THE VOLUNTEER.

John B. Bratton, Editor and Proprietor.

CARLISLE, THURSDAY, DECB'R. 16, 1847.

AGENCY.

☞V. B. PALMER, Esq. is our authorized Agent for procuring advertisements, receiving subscriptions, and making collections for the American Volunteer, at his office, N. W. corner of Third and Chesnut streets, Philadelphia.

THANKS.—We return our thanks to President Polk, Vice President Dallas, Hon. James Buchanan, Hon. D. Sturgeon, and Hon. J. E. Brady, for sending us early copies of the Message. Also to our friends S. J. Bowon, and David Mahon, Esqrs. for similar favors.

☞No. 4 of "Mr. Clay and the Mexican War" has been unavoidably crowded out, together with much other matter.

☞The Lancaster Intelligencer will be replied to in our next. We had an article prepared in answer to it, but our crowded columns would not admit it to-day.

QUARTERLY SERMON.—The regular Quarterly Sabbath Sermon will be preached in the M. E. Church of this borough, on Sabbath evening next, by Rev. Mr. HOFFMAN. The other churches of the borough will be closed on said evening.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

In our paper of this morning will be found the annual message of President POLK. It is long, but we hope this will not induce any one to forego the reading of it. It is a document replete with sound practical views, and is every way worthy the head and heart of its distinguished author.

On the subject of the war, President Polk employs the language of a statesman and true American.—For months the Federalists have been sneeringly asking the question—"What are we fighting for?" Let them, one and all, carefully read the message of the President. By doing so they will learn to their full satisfaction (if they be honest men,) what we are fighting for. The message is a full, able, and triumphant answer to the question, and the facts presented in defence of the position of our government, should forever silence those who would tarnish the fair fame of our country by their vain efforts to make it appear that we are committing an outrage upon Mexico by prosecuting the present war. Every argument advanced by the Federalists in defence of Mexico and in opposition to the United States, is most triumphantly met and answered by the President in his admirable message; and our opponents themselves, we doubt not, feel mortified and chagrined at the position they are forced to occupy before the country.

The message is also sound on all the other subjects it treats. The good effects of the tariff of 1846 are shown, and it is to be hoped that the present revenue laws will be permitted to remain unmolested, as the permanent policy of the government. But, the message does not require praise at our hands, nor does it need any explanation. Although elegantly written, a child can understand every position assumed by the President. We therefore ask all, friend and foe, to give the message a careful perusal, and then judge for himself.

For the American Volunteer.

JAMES BUCHANAN.

Mr. Bratton—As you have thrown open your columns for the presenting of the claims of the various candidates spoken of for the Presidency, I have taken the liberty of requesting you to publish the following list of the different Democratic papers advocating the claims of the Hon. JAMES BUCHANAN. The list is taken from the "Pennsylvanian," originally published in the "Doylestown (Bucks County) Democrat;" by which it will be seen that a number of the most influential Democratic papers in the State, as well as out of it, advocate the claims of this distinguished statesman. Should he receive the nomination of the Democratic National Convention, I am satisfied that Cumberland county would give him one of her old fashioned Democratic majorities, and the vote from 25 to 30,000 majority.

VOX POPULI.

THE PRESIDENCY.

Mr. Buchanan's name is brought out prominently before the public for the Presidency, by a number of Democratic papers.

The Columbia Enquirer, at Berwick, Columbia county, raises the name of James Buchanan at its head for the next Presidency.

The Tunkhannock, Wyoming county, Patriot avows a preference for Mr. Buchanan for the next Presidency, and Gen. Butler for the Vice Presidency.

The Spirit of Jefferson, published at Charleston, Va., is strongly urging Mr. Buchanan's claims, and urging the undivided support of the tenth legion in his favor.

The Centre Berichter, (German,) at Aaronsburg, hoists up the name of Mr Buchanan for the Presidency.

Writers in the Chambersburg Valley Sentinel urge the claims of Mr. Buchanan and Judge Breese, of Illinois, for the same position.

A correspondent of the Washington Examiner recommends James Buchanan as a suitable candidate for the Presidency.

The Stroudsburg Monroe Democrat, of the 26th ult. contains an able editorial article in favor of Hon. James Buchanan for the Presidency in 1848.

The Camden (N. J.) Phœnix expresses a decided preference for James Buchanan, of Pennsylvania, as the next Democratic candidate for the Presidency.

The Harrisburg Union contains an article on the claims of Pennsylvania for the next candidate, and prefers Mr. Buchanan as the nominee.

The Norristown Register, Pa., has the name of Mr. Buchanan placed at its head.

The Peroia, Ill., Democrat Press, expresses a warm preference in favor of Mr. Buchanan for the next Presidency.

The Augusta Va., Democrat has raised the name of Mr. Buchanan for the Presidency.

The Shenandoah Va., Sentinel, do.

The Virginia Valley Star, do.

The Woodstock Va., Sentinel, do.

The Pottstown, Montgomery Co. Ledger, do.

The Ebensburg Mountain Sentinel has raised the name of James Buchanan to its mast head, for the Presidency in 1848, subject to the decision of a National Convention; and the editor urges the claims of this great statesman upon the Democracy of the country in a well written editorial article.

The Berks County Press, edited by Col. John C. Myers, is out in a strong editorial article in favor of James Buchanan for the Presidency in 1848.

The Gettysburg Compiler, has also come out in favor of Mr. Buchanan.

For Vice President, we see the name of the gallant Gen. Wm. O. Butler, of Kentucky, Gen. Jefferson Davis, of Mississippi, and Walter C. Colquitt, of Georgia, named. Either one will suit us.

In addition to the above expressions, we observe the following:

The Lebanon True Democrat (German,) has hoisted the flag of James Buchanan.

The Pittsburg Courier (German,) has announced a strong preference for Mr. Buchanan.

The Tioga Eagle has run up the flag of James Buchanan.

The Winchester (Va.) Virginian endorses a communication urging the nomination of Mr. Buchanan.

The Democratic citizens of Venango county, Pennsylvania, have elected Delegates to the 4th of March Convention, and unanimously instructed them to support Mr. Buchanan for the Presidency.

The Wilkesbarre German paper is out for Mr. Buchanan.

The York Democratic Press is out for Mr. Buchanan.

The Bowling Green, Kentucky Argus, has raised Mr. Buchanan's name at its mast head.

The Harrisburg Staats Zeitung, (German) is out for Mr. Buchanan, and adopts a strong article from the New York Gazette.

The Flag of '98, at Warrenton, Virginia, is out in favor of Mr. Buchanan for the Presidency.

The New York State Gazette, (German,) avows a preference for Mr. Buchanan for the Presidency.

SECRETARY WALKER, in his able report, strongly recommends the establishment of a Branch Mint at New York.

STATE TREASURER.

We notice by several of our Democratic exchange papers, that our old friend, THOMAS C. M'DOWELL, Esq. of Cambria county, is spoken of as a candidate for the office of State Treasurer. No better selection could be made. Mr. M'D. is a gentleman of superior qualifications, and has always been a steadfast unflinching Democrat. Should the representatives of the people select him for the office mentioned, the State would have the services of a most indefatigable and trust-worthy officer.

TAX ON NEWSPAPERS.—Mr. Broadhead, of this State, gave notice in the House of Representatives that he intended to report a bill to repeal the law passed at the last session respecting postage on newspapers.—We commend this early move on the part of Mr. B., and trust he will urge the measure through speedily. Meanwhile, let the press throughout the country, ring "repeal" into the ears of members, until they shall annul the obnoxious law.

ECCLESIASTICAL.—The Rev. E. J. NEWLIN, late Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of this borough, we learn has been called to the Pastoral charge of the Second Presbyterian Church in Lynchburg, Va., and will enter upon his labors on the 1st of January ensuing.

The Rev. THOS. V. MOORE, formerly Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Carlisle, has recently been installed in the Pastoral charge of the First Presbyterian Church, in Richmond, Va.—Herald.

MARRIED,

On Thursday last by the Rev. H. Anrand, Mr. ELIJAH M'COOL, to Miss ELIZABETH MARCH, all of West Pennsboro township.

SHERIFF'S OFFICE, Carlisle. Dec. 16, 1847.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN THE DAGUERREOTYPE ART.—M. A. ROOT'S Daguerreotypes, 140 Chestnut St. HIPLADELPHIA, having been pronounced superior, in the cities of Europe and the United States, and been just awarded in the city of N. York the GREAT PRIZE of "the FIRST MEDAL for the BEST DAGUERREOTYPES," again calls attention to his later and still more valuable improvements. This last is thus noticed by the Evening Bulletin:

The True Light.

M. A. ROOT, the great Daguerreotypist of this city, has fitted up a room in the third story of his establishment, expressly to obtain the manifest advantage of the northern light. The light from that direction is necessarily sought by all painters, because of its firmness and uniformity, and Mr. Root, with consummate fact, resolved to avail himself of this aid, to correct shadows.

The Boston Atlas speaks of the portraits by the distinguished Daguerreotypist, M. A. Root, and was astonished to find that the art had been carried to such a high degree of perfection. Mr. Root, by some new chemical discoveries, has been enabled to transfer the human countenance to the Daguerreotype plate with an accuracy and fidelity altogether inconceivable. Even the joyous and laughing face of the infant is transferred in an instant to the enduring silver plate with astonishing accuracy, notwithstanding in infant life there is scarcely a second of time, during working hours, when the body is entirely at rest.

The North American and United States Gazette says of a Family Group of Mr. Root—"It was universally acknowledged worthy of being classed among the first triumphs of this heaven-born art."

The City Item says—"We are delighted as Philadelphians, to learn that Mr. Root took the medal and highest premium for his superb pictures both in New York and Boston, over all competition. This is indeed a great triumph! Root's pictures are as near perfection as it is possible to get. There is thought, delicacy, finish, and the highest degree of artistic excellence in them."

"The perfection of the art."—Boston Star.

"The best in every point of view."—Pennsylvania Inquirer.

"The best ever exhibited in this country."—N. York Sun.

THE LIVERPOOL CUSTOM HOUSE OFFICERS observed, when examining a package of Root's Daguerreotypes, "that they were the best specimens of the kind that had ever passed through their hands."

HIGH SHERIFF TATE of EDINBOROUGH, Scotland, a great amateur in works of art, says, in a letter to a friend in Philadelphia. "There is nothing like them here; they throw us completely in the shade—they are beautiful, and the likeness perfect."

A volume might be filled with similar notices. But families, relatives or friends, who wish to secure faithful and beautiful portraits, as keepsakes and memorials, or simply as gems of an exquisite art, always interesting, are invited, strangers as well as citizens, to examine the superb collection of specimens in the popular Free Admission Daguerreotype Rooms of M. A. ROOT,
