

From Mexico

IMPORTANT FROM THE ARMY. Advance of Scott—Resignation of Santa Anna—Runners of an Insurrection at Puebla—Continued Robert's... From Taylor's Division, and the safety of Gen. Doniphan's Gallant Command—Death of Gen. Hammond, of Milton.

The New Orleans Picayune published an extra at the 7th inst., containing the intelligence brought by the arrival of the steamship New Orleans from Vera Cruz, bringing dates to the 1st inst. as she touched at the Brazos on the 4th.

Gen. Scott had left Jalapa at the head of six thousand troops. Gen. Twiggs with his division, entered Puebla on the 29th. It was not positively known what Gen. Scott's intentions were, but the general opinion was that he would advance upon the capital with his present force.

Small accounts from the capital, state that Santa Anna resigned the Presidency on the 28th; but it is not known whether Congress had accepted it or not. This step was taken by him in consequence of the opposition to his views in relation to the defence of the capital, as well as the defamatory articles in the public prints of Puebla.

The American army was generally expected to be at the capital by the 10th inst. present month, but a slight resistance anticipated.

Santa Anna had commenced the fortification of Guadalupe in person, and ordered the same measures at Moctezuma, near the suburbs, but this course of general disapprobation, his resignation followed. It was believed that it would be accepted, and Herrera nominated. The troops at the capital were but six thousand in number.

An exciting rumor prevailed at Vera Cruz, to the effect that the citizens of Puebla had risen upon Gen. Worth, and cut off his retreat. The rumor was given to every man's mouth, and much excitement given to it, though the Picayune, and the Cruz correspondent is sceptical.

The rumor of Col. Sout's capture is confirmed. A wagon master and Quartermaster's clerk, supposed to have been murdered between Comague and Monterey, are now ascertained to be prisoners in the city of Mexico.

Persons are entertained at Jalapa, that an attempt will be made to retake that place. Further robberies have been committed between Vera Cruz and Jalapa, and the rancheros between those points are estimated at 500.

A private letter from Jalapa, states that Col. Lawrence, a bearer of despatches, and one of his escort had been killed on the road. Col. Scott's murder is now admitted to be a mistake. Col. Scott's murder is now admitted to be a mistake.

There are later dates from Gen. Taylor's army, but very little of importance. The Massachusetts regiment had started for Monterey. Lt. Col. Wright had been elected to the vacant Colonelcy of the 1st Regiment. Lt. Col. and Capt. Webster Maj. of the Regiment.

Part of Col. Doniphan's force had arrived at Saltillo, and the remainder was expected in a few days. A speedy movement of Gen. Taylor towards San Luis is still anticipated.

About eight hundred officers and men came passengers in the steamship from Vera Cruz and the States. Maj. Hammond, U. S. Paymaster, died on the passage.

OFFICIAL LETTER FROM SANTA ANNA. The Mobile Herald has a translation, from El Republicano, of a letter from Santa Anna, in relation to Gen. Scott's proclamation to the Mexicans. The spirit it exhibits shows there is no hope of peace from Santa Anna, and that Gen. Scott will be under the necessity of fighting him into reason.

Official letter of his Excellency the General-in-Chief, Santa Anna, accompanying some intercepted documents of the enemy.

HEAD-QUARTERS, PUEBLA, May 13, 1847. ANY OPERATIONS.—Excellent guard of tobacco of Ozuilca, the Col. D. Juan N. Caraveo, whom I left with his command near the National road, between Puerto and Nopalucan, to receive the movement of the enemy, and to have him when the opportunity might offer, he resorted to the accompanying documents, which were taken from the enemy's mail, which left Jalapa for Colonel Worth's camp. Among them you will find a copy of the letter, written to the Mexican nation, which, from its style, appears to have been written originally in Spanish, and not translated from the English.

This proclamation of Scott's is written with the most refined hypocrisy, and is not more infamously deceitful, in its terms, than the most infamous offer to the Mexican people, which he has attempted to (a quin se pretende adormecer) to make it the victim of the ambition of that nation, which is the enemy of our race, which, in another place, it feels no danger in proclaiming, by the press and its official documents, that it carries on against us a war of conquest, and that this war must be made at the cost of the blood and treasure of this unfortunate country.

Your excellency will note, in one of the accompanying intercepted letters, that Scott, the Inspector General of the United States' army, considers the above proclamation well adapted to aid the views of the invaders.

You will observe that this letter harmonizes with others which have been lately published in this capital, and which with reason have been regarded by all well disposed Mexicans as more prejudicial for the venon (ponzoza) which they conceal, than the loss of a battle.

In the midst of the malvolence (encono) which General Scott shows his against me, he does me too much honor when he says that they had been deceived as to my real intentions, and that on account of this mistake his Government permitted me to pass to my country. Indeed, most Excellent Sir, the United States did deceive themselves when they dreamed that I was capable of betraying my country: Before this should happen I would prefer to be consumed by fire and my ashes should be scattered that no single Mexican should know my name.

Would God the Mexicans would open their eyes to discover the poison in the golden chalice that the perfidious Scott proffers to them, and that the reply to his proclamation should be one shout of universal indignation against the invaders of our soil. Let a war be made against these without period, that when we may no longer be able, because Providence may have decreed the subjugation of this unfortunate country, there may remain to our children or grand children, when the wrath of the Omnipotent shall have passed, the noble work of reuniting the country, which was committed by the republic of the United States to Mexico.

God and Liberty! ANTONIO LOPEZ DE SANTA ANNA. To His Excellency the Minister of War and Marine.

Look or Lore.—How tenaciously men cling to life. Though for and being as they are, they will not let go, and makes engagements just as he would as if life was immortal. The older a person grows, the more strongly does he grasp at the shadow. A man climbing a tall tree takes a final hold when near its top; so does the good individual cling strongly to life the nearer he approaches extinction. He is never ready to die, until he feels that he can no longer remain. He then makes a virtue of necessity and expires.

Gov.—The Honorable Richard Rush, accompanied by his family, sailed on Saturday from New York, in the packet ship Duchess Orleans for Havre.

Notice to Tax Payers. UNDER the provisions of the act of 1844, any county paying into the State Treasury, the State tax levied on county property prior to the 15th of July in any year, is entitled to an abatement of 5 per cent on the amount so paid. The undersigned, Commissioners of Cumberland county, in view of the above provisions, consider it equitable and proper that those who by the prompt payment of their taxes prior to the above date, enable the Treasurer to pay over the State tax, as to receive the aforesaid abatement of 5 per cent, the benefit of which has hitherto been engaged by the delinquency of the county generally, should be allowed a deduction of that amount by the collector—have authorized the different collectors to make said abatement from the State tax, in all cases where the State and County tax is paid to the collector prior to the 15th of July, 1847, when said statement shall amount to one cent or more, no fractions of a cent to be credited. Since the act of 1844, the Commissioners have paid the State tax of this county annually to the State Treasurer, within the time prescribed by the act, and the county has received the benefit of any abatement that may be made. It is necessary heretofore to appropriate a part of the county funds to meet the deficiency occasioned by delinquents, until the balance of the State tax was collected. If therefore, it comes necessary to require the payment of both State and County tax, to entitle the payer to the aforesaid abatement from the aforesaid State tax.

The undersigned therefore confidently anticipate that the above arrangement, and the further inducement of enabling Cumberland county to maintain the character for promptness in the collection of her County tax, will induce every citizen to discharge his duty to his State and County tax punctually prior to the 15th of July. J. WORTHINGTON, DANIEL COBLE, County Commissioners. Attest—Wm. RILEY, Clk. March 20, 1847.—4m
