The weekly during the session and the Semi-Weekly during the remainder of the year, per annum, $3 00. Daily during the remainder of the year, per annum, $4 00. The Daily paper will be published on a sheet sufficiently large to contain full reports of the doings in both branches of the Legislature, sketches of Congressional proceedings, and general news of the times, together with miscellaneous articles on a variety of subjects. The Semi-weekly paper will be published on a sheet of double medium size, and will contain as much reading matter as any paper ever published in Harrisburg. It is our intention to employ competent reporters in both Houses of the Legislature, and to enrich our columns with every thing worth recording in their proceedings, and worthy of public confidence and support. In national politics we will, as heretofore, sustain what we conceive to be the true principles of democracy. Having been among the earliest supporters of President Harrison, and contributed to the utmost of our abilities to his election, we will yield to his administration a firm and hearty support. In regard to state politics we will shape our course as to promote the best interests of the Commonwealth. This brief allusion to our principles, we refer to our past course as a pledge that our promises will be fulfilled. We trust that our numerous friends throughout the state will interest themselves in the circulation of the paper. We are determined to merit encouragement by every honorable effort, and we hope to receive it.

Legislative Key Stone.
DURING the ensuing session of the Legislature, the Key Stone will, as usual, be published twice a week and contain full reports of the proceedings in both Houses. The editors have employed competent Stenographers to report at length the debates on all important subjects. Arrangements are also made, through a correspondent at Washington, to give early and correct accounts of the proceedings of Congress. The extraordinary political complexion of the Legislature, brought about through the unjust Senatorial and representative apportionment of 1835, and the important subjects which will necessarily come before it, will render the next session peculiarly interesting. All eyes are turned this way for speedy reform in our present defective currency. Desired action relative to the improvement system is anxiously desired in many quarters. These two matters of themselves, form subjects of intense interest to the people at large. On the 4th of March, a democratic convention will assemble here and nominate a candidate for governor. An account of this, together with the preparatory movements of the party in all quarters will be faithfully detailed. From these circumstances, there never has been a time when a paper from the seat of government was of such importance to the citizens of the Commonwealth, as it will be for the ensuing six months. The terms of the Key Stone are the same as heretofore.
During the session semi-weekly $2 00
For the year $3 00
Any person forwarding us $2.00 shall receive the Key Stone from the time of subscribing to the close of the session—or six copies will be sent to any one office for $10 00.
All Post Masters are invited to act as agents for the Key Stone, in receiving subscribers and remitting money to us; and any one signifying his willingness to act as such, shall receive a list of our subscribers in his town and neighborhood, with our terms of agency.

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS.
THE Pennsylvania Reporter has before published twice a week during the ensuing session of the Legislature, and contain full reports of its proceedings. It will also keep its subscribers advised from time to time of the transactions of Congress, and of the national and foreign news, and of the public and political events of the day. The acts of the Legislature in regard to the cherished but deranged banking system of the wis; to the embarrassed condition of the Commonwealth which is a consequence of the legislation of 1835-6; and the policy it will attempt to settle for the state and nation under the new dynasty, will furnish cause for amusement, and possibly an early and determined resistance. And the first developments of the Harrison administration; their course, their objects, and their effects, on the people, or east, or the middle states, as it measures, shall raise or depress them; and the tournament which the jealous competitors for patronage will exhibit the lights and shades of hope and fear; of exultation and disappointment, during the present session, together with the federal supply food for merriment to us, and our patrons, who are excluded together from the list of preferment. The measures of the administration will necessarily be treated more seriously, and with more interest, and we shall not be backward to deal out a full measure of condemnation whenever it is deserved and called for at our hands.
In the mean time, the democratic party has duties to itself and the country to perform, of which the fact that will develop on the 26th of the federalists defeated it on the Presidential election by a few hundred votes. The Governor's election, which in its near approach will marshal the parties for the contest almost immediately, requires that every democratic repair to the polls, and that the party must not be defeated again, and cannot be, if its organization be perfected, and its ranks be brought to the polls in their ancient spirit and strength.
In all these matters we shall be intelligent, and we shall be most accurate intelligence, and we shall be most efficient in our efforts to a greater expense and efficiency in our place and vocation.
TERMS OF THE REPORTER.
For the session, twice a week, in ad. $2 00
For the whole year, $3 00
Any person forwarding five session subscribers and the money, shall have a sixth copy for his trouble.
