Rich and Poor

The following excellent remarks on the compar tive enjoyments and sufferings of the rich and the poor, by the late Rev. Dr. CHANNING, cannot but be duly appreciated by all who read them:

"When I compare the different classes as existing ent in the civilized world, I cannot think THE REYSTONE FIRM AS JEER THINGS.

We give below the Returns of the Elections throughout this State, for State and County officers. The creater is truly glorious for the Democracy:

ADAMS COUNTY.—The Whig majority in this county is about 400.

ALLEGIENY.—The Whigs have carried Allegheny, by the meagre majority of about 250—majority for Clay last fall, was over 2300!!

AT THE REYSTONE FIRM AS JEER THINGS.

At this moment in the civilized world, I cannot think the difference between the rich and the poor, in returned surface surface suffering, so great as is sometimes imagined. That some of the indigent among times imagined. So as to clothing; many shiver from want of defences against the cold; but there is vastly more suffering among the rich from absurd and criminal modes of dreight which fashion has sanctioned that the cold in the indigent among the rich among the poor, in re-turned the indigent among the rich among the poor, in re-turned the indigent among the indigent among the indigent among the indigent among the poor, in re-turned the indigent among the indigent among the rich among the poor, in re-turned the indigent among the indigent among the indigent among the indigent among the poor, in re-turned the indigent among the indigent among the rich among the poor, in re-turned the indigent among the indigent among the indigent among the indigent among the poor, in re-turned the indigent among tioned than among the poor from deficiency of rai-mont. Our daughters are offner brought to the grave by their rich attire, than our beggars by their na-kedness. So the poor are often overworked, but they suffer less than many among the rich, who have no work to do, no interesting subject to fill up life, to satisfy the infinite cravings of man for action. According to our present mode of education, how many v of our daughters are victims to ennui, a misery BEAVER.—Sufficient returns have been received to warrant us in saying that Kennedy (Dem.) is elected warrant us in saying that Kennedy (Dem.) is elected. Sheriff, and M'Lelland, (Dem.) is elected to the Legislature, and probably the Democratic Commissioner and Treasurer.

Beaver.—Sufficient returns have been received to weariness of excessive toil. The idle young man, spending, the day in exhibiting his person in the street, ought not to excite the envy of the over tasked poor, and this cumberer of the ground is found exclusively among the rich."

A good way to display case and elegance in con pany, is to pull out your penknife and trim your fin-ger nails.

And another is, if a lady sings, to hum the mu along with her; she, as well as every body else pre-sent, will be astonished at your knowledge of harmo-

To Collectors and Tax Pavers.

if the State tax of any county be not paid to the State Treasurer before the 2d Tuesday in January in each year, the deficiency is required to be paid out of any money in the County Treasury, and any State tax remaining unpaid by any individual or corporation after said tax is payable by the County to the Commonwealth, shall bear an interest of six per cent, and be a lien on the estate on which it is charged, till fully paid and satisfied.

and satisfied.

From the foregoing it will be seen that; although the State tax has been paid to the State Treasurer, every tax payer who does not pay the collector before the 13th of January next, must be charged six percent, inferest thereon till paid, which inferest every collector must calculate and collect from each individual named in his duplicate who does not pay his tax rior to that date, and said tax together with the inte est thereon is made a lien on the real estate of the individual tax which must be done if not collected be fore that date.

THE recent payment of the State Tax by the Commissioners of Cumberland county, out of the funds in the County Treasury, renders it necessary to require immediate and prompt payment of the State and County taxes to enable the Commissioners to meet the current county expenses and the payments becoming due under the contract for the erection of the new ourt House. Under the provisions of the Act of 29th April 1844,

It is therefore hoped that every collector and tax payer will see the importance and necessity of paying the whole tax charged in the duplicates prior to the 13th January next, to avoid the trouble and incon-venience of calculating and collection interests of accura-
