The correspondence, between Col. Crogan and Gen. Harrison, a portion of which we laid before our readers last week, has excited a con-siderable buzz in the Federal wig wam. These letters of the gallant Colonel show up the characplaces the old General so completely hors du combat, that the friends of the latter do not attempt to deny the truth of the charges against him, but make a lame effort to get Harrison out of the scrape rate man, and that these letters were written at a Electoral licket for Pennsylvania, as corrected by time when he was laboring under an attack of mania a potu! Now this is a strange way of get-W. Smick has been substituted for that of Col. ting out of a difficulty, to be sure. Suppose the

Dear Sir — I transmit you herewith enclosed seventy two dollars, the amount of pay allowed each member of the Legislature during the temporary adjournment of last session, which money you will have the goodness to place in the Treasury, to be applied as other funds are for county purposes under the direction of the commissioners. THRUST, "I two can play. Your valor, democrats, is a match, and more than a match for all the whig TRAITORS in christendom. PROVOKE NOT THE OCCASION, but if whiggery with the light of experience elects to put you on the defensive, YOU ARE NOT BOUND TO LETTHEM sive, YOU ARE NOT BOUND YO LET THEM ESCAPE A SECOND TIME THROUGH A BACK WINDOW; neither are you bound to foster within your borders, an enemy that can, and does, at pleasure, create ruin and distress. In bringing Traitors to their senses, your energies can slimultaneously be employed in devising a mode to strip Whiggery of its power in future, to prey upon the fruits of your-industry. Henry Clay's significant threat of butchering you with the Army and Navy, must be regarded as the official ukase of whiggery. General JACKSON YET LIVES—he escaped the doubly armed White Assassin for, probably, a momentous occasion. Turn your eyes to him. Rementous occasion. Turn your eyes to him. Remember, the British did not surprise him at New memor, the Bruish did not surprise him at New Orleans. His men had their arms ready—see that you are equally provident, and TREASON WILL BE PUNISHED IN A WAY, THAT FOR AGES TO COME WILL BEA WARNING TO DESPERATE AND UNPRINCIPLED DEMAGOCHES II.

It was my design to have placed the money in the County Treasury immediately after my return home in Juto, but presuming that it might be alleged I had done it with a view to have an influence on my re-nomination, I therefore Judged the most proper time to pay over the money would be after the ticket was formed.
