SHORT FACTS.

TO THE APPLICTED. I is sometimes urged that the Rheumatism T is sometimes urged that the Rheumatism cannot be cured by external applications.—This may be true sometimes but it is also certainly true that this dirtressing complaint can not be cured by internal remedies, except by their long and constant use, by which perhaps, at the same time the system becomes generally deranged, debilitated and destroyed. Even were not this the case how shall the great distress of the sufferer be alleviated while such slow and doubtful remedies, give their effect. The answer is plain, canonical most true—use.
