We copy the following from the Southwark, Pennsylvanian of Wednesday. Passyunk, Truly have the Democrats of Kingsessing, 134 Philadelphia city and county W. Philadelphia, 141 covered themselves all over Roxborough, estim 150 with closed 145 with glory ! South Penn.

With glory ! At the election yesterday, the Democracy of Philadelphia again proved themselves worthy of the character which has so long been accorded to them. They have once more shewn that they are inflexibly true to the great principles for which they have so often contended and triumphod. Another victory is added to the long list of suc-cesses which marks their career, and they have demonstrated in a manner not easily to be forgot-ten, that with "a fair field and no favor," it is folly for their oppoments even to dream of other re-sults than such as have now occurred. The Dem-ocrats of the county are not to be defeated—they sults than such as have now occurred. The Dem-ocrats of the county are not to be defeated—they may be defrauded of their rights—but Federalism cannot overthrow them, They have the true spirit which increases in zeal and efficiency in just pro-portion to the confidence and efforts of their ene-mies. They are not to be dismayed by panics or eajoled by flatteries, but are equally firm whether they "who would delude them," come with storms or with sunshine—with the terrors of "the screws," or with childish parents, boy cabins and eider or with sunsing—with the terrors of the sciews, or with childish pageants, log cabins and cider p barrels. After the rout of yesterday, Federal Whiggery must abandon all hope in Philadolphia County, for it was never more perfectly organised, more lavishly furnished with means, or with more investigation of the science o circumstances in their favor. Some idea, there fore, may be formed of the credit that is due to our county friends, when it is mentioned that is we that is they have succeeded by an AVERAGE MAJORITY OF THIRTY-THREE HUNDRED!! They deserve for this they benefit to be the OF THIRTY-THREE HUNDRED!! They deserve for this the hearty plaudits of the Democ-racy of the Union. There is no point which the Harrisonites were more anxious to carry-none upon which they concentrated more of their force, than upon the County of Philadelphia. It will be seen from the subjoined, that in the First District, CHARLES BROWN has been triumphantly elected to Congress by the flattering majority of BETWEEN FOURTEEN AND FIFTEEN HUNDRED!! No man better de-served such a mark of popular favor. His ability, fearlessness, and energy in the cause of Democrat-ic principles, render him peculiarly, worthy to rep-resent in the councils of the nation a constituency who have so well proved that they also are beyond resent in the councils of the nation, a constituency who have so well proved that they also are beyond the reach of all the influences which the opponents of equal rights can bring into the field. It is with no little pride and satisfaction that every democrat will refer to the result in the Third District, so celebrated in the political annals of the country. In accordance with our predictions and in confirmation of all that has been alleged in ref-erence to the foul play twice practised there, to vitinto the decision of the ballot box, and to set at definance the will of the people, it will be seen that defiance the will of the people, it will be seen that CHARLES J. INGERSOLL has been elected to Congress by the overwhelming majority of SEV-ENTEEN HUNDRED! This District was the great battle field. It was not alone that our ene-mies feared the commanding abilities of the Dem-ocratic candidate, though they had much to dread on that score; for they well knew that in him they would have a representative, of sound principles capable, and ready to cope, with their stoutest champions, and to expose the deceptive pretexts under which they seek to gain control of the repub-lie. They transfe an enter account of the repubtheir opponents to the trial, and for a few short their opponents to the trial, and for a lew short weeks the bravado of direct acceptance of that challenge was made; but finally, by throwing Naylor aside and by bringing a new and popular candidate into the field—one who had just left the democratic party, and who, it was supposed, would carry strength with him from our ranks, they vainly. sought to evade the true issue. But their cunning management utterly failed -- their multiplied slan-ders and calumnies against Mr. Ingersoll -- their ders and calumnies against Mr. Ingersoll-their large contrivances and petty resorts, proved equal-ly impotent. They were compelled to meet the question, and the glorious result is before us. We have carried our City and County nomina-tions by a majority of ABOUT A THOUSAND which shows the oxcess of the County vote over that of the City. In 1836 the Federal majority in the City and County was 1218, and from this, some estimate may be formed of the truth of the assertions about great changes for Harrison in this quarter. his quarter. The Democrats of the City have done admira

ly. It is true they have not success to boast of at the present moment, they had no expectation of it, but an unflinching Democratic vote of nearly 4600, gives assurance of a rapidly approaching triumph, even in the City of Philadelphia. The day is near at hand:
