ODD FELLOWS' PROCESSION.

The procession of Odd Fellows, which to place in Carlisle on Friday last, was truly a splendi affair. Delegations from Lodges at Shippensburg, Mechanicsburg, Chambersburg, Harrisburg, and Landisburg, were in attendance. The procession was formed at 11 o'clock, under the direction of Capt. Geo. Sanderson, Chief Marshal, and presented a mos imposing appearance. The display of regalia, banners, and other insigna of the Order was gorgeous in the extreme. Two splendid bands of music (or from Newville, the other from Gettysburg,) discoured most cloquent music during the procession. After marching through the different streets, the process ion halted at the First Presbyterian Church, to hear the address of E. A. LESLEY, Esq. of Dauphin Lodge No. 160. The address is spoken of in the highest terms by all who heard it. Mr. L. is a young man of plessing manners, and an eloquent, forcible, and able speaker. After the conclusion of exercises in the church, the procession again forms, and shortly the church of t No. 160. The address is spoken of in the highest The whole thing passed off quietly, and was worthy of the respectable order of Odd

BERKS AND LANCASTER.

These two large counties were, at the last election fairly pitted against each other. In Lancaster, the federal whigs, proud of their strength, strained every of this country, native and naturalized, a real attachnerve to give an unusually large majority, and se neighbor, and giving Gen. Irvin such a vote as would so," or submit to the "tall braging" of their ancient they warmed to the contest, and the result shows a majority for our candidates far, far exceeding the worst that the federal whigs of Laneaster could do against them. All hail, noble Old Berks, the home of true hearts and strong hands! The cause of democracy can never fall when your hardy yeomany step forward to the rescue, and declare in thunder notes their attachment to sound principles and regular tones their attachment to sound principles and regular to the cause of devents and strong hands! The cause of declare in thunder similar fate under similar fate under similar circumstances? We have now the official returns of the vote for the result. We wish to see sensible men act like sensible politicians. Why war against fate? Why sensible politicians. Why war against fate? NATIONAL CONVENTION

The Boston Post proposes the FOURTHOF JULY nost as the time, and BALTIMORE as the place, for the meeting of the Democratic National Convention to nominate candidates for President and Vice President. We suppose our State Convention to assemble on the 4th of next March will take sonic action upon the subject, but in advance of the meeting we will second the motion of the Post. Baltimora is the best place, in our opinion, and is preferable to any other on account of its having heretotre been the place where our conventions have been held.—And we think there is a manifest propriety in holding it upon the day named—the ever memorable and glorious Fourth of July. Besides the enthusiasm and kind feeling and harmony which that glorious event is calculated to inspire, we consider a short and vigorous campaign more likely to ensure success than a long and spiritless one. The month of May is most too early.

OPENING OF GIRARD COLLEGE .-- At last a time has been fixed for the opening of the Girard College.-The architect, Mr. Walter, in answer to a letter from the President of the Board of Directors, says the entire work will be completed by the first of Decomber next, and the Building Committee have authorized the Board of Control to take possession of one of the rooms on the 12th inst., for the purpose of furnishing the College preparatory to the final surren der of the premises in December.

ETHER IN SURGERY .- The North American contains an interesting report of a surgical case in which ether was administered. The patient operated upon was a laboring man, whose right leghad been shockingly mutilated by a colision between two railroad cars. The unfortunate man was placed sader the influence of other, and his leg amoutated below the

WHIG "PRINCIPLES."

Nearly every Federal paper we pick up—from the North American down to the eight by ten village cot-all condole themselves by stating in substan that their late inglerious defeat, is no evidence that he principles of the Whig party are unpopular with the people! They try to console their friends by assuring them that the " glorious principles of the Whig party will be adhered to," and that "with those prin ples they will yet triumph," &c.

What are those principles? They have abandon ed their position on the tariff question. They have adopted Webster's opinion that "the Bank of the Uniday evenings next, for the reception of those who led States is an obsolete idea !" The distribution of the proceeds of the public lands is a policy given up and forgotten! What then are those principles to which these gentlemen pledge themselves " to adhere?" Really we know not, unless they are contained in the following extracts from the speech of Tom Corwin and other Federal leaders of the present day:

A Day of Thanksgiving.

Francis R. Shuns, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, by his official proclamation, recommends Thursday the 25th day of November nest, as a day to be publicly dedicated to the duties of prayer, thanksgiving and praise. Never have a people had created all our actions in the premises.

The New Lisbon Palladium, Whig, says: "Ah! depend upon it you cannot skulk this was this unrighteous war is the legitimate fruit of you doings, and you must answer in the Chancery of Hea-ven for the consequences."

The editor of the Eaton Regist, a black mouthed fed etal paper, has perpetrated the following:

"The war exists by our own wrongs. A sense of justice leads us to deprecate the whole train of circumstances, which has brought this calamity upon us. We are in a war in which the sympathies of the civilized world must be against us. Whoever prays that God will defend the right must pray for the success of our enemies."

The following is an extract from the speech of Columbus Delano, delivered in the House of Representatives on the 2d of last Pebruary:

"I consider this war a great calamity, it is wicked and inhuman. Its object is national robbery, consu-mated, if carried on, by a sacrifice of human life that falls but little short of murder."

Geo. G. Fogg, Secretary of the State of New Hamp shire, and a whig Editor, uses the following beauti-ful language:

Such are the principles of the Federal Whig par ty of the present day, and which may be found in the present forefathers of those patriots,

MIR. KENDALL'S LETTERS.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 14, 1847.

Another victory, glorious in its result, and which has thrown additional lustre upon the American arms, has been achieved to-day by the army under Scott—the proud capital of Mexico has fallen before the power of a mere handful of men compared with the immense adds arrayed against them, and Santa Anna, instead of shedding his blood as he had promised, is wandering with the remnant of his army no one knows whither.

injure of harm a man in the mon—uney were an our trienda!

About five minutes after this, and while General Worth was returning to his division near Almeda, he was fired upon from a house near the convent of San Francisco. Some of the cowardly Folkas, who had fled the dry previous without discharging their guns, now commenced the assassing men of shooting at every one of our men they saw, from windows as well as from behind the practical or tops of the house. In half an hour's time, our good friends, the louers, in the neighborhood of the hospital of San Andres and the Church of Sand Carland had been severely wounded by a musket, fired by some insercant from the windows.

For everal hours this cowardly war upon our mone continued, and during this time many were killed or wounded. It was in this species of fighting that Lieut. Sidney Smith received his death woand.

All the wounded. It was in this species of fighting that Lieut. Sidney Smith received his death woand.

All the wounded is the species of fighting that Lieut. Sidney Smith received his death woand.

All the sassinations are still frequent. Our men are led off to drinking houses in the bystices and in the lieutes where a murder is received his death woand.

All the firing came, while the game of the different light batteries swept the attreets in all directions. As a sassasins were driven from one house they, would take religing to more the control of the same species of the process of the different light batteries swept the attreets in all directions. As the assessins were driven from one house they, would take refuge in another; but by the middle of the afternoon they were all forced back to the barriers and suburbs. Many innecent persons have doubtless, been killed during to-day, but this could not be avoided. Had orders been given at the outset to blow up and demolish every house or church from which one man was fired upon, the disturbance would line to be at once quelled. As it is, I trust that the lesson the rabble and their mischievous leaders have received to day may deter them from future outrages.

On entering the palace Gen, Scott at once named Gen, Quitman governor of Mexico—a most excellent appointment. Some wag immediately proclaimed aloud in the palza, as follows: "Gen, John A. It seems that the valiant Tornel ran off at an early hour; and his magnificent house has been converted into a hospital for our wounded officers. Yours, &c. G. W. K.

Mexico, Sept. 17, 1847.

The Mexican loss it impossible to ascertain, but it has been immense. Among the killed at Chapultepee were Gen. Juan Nepomecune Perez, Col. Juan Cano, a distinguished officer of engineers, and Lieut. Lucian Culve, one of Gen. Brave's aids. Gen. Saldana was badly wounded, as were many other distinguished officers. Five generals, three colonels, soven lloutenant colonels, and near one hundred majors, captains and licutenants were taken prisoners, together with eight hundred or more rank and file. CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 20, 1847. We hear but little, one way or the other, as to what the Mexicans intend to do in future—whether they are for peace, or a continuance of the war. In fact, it is hardly time for them, after their recent disastrous discomifitures to think of anything. Eve disastrous discomfitures, to think of anything. Everything will now depend upon our own government. If the nonsensical southing system is continued—if another dose of magnanimity is to follow the hard blows which have lost us so many lives—the war will be spun out till doomeday. On the contrary, if a rigorous system is at once adopted, if men and means are poured into the country, and the rulers of Mexico are for once made to believe that we are in carnest, six months will suffice to make them sue for pages. ifitures, to think of anything. The immense crowd of blanketed leperos, the seum, of the capital, were congregated in the plaza as the commander-in-chief entered it. They pressed upon our soldlers and eyed them as though they were beings of another world. So much were they in the way, and with such cagerness did they press around, that Gen. The Punishment of Deserters.

By a general order, dated the 6th September, it appears that a court martial, of which Col. Riley, of the 2d Infantry, was President, tried twenty-nine men for desertion to the enemy. Their fate may be read in the following sentence of Gen. Scott.

Sentences.

The court found the above named prisoners, [the names are given again below) severally guilty as charged, and sentence each (twe-thirds of the members of the court in every case concarring in the sentence.
