

AMERICAN VOLUNTEER.

BY GEO. SANDERSON.

FOR PRESIDENT IN 1844. JAMES BUCHANAN.

Subject to the decision of a National Convention.

CARLISLE:

THURSDAY, MAY 5, 1842.

NICHOLSON LANDS.—We invite attention to the advertisement in another column, for the sale of a large quantity of Nicholson lands in this county.

The County Treasurer's notice to Retailers of Foreign Merchandise, &c. will be found in another column. Those interested will do well to take notice.

Mr. Ironsides's Speech.—An extract from the speech of this distinguished statesman, in his debate with Mr. Adams, will be found on the opposite page. Our readers can judge for themselves, after reading the extract, whether Mr. I., as alleged by the Federal press, was able to debate—and whether such a speech—as able and dignified—merited for its author the fishermen slang of the hoary-headed disorganizer.

Huzza for Shimplasters!—Bless their dear little souls, we've got them at last—thanks to our worthy Town Council. They made their appearance on Monday—and such a "glittering array" to enlighten the Council of the sweet little critters, we never did see. We are sorry that we have not one of the little innocents before us, that we might delineate in our proportions—its beautiful design—and admirable engraving, but as we have not yet had the good fortune to have one in our possession, we must content ourselves with giving this general kind of notice. Our readers—in the Borough, at least—will doubtless have an opportunity of judging for themselves in a day or two, which will supersede the necessity of any further notice, from us. Our country friends, as they come to town, will get a sight of them, and that alone may prove a "welcome remedy for sore eyes." Again, we say—HUZZA FOR SHIMPLASTERS!

Handsome display on Saturday last.—They rolled through some of our principal streets, to the number of about 100 men in full uniform, accompanied by the band, and were commanded by Capt. Saxe. This parade was given by the Captain, we understand, as a farewell to the citizens previous to his departure for the far west, whether he has been ordered for the purpose of establishing a new military post. During his long residence amongst us, Capt. S. has maintained the character of a high-minded, accomplished and honorable gentleman—and, we are sure, carries with him the best wishes of all our citizens for his future health and prosperity. He left here on Monday, accompanied by his family.

The three volunteer companies of our Borough paraded on Monday, and presented quite a soldier-like appearance. We did not see—or rather had not the pleasure of seeing—the "bulwark of the nation," and therefore cannot speak of their martial bearing and "wonderful evolutions." We shall have a specimen of them, however, on Tuesday next.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE! That Messrs. BARR and CULVER voted to INCREASE THE TAXES of the Hold-Working yeomanry of the County to the ENORMOUS SUM OF $27,000!!!

We clip the above article from the Herald and Expositor, where it is kept as standing matter—and we only notice it now, to give it the most unqualified denial. It is FALSE from beginning to end, and no man who has any regard for truth or fair dealing would be guilty of publishing such a paragraph. We now call upon the editor to substantiate, by proof, what he alleges against Messrs. BARR and CULVER—or stand forth convicted of publishing a wilful and deliberate falsehood.

ANOTHER DEFAULTER.—The Louisville Journal of the 15th inst. says:—"The Cashier of the Planters' Bank, at Clarksville, Tennessee, has appropriated $20,000 of its funds to his own use."

The Democrats of Bedford county held a meeting on Tuesday week, at which they responded to the call for a Buchanan State Convention on the 20th of July, and appointed delegates to attend the same. Adams county has also appointed delegates.

The Democrats of Juniata are to have a Buchanan county meeting on Tuesday next. Columbia County.—The Democrats of this interesting republican county held a Buchanan meeting, at Danville, on the 19th ult. It is spoken of as one of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings ever convened in the "Star of the North," and strong resolutions were passed in favor of Pennsylvania's "favorite son." They also passed a resolution in favor of a State Convention—but suggest the 8th of January next, as the most suitable time.

Duchanan Abroad.—We take the following extract from the "Flag of the Union," a leading Democratic paper published at Tuscaloosa, Alabama:—"Mr. Buchanan, the distinguished Pennsylvania Senator, has been nominated for the Presidency by very numerous meetings of the Democracy both at Harrisburg and Pittsburg. They seem to be in earnest in the Keystone State, in pressing Mr. Buchanan's claims for this office. He is certainly well qualified both in moral and political character, and has more than sufficient talents for the high station."

We are indebted to Messrs. BUCHANAN and GENTRIS of Congress, for papers and documents. A Democratic County Convention was held in Montrose, Susquehanna county, on the 19th ult., at which the Hon. JAMES BUCHANAN was formally nominated as the choice of that county for the next Presidency.

The crops of Wheat and Rye never presented a finer appearance at this season of the year, in this county, than they do at the present time—so say the Farmers, and they are the best judges of this matter. Providence is favorable to us as a people, beyond what we deserve.

FLOUR.—The selling price of this article, in Baltimore, continues at $5.62.

WHISKEY only brings 16 cents per gallon—exclusive of the barrel. Poor encouragement, we should think, for Distillers.

Second Tax.—The citizens of this Borough, at an election on Tuesday last, decided by a large majority, that there should be an additional tax levied of $1800 for School purposes the present year.

BANKRUPTS.—We see it stated in the State Capitol Gazette, that up to the 1st of April, the number of applicants for the benefit of the bankrupt laws in the United States, was 6,646, six of whom were females! The latter are said to possess five "personal estates!"

Important to Landholders.—The Legislature, at its last session, passed a supplement to the act, entitled "An act to graduate lands on which the money is due and unpaid to the Commonwealth," by which the time for taking out patents is further extended until the tenth day of April, 1844; "and no longer."

THE DIFFERENCE.—MARK IT!—Under a Democratic Administration, says the Salem Advertiser, every demand against the Government was promptly paid and cancelled, the national debt paid off, and a surplus of twenty-eight millions deposited with the State; old claims upon foreign powers overhauled, and a settlement of all just demands enforced; our credit at home and abroad faithfully preserved unimpaired.

Under a Federal Whig Administration, officers and laborers in the public service are unable to get their stipulated pay; the Treasury is bankrupt; drafts upon Government, including a foreign minister's outfit, protested; Treasury notes protested, even at the pet banks of the Government, and two per cent. below par when not protested; loans contracted; taxes increased; a portion of the revenue given over to speculating stockjobbers; Government expenses augmented; our credit and honor sunk; Congress turned into a bear garden; a national debt of seventeen millions created in one year, and the prospect ahead dark as an Egyptian midnight! So much for Whig reform!

"Hey Jim along! Jim along Josie!" MR. TYLER.—If ever man was to be commiserated, Mr. Tyler is that man. He is President, to be sure, but he holds a barren sceptre in his grasp. He may nominate men to office, but if he does not nominate his enemies, his nominations are almost sure to be rejected. As to those already in office, they were chiefly put there by Gen. Harrison, under Mr. Clay's influence, or by Messrs. "Ewing and Granger" while they retained office.

We can easily conceive that Mr. Tyler is itching for revenge. But he has not the means of gratifying this feeling. To be sure, as President, he has the legal right to dismiss any public officer and appoint another in his place, to hold the station till the close of the next session of Congress. The Constitution would not prevent him from ousting the Clay men in this way. Yet he is tied down by his pride of consistency. He vaunts himself upon his superiority to party and personal considerations, in relation to the tenure and exercise of office.

It is therefore impossible for him to retaliate upon his Clay adversaries, without eating his own words, and justifying to the full, the acts of the democratic administrations, which he alleged as grounds for opposing them. Mr. Clay, or Mr. Webster if in Mr. Tyler's place, could manage the matter much easier. They are so accustomed to eating their words, and changing their course, that they could do it with a good grace and a bold face, and even assert, if they deemed it expedient, that they had not changed at all.

If Mr. Tyler were a somewhat better or somewhat worse man than he is, he might find his position more comfortable. If better, he might fill the office with good sound democrats, regardless of the jeers of his enemies about his change of opinion and of policy; if worse, he would have no character to care for, and might take revenge on his adversaries, without troubling himself to justify his course, or to maintain an appearance of consistency of conduct.—Pennsylvanian.

Gen. Jackson's Fine. The Committee of the Senate, to whom was referred the bill to refund to Gen. Jackson the fine imposed upon him by Judge Hall of New Orleans, in 1815, made, through their Chairman, Mr. BENTLEY, an address report: As this was a matter calculated to do nothing more than justice to the fame of one of the greatest patriots that our country ever produced, it of course, could not meet the approbation of the federal majority in Congress, and hence his address report of Mr. Berrien. The Committee assumed the ground that a request to remit the fine was not made by Gen. Jackson himself, nor by any of his personal friends, and further, that there was no evidence before the Committee to show for what cause, or under what circumstances the fine was imposed.

These men, who now profess to remove a stigma from the fair name of the hero of New Orleans, are the same who during the past year, have squandered millions to reward the vile jackals of their party, and who actually made a present of twenty five thousand dollars of the people's money to pay Mr. Harrison for the expenses incurred by her husband in contributing to sustain their disgusting system of electioneering in 1840. Gen. Jackson is fined $1,000 for protecting the city of New Orleans from the unrestrained violence of a profligate soldiery, and when it is proposed to do him justice by refunding the amount, the proposition is rejected by the federalists as an unwarrantable waste of the public money; Gen. Harrison spends large sums in maintaining an election campaign; the wild excesses of which have attached a disgrace to our country, that no time can wipe off, and for this his relatives are voted an indemnity of twenty-five thousand dollars! The public can compare these two events and say which is the most deserving of the admiration of the American people, and which has conferred the most important benefits on the country—the protection of the "beauty and booty" of New Orleans from the violence of the English army, or the triumph of cock-skins and hard cider in the campaign of 1840!—Pittsburg Manufacturer.

AWFUL AND MELLANCHOLY CASUALTY.—Twenty-four Boys Drowned.—A most fatal and melancholy accident occurred at Boston harbor on Friday afternoon last. A sloop boat belonging to the Farm School, on Thompson's Island, was returning from a fishing excursion, under the charge of Mr. Oakes, the boatman, with Mr. Peabody, the Teacher, and twenty-seven boys belonging to the School. She was unfortunately upset by a flaw of wind while tacking, and immediately sunk, and all on board except four of the boys were drowned.

They had in consequence of good behavior, been allowed to go on a fishing excursion. They had caught several fish, and were on their return to the island, in fine spirits, beating against a head wind, and making near a point of the island, that they were chased by the boys who remained, and the boys on board returned the cheer. Having stood off towards the Spectacle Island, the boat was in the act of tacking for the purpose of making towards the landing place, when she suddenly upset and sank. Three of the boys succeeded themselves by clinging to a box which held the bait, and were picked up by the schooner H. B. Foster, and brought to town, one of them when taken up, being in a state of insensibility.

Mr. Morrison, the superintendent, on seeing the disaster, proceeded to the spot, in a small boat, assisted by two farmers, and succeeded in picking up one boy alive, and the body of one who was lifeless. All the rest, twenty-three in number with the boatman and teacher, were buried in the deep.—Ledger.

DISCHARGE OF NICHOLAS, BIDDLE, &c.—The opinion of the Philadelphia Court of General Sessions, in the case of Biddle, Covopothwaite and Andrews, was delivered on Friday last by Judge Barton, discharging the parties. Judge Congd. coincided with Judge B. Doran dissented, and read an elaborate opinion against their discharge. So then, it appears, the laws were only made to punish petty offenders—what "rogues in raffia" are permitted to escape with impunity.

VIRGINIA ELECTION.—But few returns have yet been received of the election in Virginia, on Thursday last. So far, however, they are decidedly favorable, showing a Democratic gain of ten members of Assembly. Should the result be as favorable throughout the State, the Republican cause must be gloriously triumphant.

Correspondence of the Volunteer. For the Volunteer. Mr. SANDERSON.—I perceive from the exhibit of the Borough account for the year 1841-2, as published in the Volunteer, that the Whig Council of last year has not been so remarkable for good financing as some of the celebrated Philadelphia bankers: Not that I would impeach them with appropriating any portion of the Borough funds to their own use—by no means; for I do not suppose that any of those gentlemen would be guilty of such conduct. What I mean to say is, that the Council have some how or other managed to spend over $5000 during the year—and I am not aware of any thing they have done in the way of improvement which would warrant such an extravagant expenditure. "It is true they paved two streets—one of them running out into the country, over which one wagon may possibly pass once in the course of a year—and the other of doubtful utility, at best. Besides this, they caused to be published, at an enormous expense, a little pamphlet purporting to be a history of the Borough; but which might as well be a history of Tom Thumb, so far as benefit to the inhabitants is concerned. Whether these three items are really expenditures, is questionable—at least I do not think the taxpayers have received an equivalent for the $1500 which they cost. There are two other items of expense which need explanation: The first is a payment of $200 to D. Bowers, Street Commissioner—and the second is to Daniel Bowers, Street Commissioner, his salary, $48.75. Whether both these payments were made to him on account of his services, is a query! either of them, however, is more than has generally been paid to the incumbent of that highly important office. These two items, added to the former, swell the expenses of the Borough to the enormous amount of over $7000!

But there is another feature in the Borough account, which is well calculated to arrest the attention of taxpayers—it is this: The item of $732.30 of the former small note issue, is still hanging as a debt over the Borough. It is a debt which has been borrowed from the Philadelphia Bank, and which has been used for the purpose of making improvements—which sum still remains due to the bank. But again.—The Council claim credit for $439.31 to balance due by John Peters, Collector for 1840, for which suit has been brought against his bail. I am credibly informed that the bond is defective—consequently the money has not yet been paid, and this money actually lost to the Borough. So, then, we have the respective sums of $732.30 (the small note issue unredeemed)—the $500, owing the Bank—and the $439.31, owing by Peters (which may be transferred to the debit side)—making in all, $1669.91: To balance this, we have several items of small rent, &c. which amount in the aggregate to $339.42—leaving a balance against the Borough of $1326.19. But as the small note balance is not justly chargeable against the last Council, I deduct that item, and there still remains a debt created by them of $593.89, which they have entailed upon the Borough—and this too, after having stated the year, as their account shows, to be the year of their departure, and also raising by taxation the last year the further sum of $1175.79, after paying the Collector his per centage and exonerations—besides a large amount of other receipts, as the exhibit will show!

But I have not time to go further into details at present. I may return to the subject again, if this communication may be thought worthy of a place in your paper. I close, therefore, at present, by expressing a hope that the present Council will not follow in the footsteps of their illustrious predecessors. I am the more encouraged to indulge in this hope, from the fact that there are some Democrats on the board, who, if they do not actually go, may prevent the members from inflicting a positive evil upon their constituents. A TAX PAYER. May 2, 1842.

At a meeting convened at the Public House of John Stough, Esq., in Stoughton, on Monday the 23rd of May, 1842: It was taken into consideration that candidates for the different offices, should be nominated, when the following persons were appointed to preside, viz: President, Maj. A. W. STERRETT, Vice Presidents, A. Hoch, Peter Stroem, Huston Fulton, George Kiffe, Secretary, William Myers.

On motion of A. W. Sterrett, the following persons were appointed a committee to nominate candidates, and draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting, to wit: Isaiah Lindsey, John Harlow, Philip Stroem, John Stough, John A. Pierson, and Charles Williams.

The Committee on nominations, reported the following resolutions, and proposed the following candidates, for the different offices, viz: Brigadier General, Maj. A. W. STERRETT, Brigade Inspector, MAJ. SAMUEL TRITT, Colonel Commandant, MAJ. C. G. STOUGH, Lieutenant Colonel, MAJ. HENRY REBUCK, 2d Major, CAPT. ABRAHAM HOCH.

We the citizens subject to military duty, comprising the 1st and 2d Battalions of the 106th Regiment of P. M., do hereby recommend the above persons, for the different offices, and respectfully solicit the support of each member belonging to the 106th Regiment P. M., for the same.

Resolved, That we the citizens comprising the principal part subject to military duty, in Newton and the adjoining townships, are perfectly satisfied with the military capacity of the aforesaid nominees, for the above offices, and that we do pledge ourselves to use all honorable exertions to promote their election.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting, signed by the officers, be published in the Carlisle papers, and also in the Shippenburg "Cumberland Valley."

A. W. STERRETT, President, D. J. FIELDS, A. Hoch, Peter Stroem, H. Fulton, and George Kiffe, Vice Presidents, William Myers, Secretary.

CORRIGENDUM.—Mr. John Earl, 25 Tenth street, Philadelphia, was for many years badly afflicted with the above disease (consumption) which had continued to grow worse daily until it became truly alarming—he was recommended to use several remedies, which he did, and not receiving any benefit from them, he despaired of ever being cured, until finally he was advised to try Dr. J. C. Loomis's Vegetable Universal Pills, which he did in a short time completely cured his complaint, and soon restored him to a perfect enjoyment of health, a blessing he acknowledges he never expected to enjoy.

His certificate guaranteeing the fact can be seen at the Office of Dr. J. C. Loomis, 8 North Eighth street. Purchased in Carlisle, of Geo. W. Hines, and only in Cumberland county of Agents published in another part of this paper.

Dr. J. C. LOOMIS'S VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILL. CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED! Mrs. Mary Dowers, wife of Henry Dowers, was for a length of time afflicted with a "Pulmonary Consumption," which defied the united skill of several eminent physicians. She having at length obtained "Loomis's" was induced to try a trial. Her symptoms were those of Phthisis Pulmonalis, &c. Pulmonary Consumption, viz: a dry hacking cough, pain in the breast and side, impaired appetite and great thirst, hectic fever and night sweats, with much debility and weakness. She is happy in saying that after using three bottles of the "Expectorant Remedy," she began to have hopes of a speedy recovery; her strength gradually increased until she had used three bottles more, when she felt entirely restored, it now being eight months since, and no symptoms of the complaint appearing. Price 15 per bottle.

Federal Troops Ordered to Rhode Island! We learn from the Baltimore American that two companies of U. S. Artillery, numbering in all 150 men, arrived in that city from Old Point Comfort, on Sunday last, and left in the cars the same evening for the State of Rhode Island—having been ordered there by the President of the U. S. States, to support the Landholders party, and shoot down the people, if they show any symptoms of resistance to the powers that be. The detachment is commanded by Col. Fanning. The New York Courier also states that two companies of U. S. troops, of 71 men each, left Forts Columbus and Hamilton on Sunday morning in the steamboat Providence, for Rhode Island. There are also two companies already at Newport under the command of Major Payne.

So, then, the "Rubicon is passed," and this last ill-advised act of President Tyler, must sink him irrevocably in the estimation of every Republican citizen—every true friend of liberty and equality. A day or two will determine whether mercenary bayonets are to decide the dispute in Rhode Island—or whether justice and right are to prevail. Heaven preserve the people from such an umpire as has been sent among them by the National Executive.

MARRIED. On the 14th ult., by the Rev. John Ulrich, Mr. David Sturdy, of this county, to Miss Martha Jones, of Perry county. On the 14th ult., by the Rev. A. H.
