

BY JOHN B. BRATTON.

"OUR COUNTRY-MAY IT ALWAYS BE RIGHT-BUT RIGHT OR WROND; OUR COUNTRY." CARLISLE, PA., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1847.

NO: 29.

to not the paper currency, a ching in or heavy loans tent, to be found below. The revenues of the nation are now collected and disbursed in gold and silver, not without producing the least embarrassment to ne approximate control control of the mast unprecedented magni-tade have occurred, including banks and bankers, he commercial community, which was so common occurrence when the public money was deposited the banks and made the busis of an increased cir-ulating paper currency. The amount received in m the 1st January 1847, to the 1st Decemer 1817, being a period of cleven months, is $48,-667,886 18-and the uniount of disbursements in specie during the same period is $48,226,516 31howing an aggregate of receipts and disbursements in specie during that period of $96,894,402 49 ..-These are great results under the new system.

The amount of foreign coin or bullion coined this The amount of foreign coin or bullion coined this year at our mints, estimating December this same as November, would be $23,844,001 92, slowing that the amount received this year under the happy work-ings of the Constitutional Treasury, is about one sixth of the aggregate coined in the filly-five years from the first coinage in 1793 to the colose of the results in disturbances of the country. If we may show the first be and the aggregate and the coinage under the best show to the coinage the best show to the coinage the best show the best show to the coinage the best show the best s ound and stable, an vet our banks and credit are the business of the country is still prosperous progressive. Nothing is more injurious to all classes, hut espe Nothing is more injurious to all classes, nut espec-ially to our manufacturers, than the expansions, con-tractions and fluctuations of the bank paper system, vibrating with every considerable change of the pub-lic moneys held by them as depositories. This per-ilous and seductive bank system opens temporarily and beyond the wants of the country, a market here for foreign imports, not in exchange for exports but for coeffic the redemution of which drains the country for foreign imports, not in exchange for credit, the redemption of which d of its specie, contracts the paper currency, forces a sacified the sale of domestic fabrics, and depress

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

The English journals are continually scolding at our country upon this subject, as if all our govern-ments, State and Federal, had abjured their debts, and resolved to pay nothing. We might say that

From Neal's Gazett THE BRIDE OF THE GRAVE BT INA.

One of the brightest of the gldflons golden days o his fading autumn I spent at Mount Adburn. It vas a Sabbath, and there, on the green turf, and un-

Oh, never tell me of the majesty, the solemnity, of a Sabbath in temples reared, and set spart, and con sebrated by men. No minister; old; and 'dim; and 'vast—no modern church, with its cosily adornments; its religious music, could ever seem so truly a conse-crated temple owned and accepted by the Eternal as that green, arched home of the dead, where goes up, in grateful increase, the perfuined breath of the flowors—where float, and echo, and linger tile soing of the birds—where, and sanctified; and bissed.— Not all the princely grandeur of these churches of Hot all the princely grandeur of these churches of Oh, never tell me of the majesty, the source of a Sabbath in temples reared, and set apart, and con-secrated by men. No minister; old; and dina and vast---no modern church, with its couly adorments;

the Rothschild of Paris and the French government. Having thus by their operations nearly reduced Eng-land to beggary, we are told that they are now hatching a new scheme or rather a repetition of the one first enacted. The currency in England being very much con-tracted for want of the process of the first enacted set of the state of the set of the currency diminishing for first that England will take them from us, prices of all kinds consequently shrinks Such being the case, the Rothschilds will cuter the Such being the case, the Rothschilds will cuter the such being the case, the Rothschilds will cuter the set of t

Adventures a Leg. Adventures a claim her pledged hand, and there, under the eines, I renewed that promise. May came tound, and with it came a lotter from Ellen, reminding nie that the wedding was to be on the last day of June, which was likewise her births' day, and desiring me to spend with her the preceding month. How gladly I looked forward to our meet-ing—how gladly let the noise and dust of the city for the freshness of her village home, in green, rural him—looked up into the prolid; matily face, bending so tenderly over her—with a holy; heavonly beauty fri her blue ayes, a long, loving, lingering look, and —and—oh; my God; I can no more.

I know not how it happened, but we all stood id, the midst of a group in the room below; Edward still, holding fast in his arms the lifeless form of his desit, dond Ellen; ad Elleh: I cannot write of the voiceless, tearless agony c

Adventures of a Leg.

A soldier, who served under Napoleon, at the bai-lib of Waterloo, and who was so severely wounded in that engagement that he was compelled to have one.

The Frenchman and the Skunk

The Frencliman and the Skunke-Wo caunot refrain, says the Knickerbocker, from recording an incident, which we recently heard do's picted by a friend, a French gentleman, whose uffice, tentatious but princely hospitality adds (what one i could hardly decur possible) oven a new charm and grace to the lovely banks of the Saint Lawrence along the most delightful reach of that respirated i stream.

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

We do not pretend to any that the ministers of

REFUTNATION:
farmers and intrichants/ward will briefly. discuss the intra-ment which our country upon thus subject, as if all our govern-ment which once repudiated two thirds of its national this was not vory modest in the organs of a govern-ment which once repudiated two thirds of its national dollar of dolt, and gainst State governments, and a Federal government which has never repudiated dollar of dolt, and gainst State governments, only two of which have repudiated two thirds of its national dollar of dolt, and gainst State governments, only two of which have repudiated the dolts, simple has expressed its determination to pay, aven inscripte. And while these British journals scold so invest his partial, and diction to pay, aven the state of Edinkurg, the capital of the state of a state of information and actions are information and actions are interfaced very great the spring of Edinkurg, the capital of one of the "three by British mation, and systematically slandered all and the very noist of that band of Tory is and bias theore of the tore of the theore of the tores of the Rotheshids or and the rore of the state the first of Edinkurg, the capital of the dolts of Pould England in the holds the state of Edinkurg, the capital of the dolts of a point England from a state is and the very noist of that band of Tory is all bitches, repudiated its whole deb the formation and action or a state and fall, and famine increase of things, or any other individual continues and fall, and famine increase of the Rotheshids or the Barba of a state. The receives the the scribber who long manificature public opinion for the british nation, and systematically slandered all and famine increase of the state. The receives the the state interest. This recking hot bed of whole wholesale; magnificent repudiation, and swindled at the torigons and Blackwood Magazines, mada a grand which helped us to shutter Gorthes and and a swindled whothere for a long of the port period, however profitable