TERMS OF PUBLICATION.

$2 00 per annum, in advance—or $2 50, if not paid within the year.

No subscription taken for a less term than six months, and no discontinuance permitted until all arrearages are paid. A failure to notify a discontinuance at the expiration of a term, will be considered a new engagement.

Advertisements -- $1 00 per square for the three first insertions, and twenty five cents for every subsequent one.

merican

BY GEO. SANDERSON.]

"OUR COUNTRY-RIGHT OF WRONG." Carlisle, Pa. Thursday December 17, 1840. TAT TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE,

AND THE

Ladies' and Gentlemen's World of Literature and Fashion.

The Casket and the Gentleman's United.)

A NEW Volume, under the above title, of the well established and fashionable Magazine. The Philadelphia Casket in conjunction with the gentleman's Magazine, which has been every where pronounced the most readable and popular of the day will be opened on the First of January, 1841, with an array of Contributors secured by the union, of talent and fame, which no periodical in the country can boast or pretend to rival. The December number will however, be a specimen of the New Volume. The volume will be opened with a new and beautiful type, the finest white paper, and with the first of a series of embellishments unsurpassed by any which have yet appeared in any Magazine. The style of elegance the beauty of finish of these illustrations, and the extensive improvements which will be made in its typographical appearance, and above all the tone of its literary. Alpartment, by the brilliant array of contributors, whose articles have enriched the pages of each number, will give it character, second to no Magazine in the Union. The character of the articles which shall appear in its pages, will be equally removed from a sickly sentimentality and from an affectation of morality, but while a true delineation of human nature in every while ty of passion is aimed at, in thing shall be found in its pages to cause a blush upon the cheek of The Casket and the Gentleman's United. ty of passion is aimed at, n thing shall be found in its pages to cause a blush upon the check of

The Literary character will be sufficiently guaranteed by the reputation of both Magazines thus muited, for years past. Writers of the first rank have been regular contributors to their pages, and the tales and sketches published in them have been widely copied and read, and the firm and independent tone of the criticisms, upon the current literature of the distributions.

the firm and independent tone of the criticisms, upon the current literature of the day, has the list of contributors embraces, the names of most of the printipal writers in America with a respectable number of English authors.

The series of well known nautical papers on titlet, 'Cruizing in the fast war,' have had a run, unequalled by any series published in any Magazine, for years. The author promises to open the first of a new series of Tales of the Sea, and from his known abilities as a depictor of sea scenes and life, much may be relied upon from him in m dint dining the popularity of the Magazine-Papers may be expected during the volume, also from the author of the well known afficies intitled; the Log of Old Ironside. The author of 'Syrian Letters,' will, also lend his powerful and grateful pen, to sustain and increase the eputant of the work. The valuable hid of the author/of 'Leaves from a Lawyers Port Folia,' has also been secured,—and we may expect author/of 'Leaves from a Lawyers Port Folia,' has also been secured, and we may expect something still more thrilling from the capacious stores which a long life in the profession has enabled him to amass. An occasional ChitChat, with 'Jemmy Short,' and 'Oliver Oldfelow,' is also promised; with a variety of choice articles in prose and verse from various writers of celebrity, as contributes to the articles in prose-and verse, from various writers of celebrity, as contributors to the prominent Magazines of the country. The editors of both Migazines continue their services under the new arrangement. With such an array of talent, a Magazine of unrivalled attractions, may sa'e'y be promised the coming volume.

FASHIONS AND ENGRAVINGS.

In compliance with the almost unanimous wish of our lady subscribers, we shall the ensuing volume furnish them with a beautiful and correct plate of Fashi ans monthly, a feature, it is believed that will acither be an welcome ner unpopular. The fashion plates shall be drawn from original designs from Paris and London, and may always be depended upon as the prevailing style in Philadelphia and New York for the month in which they are issued. These, however, shall in on wise interfere with the regular and choice engravings, and moste which accomplany each number of the work. The splendid Mezzatist engravings from the burin of Sartain, which have been so justly admired, will be Gilbard degree. splendid Mezzatint engravings from the burin of Sattain, which have been so justly admired, will be fallowed during the volume by several from the same hand, while the steel engravings in the best style of art, from interesting scenes shall enrich the M graine. The choicest pieces of music for the Plano and Guitar shall accompany each number of the work.

Time of Publication.—The work will be published on the first of the month in every quarter

Dany each number of the work.

Time of Publication.—The work will be published on the first of the month in every quarter of the Union. The most distant subscriber will consequently receive it on that day, as well as those who reside in Philadelphia. In all the principal cities, agents have been established to whom the Vigazine is forwarded, prior to the time of issing it so that they may be delivered to resident subscribers by the first of the month. This is an important arrangement to distant subscribers who become tired, important arrangement to distant subscribers who become tired, important and eventually discontinue many works.

TERMS.—Three Dollars per annum Or two copies yearly for five distant subscribers by the first of the subscribers who become tired, important arrangement to distant subscribers who become tired, important and eventually discontinue many works.

TERMS.—Three Dollars per annum Or two copies yearly for five distant subscribers by the first of the subscribers by the first of the state except the recognizance entered into by John K. Longnecker, dec'd., respectfully representing that your petition of Henry Longnecker, dec'd., respectfully representing that your petition of the said Henry Longnecker, dec'd.—Intal the has filed his administrator of the estate of the said Henry Longnecker, dec'd.—Intal the has filed his administrator of the estate of the said Henry Longnecker, dec'd.—Intal the has filed his administration account, and there is upon the settlement of said account a balance overpaid by accountant of said account a balance overpaid by accountant of said account a balance overpaid by accountant of said account. All the has filed his administrator of the estate of the said Henry Longnecker, dec'd.—Intal the has filed his administrator of the estate of the said Henry Longnecker of the has a deministrator of t

TERMS.—Three Dollars per annum. Or two copies yearly for five dollars, invariably in advance, post-paid. No new subscriber received without the money, on the name of a responsible agent. For the accommodation of those who may wish to subscribe for either of the following Philadelphia negodicals this third Prowho, m iy wish to subscribe for either of the fol-lowing Philadelphia periodicals this Liberal Pro-posal is made. Five dollars current money free of postage, we will forward Graham's Maga-zine and Godey's Lady's Book; for one year. Address, post paid:

GEO. R. GRAHAM.

outh west corner of Chesnut & Third st. Phil i.

VALUABLE OUT LOTS FOR SALE.

ILL be sold at public sale, on the prem 11.1. be soid at public sale, on the premises, in pursuance of an order of the Orphans Court of Cumberland county, on Monday the 14th of December next, the following described Out Lots, late the estate of Robert Armstrong, december

No. 2. Bounded on the north and west

No. 2.—Bounded on the north and west by lands of James Noble's heirs, on the east by a lot of the heirs of James Moore, dec'd., and on the south by lots'of James Armstrong and Mrs.—Cooper, containing Three Acres.

No. 3.—Bounded by lands of Baughman's heirs, Andrew Blair, Patrick Phillips and others, being part of an additional out lot No. 15, containing Two Acres and Forty Perches, all situate in the Borough of Carlisle.

The terms of sale are: one half of the purchase money to be paid on the confirmation of the sale.

money to be paid on the confirmation of the sale; and the residue in one year thereafter without interest, to be secured by judgment bonds. Sale to commence, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said. day, when and where due attendance will be given

JAMES ARMSTRONG, Admir. of Robt. Armstrong, dec'd. November 19, 1840.

WANTED,

A boy to learn the Shoemaking business.— One from the country would be preferred.— HENRY WARNER. Carlisle, Nov. 12, 1840.

Whole No. 1377.

Legislative Keystone. URING the ensuing session of the Legislature, the Keystone will, as usual, be published twice a week and contain full reports of the precedings in both Houses. The editors have employed competent Stenographers to report at length the debates on all important subjects. Arrangements are also made, through a correct accounts of the proceedings of Congress. The extraordinary political complexion of the Legislature, brought about through the unjust Senatorial and representative apporticment of the people at large.

On the 4th of March, a democratic convention preparatory movements of the party in all quar-ters will be faithfully detailed. From these cir-cumstances, there never has been a time when

of our subscribers in his town and neighborhood, with our terms of agency.

BARRETT & PARKE. Harrisburg, Nov. 26, 1840.

Estate of Joseph M' Kee, deceased. bors residing in said township: All persons in-debted to said estate are requested to pay off im-mediately, and those having claims to present the same properly authenticated for settlement.

DAVID J. M'KEE, JOSEPH'M. M'KEE,

Administrator November 26, 1840.

LAST NOTICE.

PERSONS indebted to the estate of David S. Forney, dec'd., by book account or otherwise, are hereby requested to come and settle the same, on or before the 23d day of December next, as no

FEATHERS, PEACHES, &c.

The subscribers have just returned from the West with a lot of FEATHERS, and DRIED PEACHES, which they offer for sale at their store room corner of Hanover and Louther speets. Also on hand, a large stock of Horses, suitable for Saddle, Harness, or Draught.

All of which will be sold reasonable.

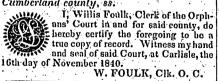

HAMILTON & GRIER.

HAMILTON & GRIER. Carlisle, Dec. 3, 1840.

At a stated Orphans' Court egan and held on Monday the 9th day of November, 1840, at Carlisle, in & for Cumberland couny, before the Hon. Samuel Hepburn, President, nd John Stuart and John Lefevre, Associate Judges of the same, assigned, &c., the following pro ceedings were had; to wit:
Upon the petition of John K. Lengne

overpara by him should not be changed in a same recognizance as of the 1st April 1840.

10th November 1840. Rule granted. Personal notice to be served on those in the county, and notice to be given to those out of the county by publication in two newspapers in the county for six weeks, returnable at the January Court 1841. Cumberland county, 88:

FARM FOR RENT.

ILL be rented for the term of one year, on the premises, on Saturday the 19th of De-cember inst., at 10 o'clock in the forencon, a valuable and well improved farm, situate in Dickin-son township, late the property of Anthony Black, dec'd. The farm contains 96 acres in all, about ceased.

No. 1.—Adjoining lots of IVm. M. Biddle, Esq. L. Keller, Louther street continued, and the College lane, containing One and Two Thirds

Cores.

Acres.

WILLIAM CAROTHERS,
Executor of A. Black, dec'd.
December 3, 1840.

SELLING OFF AT FIRST COST!

TO COUNTRY MERCHANTS AND OTHERS. The subscribers, intending to leave Carlisle, offer their entire stock, comprising an extensive variety of every description of DRY GOODS.

Country Merchants, and the public generally, will find it decidedly to their advan-

to every one who desires to purchase.

next.

as the American people are enlightened, and brains!" will assemble here and nominate a candidate for more thorough appreciation of human duties, governor. An account of this, together with the than had the English people of 1660. But, There are, we suppose, some extenuating difference, and the undoubted disposition of Federal Government occupies a singularly than had the English people of 1660. But, a paper from the sect of government was of such indispensable value to all the citizens of the commonwealth, as it will be for the exsuing six ion; if not with content, at least with an apvoice that will enable us to bow to its decis- was $6,000 .- Baltimore Republican. nonth.
The terms of the Keystone are the same as to be more learned than our neighbors, we The terms of the session of the people may prised at nothing which the people may without a wing; a blind horse, a more, what you please. Such an individual might close of the session—or six copies will be sent to any one office for $10.00.

We have compared the election of General Harrison to the Restoration of Charles II., to the English throne, and we newspapers and are better informed, to gather the people may without a wing; a blind horse, a more, what you please. Such an individual might do well enough to live in the manner of Robinson Cruso, but he has no excuse for thrusting thimself amongst those who do take newspapers and are better informed, to gather the people may prised at nothing which the people may without a wing; a blind horse, a more, without a wing; a blind horse, a more without a wing; a blind horse, a mo The first part of the Keystone, in receiving subscribers and for the Keystone, in receiving subscribers and particular to the English throne, and we ing thinself amongst those who do take suing year. It is understood that their refidelity the Government had unfortunately newspapers and any one signifying believe the parallel a good one; for it is our newspapers and any one signifying believe the parallel a good one; for it is our newspapers and any one signifying believe the parallel a good one; for it is our newspapers and any one signifying believe the parallel a good one; for it is our newspapers and any one signifying believe the parallel a good one; for it is our newspapers and any one signifying believe the parallel a good one; for it is our newspapers and any one signifying believe the parallel a good one; for it is our newspapers and any one signifying believe the parallel a good one; for it is our newspapers and any one signifying believe the parallel a good one; for it is our newspapers and any one signifying believe the parallel a good one; for it is our newspapers and any one signifying believe the parallel a good one; for it is our newspapers and any one signifying believe the parallel a good one; for it is our newspapers and any one signifying believe the parallel a good one; for it is our newspapers and any one signifying believe the parallel a good one; for it is our newspapers and any one signifying the fidelity the Government had unfortunately newspapers and any one signifying the interest of the Keystone, in receiving subscribers and the control of the Keystone, in receiving subscribers and the control of the Keystone, in receiving subscribers in the control of the Keystone, in the Keystone, in the control of the control of the control of the Keystone, in the control of the Keystone, in the control of the cont tion soon became sick of the Stuarts, whom they may choose to drop for him. We know in their mad folly they had re-called to rule many such men, and might name them, but may have been made clsewhere prejudicial The suspension, & the excesses in over them, so will the American people soon become disgusted with whigism, and return to democracy. This conviction it is which ETTERS of administration with the will annexed, of Joseph M'Kee, late of Newton or otherwise we should be completely crush-township, dee'd, have been issued to the subscried in spirit. enables us to bear our defeat with fortitude, ed in spirit.

We need scarcely say to our readers, that we deeply regret the result of the late contest, lively as are our hopes of a great tri-umph four years from this time. We regret t, because it proves that even in this enlight ned age, truth can be stricken down by falschood. We regret it, because it shows that the people can be grossly deceived, and this will tempt the ambitious to appeal to any thing but their judgment. We regret it, be-Forney, dec'd, by book account or otherwise, are hereby requested to come and settle the same, on or before the 23d day of December next, as no further indulgence will be given. The books will then be placed in the hands of a Justice of the Peace for collection.

G. W. SHAEFFER, JACOB SHROM,

Executors.

November 26, 1840.

St. Shows a count or otherwise, are beloved country, through the vicissitudes of another year, the invaluable blessings of the live invaluable blessings of the proposition. The books will then be placed in the hands of a Justice of the Peace for collection.

Whilst such has been our condition for another year, the invaluable blessings of the live invaluable blessin tively engaging in important works of reform demanded by the spirit of the age, but will principles of evil developing itself. We regard the practice of speaking plainty, regret it, because it has added to the instances of popular ingratitude which are already on record, by the condemnation of a faithful public servant, and will thereby deter men manifestations of friendship, in the commercial transfer many delays and difficulties and these we concerd and these we concerd and these we can the property of the process of popular ingratitude which are already to Berlin, where, according to stipulation, the ratifications are to be able to say, that, from the commencement of the process we concerd and these we can the process of popular ingratitude which are already to Berlin, where, according to stipulation, the ratifications are to be able to say, that, from the commencement of the process we concerd and these we can the process of the pro is its archetype."

SALARIES OF GOVERNORS.

The Baltimore Sun contains a statement showing the salaries of the Governors of the various States composing our Union, of which the following is an abstract: Gov. Roman of Louisiana $7500

	Albuisiana, @
Grayson,	Maryland,
Seward,	New York,
Porter,	Pennsylvania,
McDonald, ~	Georgia,
Morton,	Massachusetts,
Hannigan.	South Carolina,
Gilmer,	Virginia,
McNutt,	Mississippi,
Letcher,	Kentucky,
Reid,	Florida, Terr.
Dodge,	Wisconsin,
Lucas,	Iowa,
Pennington,	New Jersey,
Moorehead,	North Carolina,
Conway,	Arkansas,
Polk,	Tennessee,
Woodbridge,	Michigan,
Reynolds,	Missouri,
Fairfield,	Maine,
Shannon,
Bigger,	Indiana,
Carlin,	Illinois,
Comegys,	Delaware, 1
Page,	New Hampshire, 1
Ellsworth,	Connecticut, 1
Jennison,	Vormont 1
King,	Vermont, Rhode Island.
42.412.71	athoug island.

MURDER MOST FOUL. The Malboro' Gazette gives the following their independent rights. account of one of the most bloody deeds we

400

we find the old plea put in behalf of the cul-prit, of respectability of relatives, and he is period is approaching for its final settlement erally, will find it decidedly to their advan-actually admitted to bail. The occurrence Both Governments must now be convinced took place in the neighborhood of Bladens- of the dangers with which the question is took place in the neighborhood of Bladenscannot obtain goods cheaper in the city.

Call and see—call und purchase.

Depend upon it, bargains are now offered to every one who desires to purchase.

Carlisle, Nov. 12, 1840.

Look place in the neighborhood of Bladens—of the dangers with which the question is fraught; and it must be their desire as it is their interest, that this perpetual cause of the interest, that this perpetual cause of the interest, that this perpetual cause of the dangers with which the question is fraught; and it must be their desire as it is interest, that this perpetual cause of the dangers with which the question is fraught; and it must be their desire as it is interest, that this perpetual cause of the carried by the Gazette, which says:—"We learn their interest, that this perpetual cause of the dangers with which the question is fraught; and it must be their desire as it is interest, that this perpetual cause of the carried by the Gazette, which says:—"We learn their interest, that this perpetual cause of interest in their interest, that this perpetual cause of interest in their interest, that this perpetual cause of interest interest.

Carliste, Nov. 12, 1840.

· 15、安徽等 医氯化氯化异合物

THE RESULT OF THE ELECTION.

Mr. Hazewell—the intelligent and very able Editor of the Nantucket Islander—comments upon the result of the General Electron the intelligent and very able Editors.

To his house, got his gun, and when within a few yards of Magruder discharged the gun at him—three of the shot, as we hear, taking effect in the forehead, the remainder passing through the hat. We have no desire to prejudice public opinion against Hilleary—the property of the success with which embaraged the gun at him three of the shot, as we hear, taking the public opinion against Hilleary—through the hat. We have no desire to prejudice public opinion against Hilleary—the sidered; such as were deemed correct in sidered; such as were deemed correct in the present sound condition of their firm and the success with which embarages are the success with which embarages and the success with which embarages are the success with which embarages are the success with which embarages are the success with the western bank of the limits in dispute, was then before the success.

The present season.

The present season.

No Newspaper .- The time is coming

Session of the Twenty-Sixth Congress.

Fellow-citizens of the Senate and House of Representatives: Our devout gratitude is due to the Supreme the arbitration of a triendity rower, in con-, one are of root, and formity with the seventh article of the treaty upon the importation of iron for railroads, beloved country, through the vicissitudes of by the British government to this proposition.

Whilst such has been our condition for the British government to this proposition.

A series of questions of long standing, difficult in their adjustment, and important

The commissioners appoint

2500 justed. With all the Powers of the world, our relations are those of honorable peace. Since your adjournment, nothing serious has cocurred to interrupt or threaten this desirable harmony. If clouds have lowered above portentious shadow upon our happy shores. Bounded by no entangling alliances, yet linked by a common nature and interest with the other nations of mankind, our aspirations are for the preservation of peace, in whose solid and civilizing triumphs all may participate with a generous emulation. Yet it behouses us to be prepared for any event, and to be always ready to maintain those just and enlightened principles of national inter-course, for which this government has ever contended. In the shock of contending empires, it is only by assuming a resolute bearing, and clothing themselves with defensive armor that neutral nations can maintain

The excitement which grew out of the have ever been called upon to notice. Not territorial controversy between the United withstanding the heinousness of the crime. States and Great Britain having in: a great 4

New Series--Vol. 5, No. 27.

have a better knowledge of human rights, a Hilleary has heretofore stood fair in this speedy answer may be confidently expected. found to consist in ample resources unenmore thorough appreciation of human duties, county, and has many respectable relatives. From the character of the points still in combered with debt; and, in this respect the bad as is the act; a majority of our country as his honor Judge Stephen permitted bail that we have that respect for the popular in this case. The amount of bail required to prompt and satisfactory termination of the official duties in March 1837, the act for the popular of the country and the triple of the popular of the case. The amount of bail required to prompt and satisfactory termination of the official duties in March 1837, the act for the popular of the case. negotiation. Three commissioners were appointed shortly after the adjournment of course of rapid execution. Nearly twenty Congress, under the act of the last session, eight millions of dollars of the public moneys providing for the exploration and survey of the line which separates the states of Maine ted with the States in the months of Januand New Hampshire from the British Pro- ary, April, and July of that year. In May, vinces; they have been actively employed there occurred a general suspension of speuntil-their progress was interrupted by the cie, payments by the banks, including with inclemency of the season, and will resume very few exceptions, those in which the pubtheir labors as soon as practicable in the en- lic money was deposited, and upon whose upon the subject in controversy, and serve had been collected from the people, and were we refrain; but you gentle reader can point to the United States. It was, among other them out yourself.—Am. Union. to the United States. It was, among other them out yourself.—Am. Union. barrassments which, in our peculiar system made to a great degree unavailable, the print of government, impede and complicate negocipal part of the public money then on hand;

> its Minister at Washington, that early steps continued to operate in various degrees, to should be taken to adjust the points of diffcrence on the line of boundary from the endecrease in the revenue thus produced, two trance of Lake Superior to the most north- and a half millions of duties have been rewestern point of the Lake of the Woods, by agitating, not merely this Union, but the world. We regret it, because it will prevent the democracy from actively engaging in important works of reform alike due to the genius and distinctive char-ment of a long standing question of contro- that for the prosecution of measures for the compel them to abandon such works for the acter of our government and to the principose of engaging in one of scarce less by which it is directed; a faithful ob- could obstruct the friendly and mutually ad- were found in progress, has been nearly importance, that, namely, of preventing the servance, in the management of our foreign vantageuos intercourse between the two na-of talents from being true to the people. cial privileges we concede, and those we rewe regret if, more than all, because it is the quire from others; these accompanied by a a treaty of commerce and navigation between broad, has been promptly met. This has triumph of money over men, a victory of the disposition as prompt to maintain, in every neith over the poon, in which the latter have been grossly abused, deceived, trampled principle averse to the invasion of the invasion these, and many other reasons, others, having given to our country and governments. Its stipulations are found-progressive reduction of existing burdens which we might enumerate had we room, ernment a standing in the great family of ed upon those principles of mutual liberality upon the people, leaving still a considerable we regret the defeat of Mr. Van Buren and mations, of which we like just cause to be and advantage which the United States have the election of General Harrison each of proud, and the advantages of which are ex- always sought to make the basis of their in in the Treasury at the end of the year. This whom is the great type of a great principle perienced by our citizens throughout every tercourse with foreign Powers, and it is small amount of Treasury notes, not exceed which is elevated or depressed according as portion of the earth to which their enterpris- hoped they will tend to foster and strength- ing four and a half millions of dollars, still in their consequences, in which the rights of conxention for the adjustment of claims of which they may, it is thought, be kept withour citizens and the honor of the course of the United States upon Mexico out prejudice to the public interest, and the were deeply involved have, in the course of having met and organized at Washington, revenue shall prove to be as large as may a few years (the matter the matter). a few years, (the most of theme during the in August last, the papers in the possession justly be anticipated, successful administration of my immediate of the Government, relating to those claims, Among the reflecti predecessor,) been brought to a satisfactory were communicated to the board. The contemplation of these circumstances, one, conclusion; and the most important of those claims not embraced by that convention are remaining are, I am happy to say, in a fair now the subject of negotiation between the that the Government had the resolution and ernments of South America. I regret, how most needed a rallying point by which the ever, to be obliged to inform you that the business of the whole country might be claims of our citizens upon the late Republic brought back to a safe and unvarying stand. the other hemisphere, they have not cast their of Colombia have not yet been satisfied by ard—a result vitally important as well to portentious shadow upon our happy shores. the separate Governments into which it has to the interests as to the morals of the peo-

The charge d'affaires of Brazil having expressed the intention of his Government not to prolong the treaty of 1828, it will cease to be obligatory upon either party on the 12th day of December, 1841, when the extensive commercial Intercourse between the United dard of value, either by the pressure of ad-States and that vast empire will no longer verse circumstances or the violence of unbe regulated by express stipulations.

you that the Government of Chili has enter- duty was highly honorable to their fortifule ed into an agreement to indemnify the claimand patriotism. It cannot fail to stimulate their agents to adhere, under all circumstanmerican property seized in 1819; and to add ces, to the line of duty; and to taisfy them that information has also been received which of the safety with which a course really justifies the hope of an early adjustment of right, and demanded by a financial crisis: the remaining claims upon that Government. may, in a community like ours, be pursued,

The commissioners appointed in pursuance of the convention between the United States ind Texas, for marking the boundary between them, have, according to the last report received from our commissioners, suryeyed and established the whole extent of the boundary north along the western bank of the Sabine river, from its entrance inte he Gulf of Mexico to the thirty second detree of north latitude. The commission adjourned on the 10th of June last, to re-as-N. B.—Persons indebted are requested to near Hilleary's house, where they resumed by Great Britain had been received, and call and settle before the first of January they need the meant the quarrel. Some threats, it is said, were that a counter-project, including also a propose of establishing accurately the intersection of the thirty second degree of latitude.

A U. L. IV. 1. D.,

John Moore, Esq. Newvill

Joseph M. Means, Esq. Hopewelltownship.

John Wunderlich, Esq. Shippensburg.

William M. Mateer, Esq. Lee's & Roads.

John Mehaffy, Dickinson township.

John Clendenin, Ir. Esq. Hogestown.

George F. Cain, Esq. Mechanicsburg

Frederick-Wonderlich, do.

James Elliott, Esq. Springfield.

Daniel Krysher, Esq. Churchtown.

Jacob Longnecker, Esq. Wormleysburg.

George Ernest, Cedar Spring, Allen tp.

Martis G. Ruff, Esq. Shiremanstown.

ments upon the result of the General Election as follows:—

"There are some events recorded in history, or to be so recorded, which excite in thoughtful minds, feeling, not so much of indignation as of regret—not so much of anger as of sorrow. The "Restoration" of the Stuarts to the English throne—that great—the state of the most shocking in the success with which embaration. These were promptly considered; such as were deemed correct in principle, and consistent with a due regard to them, at times apparation to the just rights of the United States, and of the state of Maine, concurred in and the reasons for dissenting from the residue, with an additional suggestion on our part, communicated by the Secretary of State to Mr. Use have yet to record the most shocking for the success with which embarations. These were promptly connacted; such as were deemed correct in principle, and consistent with a due regard to them, at times apparation. These were promptly connacted; such as were deemed correct in principle, and consistent with a due regard to them, at times apparation. These were promptly connacted; such as were deemed correct in principle, and consistent with a due regard to them, at times apparation. These were promptly connacted; such as were deemed correct in principle, and consistent with a due regard to them, at times apparation. These were promptly connacted; such as were deemed correct in principle, and consistent with a due regard to them, at times apparation. These were promptly connacted; such as were deemed correct in principle, and consistent with a due regard to them, at times apparation. These were promptly connacted; such as were deemed correct in affair there are contracted; such as were deemed correct in affair there are contracted by the success with which embaration affair there are contracted; such as were deemed correct in affair there are contracted; such Legislature, brought about through the unjust Schatter, brought about through the unjust Schatter, and the important subjects which will necessarily come before it, will render the next session peculiarly interesting. All eyes are turned this, way for specify reform in our present defective currency. Desided action relative to the Improvement system is andently desired in many quarters. These two matters of these United States is another the next specific in many quarters. These two matters of the Schatter of the presidency of these United States is another the people at large.

Indignation as of regret—not so much of the advanced uffer he was shot. There were, we believe, two white witnesses of the whole an additional suggestion on our part, communicated by the Secretary of State to Mr. We have yet to record the most shocking form the residue, with an additional suggestion on our part, communicated by the Secretary of State to Mr. We have yet to record the most shocking form the residue, with angre as of sorrow. The "Restoration" of we believe, two white witnesses of the whole an additional suggestion on our part, communicated by the Secretary of State to Mr. Fox. That minister, not feeling himself sufficiently instructed upon some of the sufficiently instructed upon some of the part and experience has demonstrated its incomposite to his duty to refer the matter to his own Government of the bit duty to refer the matter to his own Government for its final decision. Having now the popular and independence has end of the discussion, felt it be his duty to refer the matter to the man's unicated by the Secretary of State to Mr. Fox. That minister, not feeling himself sufficiently instructed upon some of the part and experience has demonstrated its incomposite to refer the matter of the surface we believe, two white witnesses of the whole an additional suggestion on our part, communicated by the Secretary of State to Mr. Fox. That minister, not feeling himself sufficiency instructed upon some of the discussion, felt been for some time under its advisement, a and independence has on the contrary, been

The suspension, & the excesses in banking PRESEDENT'S MESSAGE.

Mossage of the President of the United States to the two Mouses of Congress, at the cincmencement of the second at the cincmencement of the second at the cincmencement of the second states to the two Mouses of Congress.

The propose to the British Government, through and the public money then on hand; suspended the collection of many millions accruing on merchants' bonds, and greatly reduced the reviewe arising from customs at the cincmencement of the second its Minister at Washington that early stens continued to energie in various degrees. linquished by two biennial reductions under the act of 1853, and probably as much more upon the importation of iron for railioads, > were found in progress, has been nearly fourteen millions; and the public buildings have required the unusual sum of nearly

ing and adventurous spirit may carry them. en the commercial intercourse of the two outstanding, and less by twenty-three mil-few, if any, remain insensible to the value countries. Few, if any, remain insensible to the value of our friendship, or ignorant of the terms on which it can be acquired, and by which it can alone be preserved.

A series of questions of long standing, . The commissioners appointed under the penditures do not exceed the amount within

Among the reflections arising from the way of being speedily and satisfactorilly ad-justed. two Governments, through the medium of the ability to adhere, in every emergency to the sacred obligations of law; to execute all the sacred obligations of law; to execute all-Nothing has occurred to disturb the harmony of our relations with the different Gov-

> There can surely now be no difference of opinion in pregard to the incalculable evils that would have arisen if the government, at that critical moment, had suffered itself to be deterred from upholding the only stanmerited denunciation. The manner in which It affords me pleasure to communicate to the people sustained the performance of this however, apparently severe its immediate operation

The policy of the Federal Government. in extinguishing as rapidly as possible the every temptation to create a new mick de-serves to be regarded in the same, favorable ight. Among the many objections to a national debt, the certain tendency of jublic of public securities to concentrate ultimate. v in the coffers of foreign stockholders, is na which is every day gathering strength. Already have the resources of many of the (Continued on Second Page.)