NOTICE.

I WOULD hereby notify all persons who are in arrears, either by note, bond or book account, to call and settle their respective dues at I have disposed of my entire steek of Hardware to Messrs. Fisher and Fortney, of Harrisburg, and for no other reason but to settle up my books. The soquer calls are made the better, as by July next the accounts will be left in the hands of a legal officer for collection—

The books must now be settled up, several attempts having been made but failed in doing so. We give fair warning that if any one fails there is a way that will not fail in making them settle. Those having business with in well find me at my residence, corner of Louther and Pitt streets.
