

AMERICAN VOLUNTEER. BY GEO. SANDERSON.

CARLISLE: THURSDAY, JANUARY 27, 1842.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE GOVERNOR. Hon. Arson V. Parsons, to be Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Hon. Calvin Blitzer, to be President Judge of the 12th Judicial District, vice Hon. Arson V. Parsons.

Hon. Calvin Blitzer, to be President Judge of the 12th Judicial District, vice Hon. Arson V. Parsons.

Governor Porter, has appointed John W. Fox, Esq., Prothonotary of Lancaster county, in the place of Z. McClanahan, Esq. deceased.

JAMES BUCHANAN—We are pleased to see the unanimity of the Democratic press for this gentleman's nomination to the Presidency.

The times require a man of Mr. BUCHANAN'S transcendent ability and weight of character.

The Steamship Britannia arrived at Balton on Saturday last, with London papers to the 3d, and Liverpool to the 4th inst.

The Hon. Wilson Shannon, who was defeated by the Coon Skin party in 1840, has received the unanimous nomination of the Democratic Convention of Ohio, for the office of Governor of that State.

The Hon. Joseph Horne, Judge of the District Court of the U. States for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, died at his residence in Philadelphia, on Saturday evening, in the 72d year of his age.

The Hon. Joseph Horne, Judge of the District Court of the U. States for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, died at his residence in Philadelphia, on Saturday evening, in the 72d year of his age.

THE BANKRUPT BILL—We understand that Kentucky has instructed her Senators to vote for the repeal of the Bankrupt Bill.

Another proper Bankrupt Bill may be passed, but it must be made for the whole people, and not for a few, and include rotten corporations, as well as fancy stock manufacturers.

Table with columns: Fractions, Loss, Gain. Lists various states and their corresponding values.

Our Washington correspondents failed to come to hand in time for this week's paper.

The movement in the Senate to-day, evinces a determination to carry out the system of the extra session.

The Hon. Mr. GILMAN of Virginia entered into a full exposition of the wants of the Treasury, and the data of the Secretary, who asked the provision only because he had not been able to realize but about five millions of the loan authorized in the extra session.

The Hon. Mr. CLAY of Virginia, who seems to look upon himself as the place which he would have Mr. CLAY to vacate, undertook to lead the way for the party.

Messrs. WOODBURY, CALDWELL, KING, and BUCHANAN, look their stand decidedly against these new and rapid strides of Federalism.

The Hon. Mr. CLAY of Virginia, who seems to look upon himself as the place which he would have Mr. CLAY to vacate, undertook to lead the way for the party.

THE EXCHEQUER AND SUB TREASURY.—Mr. Mangum, (Whig) in his remarks in the Senate upon the Exchequer, is reported to have said as follows:

"Mr. Mangum would A THOUSAND TIMES RATHER TAKE THE SUB TREASURY THAN THIS EXCHEQUER."

FROM HARRISBURG. Extract of a letter to the Editor, dated Tuesday evening, Jan. 25, 1842.

The Senate has just confirmed the nomination of Judge ROBERTS, by a vote of 30 to 8.

There has been nothing of importance transacted in either House as yet. Judging from present appearances, it is very doubtful whether any improvement bill will pass this session.

THE FASHIONS FOR 1842. "SHOOT FOLLY AS IT FLIES."

Mr. Editor.—It is not pleasant to announce to the fables of mankind. By exposing the faults and follies of others, we cast a reflected glory on ourselves.

Every one whose name we may deem best to give, I will give you in due season.
