THURSDAY, AUGUST 19, 1841.

DEMOCRATIC REPUBLICAN CAN DIDATE FOR GOVERNOR. DAVID R. PORTER.

The following young gentlemen were admitted, at the recent session of the Court, to prac tise law in the several Courts of this county, viz: LEMUEL TODD, WILLIAM Z. ANGNEY, CHARLES W. HEPBURN, J. SYLVESTER RHEY and JAMES H. CAMPBELL, Esquires.

STANDING COMMITTEE MEETING.

Agraciably to notice, the Democratic Republican Standing Committee of Cumberland county met at the public Rouse of Simon Wunderlich, Esq. in Carlisle, on Monday the 9th of August, 1841.—
Present Messrs. Hackett, Martin, Foulke, Angney, Sheaffer, Myers, Wise, Brown and Church. On Sneater, Myers, vise, Brown and Church. On motion, Mr. ROBERT R. CHURCH, was appointed Chairman, and Dr. George D. Foulke, Secretary. The following resolutions were then unanimously adopted:

Cumberland county be requested to meet at their thorsand majority, at least, and the county be requested to meet at their thorsand majority, at least, and the stock of the stock owned usual, places of bashing torough are disconsingly at least, and the stock of the there effect two delegates from each horough and township, to represent them in the County Conven-

Resolved, That the Delegates so elected be requested to meet in County Convention, at the County Hall, in Carlisle, on the Tuesday following, being the 31st Inst., at 1 o'clock, P. M. for the purpose of forming a County Ticket, to be supported by the Democratic Republicans of the county at the ensuing election.

Resolved, That these proceedings be published in the "American Volunteer." ROBERT R. CHURCH, Chairman. GEORGE D. FOULKE, Secretary.

On the opposite page will be found a heart-rending account of the destruction of a steam vessel by fire on Lake Erie, and the loss of nearly two hundred lives! In a list of the lives lost, we see the name of Mr. WILLIAM E. CAMP, the keeper of the well-known hotel, near the Market, House in Har-

Public Opinion .- Last week was a throng time in town, and we took occasion to enquire at many of our political friends, who were in attendance at Court, about the state of feeling in their respective neighborhoods, on the subject of the approaching election. In addition to the flattering eccounts detailed in conversation, we also received several letters from different sections of the countv. some of which we insert in another column. all going to show that in old mother Cumberland the prospects were never more cheering. We have heard of changes in our favor in almost every borough and township, some of them the most influential men in their respective neighborhoods.-These individuals have become thoroughly disgusted at the conduct of the Federal leaders, and eratic cause. They highly approve of the honest and straight-forward course nursued by Gov. Porder, and of the efforts made by him to advance the distant when liquor selling will be rather a dull interests and preserve the honor and integrity of business-in this community. the Commonwealth, and they have resolved to show their gratitude by voting for him at the ensuing election. From all sections of the county we hear this kind of agreeable news, and it comes so well authenticated that we cannot doubt its correctness. To our Democratic friends abroad, then, we say, look out with a certainty for an old-fashioned majority from this county. We have the "bone and sinew"-the honest of all parties with us, and the cause of the people will triumph at the ensuing election. Let the Democrats in every county exert themselves as they ought, and David R. Porter must be elected by a Jackson majority.

THE DELEGATE ELECTIONS

Take place on Saturday week. It is to be hoped that the people generally will attend, and elect "good men and true" to represent them in the County Convention. It is all-important to the welfare of the Democratic party, that a judicious choice be made by the Convention-and we draw attention to the subject thus early, that the people may select the proper kind of delegates to carry out their wishes.

SHINPLASTERS.—The Attorney General has issued instructions to his deputies throughout the Commonwealth, to prosecute all corporations, not authorized, that may issue small notes after the 10th of September-and also all persons or companies known as being engaged in the issue or introduction of the small notes of other States.

THE COFFEE AND TEA TAX PARTY. The Federalists are anxious to escape from the infamy which attaches to their friends in Congress, n their wicked attempts to lay a heavy duty on COFFEE, TEA, SALT, SUGAR, and other necessaries of life. The Deed is done !- President Tyler has signed the bill repealing the Independent Treasury:-Should the Bank Bill be vetoed, the Treasury will be thrown back on the law of 1791, and the joint resolution of 1816.

THE HOBOKEN MURDER.—Under this caption the New York city papers have numerous articles in relation to the murder of a young female, named MARY C. ROGERS, on Sunday the 25th ult. From circumstances which have been detailed, it appears highly probable that she was decoved or forced into a boat containing six men, taken across the river, her person brutally violated, and afterwards most inhumanly murdered by these ruffians. Her body was found floating in the river on the following morning, but all exertions to ferret out the perpetrators of the brutal outrage have yet proved unavailing.

The Temperance cause appears to be gaining ground rapidly in this borough. Dear Sir.—By our mutual friend, Mr.—, I send you a few lines to tell you about our political prospects in this end of the county. We were beaten last fall all to pieces by the Coon Skin party—but it wont be so this time. Our excellent Governor is popular with all parties here, and I think the opposition to his election will be comparatively trifling. We shall do our duty—you Yours, &c. may rely upon it.

The Bank Bill Vetoed! John Tyler true to his Principles!

We have the unspeakable pleasure of annous eing to our readers, that President Tyler has vetoed the Bank Bill. The message was sent into Congress at 12 o'clock on Monday. The veto is unconditional, Mr. Tyler stating that he is opposed to a Bank of Discount in any shape or form.

make the following extract, containing some of his reasons for withholding his assent to the bill: "Before entering upon the duties of that office, I took an oath that I would "preservey protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States."— Entertaining the opinions alluded to, and having taken this oath, the Senate and the country wil see that I could not give my sanction to a measure of the character described, without surrendering all claim to the respect of honorable men—all confidence on the part of the people—all self-respect—all regard for moral and religious obligations—without an observance of which he Gori ons-without an observance of which, no Gov ernment can be prosperous, and no People can be happy. It would be to commit a crime which I would not wilfully commit to gain any earthly reward, and which would justly subject me to the ridicule and scorn of all virtuous men."

The Veto has knocked Whiggery into a three cocked hat. It is conjectured that a dissolution of the Cabinet will immediately follow, and that, in all probability, Congress will break up in a row.

The arrival of the news, on Tuesday evening, that the President had vetoed the Bank Bill, produced quite a sensation in this Berough Whige attered curses sloud and after the month Mr. Tyren, and the Democrats exulted. A BON-FIRE was gotten up by a number of the Democrats in the public square; and "Tippecance and Tyler too" was sung much to the chagrin and nortification of the Federalists. Alas, poor Whiggery! To the Honorable Samuel Hapburn, Esquire, and John Stuart and John Lefevre, Esquires, Associate Judges &c., now holding a Court of Gamuel Quarter Session.

of the Peace in and for the County of Cumberland, at August Term, 1841:

We the undersigned visitors of the Poor House We the undersigned visitors of the Poor House establishment of said county, appointed by said Court at April Sessions last.—DO REPORT, that we have, in compliance with our appointment, visited the said Poor House at three different times—twice without the Steward having any knowledge of our intention of making said visits—and were much gratified and pleased in finding every this is the served Departments elseen and peats. thing in the several Departments clean and neut; there were no complaints made by the Paupers, nor could we see cause for any; the utmost harnor could we see cause for any; the utmost har-mony and good feelings appear to exist between the Steward, Matron, and Paupers. We had an opportunity on one occasion of being present du-ring a meal, namely dinner, and were much pleased in finding the table with its furniture meat and clean, the diet substantial, good, well cooked and plenty; and particularly the good order and man-ner in which, the Paupers conducted themselves many cases, will answer if used at the first attack, but when neglected, it may require many more. Those who may be afflicted with "SPITTING OF BLOOD" should lose no time in procuring the above medicine, as this disease mostly proves serious when not early attended to.

Office for the sale of this Medicine, No. 19 NORTH EIGHTH STREET, Philadelphia, also at the store of Dr. JOHN J. port without expressing our unqualified approba-tion of the manner in which the several Officers of the Institution perform their respective duties, and are well persuaded that the county will lose nothing by the resignation of our former excellent Visitors.
