs and abolitionists have nominated for the Presidency. The present administration has been more economical than almost any of the preceding ones; the expenses have been reduced to less than fifteen millions of dollars, which was the lowest point of economy ever urged by the most prudent.

and if it does not choke some of the Whig orators, they must have throats like an open sepulchre.

The following is taken from the Savannah Republican, April 9, 1827.

From the National Palladium. "Gen. Washington, during eight years, was allowed for furniture, $13,000

"John Adams, during eight, (four) years, and without adding a single article to the stock left on hand by his predecessor, 25,000

"Mr. Jefferson, during the eight years, the original purchase of Gen. Washington being sold as unfit for use after Mr. Adams, 25,000

"Mr. Madison, for eight years, in addition to the above supply, 25,000

"Mr. Monroe, for eight years, the stock on hand being burnt by the British, 50,000

"Mr. J. Q. Adams, in addition to the above stock on hand, has had already, in one-fourth of the time, 56,000

VERMEX SAT. "Mr. Van Buren, for four years, 20,000

Gov. Lincoln, a leading Whig member of Congress from Massachusetts, in using up Mr. Ogle of Pennsylvania, proving his speech a tissue of misrepresentation and falsehood, makes the following important declaration. He says expressly and positively, that the President has ever manifested the utmost reluctance to have any additional furniture provided for his house, and that the (whig) committee alone were answerable for it."

"He (Mr. Lincoln) was no friend of Mr. Van Buren, but he would do him the justice to say if there was any thing in relation to the furniture of the White House, the President was not to blame for it. On the contrary, he (Mr. L.) knew his great delicacy on the subject, and would assure the gentleman that, whenever the Committee had consulted with the President in relation to any additional furniture, he had invariably expressed his reluctance to have any thing expended for that object. He (Mr. L.) would state, from his own knowledge; that not a single article of furniture supplied during the last three years had been supplied at the request of the President. The Committee alone were answerable; and they would assume the responsibility."

A Valuable Medicine.—Dr. Brandreth's Vegetable Pills have proved themselves an effectual assistant of nature, having cured in New York, in a period of 18 months, upwards of 8,900 persons, of diseases which had been pronounced incurable by medical men of the first rank and standing. These Pills, from the peculiar properties they possess, are calculated to cure disease, whatever be its name, all having the same origin, in any person in whom is the universal "broth of life," who partakes of the "universal" "one blood," of which are made all people who dwell upon the earth, and whose diet arises from the "universal root" of all disease, namely, impurity of imperfect circulation of the blood. Those who are suffering from a bad state of health, will do well to give them a trial.

Purchase them in Carlisle of Geo. W. Hittner, or of Agents published in another part of this paper.

TAILORING.

THE subscriber would inform his friends and the public in general, that he has his shop in High street, in the shop formerly occupied by Cornack & Mans, one door west of N. W. Woods' store, and would solicit a share of public patronage.
