Mr. Wallace's String Band, playing airs from the most popular Operas.

In the evening the pavillion will be illuminated by the patent sylvic Gas, invented by B. F. Caston, Eaq, of the United States Navy Department, Washington. It is an entirely new method, giving a superior light; free from all nauseous effusia, the fault of all other attempts, and casting a light scarcely less brilliant than the noonday sum.

Constituting this company will be found Mr. J. G. Cadwaltader, who will ride his much admired acts of the Russian Envoy, the Terrors of a Sorcerer of Siam, and the beautiful epitode of the Sprite and his lost wing, on 2, 3, and 4 horses.

Pine Oil & Solar Lard Lamps. B. DYOTT & KENT, Lamp Manufacturers,
No. 64 South Second street, one door below.
Chesnut, Philadelphia, have constantly on hand a complete assortment of DYOTT'S Patent Improved.
PINE OIL LAMPS, which are superior in construor. tion, more simple in arrangement and emprace improvements and at antages possessed by no other Lamps. The cost of lutning them does not exceed one-half of that of any other light, and produces a one-half of that of any other light, and produces a light more brilliant than gas. The lamps are so constructed that they can be burned dry, when the wick is short. The wick, which is consumed, being supplied with oil by a feeder tinderneath it. This arrangement keeps the oil always pure in the lamp, and renders other cleaning allogather tindecessary; and the recent hiptrodynemits made by the patentes, adds healty to their appearance, and renders their mandgement so day, that a child can take care of them. They are perfectly safe, and free from tingles and blour.

In addition to the above, we have a large and hand.
