Congress will assemble at Washington on Monday week, the 7th of December.

THE SPECIAL ELECTION.
Came off on Friday last, and has resulted in the election of the Democratic candidate, Col. CHARLES M'CLURE, almost without opposition—only 166 votes in the whole county having been cast against him. This is a striking evidence, not only of the unbounded popularity of the Col., but also of the strength and spirit of the Democratic party, and the apathy that has already crept into the ranks of our Federal opponents. They carried the county by a meagre majority on the 30th ult. but, conscious of their own inherent weakness, they were afraid to risk another trial of strength, well knowing that they would inevitably be driven back to their accustomed minority—hence they generally absented themselves from the polls, and permitted the election to go against them almost by default.

The result of this election is an earnest of what Cumberland county will do at the next General Election. It shows plainly and conclusively that there is a redeeming spirit abroad among the people that seeks to obliterate from the records the Federal triumph at the Presidential election, and restore this ancient republican county to the proud position she once occupied. The prediction of the Herald, that Cumberland would hereforth be a Whig county, will not be verified. The people have determined otherwise, and their will is omnipotent.

The vote of Cumberland county at the special election was unusually small. This was owing to the one-sidedness of the contest. Had there been opposition, the Democratic vote would have been nearly doubled, and our candidate would have carried the county by an overwhelming majority. The Federalists feared this result—hence they wisely determined to stay at home and leave the Democrats to manage the election themselves. "Discretion is," generally speaking, "the better part of valor."

INSTRUMENTAL CONCERT.
The U. S. Band, from the Barracks, will give a Grand Concert of Instrumental Music at Education Hall, on Monday Evening, the 7th of December, at early candle light. From the well known ability of the Band, a rich treat may be expected on the occasion.

THE NEXT LEGISLATURE—GOVERNOR PORTER.
The Federal party, having a majority in both branches of the Legislature, (counting Mr. Johnston, of Armstrong, on that side of the House,) will no doubt be more careful to advance the interests of their party than act for the good of the whole people—and their efforts, judging from the past, will be directed to throwing obstacles in the way of the Executive, rather than attending to the wants of a suffering Commonwealth. The last Legislature did but little good—the next will do less, or we are egregiously mistaken in the character and motives of those who will constitute the law making department of the government—we mean the majority in both houses. The Federal party dread the well known influence and unbounded popularity of Gov. Porter—they anticipate that he will again be the candidate of the Democratic party—and they are fearful of his reelection. They know also that with such a Chief in the field the Democratic party must again triumph in Pennsylvania, and the old "Keystone" be replaced in the glorious arch of the confederacy—unless, indeed, they should be able, by unrighteous legislation, to place him in a false position before the people.

But can this Federal Legislature succeed in the schemes which they have in contemplation? We think not. They may, it is true, withhold supplies from the government, and embarrass its operations—they may suspend the public improvements, and permit them to go to waste and decay—they may do all this and more, negatively; but there they must stop. The moment they attempt to enact unrighteous and unconstitutional laws calculated to injure the people by lavishing their money on useless and unnecessary objects, or which it is believed is their intention, by extending the time of resumption by the Banks, that moment the Executive retro will be interposed to shield our beloved Commonwealth from the hands of the Vandal ravagers, and the would-be spoiler will find that the darling object of their pursuit has eluded their grasp.

It is fortunate for the people that they have such a man as David R. Porter at the head of affairs in this trying emergency. To him are now directed the eyes of the honest yeomanry of Pennsylvania; as the only sure refuge against the swelling tide of corruption which marks the advent of Harrisonism. That he will prove true to the high trust committed to his charge there cannot be a doubt; his stern integrity and iron-nerved character are a sufficient guarantee that in his hands the interests of the people are secure, and that the Commonwealth will suffer no detriment if he can protect it. May the Genius of Liberty shield him as he stands in the breach between the people and their would-be oppressors.

Governor Porter.
We clip the following from the Berwick Sentinel, to show the estimation in which our excellent Chief Magistratus is held by the Democracy of Columbia county:

THE NEXT GOVERNOR.
Our readers will remember that previous to the General Election in this State, some of the Federal Whigs pretended to be very favorable to Gov. Porter. Some of them even went so far as to attempt to divide and distract the Democratic party, by coupling the names of Harrison and Porter together. But this attempt to gull the Democracy of the good old North was signally failed. The overwhelming democratic majority in the northern counties of the State shows what faith was put in this specious effort to defeat Mr. Van Buren—Where now is the Whig regard for Gov. Porter? It has passed away like snow before a summer's sun. Already are the Harrison Chronicle and Carlisle Herald, two of the leading Harrison papers of the State, breaking ground against the Governor, and chuckling at the prospect of carrying a candidate of their own next year. We never believed the Federalists to be sincere in their professions of attachment to the Governor. His praise was on their lips, but they hated him with their hearts. Judas-like, they would betray him with a kiss. Their designs, however, are apparent. "The Democracy are not 'soft enough,'" to use the phrase of Mr. Webster, to be duped by the pretended friendship of those who have always used their utmost efforts to defeat them. The Federalists hope of future success upon a temporary triumph in this State. Pennsylvania is still democratic to the core, and the "sober second thought" will show that what we say is true. There is also in the very "heart of hearts" of the people of this State, an abiding feeling of gratitude for the statesman who, with indomitable zeal and undaunted patriotism, raised the credit of the State from the "Slough of Despond" in which it was placed by Riiter's corrupt administration—a feeling which will cause the people to sustain the man who has proved himself worthy of their confidence. This feeling is not to be turned aside or extinguished by the clamor of the opposition—they may rage in the paroxysms of their bitter and unrelenting hate, as they did when he was first nominated; but the people who feel the benefits of his Administration, and who are to be the jurors in his case, will doubtless render a just and righteous verdict.

We may notice as one of the indications of Whiggery, that the Bradford Argus has nominated Charles Ogles, as the Whig candidate for Governor. "Tell it not in Gath, that the man who on the floor of Congress charged all the Presidents from the time of Washington with being as bad as PHILLY ESS, is taken to the embrace of Federalism, and proposed as their candidate for Governor—Oh shame, where is thy blush!"

We have flung our banner to the breeze, inscribed with the name of DAVID R. PORTER; and "sink or swim, survive or perish," we will uphold it. We are firmly persuaded that the people of this State will continue to support the man who has so signally disappointed the predictions of his foes, and more than met the hopes of his friends. The sterling Democracy of the Star of the North can and will increase the majority of 1528.

The "TAX LAW" passed at the last session of the Legislature, will be found on the opposite page, to which we invite the attention of our readers.

Gen. CARB, our Minister to France, has been nominated for the Presidency in 1844, by a large meeting in Monroe county, New York. "This we should say was "taking time by the forelock."

THE PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER is an eulogistic article of Mr. Penrose, says he is "one of the ablest tacticians" of the Federal party in Pennsylvania. Our contemporary might have added, "and is also most skillful in effecting a retreat, when that becomes necessary."

The SPECIAL ELECTION—Up to the time our paper was put to press on yesterday, we had received no returns, official or otherwise, from Perry or Juniata counties. It is impossible for us to say, therefore, what has been the result over the mountains. We presume, however, that Col. McClure has a large majority.

The Death of Professor Davis.
A letter from Charlottesville, Va., to the editor of the Richmond Whig, announces the melancholy fact of the death of Professor Davis. He died on Saturday from the pistol shot he received on the Thursday previous. The letter referred to gives the following particulars of his death:

"The 12th November is the anniversary of a celebrated rebellion which took place at the University some three or four years ago. It has been customary, with some few of the students, to celebrate that day ever since. On Thursday night last, the 12th, there were only two or three who could be found to commemorate the event. They went forth about 9 o'clock, armed with pistols, and disguised with masks, &c. After making a good deal of noise upon the lawn of the University, they approached Professor Davis's residence, with the design, as he believed, to insult him. He went out with the view of discovering who they were. He immediately came upon a very small person, who had a mask on, and who was otherwise disguised. He approached him, and reached out his hand to unmask him. The individual, without uttering a word, stepped back one or two paces, and fired the fatal shot. This has been cut down, in the vigor of intellect and the prime of manhood, a gentleman who was an ornament to society and the pride of the University.

"It is not yet known who was the perpetrator of this diabolical deed. A student was arrested yesterday, and after examining a great many witnesses, the case was adjourned over till to-morrow. The evidence against him thus far, consists of the vaguest sort of suspicion. Another student disappeared from the University on Friday, the day after Professor Davis was shot, and has not been seen or heard of since."

A Phenomenon—The Cincinnati Ledger of the 11th says:

Yesterday morning, as we were returning home from our office, about two o'clock, we were suddenly startled by an explosion immediately over our head, similar to the report of a cannon. On looking up, we discovered, in the air, large fragments of fire, flying in different directions—each of which looked to us as if they were particles of a star that had burst asunder. The moon became black as ink, and the stars all seemed as if they had dwindled away, and naught could be seen but the fiery fragments flying about the sky. These burst for a few moments, and then gradually died away, until they could be seen no more. A few moments after the explosion took place, the earth shook like an aspen, and the moon when she again shone forth, seemed trembling from the effects of the shock. "What could have been the cause of this wonderful occurrence? Can any of our great astrologers throw any light on the subject?"

From Florida—The Pensacola Gazette of the 7th inst. says: "By the scho'r Rio Grande, which arrived this morning from Tampa Bay, we learn that the Indians have again broken faith and left the whites to wonder at their treachery. On breaking loose at Tampa, they killed one man, firing seven balls into his body, and scalping him, within a few hundred yards of 2,500 troops. On the day the Rio Grande left, Gen. Armstrong started with a regiment of men for Fort King. Thus ends this 1st attempt to form a treaty with the Seminoles."

THE MONEY MARKET.
Sylvestor's Reporter has the following observations upon the Money Market:
"It is evident that the excitement of the election has already worn off, and that all classes have returned to their wonted occupations. Nevertheless, the transactions of capitalists are limited, and exhibit clearly their determination to remain in a safe position until the result of peace or war in Europe be known.
"The demand for specie continues, and large shipments are made by each packet. This alone awakens the cautiousness of the Banks, but they are in the position at present to enable them to control their affairs. The resumption of the U. S. Bank is, however, a matter of uncertainty, notwithstanding previous reports of the Boston and Providence Banks having acceded to the proposition—and the aid of the New York Banks has also been asked to enable her to effect a resumption. Certain it is she has no security to offer for the loan, otherwise it would long ere this have been readily complied with. There is therefore no probability of her meeting with success in this quarter. In Boston the result may be different, as the trade is mostly cut up between the two cities, and to resuscitate it the U. S. Bank must have her assistance. Her assets are mostly unproductive and unavailable, and are also dependent on the rise of prices.
"Several institutions, which are already insolvent, are deeply indebted to her, and the bad management of the institution has prevented any assistance being rendered. The decline of Philadelphia funds is no indication of the resumption—the valuation is daily.
"Southern funds are generally improving, and in some points a difference is actually in their favor. This arises from the small amount of purchases made by southern dealers during the summer and has already been liquidated by cotton, which is now rapidly seeking a market in Europe."

EARLY SNOW—The Baltimore Clipper of Thursday last, says:—"It continued to snow briskly all day yesterday; and had it not melted in a great measure as it fell, its depth would have been probably fifteen inches. Some of our aged citizens have remarked that so large a quantity of snow has not fallen in this latitude, thus early, for forty years."
On Saturday night, week, a storm of unusual violence visited Philadelphia. It was accompanied with heavy thunder and lightning. The Inquirer says:—"Shortly after 9 o'clock, the buildings in various parts of our city trembled and shook for several seconds, as if through the agency of an earthquake. Many of our citizens were alarmed, and the pause which immediately succeeded the shock, especially to those who were in situations of quiet repose, calculated fully to experience the terrible sensation, was marked by a feeling of awe and solemnity. We have since been informed that the waters of the Delaware were agitated by a heavy and unusual swell at the same time."
The Ledger publishes the following communication and supposes that the shock mentioned by the Inquirer, might have had its origin in the phenomenon:
MESSRS. EYRONS—It may be interesting to your numerous readers to be made acquainted with some particulars connected with the thunder storm of Saturday night last, which was accompanied with meteoric phenomena. An eye-witness, walking in the neighborhood of Walnut and Schuylkill Fifth streets, about 9 o'clock, was suddenly startled by the rushing of a ball of fire, as large as one's head, within a few inches of the face of our informant, attended with a strong sulphurous smell, and a sensation of great heat. It exploded on the opposite side of the street, near the square, casting forth scintillations of various colors with an unusual light, appearing like a rain of fire. A report nearly as loud as a cannon followed. This meteor was witnessed by a few persons. As many heard an unusual sound on that evening, this explanation may account for it.

PENNSYLVANIA—The election table in another part of to-day's paper, shows that the Federalists, as in 1835, have again carried the state for Harrison by a MINORITY!
The highest federal elector has 144,022 votes. The highest democratic do. 113,784
Federal majority, 338
Abolition vote, 343
Federal minority of the whole vote, 105
Riiter's, the lowest on the federal ticket, 113,200
The lowest on the democratic ticket, 113,663
Federal majority, 337
Average federal majority, 282
Of the whole vote of the state, say 238,051—the FEDERAL MINORITY is FORTY-TWO!
—Harrisburg Reporter.

Burglary and attempt at Suicide.—A young German named Ernest Neiman, broke into a jewelry shop in Philadelphia on Monday night, and robbed it of about $300 worth of watches, &c. He was caught with the stolen goods upon him. Finding he was detected, he attempted to destroy himself by swallowing laudanum; a rival of which he had concealed about him. The efforts of a physician, however, saved him, and he is likely yet to do the State some service.

UNLAWFUL MARRIAGE.
The town has been full of rumors for a day or two past, respecting the solemnization of a marriage between parties disabled by the laws of God and man from entering into the estate. We procure our information from the best sources, and on Monday morning last, about 12 o'clock, four persons, two males and two females, called at the office of Alderman Campbell, northwest corner of Eighth and Fitzwater streets, and desired that two of them should be married. Mr. James Kane, said to be aged eighty-four years, and Miss Emma Haines, said to be aged about twenty. Alderman Campbell made all the legal inquiries particularly, and the more so, because of the disparity in the Legislative Keystone.

DURING the ensuing session of the Legislature, the Keystones will, as usual, be published twice a week and contain full reports of the proceedings in both Houses. The editors have employed competent Stenographers to report at length the debates on all important subjects. Arrangements are also made, through a correspondent at Washington, to give early and correct accounts of the proceedings of Congress. The extraordinary political complexion of the Legislature, brought about through the unjust state, and the important subjects which will necessarily come before it, will render the next session peculiarly interesting. All eyes are turned this way for speedy reform in our defective currency. Desired action relative to the Improvement system is ardently desired in many quarters. These are subjects of themselves, form subjects of intense interest to the people at large.
On the 4th of March, a democratic convention will assemble to nominate a candidate for Governor. An account of this and the preparatory movements of the party in all quarters will be faithfully detailed. From these circumstances, there never has been a time when an indispensable value to the citizens of the Commonwealth, as it will be for the ensuing session.
The terms of the Keystone are the same as heretofore.
During the session semi-weekly $2 00
For the year 5 00
Any person forwarding us $2.00 shall receive the Keystones from the time of subscribing to the close of the session, or six copies will be sent to any one office for $10 00
All Post Masters are invited to act as agents for the Keystones, in receiving subscribers and remitting money to us; and any one signifying his willingness to act as such, shall receive a list of our subscribers in his town and neighborhood, with our terms of agency.
WARRIATT & PARKS,
Harrisburg, Nov. 26, 1840.

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS.
THE Pennsylvania Reporter will as heretofore be published twice a week during the ensuing session of the Legislature, and contain full reports of its proceedings. It will keep its subscribers advised from time to time of the transactions of Congress, and of the national administration, which will commence its federal reign on next fourth of March. Ample provision has been made for the publication of the papers in the present picture of political affairs—when the Legislature is not in session, and the administration of the General Government is passing into strange hands, much interesting matter may be expected to transpire, and the Legislature in regard to the cherished and deranged banking system of the whigs; to the embarrassed condition of the Commonwealth which is the policy it attempts to settle for the state and nation under the new dynasty, the Turkish cause for amusement, and possibly an early and determined resistance. And the first developments of the Harrison administration; their currency upon the hopes of the south, or north, or east, or the middle states, and its measures in which the jealous competitors for patronage will exhibit the lights and shades of hope and the process of distribution at Washington, during the supply fund for maintenance of the troops, who are excluded together from the list of procurement. The measure of the administration will necessarily be treated more seriously by the democratic press, and we shall not be backward to deal out a full measure of condemnation whenever it is deserved and called for at our hands.
In the mean time the democratic party has duties to discharge and the country to perform, of which a full share will devolve on the Reporter. The Federalists defeated it on the Presidential election by a few hundred votes. The Governor's election, which in its near approach will admit the parties for the contest almost immediately, requires that every democrat repair to his post of duty. The party who are defeated again, and cannot be, if its organization be perfected, and its ranks be brought to the polls in their ancient spirit and strength.
In all these matters we shall be vigilant to collect the earliest and most accurate intelligence, and hand it over to our readers with an additional patronage we may receive in our place and vocation.
TERMS OF THE REPORTER.
For the session, twice a week, in advance $2 00
For the whole year, 5 00
Any person forwarding five session subscribers and the money, shall have a sixth copy for his private use.
