

At a stated Orphans' Court
began and held on Monday the 9th day of November, 1840, at Carlisle, in and for Cumberland county, before the Hon. Samuel Hepburn, Judge, and John Stuart and John Lefevre, Associate Judges, of the same, assigned, &c., the following proceedings were had, to wit:

Upon the petition of John K. Longnecker, Administrator of the estate of the said Henry Longnecker, dec'd., that he has filed his administration account and there is upon the settlement of said account a balance in favor of the said Henry Longnecker, dec'd., of $31,814. There are no funds belonging to the estate except the recognizance entered into by John K. 10th November 1840. Ruled granted. Personal notice to be served on those in the county, and notice to be given to those out of the county by publication in two newspapers of the county for six weeks, returnable at the January Court 1841. Cumberland county, ss.

I, Willis Foulk, Clerk of the Orphans' Court in and for said county, do hereby certify the foregoing to be a true and correct copy of the proceedings of the said Orphans' Court, at Carlisle, on the 16th day of November 1840.

Legislative Proceedings.

Semi-Weekly State Capital Gazette.

The publishers of the State Capital Gazette again return their sincere thanks to their friends the public, and the Democratic party at large, for the very liberal patronage which has been bestowed upon them during the past year, and respectfully assure those who have stood by them, that the future course of their journal shall be such as they feel confident will continue to receive the sanction and support of those who are friends of our public principles, who are proud to say, in a sure guarantee of the course which has been pursued by us, as conductors of a public journal, has met with the decided approbation of those to whom we always have looked, and still look to for support—the Democracy of Pennsylvania.

The Legislature which is about to assemble, a majority of the opponents of Democratic measures—will, undoubtedly, be one of exciting interest. A great deal of business, of vast importance to the People at large, will no doubt be brought before their representatives, and it is our duty, but in what manner it will be disposed of, or how far the trusts confided to them will be taken care of, yet remains to be seen. Let the issue be what it may, as conductors of a public journal at the seat of Government, we shall endeavor to do our duty, and while we will cheerfully exert to govern, who faithfully and fearlessly discharges his reasonable praise, when praise is due, we shall not, at the same time, through a mistaken policy, be backward in exposing those who violate their obligations to the People, or who prove recreant to the wishes of their constituents.

As far as lays in our power, we shall use every exertion to make our paper, during the coming winter, interesting. Arrangements have been made to lay before our readers, at an early hour, all accounts of the proceedings in both branches of the Legislature, for which purpose we have endeavored to procure the aid of reporters, possessing abilities which are already known to the public, and justly appreciated.

TERMS.

The STATE CAPITAL GAZETTE will be published twice a week during the sittings of the Legislature, and once a week for the remainder of the year, at the following prices:

The session only, (twice a week,) $2 00
The whole year, 3 00
Postmasters and others friendly to the Democratic cause, are respectfully requested to receive subscriptions to this paper. Any person forwarding us five good subscribers, shall be entitled to the sixth copy gratis; or any person procuring six good subscribers and forwarding $10 free of postage shall be entitled to the remainder for his trouble, and in the same proportion for a larger number.

W. HENLOCK & BRADTON,
December 17, 1840.

Legislative Keynote.

DURING the ensuing session of the Legislature, the Keynote will be published twice a week and contain full reports of the proceedings in both Houses. The editors have employed competent Stenographers to report at length the debates on all important subjects. Arrangements have also been made, through a correspondent at Washington, to give early and correct accounts of the proceedings of Congress.

The extraordinary political complexion of the Legislature, brought about through the unjust senatorial and representative apportionment of the state, and the important subjects which will necessarily come before it, will render the next session peculiarly interesting. All eyes are turned this way for speedy reform in our present defective currency. Deeded action relative to the Improvement system is ardently desired in many quarters. These two matters of themselves, form subjects of intense interest to the people at large.

On the 4th of March, a democratic convention will assemble here and nominate a candidate for governor. An account of this, together with the preparatory movements of the party, in all quarters, will be faithfully detailed. From these circumstances, there never has been a time when a paper from the seat of government was of such indispensable value to all the citizens of the Commonwealth, as it will be for the ensuing six months.

The terms of the Keynote are the same as heretofore.

During the session semi-weekly $2 00
For the year 3 00
Any person forwarding us $2.00 shall receive the Keynote from the time of subscribing to the close of the session—or six copies will be sent to any one office for $10 00.

All Post-Masters are invited to act as agents for the Keynote, in receiving subscribers and remitting money to us; and any one signifying his willingness to act as such, shall receive a list of our subscribers in his town and neighborhood, with our terms of exchange.

BARRETT & PARKE,
Harrisburg, Nov. 26, 1840.

Job work neatly executed at this office.

Daily and Semi-Weekly Pennsylvania Intelligencer.

DURING the ensuing session of the Legislature, the Pennsylvania Intelligencer will be published Daily and Semi-Weekly, on the following terms:

Daily during the session $3 00
Semi-Weekly do 2 00
Daily during the session and semi-weekly during the remainder of the year, per annum, 4 00

The Daily paper will be published on a sheet sufficiently large to contain full reports of the doings in both branches of the Legislature, sketches of Congressional proceedings, and general news of the times, together with miscellaneous articles on a variety of subjects.

The Semi-weekly paper will be published on a sheet of double-medium size, and will contain as much reading matter as any paper ever published in this country.

It is our intention to employ competent reporters in both Houses of the Legislature, and enrich our columns with every thing worth recording in the proceedings, or done by the representatives of the people.

The editorial department of the Intelligencer will be conducted with dignity and spirit, and every pains taken to render the sheet valuable and interesting, and worthy of public confidence and support. In national politics we will, as heretofore, sustain what we conceive to be the true principles of democracy. Having been among the earliest supporters of President Lincoln, and having contributed to the utmost of our abilities, to his election, we will yield to his administration a firm and hearty support. In regard to state politics we will so shape our course as to promote the best interests of the Commonwealth.

With this brief allusion to our principles, we refer to our past course as a pledge that our promises will be fulfilled. We trust that our friends and friends throughout the state will interest themselves in the circulation of the paper. We are determined to merit encouragement by every honorable effort, and we hope to receive it.

ELLIOTT & M'CURDY,
Harrisburg, Nov. 18, 1840.

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS.

THE Pennsylvania Reporter will as heretofore be published twice a week during the ensuing session of the Legislature, and contain full reports of its proceedings. It will also keep its subscribers advised from time to time of the proceedings of Congress, and of the national administration; which will commence its federal reign on next fourth of March. Ample provision has been made for that purpose.

In the present contest of political affairs, when the Legislature is not Democratic, and the administration of the General Government is passing into strange hands, much interesting matter may be expected. The acts of the Legislature in regard to the cherished issue of banking system of the west; to the embarrassed condition of the Commonwealth which is a consequence of the legislation of 1835-6; and the policy it will attempt to settle for the state under the present administration, will furnish cause for amusement, and possibly an early and determined resistance. And the first developments of the Harrison administration; their effect upon the hopes of the south, or north, or east, or the middle west, as its measures shall raise or depress them, and the tournaments in which the jealous competitors for patronage will exhibit the lights and shades of hope and fear, of exultation and disappointment during the process of disunion in Washington, will supply food for merriment to us, and our patrons, who are excluded together from the list of preferment. The measures of the administration will necessarily be treated more seriously by the democratic press, and we shall not be backward to denounce a full measure of condemnation whenever it is deserved and called for on our hands.

In the mean time the democratic party has duties to itself and the country to perform, of which a full share will devolve on the Reporter. The federalists defeated in the Presidential election by a few hundred votes. The Government's election, while in its next approach will crush the parties for the contest almost immediately, requires that every democrat, repaired to his post of duty. The party must not be defeated again and cannot be, if its organization be perfected, and its efforts be brought to the polls in their ancient spirit and strength.

In all these matters we shall be vigilant to collect the earliest and most accurate intelligence, and hand it over to our readers, and any important news of the kind, we will prompt us to a greater expense and efficiency in our place and vocation.

TERMS OF THE REPORTER.

For the session, twice a week, in advance $2 00
