CARLISLE:

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1841.

Our FLAG having done good service in the cause of Democracy and the people, we shall for the present furl it. As soon as the next campaign opens, we shall again fling its ample folds to the breeze, and invite our Democratic friends to rally under their coun-

Huzza for Old Cumberland!

Proudly-gallantly-nobly has the Democracy of this mother of counties, redcemed its character which was slightly tarnished at the late Presidential election. We subjoin the returns as for as received up to the time our paper went to press on yesterday, and, although not official, they may be relied on as very nearly correct. They show a tremendous reaction in favor of Demo cracy, and speak in tones of thunder to Federal Whiggery. The opposition have not been so completely used up for years, in this county, as they were on Tuesday last-and richly did they deserve the drubbing for the vile impositions they practised upon the people during the Presidential campaign. 1000 Cheers, say we, for the Democracy of Old Mother, Cumberland! GLORY ENOUGH FOR ONE DAY!

The majority in this district for the whole Democratic ticket, varies but little from the Governor's majority -the same, we believe, may be said of the run throughout the county. Unless Adams county has given an unexpectedly large majority for the Federal candidates, we incline to the opinion that Messrs, McLananan and Gorgas are elected to the State Senate. not overmuch sanguine, however,

The vote was heavy in this district, over 1500 polled The Federal pipe-layers exerted themselves to the utmost in this borough and the different townships-hu it was "no go." The people were too well satisfied with the measures of Governor Ponten, to desert him for the tool of Thaddeus Stevens

WELL DONE DICKINSON !- This patriotic township, including the upper and lower districts, gave Governor Potter, and the Senatorial ticket, a majority of 178 ! This is the largest Democratic majority ever before cast in the township, and we learn that it was in a great measure owing to the extraordinary exertion of Gen. Miller, who by his praise-worthy conduct contributed largely to the glorious result. The Democracy of old Cumberland will hold him in grateful remem-

Democratic Siber Spring has again come up to the work in fine style. Look at her majority of 169, and then say if you can that she is not true-hearted and deerrying!

All Hall Maryland!

We have the proud gratification of announcing to our readers, that the gool old Maryland line, following the example of Maine, Vermont, Indiana and Alabama has nobly wheeled into the Democratic column. The triumph is as complete, as it was unexpected -and our n lighbors in achieving the mighty victory, have covered themselves all over with glory. In the city of Bal- American coast. timore alone, where last year our majority was only 31, the majority for the "War Horse of Democracy," the patriotic and lion-hearted FRANCIS THOMAS, is 1049 ! What a change !- So of almost overy county in the State. It is sufficient to say, that Maryland is redeemed-gloriously and effectually redeemed from Federal thraldon. Below will be found the returns, embracing every city and county in the State. They show that FRANCIS THOMAS is elected Governor by a majority of about 700-and that the Democrats have elected 42 of the 79 Delegates. Last year, Harrison's majority was 4,774 and the Democrats had but nineteen Delegates! Truly, this is a glorious victory!

Glorious Democratic Triumph in Georgia beaten Dawson, his Federal opponent, and is elected Governor by a majority of from 3 to 4,000. Last year, Harrison's majority was 8,340—consequently there is a Democratic gain of about 12,000 votes! There will also be a Democratic majority in the Legislature which was last year strongle. So was last year strongle. was last year strongly Federal!

Verily, "the sober second thought of the people" working wonders every where. The tom-foology of Log Cabins and Hard Cider has had its day, and Fedoral Whiggery is completely used up-defunct-dead -from one end of the Union to the other.

Well—gentle readers—the election is now over, and we, as well as yourselves, are right down glad of it. For the last four or five years there has scarcely been a breathing spell in the politics of Pennsylvania. No sooner had one election terminated, than another campaign commenced—and thus there was kept up a constant excitement, the end of which, until now, could not be anticipated. We believe there is at length an opportunity-afforded for taking-a-little-repose.—Our opponents are broken up and dispirited—the Democratic party is united and victorious, with a fair prospect of retaining power for many years to come. The people have had an opportunity of testing the relative merits of a Democratic and Federal Administration, as well in the National as in the State Governments, and we believe they have now settled down in the conviction that the former is the only safe kind to entrust with power. The Federalists never get into power, and to an airing of a few miles towards the first calculations.

Meeting of the Magnates.—Kookuck, Chief of the Sacs and Foxes, accompanied by fifty of his followers, lately made a visit of occumony to Joe Smith, Mourarch of the Mormons, at his capital city, Nauvoo. Joe received his brother savage with distinguished politiness. The "Nauvoo Legion" was called out and cecotted Keckuck and his sequent to the magnificant ness. The forest Chief knew no more of all this nonsense than an oyster knows about quince sauce, but he lix-tened—to it-with-most—imperturable—gravity_neverthe-less, and in his turn replied to it.—He expressed all proper astonishment at the Nauvoo economy, and did ustice to the mighty great things accomplished by his prother on this side the big river; but as to the New Jerusalem part of the business, he was non committed until he could ascertain whether there were to be any until he could ascertain whether there were to be any government annuities in that famous city, and as to the "milk and honey" spoken of by Joe with so much unction, Keokuck felt very indifferent,—he should himself prefer whiskey.—N. But, as we observed before the election for this year is now over in Pennsylvania, and a perfect calm succeeds the storms that preceded it for so long a time.
