CARLISLE:

THURSDAY, AUGUST 5, 1841.

DEMOCRATIC REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR, DAVID R. PORTER.

ATTENTION!

The Democratic Republican Standing Committee of Cumberland county are requested to meet at the public house of Simon Wunderlich in Carlisle, on Monday the 5th day of August, at 1 o'clock, P. M. on business connected with the call of a County Convention to settle a ticket for the ensuing election.

TWO OF THE COMMITTEE.

The names of the gentlemen composing the Standing Committee, are as follows, viz: Andrew Kretzer, East Pennsborough; Thomas McCullough, Newton; David Martin, Monroe; Joseph Trego, West Pennsborough; Capt. Michael Weiss, North Middleton; Jas. Hoover, Newville; William Brown, Milford; David Shonfor, Allen; William Z. Anney, Dr. George H. Foulke, Carlisle; William B. Cummings, Shippensburg; Benjamin Myers, Sen. Dickinson, Williams Mitchell, Hopewell; James Willis, Southampton; Dr. W. W. Dale, Mechanicsburg; Abraham Bosler, Silver Spring; Henry C. Hackett, Frankford.

MR. BUCHANAN'S SPEECH.

We commence this week the great speech delivered by the Hon. James Buchanan, in opposition to the National Bank attempted to be established by Clay, Evring and Co. Its extreme length compels us, though much against our will, to divide it; but we could not do otherwise without excluding the whole.

We need scarcely invite the attention of the public to this splendid production, as it will no doubt be read with avidity by every individual in whose hands it may be placed, be he friend or foe. The importance of Mr. B's arguments will be more apparent, when it is considered that, in all probability, they will form a text-book for the Democracy in their future efforts to prostrate the "Monster," for we are inclined to the opinion, that the Bank in question will be established against all the efforts that have been made to defeat it. It will then remain for the Democrats to urge its repeal on high constitutional grounds—and to aid them in their efforts, this speech of our distinguished Senator, will be found of invaluable service. We copy the following notice of it from the Pennsylvania, upon publishing it in that paper:

Mr. Buchanan's Speech.—We have given up a considerable portion of our columns to-day to the admirable opening speech of Mr. Buchanan on Mr. Clay's Bank bill. It will well repay an attentive perusal. Mr. Buchanan goes over the whole of the arguments of Mr. Clay in favor of the establishment of the Bank, and we think that no candid man will rise from the perusal of the speech without a conviction that all of them have been refuted, and that there is really no reasonable pretense of a necessity for such an institution.

Mr. Buchanan is reckoned among the most skillful, accomplished and gentlemanly debaters, in a body which at the present moment embraces quite an unusual amount of talent.

The publication of the speech in the Globe has been delayed by other weighty matters. That paper, however, says in relation to his readers: "Mr. Buchanan's speech need not, however, appear at a better time. The Bank bill, as it has emerged from the committee of the whole in the Senate, is obnoxious to all the animadversions of this speech, made before it was subjected to the process of amendment. There has been no amendment made which alters in any degree the monstrous features of the measure, as depicted in Mr. Buchanan's opening exposition. We hope the Democratic journals will universally give this speech an insertion in their columns. It is an apt preface to the editorial labors to which, we apprehend, they will have to address themselves during the next four years."

THE COUNTY MEETING.

We again urge upon our Democratic friends throughout the county, the propriety of attending the meeting at the Court House, on Monday evening next. The call is made in obedience to the time-honored usage of the party, and we trust that none will absent themselves who can; if they choose, be in attendance. The time for action has arrived, and it behooves every true-hearted Democrat to be up and doing. Although our enemies appear lukewarm and inactive, they are not to be trusted. They may yet roam from their apparent lethargy, and steal a march upon us if we are not active and vigilant. We have a great battle before us, and it becomes every man to buckle on his armor at once and prepare for the conflict. For the purpose of complete and thorough organization, the annual county meeting has heretofore been of much importance, and it is to this assemblage of the people that we look for a strong effusion of the spirit and zeal with which our political conflicts are characterized. With these few remarks we close by again urging our friends to be at the county meeting on Monday night.

More Horrid Murders in Kentucky.—Near Lancaster on the night of the 5th ult., a quarrel took place at a house of ill-fame, during which William Comely was shot dead by S. Blackaby. The latter man, but was pursued by two men and literally cut to pieces with Bowie knives. A man named Tatum has been arrested as one of the murderers of Blackaby. On the 13th inst. near Frankfort, a man named Michael Goins, excited by liquor, killed his own son, an unfortunate idiot, and seriously, if not fatally wounded his wife. He is in prison.—Baltimore Sun.

The price of Flour in Philadelphia and Baltimore, continues stationary. The wagon and cart price remains about $5.50 per barrel.

COMMON SCHOOLS OF CARLISLE.

The Examination of the Schools of this Borough came off on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of last week, and was, as we have reason to believe, gratifying in the extreme to the numerous visitors who attended. Whatever reason the Directors have heretofore had to complain of the little interest manifested by the citizens generally in the success of the schools, they can have none now. Indeed, we believe, that heretofore these examinations, from their interesting character, will attract more and more of public attention, and, instead of now and then a solitary visitor or two, our school rooms will be crowded with a numerous auditory of citizens of all classes and conditions in life.

The visitors present at the examinations in the different departments, from the lowest grade up to the High Schools, expressed the greatest gratification at the proficiency of the scholars in their several studies, as well as at the discipline of the schools. Indeed, we have since heard it remarked by two or three of the visitors, themselves graduates of Colleges, that in some of the studies, such as Algebra and Natural Philosophy, the pupils of our High Schools excel the generality of students in the Sophomore and Junior classes of the best conducted Colleges.

The Exhibition on Thursday evening was an imposing affair. The splendid appearance of the Saloon, (it having been decorated purposely for the occasion by the Female Teachers, Scholars and Directors,)—the rich music of the Barracks Band—the admirable declamation of the boys of the High School,—and their examination in Physical Geography—the presence of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, Mr. SHANKS—and the immense crowd of Ladies and Gentlemen in attendance—all combined to make it one of the most interesting spectacles that has ever been witnessed by our citizens. Truly it was a scene worthy of the occasion, and one which will long be remembered by those who witnessed it.

At the conclusion of the exercises on Thursday evening, the President of the Board of Directors dismissed the Schools until the 30th of August.

The Visitors have drafted a Report on the state of the Schools, which we shall publish next week.

OUR PROSPECTS.

The friends of Gov. PORTER are moving with spirit in the different counties of the State. County and township meetings are being held, and the people every where are organizing preparatory to the October election. In Philadelphia city and county, it is stated by those whose opportunities of knowing public sentiment are undoubted, that the Democratic majority will be increased to at least 3,000—indeed, some are calculating with a certainty that even in the city, which for many years has been under Federal control, Gov. PORTER will have a handsome majority. In the strong Democratic counties of the North and West, it is believed there will be scarcely any opposition—whilst in Allegheny, Somerset, Erie, and other heretofore strong holds of Federalism, their majorities will be reduced to a mere trifle. In the Middle and Eastern counties, the glorious cause of the people is moving along steadily and surely, and the name of John Banks is hardly mentioned in connexion with the Executive chair. Indeed, from present appearances, we can hardly suppose there is a doubt on the mind of any intelligent person, as to the favorable issue of the campaign.

The Antimasons and Federalists are chop-fallen and disheartened. They see clearly that the honest and well-meaning portion of the community cannot again be deceived, as many of them were last year. They know that Log Cabins, Hard Cider, Coon Skins, Shin-bones, and all the disgusting paraphernalia of Humbuggery, have had their day, and are now numbered among the things that were. The knowledge of these facts is what causes despair to brood over the minds of our opponents—and these, in connexion with the broils, and squabbles, and cut-throat animosities in their ranks, about the spoils of office, are what places the election of John Banks out of the question. Besides, the two factions of Federalism and Antimasonry are jealous of each other, and it is scarcely probable that they can again act in concert. In addition to these two factions, there is a third in this county, the most unprincipled and contemptible of the three, composed of renegade Democrats, "men of principle in proportion to their interest," who are always in the market, ready to embark in any cause by which they can hope to monopolize the best share of the plunder. This miserable clique followed the fortunes of Penrose as long as he had any thing in his power: They were for Harrison and Tyler in the hope of getting the management of post offices and clerkships—and, as they have been disappointed, they are ripe for revenge, and are now ready for any thing that presents itself to their unprincipled minds. All these things taken into view must convince every one that Governor PORTER'S triumphant re-election is placed beyond a doubt.

Let our friends in Cumberland county take fresh courage at these things. Let union and harmony be the watch-word of every true-hearted Democrat. Exert all your energies from now to the election. Organize at once in every township and borough appoint committees of vigilance. Talk with your neighbors—reason with them—urge them to their duty. Extend the hand of fellowship to the honest and sincere of the other party, who are dissatisfied with Federalism, and are pleased at the course pursued by Governor PORTER. Do your duty nobly and zealously; and we have not a doubt that old mother Cumberland will abundantly redeem her character at this approaching election.

GREAT DEMOCRATIC MEETING.
A very large meeting of the democracy of New York was held in the Park on Thursday afternoon. The number present, the New Era says, was estimated at over 15,000. Isaac L. Varian, Esq. presided, assisted by a large number of Vice Presidents, in the list of whom we recognize the names of many of the oldest and most active members of the party—men who in every struggle for years past have evinced their attachment to the principles which they have again come forward to support. A series of able resolutions were adopted, condemning the measures brought forward by the administration, and advocating the repeal of a National Bank, if one should be incorporated. As a means of effecting this object, a repeal corresponding committee was appointed, consisting of the following gentlemen—Benj. F. Butler, Campbell F. White, Wright Hawkes, Prosper M. Weymore, John W. Edwards, John M. Bradhurst, Josiah Rich, John H. Hunt, Stephen B. Harris, Elijah F. Purdy, William D. Waterman, Charles B. Moore, Stephen Allen, Walter Bowen, Augustus Daveneo, Thomas W. Tucker, Gerardus Boyce, David Bryson, H. N. Fryatt, Nelson J.

Waterbury, Solomon Townsend, Dan'l. C. Pentz, Charles McVean, Jas. T. Brady, Sam'l. J. Tilden. The meeting was addressed by the Hon. Aaron Vanderpool and several other gentlemen, and if we may judge by the recorded proceedings the best feeling and the proper spirit prevailed.—"Repeal is the word."—Pennsylvania.

REPEAL—REPEAL.

Shall this Bank question never be settled, exclaim our anxious Whigs? NO, NEVER! until you give up the effort to fasten such an institution on the country. More than a million of Freemen look upon it as a clear, a palpable, and a willful usurpation. They believe it to be a question of ultimate Liberty or Slavery, and they will never cease their resistance until they are ready to be slaves. The precedent you set to-day, they will overthrow to-morrow; and they had rather at once meet the usurpation at the polls, than wait until it is strong enough to marshal its fleets and armies.

REPEAL is already their motto; you see the flag already hoisted throughout our broad domain; and if there be one who is simple enough to believe that the Democracy is not in earnest, let him follow up the usurpation which Congress has been called to consummate. The Democracy will not be bound by the constitutional acts of a mutilated Congress; they will treat them as the decrees of a Rump Parliament, originating in fraud, and attempting to consolidate power by usurpation and corruption!—Kendall's Expositor.

Let it be constantly KEPT IN MIND, says the Harrisburg Yeoman; and let no two Democratic meet and part without making it a subject of SPECIAL REMARK, that if the Federalists in the last Legislature had followed Governor PORTER'S recommendation TO SELL THE BANK STOCK owned by the State, the passage of the so-called "relief" law would have been UNNECESSARY, and more than HALF A MILLION of dollars would have been SAVED TO THE STATE, as the stock referred to has depreciated that amount, and is every-day going down lower. Eventually it will be worth NOTHING! Such are the fruits of Federal legislation.

THE TEMPERANCE CAUSE IN PITTSBURG.
—All the wards of the city, and several of the towns, villages and townships immediately around Pittsburg, have formed separate societies auxiliary to a general one.—About ten thousand! of all classes, it is said, have already joined—and still the good work is progressing.

The Bankrupt Bill was passed the Senate, also the Fiscal Bank Bill of Mr. Clay—the latter by a vote of 26 to 23. The Federalists all voted for the Bank Bill, except the two Virginia Senators, Messrs. ARCHER and RIVES—and the Democrats against it. One Democratic Senator, Mr. Cuthbert, of Georgia, was absent when the final vote was taken. The vote of the Virginia Senators is looked upon by many of the friends of the Bill, as ominous. It is believed that they are in the confidence of Mr. TYLER, and that if the Bill passes the House in its present shape he will veto it. What foundation there is for this conjecture, time will determine. We, however, scarcely have a hope of such result.

The Revenue, or Tariff, Bill passed the House of Representatives, on Saturday by a vote of 116 to 101. By its provisions, TEA and COFFEE are to be taxed with a duty of 20 per cent!

ENCAMPMENT AT YORK.—This contemplated military gathering on the 24th of August, promises to be a grand and imposing affair. In addition to the four well-equipped and admirably drilled companies of York, several are expected from Baltimore, Philadelphia, and the surrounding counties of Cumberland, Adams, Dauphin and Lancaster. Governor PORTER and suite, Major General PATTERSON and ALEXANDER, Brig. General ARMOR, and a number of other military officers from a distance are expected to visit the encampment.

Great Freshet.—The vicinity of Hagerstown, in Maryland, was visited on Saturday week by a tremendous thunder gust. The papers state that north of Hagerstown, such a great quantity of rain fell, that in some places the roads were completely inundated, and the fields contiguous to a stream or rivulet partially overflowed. The Franklin rail road, in this State, was under water for a considerable distance, and the cars obstructed in their passage by logs and other timber which had floated across the track. A portion of the rail-way near Greencastle was swept away. The Antietam creek and its tributaries were swollen to an unusual fullness.

ELECTIONS.—Elections take place during the present week in Kentucky, Tennessee, Illinois and Indiana; in Alabama during the present month; and in Maine and Vermont in September.

TEMPERANCE.

Our town was visited on Sunday last, by two of the reformed members of the Washington Total Abstinence Society of Baltimore, Messrs. STANBURY and CAREY. They lectured in the Market House on that day to an immense crowd of people of both sexes, and also delivered discourses on Sunday night, Monday and Monday night in the Methodist Episcopal and 1st Presbyterian churches of the Borough. They have both experienced the evils of intemperance in their own persons, and are therefore the better prepared to address arguments to those who need reformation. Their visit here was productive of some good, as a number of persons, we understand, signed the total abstinence pledge, and others we have no doubt will follow the good example shortly. We wish these Temperance Missionaries success in their "labors of love," and we trust that they may meet with a hearty welcome wherever they go.

The Governor of Maryland has offered a reward of $1000, and a free pardon, to any one of the parties implicated in the robbery of the Frederick county Bank, who shall make disclosures that will lead to the arrest and conviction of his associates in the crime.

THE IRONGREY CLUB, No. 1.

This Association, made up of the former members of the Tippecanoe Club, of Harrisburg, have frequently the most immense and spirited meetings. The proceedings are distinguished by unusual zeal. From the resolutions passed at the last meeting, we extract the following highly opportune ones:

Resolved, That the base, trucking and inglorious subserviency of the Federal Secretary of State, DANIEL WEBSTER, to the menacing demands of the British minister in the case of the British murderer and incendiary, McLeod, who had a tendency to soil and tarnish the hitherto unsullied escutcheon of America, and that every consideration of duty and patriotism should prompt President Tyler forthwith to remove the TRAITOR from a post, which his fills only to the utter DISGRACE of the country.

Resolved, That we—the members of the former Hickory club and lately of the Tippecanoe club No. 1, regret with heart-felt sincerity the absence of a JACKSON or a HARRISON from the public councils, either of whom, we are satisfied, could have sent both the infamous British minister and the traitorous British secretary unceremoniously to their homes, to ponder over their misconduct at leisure.

Resolved, That our own able, eloquent and indefatigable Senator, JAMES BUCHANAN, who has both ably and eloquently vindicated the honor of his country, and fearlessly exposed the American and dastardly conduct of Daniel Webster, is entitled to our heart-felt gratitude and praise, and we hereby extend to him the well-earned plaudit of "well done good and faithful servant."

Resolved, That we would be recreant to every magnanimous impulse of patriotism and duty, if we did not, one and all, hereby utterly abjure and disavow all manner of connection with the party which fosters such a TRAITOR as Daniel Webster, in the high places of the government, and if we did not redemand every remnant of the ties that in the last Presidential contest bound a portion of us to it.

Resolved, That JOHN BANKS, the federal Buckshot lawyer, being the candidate of the Daniel Webster anti-American party, we must hold him responsible for the kind of company he keeps, and could not therefore give him our support without a painful violation of conscience and duty.

Resolved, That we will with entire cordiality give our votes and hearty support to Gen. DAVID R. PORTER, the faithful son of a noble and patriotic sire, who has no manner of connection with the British Webster party, who is the candidate of the great democratic party, whose hands—thank Heaven—are free from the stain of striping the American Eagle of her pinions, and tearing the significant arrows from her talons.

HOPE CHARLES BROWN, of the House of Representatives, will accept our thanks for a copy of his excellent speech on the Distribution Bill. We regret that want of room prevents us from re-publishing it.

As might have been expected.—The robbery of the Branch Bank of Illinois, an account of which we published last week, it appears was committed by the Teller, H. D. TAYLOR. He has been arrested, and confesses the fact. So we go.

For the Volunteer.
Mr. SANDERSON.—Can you inform the public at whose expense the ill-arranged and badly executed pamphlet, purporting to be a history of the Borough of Carlisle, was published, and what was the cost? Rumor says that the compilation, printing, stitching, etc., amounted to about $400, and were done at the expense of the Anti-Borough! Can you throw any light upon the subject, and by so doing gratify a Tax Payer.

We cannot answer the interrogatories of our correspondent, from any facts in our possession. All we know is, that if the edition cost as much as "Tax Payer" says, it must have been a pretty fat job to the compilers and printer. We advise our correspondent to apply either to the "Whig Council, Whig Compilers, or Whig Printer"—perhaps they, or some one of them, can, if they will, give the desired information.—Ed. Vol.

Destructive Fire.
By the subjoined letter, which we received from an attentive friend, our readers will learn the particulars of a very serious fire which occurred in the village of Lisburn on Thursday night last: LISBURN, July 30th, 1841.

Mr. Sanderson: Sir—Our village was thrown into great confusion about 12 o'clock last night by the cry of fire which originated in the store of Mr. Einstone, and before any means could be made use of, the devouring element had got so far headway that all resistance to stop its progress was unavailing. The whole store, with all its contents, and the store house, were room occupied by Mr. Einstone, &c. were destroyed by his life, being nearly suffocated before he could be rescued from his bed. The store was attached to, and formed part of the building occupied by Mr. McCann as a Tavern; both were consumed, together with another building attached and occupied by Mr. Henry McCrookley, and a store house, were room occupied by Mr. Einstone. Mr. McCann was the owner of the buildings, and it may be truly said, that he is left without house or home. Every thing which he had laid up to sustain himself and family in old age is now taken from him. His property Real and Personal, is all gone—his loss is immense, for it is his all. Mr. McCrookley has lost all his household furniture, and is thrown upon a Christian community for assistance to enable him to commence house keeping again. Mr. McCrookley is an honest, sober, industrious citizen, and any person that can assist him, will be doing every good citizen ought and will do. It is useless for me to say any thing in behalf of Mr. McCann; he is an old and respectable citizen, and has kept a public house in the village of Lisburn, since the year 1807. Honest, sober and always ready to accommodate those who gave him a call. Will not the citizens of Cumberland and York counties, who have shown such liberality to former occasion, lend their aid and assistance to those who by this dispensation of Providence are thrown upon a Christian and feeling community.

The loss of property is estimated between eight and ten thousand dollars. Part of the store of Mr. Einstone, as we are informed, is secured by insurance. It is not known how the fire originated. Yours, &c.

From the St. Louis Argus, of the 22d ultimo, we learn that quite a battle was fought in the Indian country, between large numbers of Indians, negroes, and mongrels, from Florida, and a detachment of U. S. troops. That paper says:—"By a gentleman direct from Fort Leavenworth, we learn that some 600 negroes from Florida, and runaways from the Choctaws and Cherokee, and from the whites, united with a few Indians, and perhaps a few white men, had been gradually associated in the fastnesses west of Arkansas. Not long since, they marched high up Red River, and camped for the purpose of hunting buffalo. They built a very tolerable fort with logs, surrounded with a ditch, to protect themselves against all dangers. They caught but few buffalo, and therefore to supply their wants, invaded the possessions of the Choctaws, and carried off cattle, poultry, grain, &c.—The Choctaws followed, but finding their numbers and fortifications an overmatch, they retired, and sent to Fort Gibson for the U. States dragoons. Captain Moore, of company D., was sent to capture them with three companies of dragoons, but after arriving upon Red river, he found their entrenchments too strong and their number too great to venture an attack. He accordingly sent to Fort Towson, and was re-inforced with a fine company of infantry and a couple of pieces of cannon.

The cannon were shortly brought to bear upon the works, and soon made the splinters fly and the logs move so quickly, that the refugees, at a signal, rushed outside of their fortifications, and began to form upon the prairie in front of their works. Ere they fully succeeded in doing so, Captain Moore and his gallant dragoons charged upon them at full gallop. The carnage that ensued is represented as terrific—the dragoons routed them in all directions, and after putting large numbers to the sword, succeeded in capturing the whole body! The conduct of the dragoons is represented as worthy of all commendation, as regards both skill and bravery. The bravery and numbers of the refugees availed absolutely nothing against the irresistible charge of the mounted dragoons.

"This decisive blow will give security to that exposed portion of our frontier, and convince the refugee negroes & Indians that our dragoons may not be trifled with. The loss of the dragoons was unknown to our informant—he saw an express brought the news to the Fort."

More Conclusive Proofs.
Of the efficacy of Dr. Harlick's Celebrated Medicine. DEAR SIR.—I was afflicted with a bilious and nervous disease to a very alarming degree, with all the symptoms which so frequently effect a relaxed condition, viz: giddiness in the head, violent tremors; chilliness, with a fixed pain in the right side, the complexion bad, and costiveness; indeed I was in the most miserable condition. I had tried many remedies, but found no permanent relief until I had purchased Dr. Harlick's Compound Strengthening and German Aperient Pills, which from their superior virtues, I was completely cured, and am able to pursue my employment, free from pain or disease. (Signed) JOHN BOLES. Dated Xenia, Ohio, June 7, 1840.

PRINCIPAL OFFICE, No. 19 North EIGHTH street, Philadelphia, where testimonials may be seen. AGENTS.—Dr. John J. Myers, Carlisle; William P. C. Shippensburg.

FEVERS.—All fevers are occasioned, by the disordered motion of the blood; produced by the humoral serosity hardening the valves of the vessels. The blood circulates with greatly increased speed, and is still increased by the friction of the globules, or particles which compose the mass of fluids. Then it is that the excessive heat is experienced throughout the whole system, and accompanied with great thirst. pain in the head, back, kidneys, and in fact a complete prostration of all the faculties of the mind as well as body.

On the first attack of fever, or any disease, immediately take a large dose of Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills, and continue to keep up a powerful effect upon the bowels until the fever or pain has entirely ceased. Six or eight will in most cases be sufficient as a first dose, and one dose of this kind, it is improbable, may prevent months of sickness, perhaps death. Purchase in Carlisle, of Geo. W. Hiner, and only in Cumberland county of Agents published in another part of this paper.
