SHORT FACTS.

TO THE AFFLICTED.

TO THE AFFLIOTED. I is sometimes urged that the Rheumatism cannot be cured by external applications... This may be true sometimes; but it is also cer-tainly true that this dirtressing complaint can-not be cured by internal remedies, except by their long and constant use, by which perhaps, at the same time the system becomes generally deranged, debilitated and destroyed. Even were not this the case how shall the great dis-tress of the sufferer be alleviated while such slow and doubtful remedies _we their effect² The answer is plain, cand. and most true-use Dr. Henro's Werre and Bone Tiniment.

The answer is plain, candid and most true-use Dr. Hewe's Nervo and Bono Liniment. No name could be more appropriate. It reach-es and soothes the nervest and allays pains most effectually on its first application, and by a few applications removes more effectually and speed-ily Rheumatic pains than any internal or exter-ment of their colds and coughs, they would pre-vent a disease which would be more alarming t its character, and much more obstinate in the cure. ELWOOD L. PUSKY. N. W. corner of Arch & Fifth sts, Phila.

RHEUMATISM OF THE HEAD. Numerous cures in all the above affections have come under the observation of the proprietors, The following statement of a remarkable cure of partial paralysis of a limb is from William L. Norton, Esq. a well known and respectable magistrate of Southwark: Messrs. Vaughan & Peterson-During sever-al weeks I suffered a partial paralysis of the right arm and of the third and fourth fingers of the right hand, which sensibly affected the whole power of the latter, writing became to ome a difficult task which I could not execute but with greatly diminished legibility. The use of half a bottle of your Liniment gave entire re-lief, and I cheerfully bear this testimony to its efficacy. STEVENSON & DINKLE.
