The editor was absent when this paper was put to press, which will account for any errors that may appear in to-day's Volunteer.

We kept our paper back to the very latest moment, before going to press, in the hope that we could have something reliable to publish from the camp of war. But yet there is not a particle of intelligence from Gen. Scott's army, as to whether we are to have peace or a renewal of hostilities. The guerrillas, we apprehend, have complete possession of the road from Vera Cruz to Mexico, the pledge of Santa Anna to the contrary notwithstanding.

WASHINGTON NATIONAL MONUMENT.—The Board of Managers of the Washington National Monument Society, has appointed the Hon. ELIAS WHITNEY, of Ohio, the General Agent of the Society, to collect funds for the erection of this contemplated enduring memorial of a Nation's gratitude. Already about $28,000 has been raised throughout the Union; but as this sum is not sufficient to cover the expenses of erecting the magnificent structure contemplated by the Society, another appeal to the liberality of the American people is about being made. To afford the good people of this Borough and County an opportunity of contributing their mite to the furtherance of so praiseworthy an object, Mr. WILLIAM H. BAZORGON, of Washington, who has been appointed a sub-agent or collector for Cumberland County, will visit this place in a day or two, when we hope that the liberality of our citizens will be abundantly made manifest.

The letter of the Hon. JAMES BUCHANAN to the Democracy of Berks county, on the subject of slavery, is winning for him "golden opinions" everywhere throughout the length and breadth of the Republic. The sentiments it promulgates have acted upon the angry elements of party strife like oil upon the troubled waters, and we may now fairly infer that this vexed question will receive its quietus this ensuing session of Congress.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—Remember, Democrats, that SATURDAY NEXT is the LAST DAY you will have an opportunity of registering your names! Remember, that if you fail to do so, you will be unable to vote at the polls on the 2d of October. Do not neglect this important privilege of voting on the 2d of October! Go, then, immediately, and have yourselves ASSESSED! The vote of every one of you is important, and should not be lost! DO YOUR DUTY, and your cause is safe! But, if you neglect it, you must consent to submit to the yoke which Federalism has prepared for you, with the stinging accusation ringing in your ears—it is all owing to my own negligence!

Democrats! you have your choice between good and evil, and we feel satisfied you desire to choose the former. RALLY THEN, to the rescue of your threatened liberties, and let every honorable exertion be made on your parts to insure the success of the Democracy. You have the numerical strength, if you will exert it, to give to the Federal Mexicans such a defeat as the brave Taylor gave his friends at Buena Vista!

Look out for Treasurers.—Who profess to be Democrats, but who electioneer for the Federalists secretly. Put no trust in any man who is afraid to show himself openly and above board.

Think for Yourself!—Don't let the Federal Mexicans do that for you—Don't believe any of their lies. You know how they abused Gen. Jackson, and you know too that their assertions were ALL FALSE! Look out for them!

Partisans of Cumberland.—Give one day to your country—TURN OUT ON THE 24th TUESDAY OF OCTOBER! It may secure to your children innumerable blessings. Old Cumberland must speak out with an earthquake voice on the 12th of October! Then rally in your strength!

Be Cautious!—Be cautious, Democrats, and disbelieve every assertion the Federalists may make in regard to the will resort to any means, no difference how corrupt, for the purpose of defeating us.

If it should Rain.—On the second Tuesday of October, face it for one day.—It will be far more comfortable than the REIGN of Federalism.

A Query.—We are requested to ask, how many there are on the Federal ticket for this county, who profess to be ABOLITIONISTS? We have understood that there are no less than THREE of these gentlemen who are at present, or were quite recently, strong adherents to the dark cause.

DEMOCRATS AROUSED!

The Federal managers of the father of the Bankrupt Law, James LAVIS, afraid to discuss the leading questions of the day like men, have issued the following mandates to their followers throughout the State, whom they expect to "go it blind."

"It will never do to hold public meetings; our State Central Committee, have adopted the secret organization; we have MONEY to operate quietly, and we will catch the LOCOS NAPPEING, as they were last fall."—

This, then, is the plan of the campaign on the part of the Federalists. No show—no noise—no public meetings—so that they may lull the Democrats to sleep under the belief that nothing is doing on their part; when at the same time they have secretly and stealthily completed a most thorough organization of their forces in every Borough, Township, and County of the State. Where nothing else will answer their purpose, they will resort to their usual appliances of money, and try by bribery and corruption to gain the object of their desires. And we now advise our Democratic friends, that such is the effectual organization of our political opponents, that not a single Whig voter in Cumberland county will be left at home on the day of the election. We know that this arrangement is already completed by the Federalists, and we warn our Democratic friends to be on the alert, if they wish to save the Democratic ticket from defeat.

There is vastly more at stake in this election, than some of our friends think. Recollect, that in addition to the Governor, we have a Canal Commissioner to elect. The Whigs have already one member, and should they, by the supineness of the Democrats, elect another—the whole patronage and influence of the Canal Board will pass at once to the Federalists, and our Public Works will then be made a tremendous political engine to operate against the Democratic party in its future contests. Besides all this it would require years of unremitting toil on the part of the Democrats to wrest the sceptre of power from the death-grasp of Federalism.

So, too, of our own County. The Whigs have already one County Commissioner and one Director of the Poor. Let the Democrats permit them to elect another member to each Board, and then, farewell to the patronage and influence of the County.—It passes at once into the hands of the Federalists, and we all know very well that they will use the means placed at their disposal to perpetuate their power.

In view of these things—of such vast importance to the future welfare of the party—we earnestly urge upon our Democratic friends in every section of the county to be up and doing. There is not now a moment to spare. See to it that every Democrat in every nook and corner of the county be brought out on election day. Have carriages and wagons prepared to bring the poor, the aged and infirm to the polls. Let the leading and active men in each Township see to these things. It is a matter of vast importance, and upon such extraordinary exertions, in our opinion, depends the success of our ticket. Knowing the immense exertions of the Federalists, and apprehending danger to the Democratic party from supineness and an over-confidence in our strength, we have thus warned our friends of the danger. To be forewarned is to be forearmed—and we are sure, when all are made acquainted with the danger, no Democrat will suffer himself to be "caught napping" at this highly important crisis. AROUSE, then—AROUSE FROM YOUR LETHARGY!

We wish our Democratic friends to bear in mind that the Federalists are very confidently boasting that they will carry their ticket at the election—especially do they calculate on electing the County Commissioner and Director of the Poor. And to effect this end they are directing all their energies, and using every means, as well foul as fair. Their candidate for Commissioner is making it a personal matter, and is busily engaged, day and night, in soliciting votes among the Democrats, not only for himself, but also for the Director of the Poor. The object of his solicitations to obtain the office is easily divined; and it behooves our Democratic friends to be up and doing, if they wish to save the county from the clutches of Federalism. Recollect that every vote will count, and it is all important that every Democratic vote in the county should be polled. Now, although our information from every section of the county is highly encouraging, still one friend should not rest satisfied that they have done all they could do, until the polls close on the evening of the election, with every Democratic vote in every Borough and township polled. This is the duty of the party, and in discharging this duty fully and energetically, to the very letter, can they calculate with a certainty upon victory.

GOV. SHUNK'S VETOES.—Look at the State of Maryland, says the Bedford Gazette, where the Federal party have had every thing in their own way, and where they have no Democratic Governor to veto their infamous bills. There they grant corporate privileges for every thing—Their Mining, Coal, and Iron Corporations are a complete curse to the State. The Mount Savage Iron Works, incorporated by an act of the Maryland Legislature, has lately blown up. This is the same establishment where the Federal tickets were printed with calico backs in 1844, and the workmen compelled by their tyrannical employers, to vote them. Now these same workmen are cheated out of their wages for the officers of the corporation, with an independent pecuniary to that class of men, have told the hands that payment will not be made. All their debts are repudiated in the same way, to the amount of several millions of dollars—some for money loaned to them—some for produce furnished by the Farmers—some for merchandise—some for building materials—and an infinite number of debts, large and small, to the men who labored for them. What makes this hardest of all for an honest man to look upon is the fact, that the corporations—the men who have loaned money—are among the richest men in the United States! While they are yawning in luxury, and living in splendor, their cheated and insulted creditors are in a condition approaching to absolute want, and many of their families pinched for food and clothing. But these rich men will not pay their honest debts because they are a corporation, and the law will not compel a corporation to be honest. Such scenes as these, bringing wide-spread ruin and distress upon the community, are the offspring of Federal measures in Maryland. The same party in Pennsylvania want to produce the same state of affairs here, and oppose Gov. SHUNK, because he will NOT LET THEM!

It will be a lasting disgrace upon the people of Cumberland County—a county on all former times proverbial for its patriotism—if the Peace Party ticket, or any portion of it, should be elected.—We call the Federal ticket the Peace Party ticket, for we believe each and every candidate upon it, from the Governor down to the Auditor, is loud and vociferous in his denunciation of the Mexican War—abusing the National Administration, and taking sides with the Mexicans! Are the good people of this ancient county—who furnished her full quota of soldiers in the Revolution and in the war of 1812, and in the present war have not a few of her patriotic sons to assist their brethren in bearing off the "stars and stripes" and the mountains and plains of Mexico to be banished by that asking them to take sides against their own country! Surely, the patriotic freemen of old Mother Cumberland will rise in their might, and show these traitors to the Republic that they will have none of them to rule over them.

DEMOCRATS, TO YOUR POSTS!

For you have a designing enemy to contend against! Frust not to the apparent silence of our Federal Opponents—it is but a scheme of Federalism, intended [possibly] to work out your destruction.—Arouse to ACTION, buckle on your armor, and prepare manfully for the approaching contest! NEXT TUESDAY WEEK you will be called upon to discharge a duty in which is involved the dearest rights of freedom—a duty on which depends the future welfare of yourselves, your country and your Commonwealth. The bold, high-headed, and daring doings of Federalism, when that party was in power in this State, should never be forgotten by true Pennsylvanians. The attempt by that party to "make the negroes, as they say, their own men," and to dissolve the Government, should never be forgotten in every breast. The remembrance of these things should call every energy to action, and bid you no longer linger at the threshold, while a single light of Federalism sheds its unhallowed rays upon the citadel of Liberty.

Up, then, Democrats—up, be and doing, as you value your most sacred rights and privileges! The enemy of your cause—the opponents of freedom and equality are every where secretly at work! Zeal, worthy of a better cause, characterizes their acts—a cunning duplicity cloaks their principles—deceit and hypocrisy their motto—destruction to Democracy their aim! Awake, Democrats, from all criminal lethargy—ousting every negro—top off every obstacle that would prevent your active exertions, and a glorious triumph will be your reward!

FREEMEN, REMEMBER! That on the 4th day of December, 1839, the same Federal party are now contending against made an attempt to wrest from the people their inherent rights—to nullify the voice of the BALLOT BOX!

REMEMBER, that upon the assembling of the Legislature, that year they proposed the election of two Speakers of the House of Representatives—thereby attempting to DISSOLVE THE GOVERNMENT!

REMEMBER, that the Senate, then clothed with Federal power, trampled upon the rights and liberties of the Freemen of Pennsylvania, by wickedly refusing their seats to men elected by overwhelming majorities!

REMEMBER, that this SAME PARTY seeks your votes now! Are you prepared to give them? THE IRVIN VETOES.—Our Whig friends are so tickled, says the Centre Democrat, at that pass which they pretend was given by the President to Santa Anna, that they forget by their own candidate, Gen. Irvin, has given the winding commodity a "pass," which Santa Anna himself, scornful as he is, would scorn to use. It was called the "wrecked Legation" and in effect—"Let this reason pass" through all his difficulties, and cheat his creditors out of their just dues and hard earnings."

This is the Irvin "Pass." Think of it, ye honest and upright citizens of Cumberland County, of all parties, when you come to the polls on election day.

The Federalists can make and unmake candidates with wonderful facility, and that, too, without the aid of County Conventions! Their late County Convention, which met in this Borough, nominated WILLIAM B. MULLEN, of South Middleton, for the State Senate, and instructed their Conferees to have him nominated at all hazards. The same body placed in nomination, for Director of the Poor, James KENNEDY, of Millis. This was all very well, and every body supposed that these gentlemen were to be the bona fide Whig candidates. But, lo and behold! the conferees met and what did they do but give the "old shrewd" to Mr. Mullen, and nominated Mr. Kennedy to the Senate. This took every body by surprise, and much speculation has been set on foot in the public mind ever since as to the cause of this treachery. Mr. Mullen, who, by the way, is a very clever man and estimable citizen. Mr. M. certainly, from the influence and exertions he has heretofore used to promote the success of Whiggery, deserved better at their hands, than to be thus unceremoniously thrust aside to make room for a man who had already received his full share of favors from the party. But this is a piece of the double dealing and treachery of the Federal leaders in this Borough, and should teach the honest portion of that party what little reliance can be placed in their professions. The same Federal caucus, after getting Mr. Kennedy nominated for Senator, set to work, and, without consulting the people, or re-assembling the County Convention, had the name of James WALKER, of Dickinson, placed upon the ticket for Director of the Poor—thus, if possible, inflicting a double injury upon Mr. Mullen. Such is Federalism!

OUR PATRIOTIC VOLUNTEERS.—We perceive by the Ohio papers that the volunteers of that State lately returned from Mexico, celebrated the anniversary of the victory of Monterey, at Dayton. Among those present was a number who had formerly acted with the Federal party. This, however, did not prevent them from passing very strong resolutions in favor of the justness of the war, and against the traitorous conduct of the Mexican allies in this country. When our Pennsylvania volunteers return home from the war, we opine one of their first acts will be to denounce the cause of the friends of LAVIS, in Lancaster county, who have recently printed and circulated a pamphlet, in which the Mexican war is not only opposed, but in which the people are called upon to volunteer in the army, because all wars—THE REVOLUTIONARY INCLUDED—were accused of God and grossly immoral, and because our soldiers are cruel and dishonest! This is the substance of this tory appeal; and this is the position now occupied on this great question by the party opposed to the election of FRANCIS R. SHUNK.

The Federal candidate for County Commissioner, it is said, has "two strings to his bow"—hence he electioneer for the Director of the Poor, as well as for himself. Should he fail in his own election but succeed with the other, then he can be appointed Physician to the Poor House—a post which has held out dazzling allurement to him for a number of years.—This appointment he is sure to get any how, and if with it he can get to be County Commissioner, why of course he expects to have a very pretty pull at the public text for three years to come. "There's many a slip between the cup and lip," however, and if Dr. Myers fails in both, as he will most assuredly do, then will he be sorely disappointed indeed.

A LIKELY "TWO PART."—The Federal candidate for County Commissioner, it is rumored, has promised the clerkship of the Board to Mr. JOSEPH WALKER, of Dickinson. The Doctor had better not "count his chickens before they are hatched." In Mr. MELZ, his Democratic opponent, he has a hard horse to beat, and it may be that the people will not give him the opportunity of dispensing the public patronage amongst his Federal friends.

A Long Pull and a Strong Pull.—Democrats! now is the time for a long pull, and a strong pull, and a FULL ALTOGETHER!

ONE VOTE!—Let no Democrat be absent from the polls on the day of this. Remember, fellow-Democrats, that many a man has lost his election for the want of one vote. Let this fact stimulate every one of us to action on the 12th of October.

Vote Early!—Go to the polls at an early hour, and after you have deposited your ticket, assist in bringing up other voters.

AFFIDAVITS OF THE OPPOSITION.

On the eve of every important election in this Commonwealth, a shower of Federal affidavits, averring of affirming to some huge slander upon the Democratic party and its candidates, is certain to be published. It has been so for many years past, and the present campaign, from present appearances, is not destined to form an exception to the rule.

In 1844 the attempt was made to defeat Gov. SHUNK by affidavits and certificates on the subject of the Flag and Bible slanders; and in 1847 the same attempt is made by false statements, and, if necessary, by perjured proofs on the subject, of Dr. SAUSSEUR's voluntary endorsement of the North American's vile leader, an account of which is appended under the head of "A vile Calumny nailed to the Counter." It will be seen that Messrs. MITCHELL and PATRICK, the Secretary and Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth, both unhesitatingly and indignantly deny the charge trumped up against them, and dare the false conspirators to make good their assertions by proof.

But, this weak and wicked invention of the infamous leaders of the Federal party shows the desperation of our political opponents, and should admonish us to be active and zealous in the good cause. Democracy scorns these unworthy devices, and leaves them to the leaders and newspapers of a party which, without principles to bind it together, or to urge it forward, is compelled to resort to the most reckless measures to accomplish its purposes.

From the Pennsylvania of Friday.

A Vile Calumny Nailed to the Counter!

FEDERAL INTRIGUE DEFEATED! By last evening's mail, we have the following letter from Hon. JESSE MILLER, Secretary of the Commonwealth, and Col. HENRY PATRICK, Deputy Secretary. It will be seen that both unhesitatingly and indignantly deny the imputation attempted to be fixed upon them in yesterday's North American. There is no reservation in their denial. It is completely overwhelming. It leaves nothing upon which the assertion of the North American and its allies, Dr. SAUSSEUR, can stand. Even Mr. CANTINE, to whom both refer, as will be seen by the extract from yesterday's Harrisburg Argus, from which, as we learn, Dr. SAUSSEUR has been disconnected for three weeks past, denies any personal knowledge of the facts so pointedly and unreservedly stated by the North American and Dr. SAUSSEUR.—He says he had his information from "others."

What is the clear inference from this exposure? That a conspiracy, of the most infamous character, has been concocted to traduce the reputation of two excellent and irreproachable citizens, and through them, to injure the Democratic candidate for Governor. How it has been formed—who originated it—and for what purpose it is now attempted to be used—are facts that will no doubt be made to appear plainly hereafter. As the matter now stands, the accusation falls harmless to the ground. We defy their scandalous charges, or to confess to the forgery. Let the North American meet the issue as it is presented by Messrs. MILLER and PATRICK, and let us see how they add no more to convince our Democratic friends that this is a weak and wicked invention of the enemy; but hasten to give the following as evidence of the moral guilt that attaches to this scandalous affair!—

Harrisburg, Sept. 23, 1847.

To the editors of the Pennsylvania:

The publication in the North American and United States Gazette, of this date, as well as all others, charging me with the authorship of certain articles published in a paper, once published in this place, called "The Democratic Champion," reflecting on the character of the late Hon. HENRY A. MULLENBERG, is so far as regards myself, unqualifiedly false. I never wrote an article of any kind, never wrote a word, or line, for any other paper, abusive of Mr. MULLENBERG, or calculated in any way to depreciate his character as a man or politician.—The attempt now, to fix upon me the authorship of the same or any other article, is an infamously false, and I defy the editors of the North American, or any other person, to produce any respectable proof to sustain the allegation.

I am, very respectfully, Sir, your obedient servant.

J. MILLER.

Ma. J. J. C. CANTINE.—Sir—I desire you to state that so far as regards the article in the North American of the 23rd inst., intended to convey the idea that I had written articles abusive of the character of the late Henry A. Mulenberg, which were published in a filthy paper in this place, is unqualifiedly false in every particular. I never wrote a word, or line, for any kind, nor for any other paper, reflecting on the character of Mr. Mulenberg, in any manner whatever. If any man states that I did, he is guilty of perjury. I never wrote an article of any kind, never wrote a word, or line, for any other paper, abusive of Mr. MULLENBERG, or calculated in any way to depreciate his character as a man or politician.—The attempt now, to fix upon me the authorship of the same or any other article, is an infamously false, and I defy the editors of the North American, or any other person, to produce any respectable proof to sustain the allegation.

I am, very respectfully, Sir, your obedient servant.

J. MILLER.

To Hamilton & Forney.—The North American of this morning contains an editorial article endeavoring to fix upon me the authorship of certain articles published in a paper called "The Champion," established in this place sometime in the fall of 1843.—The article alluded to now in the possession of a gentleman in this place, and are open for inspection, and every particular is well known to content myself for the present, with stating that I never wrote one word of them, and that I never read them, until after they were printed and circulated. And, moreover, I never wrote a word, or line, for any other paper, attacking Mr. Mulenberg's private or political reputation. Let who may state or repeat the contrary, I unhesitatingly pronounce him a liar, morally, if not legally guilty.

Harrisburg, Sept. 23, 1847.

From the Harrisburg Argus, of yesterday, now conducted by Mr. J. J. C. CANTINE:

"We stop the press to say that we have received the 'North American' of this morning, containing Col. Salisbury's reply. The Col. is mistaken in saying that we ever pretended to have any personal knowledge as to the Editors of the 'Champion.' We referred him to our informants, and never pretended to any knowledge on the subject, except from other persons.

A DESERVED COMPLIMENT.—The Montgomery (Ala) Flag & Advertiser, pays the following handsome compliment to Governor SHUNK:—"Gov. Shunk of Pennsylvania, is one of the most consistent and clear-headed Democrats in the Keystone State. He was a few years ago Secretary of State of Pennsylvania—a position in that and in other States not of us which is filled by tried and able men, who had better not 'count his chickens before they are hatched.' In Mr. MELZ, his Democratic opponent, he has a hard horse to beat, and it may be that the people will not give him the opportunity of dispensing the public patronage amongst his Federal friends.

"A Long Pull and a Strong Pull."—Democrats! now is the time for a long pull, and a strong pull, and a FULL ALTOGETHER!

ONE VOTE!—Let no Democrat be absent from the polls on the day of this. Remember, fellow-Democrats, that many a man has lost his election for the want of one vote. Let this fact stimulate every one of us to action on the 12th of October.

Vote Early!—Go to the polls at an early hour, and after you have deposited your ticket, assist in bringing up other voters.

Well done Newville.

By the following receipt and letter it will be seen that the citizens of Newville and vicinity have not been unmindful of the sufferings of the poor of Scotland and Ireland. The liberal contributions made by Newville and neighborhood, is creditable to the people of that section of our county:—

Received, Sept. 5, 1847, from John MOORE, as Chairman of Committee of Newville contributors, $19 34 as a donation for relief of the Scotch sufferers, per hands of M. CAMPBELL, Treas. of S. R. F.

PHILA., Sept. 14, 1847.

Respected Sir—Yours of the 2d enclosing the list of the very liberal contribution of the citizens of Newville and vicinity, came duly to hand. The amount has been disposed of according to order—$19 34 as per above receipt paid to committee for Scotland—the remainder $9 66 paid to the Treasurer of the committee.

In reply to your inquiries as to receipt and disposition of donations from Newville, it gives me much pleasure to acknowledge in addition to $29 now received, the receipt of 531 bushels of corn for Scotland and Ireland, all of which by order of both committees was sold to Mr. Wm. B. Thomas, manufacturer of Corn Meal, on Willow St. Railroad, at 80 cents, in payment for 113 bush, Kiln dried corn meal, of which 80 bush marked "Newville, Pa. Donation" was shipped by the Scotch Committee, and the balance, 35 bush, by this Committee, for general distribution among the suffering poor of Scotland and Ireland in accordance with the wishes of your committee.

The freight and all other expenses from the time they reach the doors of the poor, are paid by the English Government—thus enabling the charitable committee there to extend the greatest possible amount of relief to the suffering poor.

All donations entrusted to the care of this committee are shipped to the "Central Committee of the Society of Friends in Dublin"—delivered in 100 or eight of the principal seaports—Cork, Dublin, Derry, Limerick, Belfast, Donegal, Galway, &c. to be distributed among the suffering poor as their good judgment and benevolence may dictate.

I thank you for the kind and generous offers and recollect that these donations pass through the hands of a society so proverbially benevolent and prudent in all their movements, and at the same time so wholly free from sectarian bias when their charities are directed to those not of their own sect—and I have full confidence that the poor, without regard to sect or to any other circumstance that poverty and suffering, will receive through the committees of that society the greatest amount of relief that the donations forwarded can be made to furnish. In the hope that your committee, and the kind-hearted citizens for whom you act, will feel satisfied that the committee has used all diligence and economy in the promotion of their wishes, I remain with much respect and esteem, Your friend and servant,

ALLEN CUTBERT, Of Irish Relief, Gen. Agent.

To John Moore, Esq. Chairman of Newville Relief Committee.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—AT SHEPHERDSTOWN.

On the evening of the 25th inst., the Democratic citizens of Shepherdstown and vicinity, held a meeting at the house of David Sheffer, in Shepherdstown, which was organized by the appointment of James H. Brown, President; Allen Floyd, Geo. L. Spangler, David Davidson, Vice Presidents; John W. Cocklin, Secretary.

Resolved, That the present administration of the General Government, has signified itself by its attachment to republican principles.

Resolved, That the gratitudes of Pennsylvania, to the brave and noble men, and better soldiers who have maintained her title to honor and renown, on the battle fields of Mexico.

Resolved, That it is with pleasure that we again come forward to the support of F. R. SHUNK, as Governor of the Commonwealth, for he has proved himself deserving of a re-election.

Resolved, That the interests of the State require the election of Morris Longstreth, Canal Commissioner, knowing those who compose it to be all good men and true.

J. K. BROWN, President.

J. W. COCKLIN, Secretary.

North Middleton Aroused!

At a large and respectable meeting of the Democrats of North Middleton township, held at the public house of Mr. John Wonderlich, (Middlesex), on Saturday evening the 25th inst. On motion, DAVID W. WILLIAMS, Esq. was appointed President, John Wonderlich, Jacob Heffner, Vice Presidents, M. Coover and George Smith, Secretaries.

On motion, the following named persons were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting, viz: Wm. Wonderlich, Jeremiah Cornman, Samuel Williams, John P. Brindley and Daniel Day.

During the absence of the committee, the meeting was addressed by George Sanderson and William Gould.

The committee reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we have unlimited confidence in the talents, integrity, and sound Democratic principles of Governor SHUNK; and believe that his reelection to the distinguished station he so worthily fills, will redound to the honor and best interests of our noble old Commonwealth.

Resolved, That in MORRIS LONGSTRETH, our candidate for Canal Commissioner, we have an honest, upright and talented man, in whose hands the public works of the State will be made still more prosperous, and the burthens of the people comparatively lightened.

Resolved, That we were, and still are opposed to the odious Bankrupt Law, for which the Federal candidate for Governor, James Irvin, voted, and which he refused to repeal; because said law enabled hundreds of dishonest knaves to take advantage out of provisions, and defraud their honest creditors of millions of dollars.

Resolved, That the Democrats of North Middleton township, were gratified at the nomination of our honored neighbor and fellow-citizen, Capt. Abraham Lamberton—for this mark of respect paid to our wishes we pledge ourselves to more than ordinary exertion to secure the success of the whole ticket.
