A Dreadful and Cowardly Massacre. A letter to the St. Liguis Republican, from Fort Leavenworth, gives an account of a most cowardly and bloody massacre committed by some Kansas upon some Pawnees.

The dastardly Kansas—65 in number—took advantage of the absence of the Pawnce warriors from their encampment, and massacred all but 11 of the women and children found in it.

One woman sold her life dearly. She sprang upon one of the Kansas warriors like tigress-clutched his throat, and would have strangled him if her arms had not been hewn from her body.

The Pawnee prisoners were reached by a detachment of the American force stationed at Fort Leavenworth, and had been brought into Bellevieu.

This massacre will be a signal for a fierce war between the Pawnees and Kansas.

SWAPPING WIVES.

A late New Hampshire paper gives the particulars of a case of swapping wives which lately occurred in that State. Two men married sisters, and after a lapse of a short period of time one of them proposed to the other an exchange of wives, provided the interested ladies made no objections. They made none, so one brave husband gave the other a valuable horse, carriage and harness "to boot," as the expression is. Matters passed on swimmingly for a few days during which time he who received the "boot" dis-posed of his horse for the round sum of nearly one hundred dollars in ready cash. In a and believing it now her turn to exercise the glorious right of "free trade" she quit !her bed and board," and ran away with her paramour.
