STATES AND STREET STATES AND STATES ING We hope our Democratic friends will bear in mind the County Meeting colled for Monday evening next. It is scarcely necessary for us to again urge the necessity of giving a strong expression from this county on the subject of the next Presidency. Mr. Buca-AYAN has always been a favorite with the Democracy. of old mother Cumberland, and upon more than one occasion heretofore have they expressed their friend ship in resolutions, toasts, &c. And now, when there is a fair prospect of elevating him to the Presidential chair, at the expiration of the present weak and mis-erably inefficient administration, it is not to be suppo-sed that they will be backward in again manifesting their friendship in the strongest possible manner. We commend the following article, taken from the

"Lancaster Intelligencer, to the attention of our readers. It is appropriate and to the point as it regards the claims of Pennsylvania to the Presidency, and avinces a commendable feeling of State pride on the subject, which every Democrat should cherish:

In the discussion of this question; for the past few In the discussion of this question, for the past levy months, by the Democracy of Pennsylvania, we have contented ourselves with publishing such expressions of opinion as were made by the Democratic papers, and the Democratic county meetings of the State,— Living in the same county with the honored citizen me has been advanced in connection with the claims of Pennsylvania, to the honors of the Presiden-cy, we conceived that, further than this we ought not to go-not, at least, until we felt assured that he was the choice of the Domocrats of Pennsylvania for that

STILL LATER EROM TEXAS-A. Large Maz Army Chill in the Field-The Parmara and willing -The New Orleans papers of the 25th ult, have advices from Galveston to the 23d, brought by the steamboat Colonel Wood, which had been despatched from the latter city on that day with the confirmation of the invasion of Toxas by an overwhelming Mexican force. It is said that the retreat of the Mexicans from San Antonio was a device to allure the Texan troops, assembled in haste, to go in pursuit before they were fully drilled and disciplined, Shortly after the steamship Neptune left Galveston (which vessel reported the retreat of the Mexicans from San Antonio;) an express arrived, bringing intelligence of the advance of 9,000 men on the Matamoras road toward Victoria, and reporting 12,000 additional troops on the upper road, marching upon San Antonio. The forces which recently captured San Antonio constituted the van-guard of the 12,000 under and of Vasquez. The impression is, that the Pexan army of 1,500 under Burleson, will follow the retreat of the yan gard until brought within the nower of the main-army..... Upon the receipt of this news, which was brough to Matagorda from different directions, rendering its truth indisputuble, the Committee of Vigilance in Gal-veston despatched a pilot hoat, and in a few hours af-terwards this gtegmboat, Colonel Wood, who met with favorable weather, came to our Levee in a bout 50 hours. The correspondent of the National Intelligence doubts this second report-believing it to be but the second edition of the first account. He says-
