The following statement of a remarkable cure of partial paralysis of a limb is from William L. Norton, Esq. a well known and respectable magistrate of South-west. Messrs. Taughan & Peterson.—During several weeks I suffered a partial paralysis of the right arm and of the third and fourth fingers of the right hand, which sensibly affected the whole power of the latter writing became to me a difficult task which I could not execute with great facility, and which, by the use of half a bottle of your Liment, I gave entire relief, and I cheerfully bear this testimony to its efficacy. SHORT FACTS. TO THE AFFLICTED. IT is sometimes urged that the Rheumatism cannot be cured by external applications.—This may be true sometimes, but it is equally true that this first remedy, if continued, cannot be cured by internal remedies, except by their long and constant use, by which perhaps, at the same time the system becomes greatly deranged, debilitated and destroyed. Even were not this the case how shall the great distress of the sufferer be alleviated while slow and doubtful remedies have their effect? The answer is plain, candid and most true—use Dr. Kew's Nerve and Tonic Liment. No name could be more appropriate. It reacts and soothes the nerves, and allays pains most effectually on its first application, and by a few applications removes most of the great distress of the sufferer by its internal or external remedy was ever known to do. Try it and be convinced. For sale by STEVENSON & DINKIE. Carlisle, Jan. 16, 1840.

Dr. SWAYNE'S Respected Friends.—From the very beneficial effects which I have received from the use of Thy Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry Bark, I am fully willing to testify to the astonishing effect. My attack was that of a common cold, which began to threaten something of a more serious nature. Being recommended to use the above Syrup, I finally gave it a trial, and am happy to say it effected almost instant relief. I have used it frequently at all times with the same beneficial effects. If others would use this medicine at the commencement of their colds and coughs, they would prevent a disease which would more alarming its character, and much more difficult in the cure. R. WOOD L. PUSKY. N. W. corner of Arch & Fifth sts, Philadelphia, month, 23, 1839. The above medicine is for sale by J. J. MYERS & Co., Carlisle.

Dyspepsia and Hypochondriacism. Cured by Dr. Harlich's celebrated Medicines. Mr. W. MORRISON, of Schuylkill Sixth street, Philadelphia, afflicted for several years with the above distressing disease.—Sickness at the stomach, headache, palpitation of the heart, loss of appetite, acrid eructations, coldness and weakness of the extremities, emaciation & general debility, disturbed rest, a pressure and weight at the stomach after eating, severe flying pains in the chest, back and sides, costiveness, a dislike for society or conversation, languor and lassitude upon the least occasion. Mr. Morrison had applied to the most eminent physicians, who considered it beyond the power of human skill to restore him to health; however, as his afflictions had reduced him to a deplorable condition, having been induced by a friend of his to try Dr. Harlich's Medicines, as they being highly recommended, by which he procured two packages for trial, before using the second package, he found himself greatly relieved, and by continuing the use of them the disease entirely disappeared. He is now enjoying all the blessings of perfect health. For sale by J. J. MYERS & Co. September 10, 1840.
