THE VOLUNTEER CARLISLE, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1845

TO OUR PATRONS. pressed not only to merit the liberal patronage which fiscal concerns of the government from banking in ment, but to use such exertions in disseminating and -cash paying advortisers-and merchants, artisans, and traders, enulous in their desire to communicate with the public through the medium of handbills and posters. Our brief residence here has satisfied us that we were not practising self-deception in previonsly estimating this community as an intelligent

It is the duty of the press first to discover what is the will of a majority of the people, and next to inquire how it may be carried into effect. A reflecting mind, from an attentive view of the political history, When we assumed the proprietary control of the of the last few years, cannot fail to draw the conclu-"AMERICAN VOLUNTEER," a determination was ex-

THE INDÉPENDENCE OF THE TREASURY.

had up to that period been bestowed upon this establish, stitutions, had up to that period been bestowed upon this establish, stitutions, When the Whigs came into power in 1840, they upholding the principles of the republican party-to were in the majority in almost every State, and had exhibit such spirit, industry, enterprise, (we will not a large majority in Congress. One of their first and say good taste;) in catering for the wants of the ge- worst acts was to repeal the Sub-Treasury Law, passneral as well as the political reader—as would ulti-mately secure for us on increase of subscribers with with the passage of the infamous Bankrupt Act, may their accompanying sources of profit. Before we lo- have afforded them some consolation after the failure cated in this beautiful valley, we regarded it, not as of their strenuous and repeated efforts to create anan Israclitish, but as an editorial "land of promise" -abounding with two-dollars in advance subscribers proved by the people, for scarcely had a year clapsed proved by the people, for scarcely had a year clapsed before they had lost nearly all the advantages gained

The people, therefore, in the sentence thus passe upon Whiggery, have condemned one of its leading ceived in anlicipating custom and profit. Our sub-measures-the Ropeal of the Sub-Treasury Law; a liberal, and enterprising one; neither were we demeasure, for the adoption of which, no reason could scription list has swelled to the most comfortable dimensions-far outstripping that of any other in the be assigned save the rampant desire of the Whig county-our advertising patronage is of an increasing leaders to uproot and destroy every rule of policy enand substantial character; and the walls of many of grafted upon the government by a domocratic admin our buildings bear striking and staring testimony to istration.

our operations in the "jobbing line." We allude A National Bank is now no longer a mooted que to these evidences of putronage and prosperity in tion, and, although it may have individual advocates a thankful spirit; and the present enlarged and im- no party is bold enough to stand forth as its avowed desire on our part to merit what has been so freely city, dare not join in its favor. The experiment of and so generously extended to us. We wish the a United States Bank was fairly tested, and after a reader to open our sheet and carefully examine its deplorable exhibition of its destructive and dangerous well-filled and (with all modesty he it whispered,) well tendencies, finally (may we not say forever,) abanprinted columns. We have added considerable to the doned. length of them-procured a new and beautiful fount

The Pet Bank System was also tried, and that it of type, of smaller cast than that heretofore used, by proved an entire failure, no candid or intelligent perwhich we shall be enabled to give our patrons a much son will deny. To this, it may be safely asserted, larger amount of reading matter-and which was the people are unanimously opposed.

manufactured expressly for us by that old and cele-The Treasury, as its affairs are now managed, is brated type founder, Alexander Robb, Esq., of Phila-delphia. In point of size, in point of typographical virtually "Independent" in one sense, but not that in which we use the term, as disconnected and divorced appearance and execution, the "VOLUNTEER" will now from all Banks. The system which has been in opcfavorably compare with any newspaper published in ration since the repeal of the Sub-Treasury Law, is Pennsylvania. This exhibition of enterprise on our the very same which, before the passage of that law, part, has been attended with very great expense-an expense equal to one year's profits of any one country Department was first organized, and the resolution of newspaper of ordinary circulation ; and we consequenty 100K to our subscribers, and to such of our in payments to the government, with the exception in our possession, and can say with certainty that the whole democratic ticket is elected by a majority cutzens as are not subscribers, for some return for, this outlay of capital, and for this disposition to ren-der the "Youwreen" universally accentable. der the " VOLUNTEER", universally acceptable. repealed.

We have room-ample room-not only to satisfy-There is, comparatively speaking, a general silence the just claims of our political readers, but room to with regard to the existing fiscal policy, and from this make the "Voluvier" an instructive and interest silence and the absonce of attacks upon it from any ing family newspaper; room enough to indulgo in as quarter, the inference is that the people are satisfied many warlike, sciontific, literary, political, and ama- with it until a better can be adopted. tory flourishes, as inclination may prompt or time - The Independent Preasury is the best system of permit. We will always endeavor to avoid giving all, and the only one which will meet the wishes of utterance to any remarks which might be construed a majority of the nation. It is better than that now into personalities; and in furnishing the current in operation, or we should desire no change. news of the day, or in indulging in comments upon The latter is in some measure loose, and un syste whatever question or topic may at the time be occu-pying the public mind, our roaders may rest assured matic, depending for its safety and efficiency too much. upon the officers immediately at the head of nothing will appear calculated to raise a blush of the Treasury Department. The government funds. wounded modesty on the checks of youth, purity and now entrusted to Banks for safe-keeping, is a stimuinnocence. We do not wish to be understood as lous to speculation and gambling in stocks, and cro claiming to be more circumspect and more virtuous ates an over-issue of paper to perhaps treble the than our-neighbors; nor do we wish to be classed amount so deposited. "mong those whose looks seem to say, " stand aside, This was the cardinal error in the policy of using for I am holier than thou !" The ethical code which

National Bank as a fiscal agent. The specie of we have long adopted, teaches us to emulate the the government, instead of being distributed over the worth we revere, and to eschew the vices we deprecountry and subserving the purposes of trade, was To our democratic friends-the stont-hearthoarded up in the vaults of that institution, whilst ed, hard-fisted, outspoken democrats of Old Mother Cumberland-we can but repeat what we have al- the claims of the public creditors were liquidated in ready so frequently stated. Although the "Volux- paper promises to pay. At least three dollars of pa TEER" may be changed, and changed for the better in per were issued to one of specie deposited, unsafe inits appearance, it will show no change in its political vestments of every description were made by the likes and dislikes-no change in its devotion to the Bank, there being no legitimate channels for the emmen, measures, principles, and usages of the great ployment of all its funds, ruinous speculation was the Democratic party-and no change in its hostility to natural result, and finally ensued a tremendous reacfederalism in all its forms, phases, and features. At tion which shook the country to its centre.

this particular juncture, the democratic press have The same evil, flowing from the same cause, pro important duties to discharge; duties, which if ne- duced the downfall of the Pet Banks, and must alglected, or slightly and indifferently performed, may ways follow large deposits in banking institutions.-

produce. disasters which, years will be unable to re- Such is their very nature and constitution, that they pair. To that press the democracy of the country looks cannot resist the temptation, but eagerly embrace every opportunity to profit as largely as p for a faithful exposition of their views; for a zealous negible b indro]. defence of their principles; for a course which will the use of funds not their own, there being no law to unty by small majority. prevent them from so doing. conciliate and not distract; and for an earnest advo-York Courry .--- We have carried the entire ticket This ovil will be entirely avoided by the establish cacy of those wholesome usages of the party whereby in this county with the exception of Prothonotary. its organization has been so long preserved, and its ment of an Independent Treasury. Under it the public funds will remain in the hands of the receivers, until victorics rendered brilliant and productive. needed by the government, and will then be distrib Our bark is again launched-with its hull lengthened-its sheets spread-its beam widened-and its uted far and wide by drafts on those officers which whole rigging new-modelled with new materials. will command a premium in almost every part of the country. Its operation will be perfectly simple and Whether it is destined to have a long and prosperous secure, and while all the evils of a National Bank voyage, or to be tossed about in the waves of politiand the other plans which we have noticed are guard cal faction, strife, and animosity, it shall always be guided by the compass of truth, justice, and inde- ed against, their advantages will be combined. The Government will be ensured against any improper pendence. use of its monies, and the community protected from REMOVE THEM! speculation, the undue inflation of the currency, and We have on one or two occasions before, spoken the disastrous revulsions therefrom arising. tran impropriety of the present National Adminispublish at the democratic party. We this week the existence of the Sub Treasury, it worked well gin; and diver of those who do nothing, an at Washington to whise the which we call it and safely; no abuses arose; no evils resulted from a talented democratic and safely; no abuses arose; no evils resulted from a talented democratic and safely; no abuses arose; no evils resulted from a talented democratic and safely; no abuses arose; no evils resulted from a which we call the article a attention. It is non this subject, to which we call it, and from a knowledge of the past, we are strengthand we know it to be encd in the opinion, that the same or a similar ex-

THE ELECTION-100 GUNS FOR "OLD MOTHER CUMBERLAND." "We have met the enemy, and they are ours."

5

in that place last week. On the 27th of August last. a son of Mr. William Yohn: a lad seven years old. Last Tuesday was a glorious day for the wholesouled and unflinching democracy of "Old Mother was severely bitten by a dog belonging to Mr. Dan-Cumberland," and is another signal evidence of the | iel Engel, and supposed to have been rabid. No imstrength of the Republican party in this county. Wo mediato bad effects followed upon the wound; it be- husband was found as Mrs. B. suid, under the leaves strength of the Republican party in this county. We have deleted but we would, it was found as hirs, b, said, unter the barteles, him marked on its face. He asked for no explana-indeed feel proud, considering the means resorted to school as usual, until Tuesday week, when he coun-indeed feel proud, considering the means resorted to school as usual, until Tuesday week, when he coun-on it, but no writing. This story has been gradually drawn from her, and more will be told, probably, as to his "old sledge" companions that he could no lonby our opponents against us. We have delayed the plained of indisposition, which, however, excited no she gains strength. bublication of our paper for the purpose of giving the immediate alarm. But on Wednesday he exhibited existed under the act of 1789, by which the Treasury full-returns, but were disappointed in receiving them such unequivocal symptoms of hydrophobia as were Denartment was first organized, and the resolution of as soon as we expected. We publish all the returns not to be mistaken, and at once pronounced such by 1816 which specified the kind of funds to be received in our possession, and can say with certainty that his médical attendant. Spasmodic patoxysms occur red at frequent intervals, which were brought upon him, and increased by every effort' to drink water, in relation to the election in our next. Time will not permit us to say more now. ELECTION NEWS.

PHILADELPHIA COUNTY .- The ontiro Democratic ticket elected by a handsome majority. Political Nativeister has had its day in that county The triumph of the Democratic ticket has driven the last nail into the coffin of Nativeism.

DAUPHIN COUNTY .- The Democrats have elected one Assemblyman, the County Commissioner, and perlians one or two more of the County; officers .-The Whig Senator, Jordan, is elected, there being two Democrats in the field.' Good, for old Antimasonie Dauphin.

as the State administration : MIFFLIN COUNTRI-A lotter from Tity stown in Gross receipts from Dec. 1st, 1844, to Sept. 30th, 1845, forms us that the entire Democratic ticket is elected by a large majority. Mr. Burns, our condidate for nonor, leads the ticket several hun Canal Cómmis dred.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY .- By a slip from the Norris town Register, we learn that the whole democratic ticket is elected by the timereconner, in jority of 1700!

PERRY COUNTY .- Mr. Owen, the voluteer candi date for Assembly, has defeated Mr., licock, the regular nomince. Mr. O. is a democrat. LANCASTER COUNTL .- The entire Wig ticket i cleeted of course. FRANKLIN COUVER .- The Whigs have carried this county as usual.

LEBANON COUNTY.-The whigs in this county have, as usual, elected their whole ticket, by a majority ranging from 100 to 500.

SCHUYLEILL COUNTY .--- The Democrats in this coun-

chief tied tightly over her mouth and her apron bound over her oyes. In this situaton sho had hin for two hours or more, her body immelsed in the filthy muck and water, her head being just bove the sur-face. Four-men carried the insensite body to the house, where, after great exertions liftwas restored. Reason has not yet entirely returned, but during a few lucid intervals her statement is as follows: While asleen, she was scized, gagged and blinded, then forced through the window by two incn, and partly dragged, and partly walking, was taken through fields and over fonces into the woods. Hore they fild are filed by the cinemics que measures," and how aro uch masures to be carried executive offices racy? It is to be helds and over iences into the woods. Here they had her down, and took the bandage from her types and the gag from her mouth. They asked "if she knew them." She replied that "she did not." They wore caps, and were disguised by painting their faces.— They then attempted to pour something from a vial down her threat. From her description, it was pro-bably laudanum. She did not swallow any, but suc-ceeded in breaking the vial. She begged of them (on seeing them take out their knives, with the remark hoped that the President and cabinet will see to these matters and apply the properten y, before it is too late-before another "omnibu of " shall make its appearance, by means of informat Boing furnished some "second Ogle" by design whigs high in office. Will not the country pin ak out plainly upon this subject? It is due to seeing them take out their knives, with the remark that "they might as well finish her then as any time") party that it should, and I trist, it will not the that "they might as well finish her then as any time") is not to kill her, as she wished to communicate some-thing to her husband before she died. They then produced pencil and paper, and pretended to write as she dictated. When this was done, she was again blinded and gagged, and conveyed to the ditch and 1 placed with her face downwards, and as heretofore described. One of the men, after placing, the log across her, jumped uponsit. They deposited the letter for her husband under some leaves by her side, and said they would come at night when she was dead, t and cover her up. 'One of them said "he had done h sponsibility. I might have naned many other our friends have been made to stand the for whigs, but sufficient has already been said but sufficient has already been said to rove the ob-ject I had in making this communation, viz: the fact of there being a milerity of whigh office here? Are there no " Hickory Brooms" to bead to sweep the Augean stable? Or nust the deneratic party and cover her up. "One of them said " he had done about enough for five dollars." They then left her, and by dint of struggling, she turned over and got be satisfied, when they are allowed to fill few of the most humble situations at he disposal of the Executive, while by far the gredest number, od in fact her head above the water. She soon became insennearly all the lucrative stating, are filled lytheir opsible, and in this state she was found. ponents? So far as my experence goes, the interests Her mother and brother were immediately arrested of the party, and the succes of the administration

Iter motion and orother wore immediately arrested on suspicion of some knowledge of the affair, though they were undoubtedly absent from the spot on the day. They are the mother and brother of the Baxter who was sentenced last Court to State prison, and afterwards had his leg amputated at Norwich. Mrs. require that a " clean sweep" to made of white from office, leaving perhaps "one or wo as monuments our mercy." Burdick has always borne a good character, though that of the rest of the family is notorious The examination has, for obvious reasons, been held in private. At a meeting of the citizens, a com-mittee of fifteen in the village, and ten out, were ap-pointed to investigate the affair. They are all active and efficient men, and are determined to spare no and ellicient men, and are determined to spare no efforts to discover the guilty. As yet all is mystery, though there are a thousand suspicious circumstances which might be told; still it is not expedient that the investigation of the committee should be forestalled. The whole matter is in their hands, and if there is a distressing case of hydrophobia as having occurred possibility of discovery it will be made. We should mention further that the letter to the > LETTER FROM WASHINGTON. WASHINGTON CITY, October 13, 1845.

MESSRS, BRATTON & BOYER .: Gentlemen-Believing that a wrong impression exists amongst the people of the country, relative to and on Friday morning he expired. The sad event has the politics of a majority of persons emplayed in the faced former. So independent, and yet so free from caused considerable excitement in Reading, and the Executive Departments here, I thought it would not valid and pride—so rich, and yet so industrious— Town Council in refusing to pass an Ordinance that had been submitted to them at several successive meetings, to prevent the running of dogs at large in employed, including clerks, a several successive meetings, to prevent the running of dogs at large in the several successive meetings and yet so the several successive meetings at large in the several successive in the several su salaries are from $500 to $2000 each. It will hardly be believed, that at this late day, after all the pro-ble compound interest. He will do you kindne creditable to the management of the Canal, as well to correct this matter. There are men here, now receiving their three thousand dollars per annum, who were in office and removed here at the expense of the dry 'cloth, after wiping the 'oil from the furniture. $103,725 47 U. States, at the time of the removal of the general Do this once a week, and your mahogany tables will government from Philadelphia, and have been in of be so finely polished that hot water would not injuro fice from that day to this-nor does the date of their them. The reason is this: linseed oil hardens when $23,918-62 appointment come within the recollection of the toldest exposed to the air, and when it has filled all the pores inhabitant' of the city. It is uscless to add that these of the wood, the surface becomes hard and smooth persons are, and ever have been, opposed to the prin- like glass, $3,065.111 ciples of the democratic party. Another, holding a conspicuous place under the Government (it is said, The above statement, shows an increase of receipts, of $23,918 62; and a decrease of expenses for ordinary and I believe not denied by his friends,) took the epairs of 83,065 114, compared with the same time portrait of the patriot JACKSON from his dwelling, and Messenger.

QUIETLY CURED OF PLAY BY HS WIFE .--- A. gentleman of the West end of Boston, who for several years had been in the habit of meeting a small party, at all fours, ton Wednesday afternools and evenings, was recently discovered, the Post says at the rendezvous by his wife, who happened by acident to cast her eye at the window, which was ather a low one. She wisely determined to seprove him by "expressive silence." On the night of the liscovery he went as usual to the cuploard for his apper, but found nothing on the plate but a jack of clubs, with the name and number of the street where she had seen him marked on its face. He asked for no explanato his "old sledge" companions that lip could no longer make it convenient to attend ther parties.

, Respectfully, acc.

4

from the re-

nces where

THE FARMER .- The following graphic picture of the honest and hardy, yeomanry of out country we find in an exchange. It is life-like and true to the letter :

"It does one's heart good to see a merry roundbe believed, that at this late day, after all the "pro-ble compound interest. He will do you kindness scription" of the President and cabinet, spoken of by our opponents, that two-thirds at least of this number shows the receipts and expenditures on the Delaware Division of the Penseylvania Canal, from December 1st 1844, to September 30th 1845, compared with the same period of last year. It is made by the Super-star, is the fuel, Nor does there seem to be any disperture of the December 30th 1845, event to the super-star, is the fuel. Nor does there seem to be any disperture of the December 30th 1845, event to the super-star, is the fuel. Nor does there seem to be any be believed, that at this late day, after all the "pro-ble compound interest. He will do you kindness without expecting a return by way of compensation —it is not so with every body. He is generally more houst and sincere—gives society its best support— is the firmest pillar that supports the collice of gov-ernment—he is the lord of nature. Look at him in his home-spun and grey, bucks—gentlement—height held thin if you will—but believe me, he can lingh back if he pleases."

To POLISH MAHOGANY FURNITURE-Rub it with cold linseed oil, and polish by rubbing with a clean

> The Majesty of the Law The following beautiful culogy on "the law," is ex-tracted from an article in the Southern Literary

"The spirit of the law is all equity and justice. placed it in an out-house, at the same time declaring. Wos'r WEAR 'EM.-Wo see it stated by some of our city cotemporaries, that bustles are rapidly going out of fashion, being about to fall before—or behind —some new absurdity. For our part, we rather ad mire them, and have aftered as much bestility. If mire them, and have never been able to discover why be elected President,) urging his appointment to the locate intervence over the seed of the husbandman, they should have attracted so much hostility. If same station he now so unworthily fills. How, or by abandoned for a season to the earth; over the studies the whole ticket by a majority of from five to seven not be permitted to resort, to art, to destroy her reith imput nectings, to prevent the runcing of dogs at large in the streets, unless provided with a muzzle, is repre-

visor of the Division, and exhibits a result highly disposition on the part of the Heads of Departments say that had we been told then that our exertions has met our most sanguing expectations, as well as must be permitted to dissent from the blind policy of favorable to the measure. --- retaining in lucrative situations our bitter, uncompromising, political enemies. We cannot see any reason why a democratic administration should re-fairs. It is a policy, which, if long pursued, will redividuals whose salaries and situations enable them to become the scribblers for federal papers, wherein tion ? And yet such, we regret to say, is precisely the conduct of an administration which freds and supports a class of mon to stigmatize their principles, this matter will set to work in good earnest-com- has passed.

mence, a much needed reform, and cease not until every opponent is removed.

APPOINTMENT BY THE DIBECTORS OF THE POOR. for the ensuing year. -

and we know it to be use from our own personal pedient will again be found secure, efficient, and knowledge. We were a ang those who spent time healthful in its operation. and money in the last camping in assisting to place. To this policy must we finally come in obedience to the popular will, and the sooner Congress express-tay that had we have the source of a suitable. es and embodies that will in the shape of a suitab were in part for the purpose of retaining our enemies law, the better for the public good.

least. We find no fault with the administration of merely by the desire, which we trust will ever an Mr. Polk, except in this one particular. With this mate us, to enforce and carry out the principles of exception (and perhaps the exception may be con- true Democracy, but also by an honest conviction sidered a very small one to some,) his administration that it will redound to the honor, and welfare of the country in which both parties have, and ought to the White House. All is simple, next, as it should the expectations of the people; and we trust, as we the feel a common interest. However adverse to the be. But a small expenditure, comparalizely, will be policy of an Independent Treasury the White House. All is simple, near, as a successful to the be. But a small expenditure, comparalizely, will be. office with honor to himself, and with the respect and hitherto been, yet there is a vast number of reflecthearty thanks of the American people. But yet we ing and patriotic spirits, within the folds of that party,

We deem it unnecessary to enter into the details of a law which we believe will meet the wants of the reason why a democratic administration should re-tain a set of officers or clerks whose best efforts have The limitation of its particular features must be left been devoted to the ruin and derangement of its af with the collective wisdom of the National Legisla sult to our detriment. There are many deserving a Chinese wall of separation between the Treasury men in our ranks, equally as well qualified, who have and the Banks, then and not till then, will the great object be attained.

Won'T Go .- By the new Post-office regulation the administration is slandered, and its best men Spanish quarters pass for only 23 cents, levies for 10 villified?. What same man would warm a viper in his and fips for 5 cents. It is said that the Banks also bosiom, to enable it the better to do its deadly execut intend fefusing them unless at this value.

ال المواقع المعاد المراجع المعاد المعاد

RESPECT FOR THE DEAD IN PARIS. In Paris, when a corpse is carried through the streets, every person and, if possible, destroy their best efforts for the wel. who meets if, from the king to the seavanger, takes fare of the nation. We trust that those interested in off his hat and keeps it off till the mournful hearse in.his 70th year.

semblance to a shingle? No. CHESTAR COUNTY .- The whigs have carried the dear creatures stuck up.

HORRIBLE OUTRAGE!

hended in no measured terms.

Same time, of last year,

Increase of receipts,

Decrease of expenses,

Expenses of ordinary receipts from Dec. 1st 1844, to Sep. 30th, 1845, ... Same time of last year, this county by a majority of about 373 11

few years, without encountering the ghost of some in the immediate vicinity of the scene: worthy mechanic? How many & the fortunes. which now inspire their possessors with giddy notions, have been carned by the trowel, A jackplane, over the counter of some inconsiderable sh or by some other humble occupation? Yet their Accessors are too proud to acknowledge their humbler, gin; and-like most of those who do nothing, an could have done nothing, to lift their families from the dust, are the most pertinacious of their acquired and spurious aristocracy."

the kitch, THE WHITE HOUSE .- The Washington Journal says the country will owe a debt of gratitude to Mrs. Polk for introducing a system of republican simplicity into the Presidential mansion, to which it has heretofore been a stranger. We have already spoken very agreeable mode which has been adopted in receiving company; we have now to thank her, in hehalf of the whole nation, for the exceedingly judiciday. A salutary lesson is taught to those who make their whole lives an almost unendurable curse in striving to keep up appearances.

village mid.da

BEARS .- The Hollidaysburg Register says that bears are unusually numerous in that vicinity, visitbears are unusually numerous in that vicinity, visit ing the farmer's corn fields daily. Those taken have been very poor, and their appearance is probably oc-casioned by a searcity of, food in the mountains.— They have not ventured so far from the mountains.— They have not ventured so far from the mountains. since 1838, when the nuts were destroyed by the and part of the frost.

ENCOURAGING TO LAWYERS Follett, the great English lawyer, lately deceased, amassed a fortune of £120,000 in twenty years practice. Think of that, young knights of the green bag! Never dospair, though penury and starvation may now be spair, though genury, and starvation may how be staring you in the face. Persevere, and "time, faith and energy" will at last bring you a most reward for but four or five could be induced to go up and search. and energy" will at last bring you a meet reward for a little daughter."

we like to see th

79,806 85

$11,798 67

4,863 78

An outrage of a most diabolical nature, and strange An outrage of a most diabolical nature, and atrange becks Country of this county has gone for the De-moerate by a considerable majority. Berson Country of about 373, 1, 1 An sutrage of a most diabolical nature, and atrange and mysterious in its character, was committed last week in the village of Greene, near Norwich, Chen-this county by a majority of about 373, 1, 1 Anisroenaary.—A cotomporty truly remarks... Which of our aristocratic failinges can look, back a week in the Norwich Journal—a paper published mocrats by a considerable majority. BEDSORD COUNTY. The Democrats have carried ango county, N. Y. the object of which is supposed Which of our aristocratic fairlies can look, back a as related in the Norwich Journal-a paper publishe

> -On the farm-belonging to John Johnson, on the east hill, and within the hounds of the corporation, east hill, and within the bounds of the corporation, lives a tenant by the name of Harvey Hammond, whose family consists of himself and wife, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, and his wife, the latter of whom was the victim of the most dammable transaction that recommendation, and papers connected with such ever came under Greene observation. She is about applications. This clerk is and always has been a iolent whig, and has it in his power to take copies of all these papers and any correspondence between the applicants and Secretary of the Treasury which may take place. May he not do so, and use the same from an axe, arose and went into before from an axe, arose and went into at some failed? There is also another clork in the purpose of cessing the sore. He had been there a few minutes, then they heard a scream from the bed room, and on Sing in they found Mis. Burdick on the floor, laboring under extreme fright. She said that isoon after her usband left the room, she feit a hand ness lightly or her for the two sources of the Theorem under the source of the Theorem under the source of the theorem to be theorem to be the source of the theo oken the floor, laboring under extreme fright. She said in behalf of Gen. Harrison in 1840, and was that is on after hely ushand left the room, she fait a and hand pass lightly ov her face, but supposing that it is mot alarmed until the bad seized her threat and dis be alloch her from making any ntery. Immediately and up for her face, but supposing that it is olded her from making any ntery. Immediately and public a third hand graged 1. Joga and public there is a supposing that it is olded in statisting for threat and dis be determined in whith the other, by is doorate of fort; such is a submitting the international and reamed in the bad seized in the bed were on the hor, and an are is a submitting to the room, but no other, trace of the oration is a submitting that of the room, but no other, trace of the oration is and a leader in the democratic party in favor of the election of Mr. Clay. A worthy, deserving man, and a leader in the democratic party in favor of the election of Mr. Clay. A worthy, deserving man, and a leader in the democratic party in favor of the election of Mr. Clay. A worthy, deserving man, and a leader in the democratic party in favor of the election of Mr. Clay. A worthy, deserving man, and a leader in the democratic party in favor of the election of Mr. Clay. A worthy, deserving man, and a leader in the democratic party in favor of the clower in a submit were on the following day (Tuesday, the 30th). Miret were of the man of tween two and three o'clock Mrs. Hammond hearing a slight noise in the direction of Mrs. B's room, went in and discovered it empty, and the blands taken from the hinges, the string broken, and the door still bolt-ed. As the male members of the family were at work in the fields, some little time classed before they were diately mounted his horse and gave the alarm in the villager. The story that a woman was carried off in mid-day, and within the correction, in plain sight keep this obnoxious man in office. Facts seem to warrant such a conclusion. Is this the treatment and, if possible, destroy their best efforts for thid wel, are of the nation. We trust that those interested in his matter will set to work in godd earnest—com-his passed. Dearn or own or rue PENN FAMIX.—William Areoinstruktive av rue, Discretes of the conductor of the celebrated William Josern Losacu, Esq. Steward of the Poor House, in the founder of the Poor House, in the ensuing year. boyy. her hands were her a construction of the several forge- but like men, and oppose them and their layer to can planton to the most of ages several forge- but like men, and oppose them and their layer to can planton to the mouth her nock handker. didate? Are we to be told that we do not possess mills.

the appointment, is a question not likely to be satis-It is throned with the king, and sits in the factorily answered. I consider it fortunate that this appointment requires the confirmation of the Senate. Several' of the Bureaux in the Navy department several' of the Bureaux in the Navy department the prison, scrupulously preserving to the follow what the prison, scrupulously preserving to the follow what the prison scrupulously preserving to the follow what the pri more are in "prospect." The Secretary of the Trea-of the martyr, to shield us from the dire of persecu-of the martyr, to shield us from the dire of persecusury has made a considerable number of changes, but nuch more is required to be done, to satisfy the friends of the administration. He has a clerk in his own immediate Department who has under his "kind own immediate Department who has under his "kind is above and around us; within us; we cannot. fly care and feeping" all applications for office, letters of from its protection; we cannot avert its vongcance. from its protection; we cannot aver its vongeance. Such is the law in its essence; such it should be in its enactments; such, too, it would be, it none as-pired to its administration but those with pure hearts, cnlarged views, and cultivated minds."

MR. CALHOUN-THE SENATE-It is intimated in ome journals that Mr. CALHOUN will probably enter at some future period, to the detriment of some one the United States Senate again. In allusion to this who has applied ? There is also another clerk in the the "Constitution," which is supposed to be the paper most in his interest at the seat of Governm he reached the prison, and he gave way: to deep de ection, despondency and tears.

We don't know who is the author of the folowing, but it smacks of truth : THREE KINDS OF POOR .-- In this earthly world the the devil's poor, and the poor devils, As a general thing the Lord takes care of his poor, and the dovil takes care of his; but the poor devils have to look out for themselves.

IJ The work on the Wisconisco Canal connecting the Lyken's Valley Coal region with the Pennsylv nia Canal, is progressing rapidly, and will probably be completed in time for the Spring trade the constitution of a horse, obstinacy of a, m compelled to "toil night and day" and submit to the dependence of a wood sawyer, endutance of a lar. taunts and abuse of these whigs, who are now "fat ving anaconda, impudence of a beggan spunk of a tening at the public crib," because we dared come chicken cock, pertinacity of a dan, and entire reig. out like men, and oppose them and their favorite can- nation to the most confounder of all earthly trad-