the 1st of October, Santa Anna at the head of cavalry and infantry, and three pieces of artifsallied out from Puebla, intending to attack the y, salted out rom rucous, increasing on the 1st, and necicen train which left Jalapa on the 1st, and ached Perote on the 4th, but before arriving at Toyahulco, his designs were wholly frustrated by all this men with the exception of 130 hussars, comhis nor with the exception of the massing, being his personal guard, having pronounced painst him, attributing the unfortunate events of the ar and their want of success against the invaders, his incapacity and unsuccessfulness. Some loud-declared him a traiter, and unworthy of holding to his incapacity and unsuccessioness. Some loadby declared him a traitor, and unworthy of holding any command in the Mexican army.

Santa Anna having reached Topayahuslee with I his 130 hussurs, received an order from the government at Quererito, ordering him utonce with all his trops, but he did not think it convenient to comply with the demands of his government; and broke up his line of march for Oajaca, he having publicly deleared his intention of proceeding to that place, where he designed to raise unother army; with which to renew the combat with the enemies of the Republic.
All the letters from the interior, existed in the opolation that Santa Anna edisidered himself as inpotent to effect any thing more; and that his march to Oajaca is only a protext to add in the quiet accomplishment of his desings.

Pyrana, Oct. 2.—Since Santa Anna's departure' the canonading has entirely slackened off. The cotton house of Valesce took fire and burned downThe inhabitants of Puebh, hearing the ringing of the hells which announced this incendiarism were very much alarmed, believing the Americans had let their enternehments and were storming the city.

It is reported that Gen. Scott has grainted a passtent of Serve Anna. Other Mexicus passers deny ef their entrenchments and were storming the city. It is reported that Gen. Scott has granted a passe out to Santa Anna. Other Mexican papers deny hal he is endeavoring to reach Guatemale, and insist that he will continue the war without respite. The Genius of Liberty says, that Pena y Pena was facharging the duty of President, at Queretaro, but lad refused to recognise his ussociates appointed by lanta Anna; and proposes that Congress shall elect. Sia:—I take the liberty of addressing you these few lines on account of news having been received here of the 2d Penja, Regiment being, engaged in the last actions before the city of Mexico. In the list of killed and wounded I recognize several names of my old companions in ands in the "Cameron Guards." The very fact of 80 many of them being wounded, proves conclusively that they were where the iron hall feel thick, and I think that neither the honorable gentleman whose name they bear, nor the citizens of Harrisburg, need blush at the conduct of this company, before the gates of the city of Mexico. Below I give you the names of the wounded with their residence; some of their names are spelled incorrectly in the printed accounts.

FIGHTING PARSON.-We have seen it stated that ne of the companies from Mississippi, at Buena Vista, was commanded by a Methodist minister.-Just before the battle commenced, and whilst the troops were forming, it is said he delivered the following pithy prayer, at the head of his commune :

"Be with us this day in the conflict, O Lord! "We are low, and the enemy are 'quiny. Be with us as thou wast with Joshua, when he went down from Gilgal to Bethloron and Ajalon, to, smite the America, We do not ask thee for the sun and moon to stand still, but grant us plenty of powder, plenty of daylight, and no cowards. Take old Rough and Paretty under the special charge. Appl. March. leady under thy special charge. Amen!-March. His company performed prodigies on the field that

AN ELOQUENT INDIAN. There is a young Indian chiof of the Ojibwa tribe, named Kah-gega gah-bowhi Fowler Abram delivering temperance speeches in Washington .--The Whig says:

"We have never listened to a more interesting speech. He speaks with a clear, mellow voice, with which accompanies exceedingly appropriate gestures. His style is divosted of that studied cloquence which haracterizes many of our own spoakers; his is the loquence of the soul—nature's cloquence." On Woman !- The Brooklyn Light Guard should Lockhard William be called "The Women's Own," for their admiration of the sex is unbounded, if we may judge from the following toust, given at their late excursion:

WOMAN—the core of our heart—the apple of our eye—the smile of heaven upon us—the spirit of our life—the incarnation of divinity! We love her, "how we love her!" and he who does not love her is a God-forsaken wretch! TEMPTATION.—There are said to be certain per liar sins which easily beset every man, and they are certainly temptations which are peculiar to every me.
