CARLISLE:

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1841. DEMOCRATIC REPUBLICAN CAN DIDATE FOR GOVERNOR, DAVID R. PORTER.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

ASSEMBLY,

William Barr, Joseph Culver. COMMISSIONER, Jacob Rehrar.

TREASURER, William M. Mateer. DIRECTOR OF THE POOR,

Samuel Graham. AUDITOR, Peter Barnhart. CORONER, James Williamson.

Are you Assessed! -- It is very important that every Democratic voter should take care that he is Hard Cider, Bald Face, Shin Bone assess d, or he may lose his vote at the ensuing election. Examine the Assessors' lists in the respective boroughs and townships of the county, and be sure your name is there at least TEN DAYS before the election;—also, that the names of your Democratic Address, No. 11, of the Democratic Centra Committee will be found on our first page, to which we invite public attention.

THE STATE DEBT .- We invite particular attention to the able and satisfactory article, on the opposite page, copied from the State Capitol Gazette, respecting our State Debt-also to the address on the same subjec on our first page-in both of which the vile misrepr sentations, now going the rounds of the Federal press are fully exposed.

The Democratic Ticket.

We again advert to the Democratic ticket with pleasure, knowing the individuals composing it to present a rare combination of intelligence, respectability of the more caudid Whigs them- the Senate! d her mot a four selves. The fact is the ticket formed by the Whig delegates, has disgusted many of their own party, who, support—some of them will either vote a portion of the Democratic ticket, or absent themselves from the election entirely. .ed.o it from the midst of the industrious classes of the these two important offices from your hands? If so, on people safely commit their legislative and local inter- by an overwhelming majority. ests, without harboring a suspicion that they might prove regreant to the duties imposed upon them.

One, and merits the zealous support of every democrate Democrate ucases one, and merits the zealous support of every democrate Graham, our candidate in the county. Let our democratic friends, then, set to lie le not a mechanic? majority. They can do it, if they will. Be up and doing therefore, and let your motto be, "the ticket, the whole ticket, and nothing but the ticket."

We have conversed with a number of our country friends since the ticket was formed, and all express the ceive the British Minister, Mr. Fox, should a second highest gratification at the nominations. Even in those townships and boroughs whose claims have been postponed, there is not, so far as our information extends, a word of dissatisfaction. Our democratic friends every where appear to be actuated by the right of the entire ticket over every combination that may be to five Trustees, for the benefit of its creditors!!! formed against it.

Some of the federalists sneer at the Democratic can didate for Commissioner, because he is a POOR MAN! We admit that Maj. Renuan is a poor man, and that he supports himself and family by honest industry-in other words "by the sweat of his brow"-but we have yet to learn that a man's capacity for office is to be sylvania. It will be recollected that, in his annual measured by the length of his purse. The Major messages, Governor Ponten, in order to cut loose the is known to be intelligent, capable and deserving, and unfortunate connexion which exists between the Banks we hardly suppose that the objection referred to will and the State, and to relieve the necessities of the avail his political opponents any thing on the day of Commonwealth, strongly recommended the sale of this

Our Federal opponents do not pretend to say that the Democratic candidate for Treasurer is dishonest, or wise recommendation—preferring rather to increase the that his character and standing are not as fair as those of any other man in the county, or that, in the event of his election, he will not be abundantly able to furnish the necessary security to any amount required.the lie would be forced flown their throats by hundreds of the most respectable citizens of the county, who have known Mr. Mateer from his childhood to the They know full well that if they made such charges, present hour. because he is not in affluent circumstances, they would villingly proscribe him! It is this fact which causes stocratic noses to be turned up at our candi-

Democrats--Be on the Alert! Notwithstanding the apparent apathy of the Feder ralists in this county, we have reason to believe that he leaders are at work secretly marshalling the rank and file for the contest. We have a wily enemy to contend with-a party that changes its plan of operaions as often as it changes its principles-and it beooves every Democrat to be active and vigilant in order to foil the foe, in his schemes of cunning. . The enemy will make no demonstration of force this year, as they did during the last campaign, previous to the ection-well knowing that they cannot deceive the cople a second time with their log cabin processions and hard cider carousals. But, there is strong reas to believe that they are now feigning luke-warm and stoical indifference to the result, that so be they may lull the Democrats asleep, and at the proper time ake them by surprise. . .

We warn our Democratic friends of the danger tha waits the good cause, if they are not vigilant, Recollect there are two Senators to be elected this fall, and it is necessary for us to have every voter at the polls, if we expect to succeed. We elected our candidate for the Senate in the winter of 1839, in the midst of a violent snow-storm, under every disadvantage; and we have a fair prospect of doing so again, if every man

The "Pennsylvania Statesman" is the title of a new i paper started in this Borough by our old friend, Mr. of operation, not caring who it opposes, or whose inter-terests it advocates. It is, however, a good deal Trlenish in its leanings—and on one subject, opposition to Antimesonry, is decided and conclusive. The "great unchained" gets rapped over the knuckles in fine style -and, from the first number, we should judge that poor Thaddeus stands a fair chance of being utterly nihilated by the "Statesman."

It is a little strange, however, that Stevens' bad ualities should have only so lately come to the knowledge of the editor. He was certainly aware of his character during the campaigns of '38, '39, and '40, when not a syllable was uttered by him against that bold, bad man." In advocating Gov. Ritner's re-election, Mr. C. certainly knew that he was supporting the interests of Thaddeus Stevens and his "Adams county Tapeworm'-for it was notorious that he was the great master genius who guided and directed that administration. If he was aware of all this during a pe riod of some four or five years, why did he not long ere now come out honestly and fearlessly with his denun ciations of the man? Why wait until this late day in exposing his turpitude? There must be some other cause than the one assigned for the present conduct of our neighbor.

This flare-up among these old cronics and quondar sociates will have a good effect, however, and we trust that before peace is proclaimed much truth may Pennsylvania in all time to come. We shall be pleased therefore to see Mr. C. go ahead in the work he has commenced, although it is a little after the proper time. Still we are not of those who think Mr. Stevens the worst man in "all creation"-bad as be undoubtedly is We have another individual in our mind's eye, a personal and intimate friend of Mr. Crabb's, and, until recently, the bosom friend and companion of Stevens who is, in the opinion of a majority of the people, a reut deal worse. This man hos nearly all the BAD raits of character which distinguish Thaddeus Stevens, without ANY of his redeeming qualities-and while our neighbor is exposing one, he would perform an act of disinterested kindness by turning loose the "dogs of war" upon the other. So far as the followers of each are concerned, we believe Stevens' the have the dewelve miles, came to anchor on terra firms some are concerned, we believe Stevens' the have the dewelve miles, came to anchor on terra firms some where in the neighborhood of Chirchfown, in this are concerned, we usueve sure and cided advantage in talenta. "The Volunteer throws the whole edium of the Tea and Coffee tax upon the Whig members of Congress. That's hardly fair."—Statesman.

Why not, neighbor? The Whigs have a large m ority in Congress, and of course are responsible for all the acts of that body. Besides, every Democratic member present voted against the tax, and every Whig nember, (including Mr. Lawrence who the St says made a motion to place them on the excepted list,) for it. The truth of the matter is, that this "Tea and Coffee Tax" sticks to the Federalists like the poisoned shirt of Nessus, and all their efforts to cast off the odium of its passage only fixes it more firmly upon them.

"Let us have done with humbugs." -- So says the Statesman"-and so say we. This piece of advice, lowever, only suits the Federalists. The Democrats never resort to "humbugs" to gull and deceive the

The "Statesman" appears favorable to the organization of a "THIRD PARTY," which will "force both the leading parties to honest action." O Moses !-Charley Penrose and his man Friday to talk about olitical honesty !!! Whew!!!!!

A "third party," ch! to be composed of "conserva-tives," alias "Old Clothes" men, as leaders, and the fag end of all factions as followers! Why, man, the same thing has been tried repeatedly in this county before, once by yourself and Charley Penrose, and always failed. Its no go. People are not just so easily, rulled as all that comes to. You must try something

The Hon. FRANCIS MALLORY, a Whig member of Congress from Virginia, in a letter to his constituents, in relation to his course on the Bank Bill says:-"The session, is worse than that of the worst and most tyrannical party which ever existed in any country professing to be free. I cannot go with the majority in their march towards consolidation. The guestion is again to be decided whether republican or federal doctrines are to shape the administration of this government, and I am prepared for the contest. I rejoice that the line is so soon to be drawn, and now that the Federal party are about to take the field under their own anners, stripped of our name and uniform, though the fire will be hot, and the charge desperate, I have no doubt of the issue of the struggle.

The "Fiscal Corporation" Bill passed the Senate or Friday last, by a vote of 27 to 22-every Federalist, except Mr. Rives, for it, and every Democrat, with Mr. R., against it. The Bill was sent to the President on Saturday, and is probably by this time either signed or vetoed. We trust it may meet the fate of its "illustrious predecessor." We have, however, our fears for the result.

How is This?-It has been rumored here for severa days past, that the nominations of CHARLEY PENROSE and Joe RITNER are not likely to be confirmed by the Senate without considerable difficulty. At all events, it is said the nominations have been held under advise-

Post Office Department. This is another item of Whig "reform." Under Mr. Kendall's administration, the expenses of the Department were always made to keep within its incomes, and generally a considerable surplus was on hand. But now, under Federal reform, for the first time since the organization of the Department, the Post Office is placed a pensioner on hungry horde of Whig mail contractors, agents, &c.

Never before, in the history of this Government, has he confidence of the American people been so outrageously abused, as it has been in the promises made by the Federal leaders during the last Presidential cam-

CRABB, the first number of which county, this fell, and some of them are candid enough ate-not because he is known to be meritorious and made its appearance on Thursday last. In its general to admit it. Like Kilkenny cats, the different faction politics it appears to be neither "fish, flesh, nor salt of Whiggery are endeavoring to devour one another cerring"-being for and against a Bank, for and against and the band of union-the thirst for office-is com Gov. Porter, for and against Judge Banks, and for and pletely broken, now that they cannot be all satisfied against all parties and "old party leaders,"-It is a with a taste of the "loaves and fishes." So far as sort of cosmopolite, having the broad world for its field offices have been, or are likely to be, conferred, the "Old Clothes" faction appears to get ahead of the Whigs and antimasons, and thus far the road to preferment is closed against those who have "borne the heat and burthen of the day." Whether this is right or proper, is not for us to say. It is a family concern with themselves, and they will have to settle the quar rel in the best way they can. Still, we go for fair play among opponents, and we dislike to see the old veter ans of the Federal party entirely left out of view in the scramble for the spoils.

The success of the "eleventh hour" men has disgust ed the other portions of the party, and rendered them lukewarm and inactive at the present time. Besides, the course things have taken at Washington, is any thing else than favorable to the advancement of Federal Whiggery.

All the Democrats have to do at the present time, is adhere firmly to their principles, and we shall give Governor PORTER a majority in this county which will astonish our opponents.

Several of the Federal papers are congrutulating the friends of Judge BANKS, that his political opponents have not attacked his private character. This is a compliment, though not so intended, to the Democrati press of the State-and ought to mantle the checks of those Federalists with shame who are again at the dirty work of defaming the character of Governor Porter Democrats do not bring in the aid of such means to carry their point-with them, reason and sound arguments are the only weapons made use of. The public conduct of a candidate they consider a fair subject of scrutiny and animadversion; but to pry into his private lomestic concerns they detest, and leave such villainou employment to the aiders and abettors of the Ston reakers and Sturgeons of the day.
