

AMERICAN VOLUNTEER.

BY GEO. SANDERSON.

Now our flag is flung to the wild wind free, Let it float for our fatherland...

CARLISLE:

THURSDAY, JUNE 24, 1841.

DEMOCRATIC REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR, DAVID R. PORTER.

Can't our Democratic friends increase the circulation of the "Volunteer" in Cumberland co. a little—if they try?...

WM. B. REED, Esq., of Philadelphia is to deliver the annual Address, before the societies of Dickinson College, on the 7th of July.

FOURTH OF JULY! THE TOAST COMMITTEE, appointed by the Committee of Arrangement, are requested to meet at WUNDERLICH'S Hotel, to-morrow evening (Friday) at 8 o'clock.

The following named gentlemen compose the committee: James H. Graham, Esq., Dr. George D. ...

The Ward Committees are requested to meet at CORNMAN'S Hotel, on Saturday evening (the 26th inst.) at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of reporting the number of names to their papers.

By request of the COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENT.

DINNER ON THE THIRD.

The Committee of Arrangement hereby give notice that Dinner will be on the table precisely at 12 o'clock—and that the price is fixed at fifty cents each man.

By order of the Committee.

We hope as many of our Democratic friends from the country, as possible, will endeavor to be present with us at the celebration on Saturday week.

Cannot the friends of "Tippecanoe and Tyler too" raise a party celebration of the Fourth this year, in this quarter? We hear of no movement in that way yet.

Address, No. 3, from the Central Committee will be found on the opposite page. It is like its predecessors able and convincing, and merits a careful perusal.

MR. BUCHANAN'S SPEECH.—The first speech of our distinguished Senator this session, on the subject of the burning of the Caroline and the arrest of McLeod, occupies a considerable portion of our paper this week.

A SIGN.—An "Iron Gray Club" has been formed at Harrisburg. It is composed almost exclusively of working-men, many of whom were members of the Tippecanoe club of that place.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.—That the "Relief Bill" passed by the last Legislature, has increased the indebtedness of the Commonwealth to the Banks by THREE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, for the payment of which every house and every foot of land will have to be taxed.

Porter's VETO.—The bill had been sustained by the Legislature, this debt to the Banks would not have been contracted.

Let the TAXPAYERS of the Commonwealth recollect these facts, and act as sensible men at the approaching election.

Col. BENTON, the distinguished Senator from Missouri, whose name has been mentioned by a number of Democrats in Philadelphia for the next Presidency, has written a letter positively declining the nomination.

"SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN."—A Whig meeting was called in this Borough on Monday night last, to take into consideration the policy of the Federal administration in retaining any of its political opponents in power...

During the late Presidential contest, and for years previous, the Democrats charged upon the Whigs that they were actuated, in their hostility to Gen. Jackson's and Mr. Van Buren's administrations, by mercenary motives...

There is no civilized country on earth in which, on a change of rulers, there is such an inquisition for spots as in this free Republic.

Resolved, That the practice of removing public officers by the President for any other purpose than that of securing a faithful execution of laws, is hostile to the spirit of the Constitution...

"Union and Harmony."—The Federal party, having no fixed principles to keep it together, now that it is in power, is beginning to show strong symptoms of a rapid and speedy dissolution.

"Reform."—The House of Representatives, at Washington, became properly organized, for the first time this session, on Thursday last—after being in session a period of eighteen days, and at an expense to the people of over SEVENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS!!

MARTIN G. RUPP, Esq., late Democratic Postmaster at Shiremanstown, (an office worth about $30 per annum,) has had to give place to DANIEL SHELLEY, a full-blooded Antislavery man.

A SIGN.—An "Iron Gray Club" has been formed at Harrisburg. It is composed almost exclusively of working-men, many of whom were members of the Tippecanoe club of that place.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.—That the "Relief Bill" passed by the last Legislature, has increased the indebtedness of the Commonwealth to the Banks by THREE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, for the payment of which every house and every foot of land will have to be taxed.

Porter's VETO.—The bill had been sustained by the Legislature, this debt to the Banks would not have been contracted.

FEDERAL PROFESSIONS AND FEDERAL PRACTISE.

In 1834, John Tyler, now President, used the following language in the Senate of the U. States, on the subject of removal from appointments to office:

"If the offices of the Government shall be considered as 'spoils' to be distributed among a victorious party; then indeed, Sir, the consequences are most fatal—all stability in government is at an end—no offices are introduced in the place of lenient, experienced, and faithful public agents, and the public interests suffer and suffer severely."

A few years back, upon some unworthy member being removed from office, there was a general cry of "proscription for opinion's sake," raised throughout the country, by the leaders of the Federal party; and thus spoke Daniel Webster, the chief of the present Federal Cabinet:

"There is no civilized country on earth in which, on a change of rulers, there is such an inquisition for spots as in this free Republic."

In 1832, Thomas Ewing, now Secretary of the Treasury, was a member of the U. S. Senate, and offered and supported the following resolution, in that body:

"Resolved, That the practice of removing public officers by the President for any other purpose than that of securing a faithful execution of laws, is hostile to the spirit of the Constitution...

But, upon every change in the Head of the Executive Department, to sweep through the land with a besom of removal, to make the personal support of the successful candidate, a sufficient ground for appointment, and all highest preference for a defeated competitor, a forfeiture of favor as a reward for services, is a violation of the rights of the citizen, and a tyranny to men."

Win. C. Preston, one of the Senators from South Carolina, and a warm supporter of Harrisonism, in a speech made in the Senate a few days before the inauguration of Gen. Harrison, said:

"The administration coming into power reject and repudiate the infamous maxim that to the victors belong the spoils. The system of proscription is itself to be proscribed. I stand upon that ground, and I help me God, I will not let it pass."

Such were recently the professions of the leaders of the party now in power; and how far their actions conform to them, since they have obtained the patronage of the Government, is exhibited in the wholesale removals of men from office, made in different sections of the Union.

We do not complain that Democrats are turned out of office; and when we hold up the present acts of Federal rulers, as an exposure of the false professions upon which they, when out of power, opposed a Democratic administration, it is not to be charged against us, that our views have changed, and that the Democrats now repudiate any thing which they have formerly practised.

And whom do the Federalists bring into office when they put Democrats out? Aro they the quiet, orderly, honest, and well-disposed citizens of their own party? No. In two many instances they are mere noisy, brawling, unprincipled politicians, song-singers, and pipe-layers—Men of doubtful integrity, partisans of the Glentworth and Badger school—and the appointment of whom is a palpable disregard of patriotism and the public good.—West Chester Republican.

Severe but Just Reproof.—The Federalists in South Scituate, Mass., were caught in their own trap the other day, by inviting Rev. Mr. May to deliver a discourse on the death of Gen. Harrison.

MR. EWING'S PLAN.—The Journal of Commerce says, we have conversed with several gentlemen who are among the most influential in desiring a National Bank, and they all say that the plan of the Honorable Secretary will not answer according to their views; that it must of necessity be too much a political and too little a mercantile machine, and that in their judgment the moneyed and business men of the country would stand aloof from it.

There is a committee from Ohio, now in Washington city, for the purpose of superintending the removal of Gen. Harrison's remains to his late residence at North Bend.

RELIEF OF MRS. HARRISON.—A bill passed the U. S. House of Representatives on Saturday last, by a vote of 123 to 66, appropriating $25,000 to the relief of the widow of Gen. Harrison.

FLOUR continued at $4.87 1/2 a $5.00 in Baltimore and Philadelphia.

WHAT THE PEOPLE MAY EXPECT! If, through the supineness and inactivity of the Democracy of Pennsylvania, it should unfortunately happen, that JOHN BANKS the federal candidate, succeeds to the Executive chair, a train of evils would inevitably follow, the extent whereof it is difficult to conceive or foretell.

WE MAY EXPECT, that the entire administration of the state government will experience a radical "change," and instead of being conducted upon Democratic principles, as it now is, the abhorrent doctrines of an ancient and oft condemned FEDERALISM will be introduced to their stead.

WE MAY EXPECT, that the sovereignty of the PEOPLE will be literally frittered away, and all power and dominion unconditionally surrendered to the MONEY POWER!!

WE MAY EXPECT, that the United States Bank, though an animated mass of corruption, such as no other country under the sun has ever witnessed, will be BUILT UP ANEW, and invested with renewed power to CHEAT the WIDOW and the ORPHAN, and revel in the sweat of the poor man's brow!

WE MAY EXPECT, that Thaddeus Stevens' consuming TAPE-WORM, which Gov. Porter's honest and fearless course expelled from the treasury, will be reëstimated, and millions of the hard earnings of the people again thrown away upon this useless and iniquitous work.

WE MAY EXPECT, that "pipe-laying" will again be canonized by executive sanction, and the elective franchise again rendered a mockery and a by-word, by the institution of a new and improved system of "rotten boroughs" and "plum pudding electors."

WE MAY EXPECT, that extravagance, corruption, dishonesty, and bank usurpation will again be the order of the day, and perhaps, finally, we may expect another fearful array of "BUCKSHOT and BALL" aimed at the breast of our Democrats, because forsooth they would not allow their enemies to "treat the election as if it had never been held."

If the people desire to prevent all these calamities, let them organize in time for the great work of re-electing DAVID R. PORTER.—Ironman.

SUPPOSED PIRACY AND MURDER.—A correspondent of the National Intelligencer, writing from New Orleans, under the date of the 6th inst., furnishes the following particulars of a supposed appalling crime:—

A dreadful act of either mutiny or piracy has been committed off the Balize, which ought to be known forthwith to the Department, and I therefore hasten to address you this letter, though I have but a few minutes for the mail. The ship Charles cleared a few days since for Havre, and on Friday, the 4th instant, was fallen in with by one of our tow-boats, about forty miles from the Balize, without any body on board, and fresh traces of blood on her deck and cabin. She had twenty-three cabin passengers, (some of them ladies,) principally our French shopkeepers, going to make their annual purchases in France, and all of them as usual, no doubt, with considerable sums of specie, and I presume not less, together, than $100,000, probably much more. The long-boat was missing, but the jolly-boat was alongside, with a dog in it, and a box of sardines.

These circumstances, and the fact that all the sailor's clothes were missing, lead me to think it was mutiny and piracy by the crew. There is, as you may suppose, great excitement in the city. The ship has just come to the levee, and I have not time to ascertain further particulars. She is not injured, and was left even with her sails set. The revenue cutter at the Balize, I presume, has started in pursuit. And it is suggested here to arm two or three steamboats and obtain volunteers to proceed out and sweep the Gulf round the neighborhood.

Confirmatory of the above, we have the New Orleans papers of the 7th and 8th inst., which give full particulars. The ship Charles, had arrived at that city, and is known to have had twenty-six persons on board, crew and passengers, all of whom are missing, with the strongest circumstantial evidence that they have been taken by a pirate and perhaps all murdered. Some three or four expeditions have been started for the purpose of discovering the perpetrators; among the rest one or two steamboats. There was no want of volunteers for the occasion.

This mysterious affair, taken in connexion with the arrest, a few days before, of a party of supposed pirates at the Balize, by the officer of the Revenue cutter, has created, as well it might, an immense sensation in New Orleans. We have no room for details.—Baltimore Sun.

WHY WOMAN WAS TAKEN FROM THE RIGS.—Matthew Henry says:—"Woman was made of a rib out of the side of Adam; not made of his head to rule him—not out of his feet, to be trampled upon by him—but out of his side, to be equal with him; under his arm to be protected; and near his heart to be beloved."

FOUND GUILTY.—The case of Madison, indicted with others for the murder of Jesse Baker, has been brought to a close in St. Louis, and the jury have returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree.

Within the last ten years there have been lost in the United States, 185 steamboats, 1733 lives, and 376 persons wounded.

UNITED STATES AND TEXAS.—It is stated that by the line now being run between the two governments, seventeen townships in the Red River district, Louisiana, will be sliced off and added to Texas.

MURDER IN THE OHIO PENITENTIARY.—On the 9th inst., a willful and unprovoked murder was committed in the Ohio penitentiary at Columbus, on the person of Mr. Curtis Sells, one of the guards, by a convict named Clark. Mr. Sells, had charge of the stone cutting shop, and while in the corner of it washing himself, the convict seized a small broad axe, and struck him three blows on the back of the head and neck, almost severing the head from the body.

The Penrose Clique. Mr. Editor.—The most curious anomaly in the history of political tactics was enacted at Macfarlane's Hotel on Monday evening last that has ever been witnessed by the goodly inhabitants of this ancient Borough.

This Evening. At 8 o'clock, for the purpose of expressing their opinion on the policy of the Federal administration, in retaining in office those who were their political opponents during the canvass which terminated in the election of our late lamented President.

ATTENTION WHIGS!!

Monday, June 21, 1841. The evening came, and the small fry assembled. But these apostate Democrats had reckoned without their host. The Antislaverys headed by Capt. Bretz stood aloof, and hummed to themselves, "Alas! too late!" after the Whigs' most approved style. The Whigs proper would have nothing to do with it, and declared that it was a dishonorable effort to disorganize the Whig party.

LOOKER ON IN VIENNA. Purgation Decidedly Superior to Bleeding.—When the properties of Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills have been appreciated, bleeding will no longer be thought of as a remedy for diseases, for in violent inflammations, eight or ten of them will take, in the course of two or three hours, more of the impure humors from the body, by the stomach and bowels, than bleeding to the extent of forty ounces could possibly have done; and it should be remembered that the Pills remove ONLY those parts from the blood which were the cause of inflammation; whereas, bleeding removes the essential parts also.
