Poetical.

THE DYING CHILD.

BY MARY HOWITT

THE UNSEEN ARGEL OF DEATH It is my voice within that calls; It is my shadow; child, that falls Upon thy spirit, and appals; the Manageon walls; My presence that o ershadoweth thee.

CHILD.

Oh, mother, leave me not alone!

Jam a-feard; any heart's like stone;

A dull pain cleaveth front in Add lone;

A dull pain cleaveth front in Add lone;

Stay with me for one little hour!;

Oh! soothe me with thy low replice;

Loutint hear the children's cries;

And when I hear their vices rise,

Impatient tears o'erflow my eyes;

My will seems not within my powe;

Paer Johnny brought me flowers last night, The bluebell, and the viole twhite. Then they were pleasant to my sight. Then they were pleasant to my sight. But now they give me no delight, And yet I crave for something still. Reach me to merry buffinels here; Ite knows my voice; I think twill cheer My heart, his piping song to hear. All I forgot, that lift, so dear. Was soid to pay the baker's hill.

Oh! why was Mary sent away!
I only asked that she might stay
Beside me for one little day;
I thought not to be answered may.
Just once.—I would have asked no more:
Forgive me if I am hard to please—
Mother, weep not; oh, give me case!
Raisb me, and lay me on thy knees!
I know no twhat pangs are these,

It is so stifling in this room—?
Can it be closer than the town? I feel encounts set in a latent of the Local section of the Local set in the

CARLISLE, PA., THURSDAY, AUGUST 26, 1847.

VOI: 34.

THE AMERICAN VOLUNTEER,

TERMS OF SUBSERIPTION For one year, in advance, No subscription taken for a less term than six months, and

One square, one insertion,
One square, two insertions,
One square, three insertions,
One square, three insertions,
Brery subsequent insertion, per, square,
A liberal discount will be made to these

Office.—The office of the American Polunteer is in the second story of James II. Graham's new stone building, in South Annover street, a few-doors from Burkholder's hotel, and directly opposite the Post-office, where those having business

THE VOLUNTEER.

John B. Bratton, Editor and Proprietor. CARLISLE, THURSDAY, AUGUST 26, 1847.

AGENCY. NOV. B. PALMER, Esq. is our nuthorized Agent for pro-caring advertisements, receiving subscriptions, and making collections for the American Federal cer, at his office, N. W. corner of Trind and Chesnut streets, Philadelphia.

THE PRINCE CRITECOMS.

THE PRINCE CRITECOMS.

THE PRINCE CRITECOMS

carry it into full effect at the next Selsion. Are out carry it into full effect at the next Selsion. Are out citizens prepared for it? If so let them vote for Gen James Inviv.! If not let them vote for Francis R. Shuxk, whose course they have seen and whose the three votes for Francis R. Shuxk, whose course they have seen and whose the self-three votes for Francis R. Shuxk, whose course they have seen and whose the self-three votes for Francis R. Shuxk, whose course they have seen and whose the self-three votes for Francis Revolution. It is nearly the control season.

WHAT THEY PROMISED:

The public works will this year produce, says the Harrisburg Democratic Union, to the State a net income of at least one million of dollars, and if the present policy is continued, there is every reason to believe that the revenue from this quarter will continue to increase. At present its yield suffices to pay the interest on about one half of the State in proved facilities for travelling and ransportation, may be fairly set down as worth annually, to her citizens the interest on the other half of the entire indebtedness, (allowing for the State tax) and the business brought the State by its multiplied and improved facilities for travelling and ransportation, may be fairly set down as worth annually, to her citizens the interest on the other half of the entire indebtedness, and retired from power defaultiers in ease of the Commonwealth. Contrasting this with some to the capital of this country, but British manufeaturers, desirous to control the trade of Pennsylvama, would have purchased the whole read-and thus our trade, our travel and our business would be len at the mercy of foreign capitallists, who might find it of the incress to let the road, go to ruin, and den the like interest to let the road, go to ruin, and den to their mercest to let the road, go to ruin, and den to their merces to let the road, go to ruin, and den

to their merces to let the road, go to ruin, and den to their party, at the last general election, the to fluir interest to let the road, go to ruin, and den the like party, at the last general election, the
to fluir interest to let the road, go to ruin, and den to fluir party, at the last general election, the work in their
the mercy of foreign capitallists, who might find it to fluir interest to let the road, go to ruin, and den
to fluir party, at the last general election, the
to fluir interest to let the road, go to ruin, and den
to fluir party, at the last general election, the
to fluir party, at the last general election, the
to fluir party, at the last general election, the
to fluir party, at the last general election, the
to fluir party, at the last general election, the
to fluir party, at the last general election, the
to fluir party, at the last general election, the
to fluir party, at the last general election, the
to fluir party, at the last general election, the
to fluir party, at the last general election, the
to fluir party, at the last general election, the
to fluir party, at the last general election, the
to fluir party, at the last general election, the
to fluir party, at the last general election, the
to fluir party, at the last general election, the their pleasure, in 13 counties of our State, namely, was thing the pleasure, in 13 counties of our State, namely, the While party party party the the last general election, the
the party party party
the party party party
the party party party
the party party
the party party

WHAT THEY PROMISED:

If fair promises and fine words could better the condition of the people, then would our Federal opponents be worthy of continued confidence. We all remember that in 1840, the people were promised every blessing that heart could wish, if they elected "Tippecanoe and Tyler too," and yet experience has taught the utter worthlessness of these solemn assurances.

They promised retracellment and reform, and yet not a single officer of government under the hard cider dynasty, so much; as recommended them—They even went so far as to call an extra Session, at a vast expense to the country rendering it necessary to hold special elections in many of the States, and for no object under Heaven but to folst upon the people an institution, in itself 60 colous, that it was not even mentioned daring the canvass. They promised a reduction of the expenses of government, fixed upon the sum of fifteen millions of dollars as fully sufficient to meet all its expenses, and yet, before they adjourned, demanded six millions in addition to the twenty-five millions previously appropriated. They promised a reduction of taxes, and a mitigation of the burdens imposed upon the people, and yet imposed a high tariff on the necessaries of life, taxing tea and colice, (or at least attempted it,) and voting away three millions of the people's more, which could only be replaced by high duties to be paid by the poor for the benefit of the rich. They professed hostility to a National debt, and yet, in opposition to the demonstration of the Secretary of Treusury, that no deficiency existed, and no loan was necessary, they laid the foundation of a National debt by borrowing twelve millions of dollars.

They denounced removals from office, and promised to to "proseribe proscription," and made more remo-

"At your lodgings here?"
"No, at the house of a friend. Call for me, and yo will proceed together there."

The state of the s

"Chiec keeps busy, John?"
"Chiec keeps busy, John?"
"Orges, sir—but It's very dull."
"Dels thee tire of work, John?"
"Nac sir—but I think of home."
"Add thee would like to visit home once more?"
"Add thee would like to visit home once more?"
"And thee would not return again?"
"I would try to descreve better, sir."
"Woll, John, what would thee say, if Ishould tell occ. I had a pardon for thee?"
"Ohl sir, such news would be too good."
"Dif thee would like to hear it?"

"At your lodgings here?"

No, at the house of a friend, william was in readiness, accompanied by Frederick Effigish. They were both surprised at the magnificence of Jane's attire and thought it somewhat out of character with her circumstances, but how much more surprised were they were driven to Jane's former residence, and found her still the mistress and hoiress, and learned the plot by which she had tested her lovers.

Girls, you who posses money, make it a point of finding out, before the irrevocable knot is tied whether or you are loved for yourself or your fortune.

SHORT PATENT SIGNION.

THE POWER OF TRUTH.

with the scene.
"You have been our leader in guilt," said they to their chieft. be the same in the path of yirluc."

And they instantly, at his order, made restitution of their spoil, and vowed repentance upon his hand.

THE LASSO.

THE LASSO.

In a night skirmish the lasso is a dangerous article of the lasso is the neck of his vanquished foe, and in two inhutes will be prepared for another. I have seen a man do this when fighting the wild Indians; and a man pursued by two others with a brace of pistols each, would stand a better chance of saving his life, than a man pursued by one Californi in within lassoing distance; because the party pursued by those with the pistols night possibly dodge and destroy the aim of pursuers, but he who dage and destroy the aim of pursuers, but he who should have no means to californian with his lasso, when thrown at any thing that is running, is as true in the hands of a Californian as a rifle ball from a good marksman's steady aim.

Farmer gives an easy and elicacious and adobts given in by approximate the pickling encumbers, which he learned from an old Bankrupt Act of 1841 in 27 states and territories, $440,984,615. gushed from his eyes—the very fountain of his heart second to have burst on the instant! Ho receivered partially, and said impleringly to the warden:

"Don't you, sir—for God's sake, don't call her raims in this dreadful place! Do what you many this dreadful place! Do what you many the raims in this dreadful place! Do what you many the raims in this dreadful place is the raims of The following is the recipe:

To Parserve Practices.—Clean your peaches, by pouring hot water upon them, and afterwards wiping them with a coarse cloth; put them into glass or earthen jurs, cork them up and fasten the corks with whre or strong twing; then place, the jurs in a kettle of hot water until the atmospheric air is expelled from the jars; after which seal them up tight with wax. Peaches prepared in this way retain their original flavor and are equally as delicious, when cooked in the ordinary manner, six months or a year after being mut no as if just taken from the trees.

NO. 11.

THE POWER OF TRUTH.

AN HOUR IN THE PENTENTIARY.

AN HOUR IN THE PENTENTIARY.

AN HOUR IN THE PENTENTIARY.

The pentent of the

A Predicament.—The Hardford Review tells an amusing story of an occurrence at the close of an ovening religious meeting in that city. A gentleman passing out of the church found his arm suddenly taken by a lady, a perfect stranger to him, who walked along with him as if accustomed to the position. Frightened he certainly was, being a modest man, but he kept his self-possession, and gently attempted to disengage himself, but his companion only grasped a little cluser. Again he tried to release himself but no, the lady only clung the tighter. Matters were growing desperate with our hero, when the lady looked at her yields more closely than she had herotofore, and was most astonishingly surprised to find that he was not her husband, as she supposed. She let goi netaiter, on making the discovery, and She let goi astanter, on making the discovery, and departed quickly, suffused with blushes. The generation and theman, greatly reluced, went on his way rejoicing at his oscape, but no less agitated at the occurrence.

DREADFUL SHIPWRECK .- Loss of the Swedish Bark DREADFUL SHIPWRECK.—Loss of the Swedish Bark Iduno—One hundred and secently two persons drowns ded.—A Celegraphic despatch from Boston for the New York Heruld makes the following melancholy annuancement:—The ship Chanunga, Patten, from Liverpool, 13th ult, bound to this port, reports that on Monday, morning, 9th inst., at one o'clock, the weather fuggy, he came in contact with the Swedish, bark Iduna, from Hambutg for New York, with 200 persons on board, and that the bark sunk in 30 minutes after the collision. Captain Patten lames didtely sent his boats to the rescue, and with one boat from the bark, picked in 34 persons—172 persished.

this passage: "and another said, I have bought not yoke of oxoli, shill I go to prove them, I pray theoret have me excused: and another said, I have married a wife and therefore cannot come,"—he suddenly paused at the end of this verse, drew off his spectation, it has been compassed; and looking around on his heaters, said with emphasis, "the fact is, my brethren, one woman can draw a man further from the kingdom of heaven than five yoke of oxen."

"Succeed, niggar."

"Succeed, niggar."

"Why is a quilt like a railroad? Do yon give it up?"

"Yos, I does."

"Cos there's sleepors under it. What an Ignorant colored individual yon is."

"Cos there's sleepors under it. What an Ignorant colored individual yon is."

"Cos there's sleepors under it. What an Ignorant colored individual yon is."

"To mean the total properties of Guang, as a geration, the remarkable properties of Guang, as a geration, the remarkable properties of Guang, as a point of the total the total test of the state of the total the total the ying waystepts.

To Cons Warts—Dissolve as much comtion the state of the total the total the total the total the view waystepts.

To Cons Warts—Dissolve as much comtion

To Cone Warrs.—Dissolve as much common washing soda as the water will take up; wash the wars with this for a minute or two, and let them dry without wining. This repeated, will gradually destroy the ugliest wart.

THE BANKBUFT LAW .- The aggregate amount of our discharged, 20,231; number whose discharge was refused, 700. Aggregate number of creditors, 1,040, 603. Cost of judicial proceedings 8602,322, or near The following is the recipe:

"To each hundred of cucumbers put a pint of salt and pour in boiling water sufficient to cover the whole. Cover them tight to provent the steam from escaping, and in this condition let them stand 24 hours. They are then to be taken out, and after he ing wiped perfectly dry, care being taken that the six in sinct broken, placed in the jar in which they skin is not broken, placed in the jar in which they be put on them, the jar closed tight, and in a forts inght delicious hard ploklels are produced, as green as the day they were upon the vines."

To Parserve Pracues.—Clean your peaches, by pouring hot water upon them, and afterwards wiping them with a coarse cloth; put them into glass or earthen jura, cork them up and fasten the corks with wire or strong twino; then place the jars in a kettle of het water until the atmospheric air is expelled from the inext after which seal them up tight with the control of the control in the debts, returned by Massachusetts and East Florida. and East Florida.

There was much sound truth in the speech of we country lad to an idler, who boasted his decent from an ancient family. "So much the werse for you," said the peasant, "as we ploughmen say, the older the seed the worse the crop,"